For long life buy the McCormick, as it is fitted with removable bushing. An outlay of 40cts. will make the McCormick mower No. 4 as good as new. WALKER BROS., Spencer Brook.

Mrs. Dr. Tarbox and daughter left here Monday evening for a two months visit to Mrs. Tarbox's old home in Maine. The UNION wishes them a pleasant visit and safe return to Princeton.

The display of fireworks at the Fair Grounds on the evening of the Fourth will be a grand one. Three hundred and fifty dollars worth of powder will be consumed. C. T. Johnson will have charge of the display.

The town board of review was in session, Monday. Assessor McClellan had performed his work so well that the board had virtually nothing to do. The assessor's figures were allowed to stand just as he returned them.

Those parties who bid in the booth and amusement privileges at the Fair grounds on the Fourth, must call and settle with George Newbert and get receipts from him prior to the Fourth. Nothing but currency of the realm goes.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Patterson and children returned from their Pennsylvania trip last Saturday evening. Ike says crops are further advanced here than in Illinois or Indiana, and that the entire country down there is a sea of water.

The particulars of the marriage of Mr. Warren Vose and Miss May Shaw of this place, at Brooklyn Centre, last Sunday, are given elsewhere. The young people have the best wishes of an army of friends for their future welfare. Success to them.

A special train will run from Anoka to Princeton on the Fourth, leaving the former place at 7 A. M. The train will also run to Milaca, and will leave there about 9 A. M. The buyer of a McCormick knows that his crop will be saved. There is a reliability about the McCormick that is worth money to its owner. The machine of steel will not fail you in the midst of your harvest.

WALKER BROS., Spencer Brook.

Mr. Frank Hense and wife arrived in town Monday from Centralia, Wash., and will remain some time. Mr. Hense says crops are looking better in this vicinity than anywhere between here and Centralia. He expressed himself as greatly pleased to see so many new buildings going up in Princeton.

John Johnson, the merchant tailor, has removed from Rines' building to the old post office stand on Main street. He has received a full line of the best English and American goods and is prepared to fill orders promptly. He can turn out a nice-fitting suit of clothes 25 per cent, cheaper than the city tailors.

Lawyer Ross: Log liens are the bane of my existence. I have been obliged to make a dozen trips to Minneapolis recently in the interest of needy clients who have labored in the woods and on the drives and are unable to collect their pay. But I have a cinch on the lumber nabobs and my clients will finally get what is justly due them or I will know the reason why.

Mayor Richardson, of Little Falls, was in town, Tuesday, on matters connected with lands that formerly belonged to an old Indian named Shabosh-king at Mille Lacs. Mr. Richardson, acting as attorney for the Indian heirs, has sold the land to a Swedish mission society. "Uncle Nate" paid the editor of the UNION some handsome compliments at the court house which the latter appreciates.

Bill Burke was down' from Bock last Saturday. His hand is improving slowly. It will be remembered that Mr. Burke lost three fingers off his left hand at the saw mill there on the 10th inst. He was running a trimmer saw; a Scandinavian who could not speak or understand English accidentally jostled against him and caused his hand to come in contact with the saw. Although badly crippled Bill has not lost his sand.

The UNION believes in the rigid enforcement of the cattle restraining ordinance in the village. Cattle and horses should not be permitted to run at large within the village limits, or anywhere else for that matter. They are a nuisance. But at the same time, when a farmer's horse or cow accidentally strays into the village limits a little discretion should be used. There is such a thing as a too strict enforcement of village ordinances.

Mr. L. P. Hunt, secretary of the World's Fair Minnesota commission, was in town last Friday, and we are sorry to say met with little or no encouragement from our business men. Mille Lacs is about the only county in the State that has refused to contribute its quota. We are ashamed of our county. This county's share is only $188. The UNION will contribute one tenth of the amount. Surely there are nine others who will do the same. Let us hear from you, gentlemen.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

After looking over, testing and examining all the various refrigerators manufactured, we have decided that the "Michigan" is by far the best and are making it one of our leaders for this season. It is a purely dry air refrigerator, is well made of hardwood lumber and handsomely trimmed. I can guarantee it the best preserver of provisions in the market. We carry a line of them in our store and should be very glad to show them to you if you will call upon us. Yours respectfully, T. H. CALEY.

The grounds will be free to everybody. Tickets will be sold for the races and base ball game (only 25cts) to adults. Children free. This is the only charge that will be made, and anyone who cannot afford to pay 25cts to witness the races and base ball game will not be called upon to do so. There will be an expense of over $500, and the fair managers do not wish to incur an indebtedness at the start. Tickets will be sold on the grounds, and, as before remarked, anyone who does not feel able to take a ticket need not. But 25cts is a small amount, and few, indeed, will refuse to pay it.

The Church Dedication.

The new Epworth Methodist Episcopal church, four miles northeast of Princeton, was dedicated June 19th, 1892. The beautiful rays of the shining sun, the many happy faces, the large attendance from far and near, and the good will of the kind people all attributed towards making it a grand success. Chas. Lindeke, one of the first settlers of that neighborhood, and one of the first members of the congregation, to whom much credit is due, came from St. Paul to attend the exercises, and also showed his liberality in donating towards our little chapel. Four wagon loads of solid Methodists, who are loyal to their church came from Clearwater (40 miles per team). As the afternoon services were in English many of our friends from the city of Princeton attended. Many thanks to the kind people of that thriving city, for their kindness in giving towards our church. Cost of church $1,150, of which there was a debt of $175. This was raised on this occasion. Our church is free of debt. GEO. R. FRITZE, Pastor, Clearwater, Minn.

PAINTS! PAINTS!

The Painting season is at hand, and every one has a House, Barn, Floor, Buggy, or some article of Household Furniture that either requires a Coat of Paint, or else would be Beautified by it.

The use of Paint is Economy in the Truest Sense of the Word. Now, Painting, like any other Business Proposition, resolves itself, in a great measure, into a question of dollars and cents.

Ready-Mixed Paints are yearly gaining in favor, excepting in places where inferior and worthless articles have been sold and used, but it should be borne in mind that these goods are not all alike, for good Mixed Paints are made. Special Machinery, Pure Ingredients, and many years Experience will produce a better Paint than can be made hand-mixed by any one.

We justly claim to Sell a Grade of Ready-Mixed Paints, of a very High Standard. Combining the Purest of Materials by the use of the Latest Improved Machinery, and Skilled Workmen, we offer to the Public an article that cannot but prove absolutely satisfactory to the Consumer in Point of Durability and Fine Finish. It requires no skill to apply them, merely ordinary care and intelligence.

The first coat of paint is a minor-consideration; a cheap mixture will not possess more than about two-thirds the covering qualities of a good one, and the fact of its being Adulterated to that degree is Conclusive Proof that it cannot withstand the action of the Elements upon it. Do not be misled by offers made you of a Paint at a Price which is often as Low as a Manufacturer can afford to sell a Reliable article at wholesale. Competition is now so keen in every branch of business, that excessive profits are no longer possible, therefore bear in mind that the merchant selling at a seemingly low figure, is undoubtedly making as much profit as the one handling a Good Paint, and that the Difference in Price is Represented in the Difference in Quality.

FORESTON BREEZES.

FORESTON, JUNE 28, 1892. Preparations are being made for a big time here the Fourth.

Dr. C. G. Winfield, optician, was in town a few days last week.

P. A. Robideau and Chas. Malone boarded the train for St. Cloud last night.

Geo. H. Deans spent the latter part of last week in St. Paul and Minneapolis purchasing a stock of Fourth of July goods.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCool and Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Grow, of Greenbush, were visiting relatives in town over Sunday.

Prof. C. A. Carson, of Mammoth Hot Springs, Yellowstone Park, gave an interesting stereopticon entertainment to a small house at the M. E. church last evening.

Frank Bemis and family returned this morning from Dakota, where they went early this spring intending to remain. Frank says they did not feel at home there. Mille Lacs county suits them better.

Waldhoff Brothers have opened a new meat market on Main street, where the public can get fresh meats of all kinds and at all times. We hope it will be longer lived than its predecessor. A continual diet of salt meats is not very palatable.

A handsome, brand new phaeton arrived at the depot one day last week bearing E. N. Bacon's name on the tag. Last fall Mr. Bacon built a barn, now he has the buggy, the next thing in order will be a whip and a few bushels of oats, then in all probability he will get the horse in time to drive down to the Mille Lacs county fair this fall. Mr. Bacon thinks it a wise plan to let the other man feed the horse until he is ready for it.

Silver's Hopes.

The Brainerd Journal is amusing itself with the possible Republican candidates for the legislature from that city. He has seen the advantage of a full grown row in the Republican party of this district, and he doubtless hopes to again be the beneficiary of such conduct. And he may not be disappointed.
