

Great Northern Railway.

Table with Eastern Minnesota routes: Dally Ex. Sun., P. M., Dally Ex. Sun., P. M., Le. St. Paul, Minn., Elk River, Princeton, Milaca, Ar. Duluth, Ar. St. Paul.

Princeton Accommodation.

Table with Princeton Accommodation routes: Tues., Thurs. & Sat., Mon., Wed. & Fri., Le. Milaca, Le. St. Paul, Le. Princeton, Le. Milaca, Ar. St. Paul, Ar. Duluth.

St. Cloud & Hinckley Division of the G. N. Railway.

Table with St. Cloud & Hinckley Division routes: GOING EAST, GOING WEST, Foreston, Le. St. Paul, Milaca, Foreston, Le. St. Paul.

Attention, G. A. R.

Regular meetings of the Wallace T. Rines Post, No. 142, G. A. R. will be held on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month in their hall over Casey's warerooms, Princeton, Minn.

FRATERNAL LODGE, No. 92, A. F. & A. M.

Regular communications, second Wednesday of each month.

PRINCETON LODGE, NO. 93, K. of P.

Regular meetings every Monday evening at 8 P. M. C. A. JACK, C. E. J. W. HARTMAN, K. R. S.

Market quotations: Wheat—No. 1 hard, 76c; No. 1 Northern, 73c. Rye, 48c. Corn, 35c. Oats, 26c. Barley, 40c. Flax, 42c. Buckwheat, 40c. The UNION, until Jan. 16th, $1.50.

Get the UNION Almanac. The Princeton UNION Almanac is a dandy.

200 cords mixed wood wanted, at C. H. Rines'. Job printing at St. Paul prices at the UNION office.

Apples in the barrel at the Bakery, from $3.10 and up.

The UNION Almanac is a condensed encyclopedia of 300 pages.

Sam Lowenstein made his regular trip to Princeton yesterday.

Virginia's cigars are the best in the city without a doubt. Try them.

If you want fresh ground, extra quality of feed, go to Estes' Feed Mill.

Get ready for the mask ball Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22nd, 1892.

Get your reserved seats for the great play "Only a Country Girl," at Jesmer's.

Attorney How, of St. Paul, was here Tuesday on business before the probate court.

The editor was obliged to leave for Chicago, Monday afternoon and has not returned yet.

George Roos will deliver washing ice every Saturday at 50 cents per load. Leave orders at Bakery.

A No. 1 feed constantly on hand, at Estes' Feed Mill. Lowest prices for cash. Free delivery in city.

Mr. Roscoe G. Millett, of Hamilton, Minn., was here on a visit to his uncle, Mr. Hiram Millett, this week.

Dr. Tarbox informs us of the arrival of a young parson at the Rev. W. H. Skemp's on Monday evening.

Bart Haley is home on a visit to his mother, in Baldwin, from Missoula, Montana, where he is employed on irrigation works.

Roos Bros have had the interior of their place of business nicely papered and painted. It is the handsomest sample room in town.

Frank W. Hawkins, of Isle Harbor, made proof on his claim, Tuesday. Clarence A. Vinton and Samuel Mattson, were his witnesses.

The time for club rates has expired, but if you want the UNION for the year 1892, also the splendid Almanac, call around and see us before Feb. 1st.

Chas. Cater, of Herman, was here the first of the week, on business and renewing old acquaintances, of which there are plenty, who are always glad to welcome him.

C. M. Truesdell, dentist, writes us from Osceola Mills, Wis., that he is laid up with the "la grippe," and is obliged to postpone his visit to Princeton until some later date.

I shall start up my feed mill Monday, Jan. 25th. Will grind grists and sell feed by the ton, or car load. Cash paid for corn and oats.

H. C. HEAD.

Body maple and oak wood wanted. Must be sawed full four feet long and sound. Will haul it myself if within six miles of the village.

C. H. RINES.

Do you know that "Country Girl"? If you don't be sure to get acquainted. She will be at Jesmer's Hall Thursday evening, Jan. 28th, and she will be glad to see you.

If you want to spend the most pleasant evening of your lives don't fail to see the beautiful play "Only a Country Girl," at Jesmer's Hall, Thursday evening, Jan. 28th.

James Guild, of Santiago, died Monday, after a short illness, of inflammation of the bowels. Deceased was an old and respected resident of Santiago, and well known in Princeton and vicinity.

All lovers of high class amusement will be at Jesmer's Hall on Thursday evening, Jan. 28th, to see the superb drama, "Only a Country Girl." You can get your seat reserved now at Jesmer's.

Will Mahoney was thrown from a load of logs, last Thursday, at Rollins' camp, fracturing one bone of his left arm. Drs. Gile and Cooney set the limb and Will is doing well at this writing.

Patrick Phalen and James C. Kennedy, of Vineland, proved up on their claims before Clerk of Court Briggs, Saturday. William J. Sullivan and Joseph R. Jewell were down as their witnesses.

Anyone who wishes "Caesar's Column," Ignatius Donnelly's famous book, in lieu of the UNION Almanac, can get it at this office by paying for the UNION one year in advance. Our club rates hold good until the 16th inst.

Benjamin Carter, of Isle Harbor, called at the UNION office, Monday. Ben had no news to impart save that Inspector Barton was making a pretty thorough investigation of improvements made upon the settlers' claims in that vicinity.

After hovering between 15 and 20 below, for the last fifteen days, mercury reached the lowest point of the winter, Tuesday morning, at 44 below. If "Boreas" continues to send his northern blasts, Minnesota may yet redeem her reputation.

Mr. Charles Marshall and Miss Grace McKenzie, both of Spencer Brook, were married at Cambridge, on the 13th inst., Elder Martin tied the conjugal knot. May a shadow never cloud the path of the happy young couple is the wish of the UNION.

Dr. Gile is very sick with the "La Grippe." He was taken sick Friday, and continually grew sick worse until last night when his life was despaired of, but he is somewhat better to-day. With the dropsy and "la grippe" the doctor has had a hard time of it. But we hope to see him around again soon.

Mrs. L. H. Pratt, from far away Florida, tells of her oyster-fishing in St. Andrew's Bay. It makes the editor's mouth water to read about the delicious bivalves that can be had for the gathering. Just at present, when the mercury is seeking its hole, Mrs. Pratt's old friends and neighbors in Minnesota envy her lot.

While at work at Adam's camp, on Groundhouse, Monday, Willis Morehouse had a rib fractured near the backbone, by a flying skid hitting him on the side. Willis was brought home, Tuesday, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Cooney, who says that it will be some time before he will be able to be around again.

We are glad to inform our readers that Mr. E. B. Kelly and wife have returned to Princeton, and will remain the rest of the winter. In connection with the Crescent Theatre Company, they will produce some of the best manuscript plays that were ever written. "Only a Country Girl," to be played next Thursday evening, promises to be a great success.

The following residents of Baldwin and Blue Hill will be required to answer to their names and do duty at the ensuing term of the district court for Sherburne county, to be held at Elk River, commencing on Monday, the 28th day of March: B. F. Whitney, Baldwin, John Kallier and E. D. Wheeler, Blue Hill, as grand jurors, and Ed. Pierson and B. B. Cornell, of Baldwin, as petit jurors.

The other day, Hon. F. Campbell, of the Chippewa Indian Commission, informed a Minneapolis Journal reporter that 450 of the Mille Lacs Indians had already been moved to White Earth, and that the remainder of the band would surely be moved in the spring. If there are 450 of the redskins gone the settlers at Mille Lacs don't know it. But the Indians will all go eventually, of that there is not the least doubt, and the commissioners will leave nothing undone that would tend to hasten their exit.

HAY WANTED.

I will pay the highest market price for loose upland and tame hay. Apply at pressing barn, south of Estes' mill, or at North Star Hotel.

AUGUST JOHNSON, Princeton, Minn.

M. MARIUS.

If You Want A good building, lot in the best residence portion of the village cheap for cash or negotiable paper inquire at the UNION office.

WILDCAT.

MILLE LACS LAKE RIPPLES.

ROBBINS, Jan. 18, 1892. Mr. J. R. Jewell has gone to Princeton, on business.

Our dusky neighbors are moving back here now the hunting is over.

Misses Nora and Lula Barrett are expected home from Owatonna this week.

Je-can has killed another moose, making six now he has killed. Where is our game warden?

Extremely cold weather here the past week, it moderated a trifle and about to inches of snow fell Saturday, enough now for splendid sleighing.

Jack McQueen is bound to have some business started here at the lake. He couldn't get a saw mill, so has started a shingle mill, and is doing a rushing business.

The "Great Father" sent a warrant in here, Jan. 8th, in the hands of that grim officer, "La Grippe," and arrested To-com-ge-sic, and took him to the happy hunting ground. One good Indian sure.

Earl Tucker has purchased the building known as the Missionary school house, and intends fitting it into a nice dwelling house and dancing hall. Shouldn't think he need look so down hearted any longer.

Michael Lionhardt, a fellow working for Manly Clark, while chopping in the woods was struck by a falling limb breaking his right shoulder and fracturing his skull. Mr. Clark took him to Princeton for treatment. His recovery is doubtful.

WYANETTE CLEANINGS.

WYANETTE, Jan. 18, 1892. There are some cases of La Grippe around but not severe at all.

Mrs. Robert O'Brien and Mrs. George Farwell are on the sick list this week.

Sabbath school is held only on meeting Sundays now on account of the cold weather.

We were glad to see Miss Nora Scanlan come out with a new rig, hope she will have good luck with this one.

Every one is glad to hear an encouraging word about the flouring mill in Princeton. Six miles is nearer than fourteen.

There is a good deal of growling about the severe cold but any one that is stirring about all the time don't mind it so much as they who keep close to a fire.

Mr. Harry Packard started for St. Paul last Saturday, intending to work, but came back to-night. The shoe making business is not very brisk at present.

We all went to meeting at Spencer Brook, last Sunday, cold as it was, but we got left and had to return as wicked as we went, for the minister did not put in an appearance.

Every one around here were surprised to hear of the marriage of Miss Grace McKenzie and Mr. Charles Marshall. Well they have our best wishes, we hope they will have a long life of happiness.

A Jew peddler came through district 46 stopping at Mr. Giles just at noon. In front of the school house the boys boarded his rig and he was a glad fellow to get away without any trouble, the boys are mischievous, that was all, they didn't mean any harm.

M. S. Rutherford is home from North Dakota.

Joseph Ritchel, of Jordan, this State, was here the first of the week looking up land which he owns in Greenbush.

A glance at the birth and death record for the town and village of Princeton shows 31 births and 25 deaths during the year 1891. Seven of the deaths being infants less than three months old.

MILACA ZEPHYRS.

MILACA, Jan. 19, 1892. E. S. Clinch made a visit to Minneapolis last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bouck, of Royalton, are visiting relatives in town.

A little baby of Jno. Shillington's died Sunday evening and was buried at the cemetery this morning. Rev. Warren officiating.

Last Saturday a lever, used to cant logs with in the mill, broke, causing a log to be hurled through the mill. Luckily no one was injured.

Geo. Robinson goes to West Superior in the employ of the Electric Power and Lighting Co., and not to St. Paul as mentioned last week.

Several people in town have been seriously sick with la grippe the past week, and a little girl of F. Miller's is seriously ill with pneumonia.

E. J. Chesley's house had a narrow escape from being burned up last Friday morning. As it was the kitchen was badly scorched. A defective chimney was the cause.

A. W. C. T. U. was organized here week before last, and escaped our notice last week. It starts out with a good membership and the best wishes of the community.

A basket social was given at the church last Friday evening. By the way all ate of the fineries provided by the ladies, we should judge that they all had a good time.

Strayed or Stolen.

A fat red colored five year old cow, and a yearling brindle and white colored steer, strayed from our premises in November. A liberal reward will be paid for information leading to recovery of animals.

BARRETT & CAMPBELL, Milaca, Minn.

SPENCER BROOK ITEMS.

SPENCER BROOK, Jan. 19, 1892. This morning was the coldest of the winter, 39 deg. below zero.

W. A. Smith will exchange flour for corn and oats at the market price.

Two of the McKinney boys followed a timber wolf all day Monday but did not succeed in getting his scalp.

O. P. Brothers, who was accidentally killed in the mill at Milaca, was taken to Bradford for burial, where he has a sister residing, Mrs. C. Johnson.

J. Wilson Barton, who has for the past six years devoted his time to cattle and hog raising, has purchased a flock of sheep and will hereafter raise the class that will give the best returns for the money invested.

The firm of Johnson & Larson, mill men, have dissolved and Mr. Larson will continue the business. He has hopes that in the near future he will be able to manufacture as good flour as can be made at other mills.

Mrs. Eugene Clough was at Princeton last week, and Dr. Lynch extracted eighteen teeth for her at one sitting. It is a tough job for the writer to have one out, and would rather commit suicide than to start in for eighteen.

Charles Marshall and Miss Grace McKenzie were married, last Wednesday, at Cambridge, by Alexander Martin. Mr. Marshall is the owner of one of the best farms in Spencer Brook—with industry economy and a good wife there is nothing but success in sight.

The Standard Mutual Aid Association, of St. Paul, has collapsed and surrendered their license. They ask their patrons to reinsure in the Fidelity Mutual, of San Francisco, Cal. It is about time for soliciting agents to visit all the lumbering camps in the Northwest.

Men working in the woods can't afford to ensure themselves, for every ten dollars that a camp crew receive in benefit, they pay one hundred in premiums and not half of the beneficiaries that are entitled ever get one cent.

William King, of Wyanette, is in the stock business to stay. He is raising the Aberdeen-Angus breed of cattle, and in a few years will have a herd of thorough bred. His herd is nearly all black, the scrub stock being weeded out as fast as possible. It has been demonstrated beyond a doubt that there is no better cattle for beef, and they are good milkers.

Samuel Brayton, of Livonia, has an Aberdeen-Angus bull imported from Scotland, and in a few years this country will be dotted with black Aberdeens.

Clark's Jewelry Store.

I have a good stock, of most everything, in the jewelry line, and I am selling goods right down to bedrock prices. My motto is, small profit and quick sales. Watch repairing a specialty. Customers courteously treated and strict attention paid to their orders.

F. P. CLARK, Main Street, Princeton, Minn. Rines' Block.

Merchant Tailor Shop.

JOHN JOHNSON, Prop., Main Street, Over Rines' Store, Princeton, Minn.

A NICE LINE OF DOMESTIC AND IMPORTED GOODS. CUSTOMERS CAN ALSO ORDER BY SAMPLES.

Perfect Fits and First Class Workmanship Guaranteed.

I have just received a new line of Samples for the Fall and Winter Season.

WM. NEELY'S Harness Shop

IS THE PLACE TO BUY Single and Double Harness SADDLES, WHIPS, Robes, Blankets, Etc.

Repairing Neatly and Promptly Executed.

I. H. ESTES LUMBER CO.

Planing Feed Mill

We will have on hand when the building season commences 3,000,000 ft. of all grades of LUMBER!

From $7 Per M. Up. Also a Full Stock of GRADED SHINGLES, BASS WOOD AND PINE LATH, FLOORING, SIDING, CEILING, MOULDINGS, CASINGS AND FINISHING LUMBER.

Flooring, Ceiling and Siding Dressed to Order Logs Sawed for Farmers at Long's Siding.

Feed Mill.

A 1 Feed, Freshly Ground, Constantly on hand, by Sack or Car Load, at Lowest Market Prices. Lumbermen's Orders Especially Solicited. Grists ground at usual rates on short notice.

Cash Paid for Corn and Oats AT THE MILL, NEAR DEPOT. Princeton, Minn.

R. D. BYERS

(Successor to S. M. Byers) DEALER IN Dry Goods, Groceries, BOOTS AND SHOES, Hats, Caps, Notions, Etc.

I am still Selling Goods, at the Old Stand, at BOTTOM PRICES. R. D. BYERS, Main Street, Princeton.

Bakery & Restaurant,

(Next Door to Bank.) Main St., Princeton, Minn.

FIRST-CLASS BREAD, CONFECTIONERY AND NICE FRESH PIES, CANDIES, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

Choice Brands of Cigars. Meals Served at all Hours Day or Night. FRED KIESSLING.

School District Notice.

Whereas, a petition duly signed and the signatures thereto duly acknowledged, has been duly presented to the board of county commissioners of Mille Lacs county, Minnesota, at a session of said board held on the 5th day of January, A. D. 1892, asking for the formation of a new school district to be composed of the following described territory, to-wit: All of Townships forty-two (42) and forty-three (43) north, of Range twenty-seven (27) west of the 4th principal meridian.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, That a hearing of parties interested in the matter of said petition will be granted at the next session of said board, commencing on the 16th day of February, A. D. 1892, at the office of the county auditor, in the village of Princeton, in said county.

By order of the board of county commissioners. B. M. VAN ALSTEN, Clerk of Board.

HE MISSED HIS OPPORTUNITY! DON'T MISS YOURS!

Do you know what a grand start in life. The golden opportunity for all is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of either sex. All ages. You can do the work and live at home, wherever you are. Even beggars are easily earning from $5 to $10 per day. You can give spare time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. We start you. All is comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how. Be sure. Failure unknown among our workers. No room to explain here. Write and learn all free. Return mail. Address at once, H. H. HALL & CO., BOX 376, PORTLAND, ME.