

PRINCETON UNION.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

TERMS, $2.00 Per Year.

R. C. DUNN, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Office: First St., East of Court House.

PRINCETON, MINN., JUNE 7, 1894.

PRINCETON is proud of its public schools.

MILLE LACS county has doubled its population in the past two years and new comers are arriving daily.

TOM REED is a down-east Yankee imbued with western ideas. There is nothing the matter with Tom Reed.

THE tariff tinkers in congress are making the entire country exceedingly tired. The compromise measure will be a thing of patches and shreds.

AN Anoka friend sends us a postal card with the following couplet from Scott's "Lady of the Lake" inscribed thereon:

Who spills the foremost foe's life
His party conquers in the strife.

MONTEVIDEO Leader: Fairmont will celebrate the Fourth and Frank Day has been appointed as a committee on Cannon. Very appropriate. Frank is something of a gun himself, and generally loaded.

A FARMERS' institute is to be held in Brainerd on the 16th inst., and every farmer in Crow Wing county should attend it. Several institutes have been held in Princeton and they have proved of lasting benefit to the farmers of this vicinity.

THE treasonable utterances of the Rev. R. C. Cave at the unveiling and dedication of the monument to the private soldiers of the Confederacy at Richmond, Va., on the 30th ult., are universally condemned by the press of the country. The Rev. Cave is a windy but harmless lunatic.

ANOTHER law affecting corporations enacted at the last session of the legislature has been decided constitutional by the supreme court, and railroad passenger trains are now required to stop at county seats. Wonder if Representative Anderson remembers how he secured the vote necessary to secure its passage through the house?

MRS. L. W. COLLINS, wife of Judge Collins, died at her home in St. Cloud last Thursday. Mrs. Collins was an estimable lady and was beloved by the people of St. Cloud and her death has plunged the whole city in grief. The people of Princeton, to many of whom the deceased lady was known personally, sympathize with the judge and his family in the dire affliction that has befallen them.

THE three first counties in the State to elect delegates to the Republican State convention have declared in unmistakable terms in favor of the editor of the UNION for State Auditor. It takes more than one swallow to make a summer. But we would rather have the indorsement of the home counties—the counties where we are personally known to a majority of the voters—and be defeated, than be nominated and have them against us. To our loyal friends in Crow Wing, Anoka and Mille Lacs counties we return our most sincere thanks.

MINNEAPOLIS Penny Press: The story published by Ignatius Donnelly in the Representative and republished in last night's Penny Press that an ex-State auditor had obtained $250,000 for land originally owned by the State, should receive immediate official investigation. There are many things connected with the Mesaba land leases which would bear inquiry at the same time. A searchlight that will go to the bottom of things is wanted and would be of excellent service to the State—financially and otherwise. There has hitherto been too much secrecy in State boards and State officers.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From the Union's Special Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 4.—The publication of the interview with Ex-Speaker Reed in England, in which he takes decided grounds in favor of silver has been one of the most important events of the past ten days. Reed is not out for silver like the miners of the mountains, or the Populists who favor silver because they think it is a stepping stone to fiat money, but he believes in a great confederation of silver using countries, if Great Britain will not agree to international bimetalism.

Senator Washburn said the proposition suited him and he believed in it. It was time for this country to take steps to form a league with other nations and by tariff rates and currency laws go along independent of England and provide for the silver of this country. But silver cannot be restored under the Democratic policy of setting the tide of trade against us and draining the country of gold.

The prospects are that the next campaign will be fought on the lines of silver and protection. Many Republicans believe that it is a combination that cannot be defeated. One thing is certain, the Republicans of the senate will vote for more reasonable silver legislation than ever before, and the same is true of most of the Republicans of the house. Reed's interview means that he is going to make his presidential campaign upon the platform of restoring silver to its full money functions.

Those who know Cuth Davis in Minnesota would not suppose that he would be in favor of a secret investigation, such as is now going on about the sugar scandal. But Senator Davis is intensely scrupulous in anything regarding the senate and has the reputation of being very secretive.

The committee may not so report, but it will appear beyond question that the sugar trust dictated the sugar tariff of the present bill. But what of that; every trust got everything it wanted in the bill.

The logical candidate of the Democratic party for president is Mills. It is true that he was a confederate soldier, but that is better than a northern doughface. He represents the only tenable position of those who would destroy the tariff. If I were to be a Democrat I would be a Mills Democrat.

McCleary is keeping straight to the mark and making a good representative. His acquaintance in the house and with its business is fitting him for a successful member.

Boen has not been able to get himself before the public lately; the Populist lawyers only figure in the Coxy rescuers now.

For a man who does not care to come back to congress Fletcher is doing a fair share of hustling. And I am told that Kiefer may think better of it and make the race.

ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Wright County Pleased.
The people of Wright county, so far as we can learn, are well pleased with the action of the congressional committee in appointing Brainerd as the place for holding the next congressional convention. It is deemed wise to take it away from the scene of strife and from the influences which are apt to be at work in the city of Duluth. What we want is the man who is the choice of the people of the whole district and not a man to represent the interests of one particular corner of the district.—Delano Eagle.

C. H. Mero, general agent of the National Benevolent Association, was in town from Friday until Tuesday afternoon on business connected with the association. The association gives life insurance at actual cost. On Jan 1st, 1894, the insurance in force amounted to $15,913,250; there had been paid to policy holders $550,000; and there was a guarantee fund on hand of $150,000. This is a splendid showing for a company incorporated only seven years ago. Mr. Guy Ewing is the local agent of the association and is writing policies every day.

Remember the C. E. convention, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Republican County Convention.

Pursuant to notice the Republican county convention, to elect delegates to the State and congressional conventions, was held in the village hall Tuesday afternoon. Several of the towns were not represented, not from any lack of interest but because it was generally understood that the delegates to both conventions would be selected with the view of promoting the candidacy of the editor of this paper for State auditor, and there was no opposition whatever from any source. The convention was called to order by E. N. Bacon, of Foreston, chairman of the county committee. On motion, Mr. Bacon was elected temporary chairman, and L. S. Briggs secretary. The credentials were handed in, and the following gentlemen were declared entitled to seats in the convention.

Milo—H. R. Mallette, M. S. Cone and E. N. Bacon; Borgholm—G. J. Ross, E. L. Anderson and August Swanson; South Harbor—A. S. Anderson and E. W. Case; Milaca—L. Baxter, D. McCuaig; A. Townsend and C. M. Cosgrove; Princeton—J. T. D. Sadley, N. A. Ross, C. H. Rines; I. C. Patterson, H. Newbert, L. S. Briggs, T. H. Caley and R. C. Dunn.

Letters were received from Robbins and Isle Harbor to the effect that the voters of those towns, irrespective of party, were in favor of any delegates that Bob Dunn wanted.

The temporary organization was made permanent. On motion of Mr. Sadley, R. C. Dunn was unanimously elected to head the delegation to the State convention and was requested to select his associates, to be approved by the convention. The following delegates were chosen: R. C. Dunn, C. H. Rines, T. H. Caley, J. T. D. Sadley, E. N. Bacon, J. L. Brady and R. F. McClellan.

Delegates to congressional convention: L. S. Briggs, H. R. Mallette, A. Townsend, D. H. Robbins, Henry Newbert and R. C. Dunn.

We desire to thank the convention for its courtesy in permitting the writer to choose the delegates to the State convention. It was a compliment which is appreciated.

Hon. W. M. Campbell, chairman of the Chippewa Indian commission, accompanied by Indian inspector Col. Paul F. Faison, recently visited the Mille Lacs Indians, and gave them plainly to understand that they must remove to White Earth. The younger Indians appear to be willing to go, but the old men are loath to leave Mille Lacs lake. The white settlers are at Mille Lacs to stay. The Indians ceded their title to the land long ago. The government has made ample provision for the care and sustenance of these Indians at White Earth, and the sooner they go there the better it will be for themselves and all concerned. Mr. Campbell and his associates are doing everything possible to hasten the removal of the Indians, and the settlers should exercise considerable patience.

Farmers, remember that the Princeton fair this year will be held in September, and that big premiums will be offered for live stock and farmers' produce and that every premium offered will be promptly paid.
