FRED THE BAKER.

Memorial Day, May 30th, will be properly observed in Princeton this year. A speaker from abroad will be present. Programme in full next week.

On the 11th inst., Wm. Schilling, jr., and Miss Amanda P. Schilling were united in marriage at the residence of Walter P. Dibblee, by Rev. J. S. Bouck.

Have you planted a few extra acres of potatoes? If you have not done so already, do it at once. There is yet time. Potatoes will be a paying crop this year.

Col. Sam Lowenstein is in town this week selling cigars galore. Mr. Lowenstein says his trade is constantly increasing in Princeton and surrounding towns.

E. A. Briggs' two months old baby boy died Monday and was buried Tuesday. The little fellow had been ailing with an affection of the stomach ever since his birth.

The spring term of the village schools closed last Friday, and teachers and pupils will have a long vacation until the fall term commences—about the first of September.

The presiding elder, Rev. W. A. Shannon, will preach in the M. E. church on Saturday evening, May 21st, and Sunday morning, May 22nd. The pastor will preach in the evening.

Potatoes—Wanted—I will pay 18cts per bushel, cash, for good Burbanks, and 15cts for Early Rose. Want them right away. I want good potatoes.

C. H. RINES.

Mr. Joseph Craig arrived in town, Monday, and together with Mr. Matthews will personally superintend the building of their mill. Work will be rushed right along until the mill is completed.

The portly and good-natured landlord of the Commercial Hotel has had a batch of note heads struck off adorned with an engraving of himself, which is an exact counterpart of the would-be president, Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Blanchard, of New York, formerly of St. Paul, and well known as a musical instrument agent in this vicinity, is here on a visit to Mr. N. A. Ross' family. We are pleased to know that Mr. Blanchard is doing well in New York.

Al. Porter, George Loek, Robert Kennedy and H. M. Bennett, represented the Mille Lacs lake region in town, Monday. The boys did not appear to be much "worked up" over that much talked of recent decision of Secretary Noble.

One of my customers in speaking of Pioneer Syrup of Sarsaparilla with Iodide of Potassium, says, "It did me more good than anything I have ever taken, helping my rheumatism as well as purifying the blood and relieving me of skin disease." Try it.

C. A. JACK.

Miss Bessie Fisher, of Minneapolis, will receive pupils in music, painting, pastel and sepia, at the home of Mrs. Smith Soule. Pupils from the country invited to call. Those wishing to study art please call on Saturday afternoon or Monday forenoon in order to discuss materials.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goss came up from Anoka, Saturday afternoon, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Soule over Sunday. Mr. Goss came up to attend the land sale with the intention of investing in a few sections of pine, but the sale was declared off by the State auditor.

Rum river continues to boom and the loggers are happy. Charley Martin's drive cleared Princeton to-day. The lake logs are coming right along, but the "blowing" of several dams is causing some trouble. For the first time in years it looks as if there would be a clean drive on Rum river this spring; not a log will be left.

After July 1st next a new mail route will be established between Princeton, Wyanette and Dalbo. There will be two mails a week each way. The distance between Dalbo and Princeton is 14 1/2 miles. Dalbo is now being supplied from Cambridge. The change will be made at the request of Dalbo and Wyanette people.

Rev. Thos. McClary, of Minneapolis, lectured on the subject of "Mirth," to a large audience in the M. E. church, Tuesday evening. It was a well-delivered lecture, and evoked much applause. Mr. McClary has been here four times, and his popular style on the lecture platform is clearly evident from the increased attendance.

Rev. M. H. Tarbox and wife, of Elk River, were in town last Thursday bidding adieu to relatives and friends before departing for their old home in Maine. Owing to poor health Mr. Tarbox has been advised to try a change of climate, but many of his friends predict that he will be back in Minnesota before a year rolls around.

Again, we repeat, plant a few acres of potatoes. This will be a good potato year in this section of Minnesota. Potatoes will do well on light soil. Even at 18cts per bushel potatoes is the most profitable crop that can be raised. But the probabilities are that they will be worth double that amount next fall. There will be no potatoes to amount to anything raised in the central States this year. Too much moisture down there.

Tommy Virginia employs three hands besides himself in his cigar factory, and his wares are meeting with a ready sale. Tommy deserves a good patronage and every storekeeper in town should keep his brand of cigars in stock. The way to build up home industries is to patronize them. It is good policy at all times to help home institutions. A cigar factory that would employ ten or fifteen hands would be a good thing for Princeton. Mr. Virginia will keep pace with the requirements of his trade, and we hope to see him employ ten instead of three hands before many months.

The public schools closed Friday after an almost continued session of nine months with only a week's vacation at Christmas time. One advantage is thus gained—the closing of schools before the commencement of the hot weather; another, the holding up of the daily attendance, toward the close of the year. In a general way, material advancement has been noted. Prof. Raftery labored hard and conscientiously to promote the interests of the high school. The other members of the corps had a large attendance, and gave general satisfaction. Miss McDiarmid and Miss Wyman left for their homes in Wisconsin, Friday. Prof. Raftery left for his home in New York, Monday.

No dearth of rain this spring. In fact there is too much rain to suit the clay land farmers. Small grain is all in, but too much moisture has retarded the planting of corn and potatoes. On the whole it is a very backward spring.

Railroad tickets will be sold at the depots in Princeton, Foreston and Milaca, on June 4, 5, 6 and 7th good until June 25th, one fare for the round trip, to Minneapolis, to parties who may wish to attend the Republican National convention in that city commencing June 7th. No stop-over privileges allowed, and no extension of limit will be allowed—i. e. tickets will not be good after June 25th. Tickets to Helena, Mont., and return will be sold on June 7th to 14th, inclusive, for $40 for round trip. Transit limits of 10 days each way, with stop-over privileges within that time.

On Thursday afternoon, a couple of soiled doves from Anoka came into town in a canvass covered wagon drawn by a pair of onery looking horses driven by a male biped; a savage looking bulldog was attached to the rear of the wagon. The trio pitched their tent in the woods east of town; but were ordered to move on by Marshal Orr. They moved to the north side of the village, and on Friday they were arrested and brought before Judge Dickey who fined them each $10 and costs, or $16 each. The fines were paid and the "soiled doves" and their male escort were ordered to leave town. The last seen of them they were headed towards Milaca.

The annual convention of the eleven district of the W. C. T. U. comprising the counties of Stearns, Benton, Todd, Morrison and Mille Lacs counties, was held at St. Cloud last Tuesday and Wednesday. Mille Lacs county was represented by Mrs. Effie Burgan, Mrs. A. Z. Norton, Mrs. Emma Wheeler, Mrs. L. S. Bouck, Mrs. Susie Mitchell, Miss Pinkham and Miss Whitl. Mrs. Burgan and Mrs. Bouck figured quite prominently in the proceedings. The Journal-Press says: "An original poem was read by Mrs. Burgan which greatly delighted all who heard it, and it with several of the papers was ordered to be sent to the White Ribboner." The next annual convention will be held in Princeton.

The item relative to the summer training school in the last issue of the UNION in which Superintendent Whitney, of Sherburne county, was referred to, was based on information obtained direct from teachers with whom Mr. Whitney had conversed on the subject. Personally we have not the pleasure of Mr. Whitney's acquaintance, and certainly we have no desire to place him in a false position. Mrs. O. R. Barker we do know to be a high-minded conscientious lady, and one of the most efficient superintendents in the State. Mr. Whitney writes us that he will do everything in his power to make the summer training school a success, and he is using the columns of the Star-News and Clear Lake Times for that purpose.

The Late Carl Henschel.

The death of Carl Henschel, an old and respected resident of Princeton township, which occurred on the morning of the 6th inst., escaped the attention of the reporter until now. Mr. Henschel had been ailing for a couple of months with a dropsical affection, and his death was not unexpected. The remains were interred in the Steves burying ground on the 7th inst. Deceased was a native of Germany and was born Nov. 17th, 1828. He came to this country in 1856 and located on a homestead in the eastern portion of Princeton township where he resided until the date of his death. His widow and seven grown up children survive him. Mr. Henschel was a prosperous farmer, a devout christian and a man who was held in high esteem by his neighbors and friends.

A well known Minneapolis lady, who formerly resided in Princeton and Anoka, during a recent visit here remarked to a lady friend: "I never lived in a place outside of Minneapolis that I liked better than Princeton; it is one of the prettiest small towns in the State and its people are the most sociable and unaffected I ever met. Anoka is a nice place, too, but the people are too 'churchy.' When a stranger arrives in town the first question asked is 'what church does she belong to?' If a Methodist, the Methodists call on her and the sisters of the other churches give her a wide berth; if a Congregationalist, the members of that church take her under their wing and the others give her the go-by. In Princeton they never ask what church you affiliate with and don't seem to care whether you are a member of any church at all or not. Yes, I like Princeton and its hospitable people."

FAIR ASSOCIATION.

Articles of Incorporation Drawn Up and an Organization Effected.

The First Fair Will Be Held Next September and It Will Be a Hummer.

Steps Taken to Insure a Successful Fourth of July Celebration in Princeton.

Princeton will have a fair this year and it will be a successful one. There will be no "ifs" or "buts" about it. A large and enthusiastic meeting of representative citizens of Princeton and vicinity was held in Judge Keith's office yesterday morning, articles of incorporation were drawn up, read and approved of, and an organization was effected. The name of Princeton Fair Association was adopted. The first board of directors are R. F. McClellan, J. T. D. Sadley, Geo. Newbert, L. S. Libby and R. C. Dunn. McClellan is president, Sadley vice president, and Newbert secretary and treasurer. The annual election of officers will be held on the last Saturday in May. The first board holds office until the last Saturday of May in 1893. The capital stock was fixed at $10,000, and the highest amount of indebtedness cannot exceed $5,000. Shares will be issued in denominations of $10 each. Stock to the amount of $1,500 has already been placed, and it is expected that twice that amount will be taken within a few days. Now, let every citizen of Princeton work in unison with the officers to make Princeton's first fair a success. There is no reason why Princeton cannot have a first-class fair. We have a good and extensive agricultural country to back us. Our farmers are thrifty and progressive. Liberal premiums will be offered and paid for live stock, farm products and ladies' handiwork. The fair will be open to competitors from Isanti and Sherburne counties as well as Mille Lacs.

At the meeting it was also decided to hold a Fourth of July celebration on the fair grounds this year. The names of the members of the celebration committee will be announced in due season. One thing our readers can rest assured of it will be no one-horse celebration.

Quite a number of people from abroad were at the county auditor's office, Monday, to bid on State lands. But there was no sale. State Auditor Bierman discovered at the last moment that he could not sell pine lands—the pine will be estimated and the stumpage sold. There were parties down from the town of Borgholm who stood ready to buy all of section 16, 36-26, but that section had been appraised before the pine had been cut. Now it is denuded of its valuable pine timber and the appraisement stands the same. People are put to a great deal of inconvenience to say the least under the present Demo-Alliance administration of affairs in the State Auditor's office. Capt. Braden never made any such blunders.

A rather amusing feature of the $85 package business, which was so successfully operated in this county, is the yarns that were told to farmers in order to induce them to purchase. There was a great association of farmers formed in the United States to control prices; they proposed to get half a million members, 50,000 having already joined. You pay three dollars to become a member and can then buy dry goods packages at the ridiculously low figure of $85, send your butter and eggs to Chicago and buy buggies and farm machinery cheaper than machine agents can purchase them. The agents only took gilt-edged paper from 80 acre farms and over, with no encumbrance. A large amount of those who invested are well able to stand the racket and if it teaches some of them to patronize their home merchants more and lightning rod and cloth peddlers less, the lesson will not be thrown away.—Waverly Tribune.

More Lightning Rod Men.

BUFFALO, Minn., May 13.—[Special.] Two more farmers, F. Kopperman and Erick Olemberg, were in town yesterday evening trying to get even with the lightning rod men, whom they claim, hold their notes in a large sum. They talk very poor English, but it seems that the rod men got their signatures to the notes all right, and now when it is too late they come to get satisfaction. Reports are coming in also in regard to the men who were selling the $85 packages. Some parties claim that when they measured the goods that came in pieces to them, they found that there was not over two-thirds as much goods as they purchased. Here is an example of the way they did with some of the farmers: "They told the farmer he could send the cloth he purchased to their tailors in Chicago and that they would make the suit for $6, but when the suit came back it was sent C. O. D. $16. Six dollars for making and $10 for cutting, so read the bill."

WASHBURN TAKES A HAND.

The Never Ending Mille Lacs Imbroglio Interests Senator Washburn—He Talks for the Settlers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14.—[Special.]—Senator Washburn called on Commissioner Carter to-day to ascertain how the white settlers on the Mille Lacs lands could best be protected in their rights. The senator presented a letter from Postmaster Hule setting forth the injustice of ousting those who had taken homesteads on the reservation. Commissioner Carter will submit the facts in the case to Senator Washburn in a day or two, with some recommendations.

Secretary Noble on Jan. 9th, 1891, rendered a decision to the effect that the vacant Mille Lacs lands were subject to settlement, but on Sept. 3rd following he decided that they must be disposed of in the same manner as other Indian lands. They should be examined for timber and an appraisement of the timber land made. The land found to be fit for agriculture should be opened to settlers by proclamation. Prior to the date of the second decision several hundred citizens settled on the lands, many of them making extensive improvements. With the decision of Sept. 3rd, 1891, was an order that all entries should be cancelled. The settlers appealed to the secretary for reconsideration, and on April 22, 1892, he reiterated his second decision. The settlers are not likely to be ousted, but they are agitated over the injustice which has been done and demand relief. Commissioner Carter thinks that an act of congress is required granting the settlers the lands they occupy or restoring them their homestead right and paying they for their losses.

Democratic Conventions.

The National Convention will meet in Chicago, June 21st. At this time it will be interesting to recall its predecessors and the nominees, from 1860 down:

1860—Met April 23, at Charleston. Balloting began May 1. A portion of the delegates withdrew, and on May 3rd the convention adjourned to meet at Baltimore, June 18. June 23rd a large number of delegates withdrew and nominated Breckenridge and Lane. The regular convention nominated Douglas and Fitzpatrick. Defeated.

1864—Sept. 1, at Chicago. McClellan and Edmonston. Defeated.

1868—July 9, at New York. Seymour and Blair. Defeated.

1872—May 4, at Cincinnati. Greeley and Brown. Defeated.

1876—June 28, at St. Louis. Tilden and Hendricks. Defeated.

1880—June 24, at Cincinnati. Hancock and English. Defeated.

1884—July 11, at Chicago. Cleveland and Hendricks. Elected.

1888—June 6, at St. Louis. Cleveland and Thurman. Defeated.

1892—June 21, at Chicago—the nominees you can bet on to suit yourself, only remembering that if you live anywhere north, west or southwest of Chicago, the Burlington lines can take you there best and quickest. For rates, tickets, etc., call on any Burlington ticket agent, or address W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, St. Paul, Minn.

Fred the Baker is now comfortably located in the old post office building, corner of First and Main sts. He has a neatly fitted up bakery and restaurant and always keeps a supply of fresh bread, cookies, cakes and pies on hand; at his place you can also find fresh vegetables and berries.
