

Scientific Cough Cure.

We do not believe that any cough cure can be better than our White Pine Expectorant. It does just what must be done to thoroughly cure a cough. It overcomes congestion and inflammation—it soothes and heals the delicate tissues of the air passages—it promotes expectoration—loosens the cough and finally cures it to stay cured. Relief is almost immediate. It is pleasant to take and economical to use. When you want the best possible cough cure ask for our

White Pine Expectorant.

Mr. Cundy will have charge of the mill and has decided to locate permanently in that country. When he returns he will take his family with him.

Last Friday night about twenty members of the order of the Eastern Star drove out to the home of J. T. D. Sadley and surprised Mrs. Frank Campbell, who is to leave in a short time with her daughter for Portland where Mr. Campbell is at present located. There was a jolly time and good cheer at the gathering and her friends made her a present of a dozen solid silver teaspoons and a souvenir spoon to remember the happy occasion by.

The delinquent tax list appears in this issue of the UNION. The list contains 935 descriptions of pieces or parcels of land on which taxes were delinquent the first day of January of the present year. The list contains about 200 descriptions less than last year. County Auditor Whitney wishes to inform all parties who are interested that when settling for delinquent taxes the sum of twenty-seven cents is charged for each and every description, and parties remitting for delinquent taxes must add this sum to every description.

The E. Mark Live Stock Co. received a car load of Iowa farm and draft horses the first of the week from John Cliff at Oskaloosa, Iowa. In the consignment there are some very fine horses, including a young 1750-pound English Shire stallion that shows some fine types of breeding.

Last Tuesday the Whittier school was so cold that the children were sent home until noon. The fire went out in the furnace during the night and the building could not be warmed up enough to keep the children comfortable. Tuesday night Prof. White had a night fireman who looked after the fires in both of the school buildings so that they were comfortable yesterday.

On account of the large number of people who came to have their pictures taken at Nelson's Photo Studio two weeks ago when it was open on Sunday Mr. Nelson has decided to keep his studio open here on next Sunday, Feb. 22nd also. So here is another chance for you who are too busy to go and sit for your pictures on a Saturday. Studio is also open on the first and third Saturday as usual.

The dance given to the young people at the Maccabee hall last Friday night was a very jolly affair. The event was under the auspices of several of the Maccabee ladies who saw that the young people had a good time. Neighbor's orchestra furnished the music. At midnight a lunch was served by the ladies, after which dancing was resumed and it was three o'clock when the old folks and the little ones found rest in bed.

Last Monday was Aaron Steeves' eighty-fifth birthday, and despite his age Mr. Steeves was able to celebrate his natal day in much better health than many persons a quarter of a century younger than he is. He has been through two pioneering periods, and helped to reduce the wilderness to a state of civilization, and he feels as though he was almost good enough for another one, but the pioneering days of the country are about over. Mr. Steeves' friends hope he may live several years yet and enjoy health.

Mr. Newbert retiring from the business, which will be conducted in the future by Mr. Jaax and the store will be known by its old name—the Farmers' Exchange. In the dissolution of the partnership Mr. Newbert secures sole possession of the Head property which the firm bought some time ago.

Agent Rice has really longed for the old red hot stove of the old depot during the past few days with a retreating thermometer. The steam plant in the new depot has been run to its maximum capacity and better and the warmest that it was possible to get the office was 60. In the warm room for the storage of perishable goods the temperature during the cold days was 12 below freezing, whereas the contract called for a temperature of 40 with the aid of the steam plant. The plant seems too small for the building. This is not the first heating plant that has been placed in Princeton that has not filled the bill.

The ladies of L. A. S. No. 1 gave a reception to Comrade T. H. Caley at G. A. R. hall last Thursday evening. They were assisted by the members of Wallace T. Rines post and the event was a very pleasant one, about 150 being present. Mr. Caley has been quite considerate of the comfort of the members of the L. A. S. and the post and has fitted up the rooms and made them as home-like as possible for meetings and gatherings. There was music and speeches and a regular old camp fire, after which the ladies served refreshments. Rev. Gratz, C. A. Dickey and Comrade Chase made speeches, while there were camp fire talks by members of the post. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Cooney and C. A. Dickey.

William Burke of Milaca was in Princeton last Saturday. Mr. Burke will leave in about two weeks for the Pacific coast and is thinking of locating in California for the future.

Saturday morning, Feb. 14, the angel of death visited the home of J. K. Nelson of Glendora, and carried away their third daughter, Temina. She was ill with diphtheria for over a week. Deceased was about seven years old. She was a bright, lovable, winning little maid, making friends with every one because of her loving nature. She will be sadly missed by her teacher and playmates and at home a vacant place is made by her death that can never be filled.

A party of Eastern Star ladies, members of Kedron chapter, went up to Mora last Tuesday night to assist in instituting a chapter of the O. E. S. at that place. Among those who were in the party were: Mesdames H. C. Cooney, F. L. Small, B. D. Grant, Wm. Corder, H. E. White, F. L. Ludden, L. C. Patterson, K. H. Burrell, J. F. Zimmerman, Guy Ewing. Dr. Cooney, Dr. Small, M. S. Tibbets and others accompanied them. They all returned on the morning train and report having had a fine time.

Last Saturday night the potato warehouse of Rines & Co. at Cambridge caught fire and was damaged considerably. The fire caught in the southeast corner of the building and was discovered by the night operator at the station. The fire department turned out and put out the fire, but not until the building was badly damaged. There were 15,000 bushels of potatoes in the warehouse at the time. Most of the stock was damaged by smoke and water. Mr. Ferrell went over to Cambridge yesterday to meet the insurance adjuster.

State Spiritualists.

The fourth annual mass meeting of the State Spiritualists association will be held in I. O. O. F. hall in St. Paul Friday and Saturday, February 27 and 28 and Sunday, March 1. Friday is progressive Society day, Saturday Band of Peace day, and Sunday Alliance and State day. Mrs. C. Tryon is on the program for a poem and an address.

A Valentine Social.

The Valentine social given by the Ladies' Aid of the Greenbush M. E. church was well attended in spite of the severe cold, over fifty people being present when the mail-box was opened. The ladies are working hard for the contemplated addition to the church of a kitchen and parlor for social purposes and expect to build this spring, having a good sum of money in the treasury. Wm. Orton has kindly donated lumber for the building.

Grant's First Speech.

When Grant returned from crushing the Confederacy, he was literally worshipped by the people of the north, as many a man now living can testify. On his first public appearance, he was cheered until the crowds could cheer no longer, but he wouldn't speak. Then a man called out: "Have Sherman speak for you!" Grant merely bowed and said: "I would never ask a subordinate to do what I won't do myself," then he sat down. The man of action is rarely a talker, but he will tell you that golden grain belt beer is a wonderful stimulus to the energies, because it puts the body in perfect condition. If you want to be strong and healthy, use it regularly. Order of your nearest dealer or be supplied by Henry Veidt, Princeton.
