

Paint and Wall Paper

Season is on.

REMEMBER that we are leaders in price, quality, and assortment of these goods. Call and see for yourself. It will please us very much to show our stock even if you do not see fit to buy.

C. A. JACK, THE Druggist.

Items

Of Interest from various sources.

George I. Staples is the only person who is authorized to collect money due this office. In every case the party paying money is entitled to and should insist upon receiving a printed receipt.

R. C. DENN, Publisher.

GIRL WANTED.—Inquire at the Princeton Laundry.

Don't miss the engagement of the Anoka band to-morrow evening.

Miss Moody returned Monday evening from a visit to Minneapolis friends.

Sam Fryhling is at home again after a long absence which he spent in Wisconsin.

A bright little Minnesota girl arrived at the home of Willis Jones last Friday morning.

Messrs. Guelow and Britton, of Vineland, were Princeton visitors the first of this week.

Dr. F. L. Small, resident dentist, removed to offices in Caley building, over Anderson's new store.

Arthur Laport returned to Princeton the first of the week from a winter spent in the northern pineries.

I now have an experienced embalmer in connection with my undertaking business.

E. A. ROSS.

Gold has been discovered seven miles above Milaca, but Editor Cravens professes to know nothing of this precious metal.

Seeding has been commenced in some localities this week. Sandy land is reported to be in excellent condition for this work.

Mrs. M. E. Jones will have an entire new stock of trimmed and ready-to-wear hats the last of next week. Ladies, call and examine.

Mrs. Forsberg, of Ogilvie, was brought to the Peterson hospital this week and later sent to the hospital for the insane at Fergus Falls.

The famous Crawford bicycle is for sale at B. D. Grant's hardware store. It is one of the best on earth and its price is within the reach of all.

Two choice bargains in residence property. Also some good improved farm property. Inquire of

M. L. CORMANY.

James McLean, of Milo, whose serious illness was noted some time ago, died on the 30th ult. His funeral occurred Tuesday of last week, Rev. Fr. Levings officiating.

Mr. Caley is repairing his shed, "the bone of contention," and has put up a deacon seat which he says may be occupied by anyone except the coyotes who are continually howling about it.

The Princeton Union is agitating the matter of farm telephones. That is an improvement which is coming and is coming soon. There has been some talk with reference to this matter in Northfield and vicinity.—Northfield News.

B. D. Grant has a splendid line of "Monogram" prepared paints, oils, varnishes, brushes, etc. While house cleaning is under way it is a good time to freshen the appearance of your home. A few dollars will make a great improvement.

Farmers

Call at the Feed Store and get a few bushels of that genuine Blue Stem wheat and the famous Silver Mine oats. We also have other good oats to offer you for seed.

PRINCETON ROLLER MILL CO.

Carrier McFarland thinks some of the roads which he is forced to travel with the mail of R. F. D. route No. 1 would be greatly improved if the towns through which they run would use a road grader. At present there is no chance for the water to run off, so the roads are wet and soft.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chadbourne arrived in Princeton Wednesday afternoon of last week, after an extended and enjoyable trip through California and other western States. Chad thoroughly enjoyed every moment of the time he has been absent and comes home well informed as to the conditions of the coast States.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him. WEST & THAL, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. WALKING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 50c. per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Poultry supplies at Walker's.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of St. Paul, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Olson.

Fresh milk cows and springers for sale for cash or on time at the Riverside barns.

R. M. Patchen has purchased the Mike Rice place near the railroad and taken possession.

The Soule planing mill started up this week and is rushing out an accumulation of orders.

Bicycle repairs, sundries, and all kinds of bicycle repairing at Grant's hardware store.

Emory Norton left yesterday to accept a position in Milaca, where he expects to remain this season.

Two new applications were received by Kedron Chapter, O. E. S., at its regular meeting Friday evening.

Fred Guelow, of Vineland, sold his farm to Mr. Britton Tuesday and will leave in a short time for Marshall.

After this Nelson's photo studio here is open the first and third Saturday of every month only. Please notice.

J. D. Wilkes, of Milaca, was in the village the first of the week and found time to make the acquaintance of the UNION force.

W. W. Roberts, who has been in the south for some time for C. H. Rines & Co., returned to Princeton last Monday evening.

Invitations will probably be mailed within the next week for the Spanish-American War Veterans' ball to be given April 29.

Mrs. George Cotton returned Saturday evening from a visit to relatives in Anoka and has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Small this week.

The recently discharged grand jury has been termed the "Carrie Nation" jury, and there appears to have been good grounds for naming it such.

Just arrived, the largest and most complete stock of caskets in plain and fancy colors ever brought to this village.

E. A. ROSS.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ross left Monday morning for California, where they will locate permanently. Their Princeton friends wish them the best of success in their new home.

Farmers, Take Notice.

We have just received a carload of Triumph potatoes which we will let out on shares.

C. H. RINES & CO.

Delia Jesmer, who has been ill with consumption for some time, is now at St. Mary's hospital, Minneapolis, where she is receiving the best of attention. She writes very hopefully to her Greenbush friends.

S. A. Carew is having the room to be occupied by F. P. Morneau's "Club" covered on the walls and ceiling with pressed steel and the whole room will be newly decorated. When completed it will be one of the prettiest rooms in town.

Dr. H. C. Cooney, assisted by Dr. Tarbox, performed an operation for appendicitis yesterday on the person of the fourteen year old son of Dan Findell. The operation was successful and the patient is resting easily. The abscess was uncommonly large.

Wallace T. Rines Post G. A. R. is planning to hold a campfire on the evening of May 4. A splendid program will be rendered by home talent, after which a lunch will be served. The entertainment will be free and all are cordially invited to participate.

Messrs. Thomas Magson and Thomas McLaughlin, of Anoka, were in the village last Friday and Saturday billing the town for the Anoka band concert which occurs to-morrow evening. Both are old members of the Anoka ball team and found many friends in the village.

The Easter entertainment given by the young people of the Methodist church last Sunday evening was a very enjoyable affair. The different numbers were all well taken, but those given by the Junior league were probably the most popular with the audience. The church was crowded to the doors, many being forced to stand.

The sale of the E. Mark Live Stock company was attended by a very large number of farmers and stock raisers, probably the largest attendance these sales have ever enjoyed. The bidding was lively at times and a large lot of horses, mules and cattle were disposed of. Mark says that the next sale on May 4 will be even larger than that of last Saturday.

Fresh milk delivery daily from Walker's.

A son was born to the wife of Magnus Sjoblom last Saturday.

Born, Saturday, April 6, to the wife of George Hadow, a son.

N. E. Jesmer went to the cities yesterday morning to remain until this evening.

E. Grant, the Baldwin deborner, left Monday for his regular spring trip to the south.

Miss Ida Nyquist has so far recovered from her recent illness as to be able to be out occasionally.

W. G. McVickar's collection of Belgian hares has recently been increased by twenty-four little fellows.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give an ice cream social at G. A. R. hall Friday evening April 12.

Ed E. Whitney has moved into his newly purchased house and A. C. Smith occupies the house vacated.

Harry English, who has been buying potatoes in the different markets this winter, has returned to the village.

Wanted.

Some Minnesota King seed corn at T. H. CALEY'S.

The annual spring cleaning up is on in earnest and clouds of smoke hover over the residence portion of the village.

A. C. Howard returned Monday morning from a winter's sojourn in the pines of Itasca county near the Canadian boundary.

The Anoka band appears at the opera house to-morrow evening in a very entertaining program. Prices 25 and 35 cents. See program elsewhere in this issue.

Don't forget the series of spiritual meetings conducted by G. W. Kates and wife which will commence Saturday evening, April 20, in the hall over the postoffice.

The Easter program rendered by the pupils of the Congregational Sunday school last Sunday evening was a very enjoyable affair. The children gave evidence of careful training.

The Princeton Laundry, which started operations Monday, is rushed with work and additional help is necessary. There ought to be a good business in the village for a first class laundry.

The annual statement of the financial condition of the county of Mille Lacs appears in another part of this issue. It will be interesting reading for the property owners and taxpayers of the county.

Mrs. A. A. Shute died at her home in Greenbush last Sunday morning. The funeral was held at the Greenbush Methodist church Monday, Rev. G. E. Satterlee officiating, and the interment was made in the Baldwin cemetery.

There will be no services at the Catholic church in this village the coming Sunday. It is the regular day for worship in Princeton, but Rev. Fr. Levings gave this congregation services on Easter and must go elsewhere this week.

Easter was appropriately celebrated in all the churches last Sunday. In the morning special services were held at the Catholic and German Lutheran and in the evening special programs were rendered at the Methodist and Congregational churches.

E. Mark has a carload of pure bred Durham bulls ranging in age from six months to a year and a half, which he will sell at reasonable prices for cash or on time. Here is an excellent opportunity to improve your stock. The bulls were all raised on Judge Searle's stock farm near St. Cloud.

G. W. Kates and wife will give a series of lectures on spiritualism commencing Saturday evening April 20 in the hall over the postoffice. It is possible that the hall will prove too small to accommodate the audience, in which event the place of future meeting will be announced at the first meeting.

About a dozen of the members of the local lodge of Oddfellows went to Milaca Tuesday evening to visit their brethren. Preparations were made for the celebration of the founding of the order in this village this month. Monticello, Milaca and other neighboring lodges will be invited to participate.

The effect of our "Carrie Nation" grand jury has reached Milaca. The mayor, who, by the way was a member of the aforesaid jury, issued a proclamation on his return home, to the effect that the liquor business of Milaca must in the future be conducted wholly in accordance with the law. No more late hours, no more Sunday booze.

Wikeen & English is a new firm and the place of business will be Zimmerman. The members of the firm are P. J. Wikeen and Harry English, of this village, and they will put a stock of general merchandise in the new store erected last season at Zimmerman. Their friends wish them a full measure of prosperity in their new undertaking.

Grow-Steeves.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Steeves last Tuesday afternoon occurred a very pleasant wedding, Miss Geheveria A. Steeves and Leavous N. Grow being the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends of the family by Rev. G. E. Satterlee. After the ceremony refreshments were served and a pleasant hour of social intercourse followed.

The young couple were attended by Miss Edna Steeves and Amos Howard. The bride was attired in a gown of gray silk-finished Venetian cloth with white and gold trimmings and the bridesmaid in lavender and white organdie with lavender trimming.

In the evening the ladies of the Maccabees, of which society the bride is a member, gave a reception for the happy couple at their hall in this village, which was largely attended and was a most enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Grow will engage in housekeeping in this village having secured rooms in the Mallette house. Both are popular young people and a host of friends wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

A Greenbush Wedding.

Last Monday morning at the Greenbush Catholic church, Rev. Fr. Levings pronounced the words which made William Paul and Annie Malotte man and wife. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. After the usual congratulations at the church the bridal party repaired to the residence of the groom's parents where a bountiful wedding dinner was served, and in the evening a reception was given them at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jesmer. A dance furnished entertainment for the young folks in the evening. The UNION joins with their host of friends in wishing them a long life of unalloyed happiness.

The following program will be rendered by the Anoka band at the opera house to-morrow evening:

PART I.

1. March—"Battleship Alabama" H. C. Miller
2. Overture—"Midland" O. E. Farrer
3. Andante and Waltz—"Minerva" H. C. Miller
4. March—"Rapid City" F. H. Losey
5. Song—"With You" Edythe M. Smith
6. Recitation—Selected Alfred Molander
7. March—"Philharmonic" Leon Ringuet
8. Medley Overture—"Yankee Hash" H. C. Miller
9. Overture—"Golden Crescent" E. Byer
10. March Two-step—"Ma Tiger Lily" G. Tynell

PART II.

- One Act Drama—"Littlest Girl" Richard Harding Davis
- Alfred Molander and David Lane
- Recitation—Selected Alfred Molander
- Mandolin solo, Piano accompaniment selected.
- L. Lukkason and Miss Maggie Hefty.
- The Musicians Circus (Comic) O. E. Farrer.

Ben Soule is adding a hallway to his residence, greatly adding to the convenience of the house.

Teacher Wanted.

School District No. 2 desires to engage a teacher holding a first grade certificate. CHARLES SLATER, R. F. D. No. 1, Princeton.

A. O. U. W. Members Attention.

There will be degree work at the hall over the postoffice next Monday evening. All members of the order are cordially invited to be present.

M. CUTLER, Rec.

Wanted

A competent girl for general housework. Apply to

MRS. CHAS. KEITH.

JESMERS

Department Store.

Here quality and price each Shine by the light of the other.

Spring Goods

In all our lines are ready for your inspection. Dainty wash goods, pretty dainties, laces, insertions—anything you need for warm weather dresses. The season's newest productions—we don't wait for people to call for novelties, we get them while they are novelties.

Clothing

for warm weather.

Your winter suit already feels uncomfortable and you will soon be obliged to get lighter clothing. Let us sell you one of our satisfaction-giving Serge Suits, a good variety, carefully tailored,

$7.⁵⁰ $10.⁰⁰ $12.⁰⁰

Furnishings

For Ladies and Gentlemen. Latest shades in Ties, Gloves, Hats, Hosiery, etc. You'll enjoy looking at them, even if you do not buy.

N. E. JESMER.

Buy Your Wall Paper

From the leaders in the Wall Paper trade in Mille Lacs County. Last year we sold out all our stock of WALL PAPER and now we start the season with our New Spring Stock. See samples in window. We make the lowest prices. Give us the size of your room and we will show you that we can supply good paper cheaper than anybody.

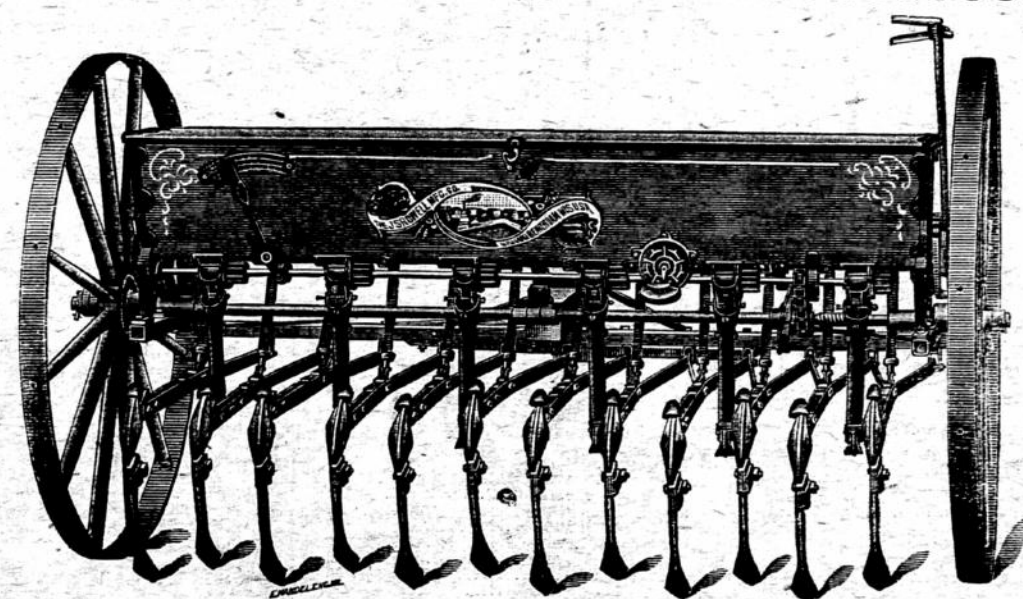

G. K. CARLSON, Manager.

PRINCETON DRUG CO. (The Corner Drug Store.)

EXPRESS MONEY ORDERS FOR SALE.

DR. ARMITAGE'S offices are over above store. Telephone 34.

Hours: 9 A. M. to 12:30 P. M. 2 P. M. to 6 P. M.

Disc Drills, Hoe Seeders, Press Shoe Drills.

All the Above are the famous Tiger Brands, and are now ready for your inspection.

Call in and look them over at Caley's Hardware Emporium.

T. H. CALEY.