

A Common Foe

No one can hope to escape coughs and colds. No one ever has escaped them. While you cannot avoid the affliction, you can escape the evil consequences and hasten a cure.

Jack's White Pine Expectorant

is a remedy that stimulates the secretions, equalizes the circulation, soothes and heals irritated surfaces and loosens the cough. No remedy can do more; no remedy need do more. Nature does the rest.

Price 25 and 50 Cents.

The high school football team is putting forth its best efforts and maturing arrangements to play a game weekly, if possible, but the boys would feel more highly satisfied were they afforded better encouragement in the shape of larger attendance.

O. C. Northrup of Kildare, N. D., was here on Friday and Saturday and expected to return with a carload of mares for breeding purposes. Mr. Northrup says he intends to raise horses on his range at Kildare and that there is money in the undertaking.

Chas. Solberg brought in from his farm at Greenbush on Saturday samples of Burbanks and Dakota reds raised by him and they surpass for size and solidity any potatoes we have seen this season. One of the Burbanks weighed two pounds and a Dakota red closely approached it. Mr. Solberg says that his Dakota reds will go 200 bushels to the acre and the Burbanks 195.

At the football game between the Princeton and Milaca high school teams on Saturday Lester Peterson sustained a dislocation of the left wrist. Dr. Armitage placed the bones in position. The accident did not result from rough-and-tumble play, as the game was conducted according to the amended rules. It was merely a slip of the wrist occasioned by Lester's stumbling and striking on the back of the hand.

Many people from this state, and some from this village, have taken up claims in North Dakota, but it is a well-known fact that but few of those who have gone to the alkali plains—of which North Dakota largely consists—have made a success of farming there. It seems that the greatest enemy in North Dakota is the alkali water, which impairs not alone the health of live stock but of human beings. A case at issue is that of Mr. Moey, who is now being treated for alkali poisoning by Dr. Cooney at the Northwestern hospital.

Cordiner and Magnus Sjoblom they proceeded to Page and on Sunday the sportsmen succeeded in killing 28 partridges. They say that partridges are as plentiful around Page as sparrows in Princeton.

Adon Whitney went hunting last evening and while prowling around on the lake shore his horse disappeared. Thinking that a band of gypsies had appropriated the broncho, Adon came to town and secured the services of Sheriff Shockley. The sheriff proceeded to the spot and with the aid of a bull's-eye lantern succeeded in tracking the horse. He found it about two rods away feeding in a corn field.

Mike Kalher tells a story in which his two sons, Albert and George, and Jim Dugan were the principals. Mike says that Jim and the two boys went out upon the lake in a rowboat, that Jim stood up in the boat, the boat turned over and the boys swam ashore. Jim, however, being unable to swim, was compelled to remain standing up to chin in water until the boys secured another boat and rescued him. The funniest part of the story is that a hawk passing over the lake was just about to alight on Jim's head when the boys arrived and beat it off with the paddles.

Lunch served at all hours of the day at Shepard's.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bach on Sunday, October 7.

The High School Literary society on Friday afternoon organized and elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Vernon Dickey, president; Gladys Neumann, vice president; Herbert Kalher, secretary; Samuel Shaw, treasurer. Friday, October 19, is the date upon which the next meeting of the society will be held.

J. C. Herdliska, the jeweler, is one of the best bird shots in this part of the country. On Wednesday, accompanied by his dog Towser, he went forth to secure a bunch of ducks. About half a mile from town he espied a flock of mallards and fired one shot into them. Six came down, dropped into the river, and Towser brought out every one. That was all Jay needed for immediate consumption so he let the rest fly away. Yes, Jay is a remarkable shot.

Expressman Smith's nag on Friday evening performed another of its acrobatic feats while awaiting the loading of the wagon attached to it. It made a leap into the air in an attempt to catch a sparrow which was passing within a few feet of it, and as a consequence Mr. Smith, who stood in the wagon, was precipitated over the back end and sustained a painful injury to his right shoulder. Luckily, however, the shoulder was not dislocated, but Mr. Smith was obliged to employ a substitute to perform his work. Wesley Page is driving the express wagon.

To Be Sold for Cash.

Pool and billiard table, stoves, pictures, show cases, counter, and many other miscellaneous articles will be sold for $250. These goods must be disposed of at once, as I have no room to store them and need the building which now contains them. Apply to Mrs. Martha Douglas, Princeton. 44-tf

Every Farmer Knows

THAT THE

are in a class by themselves as the best separators. But many have the mistaken idea, which competitors help to magnify, that they are "expensive" and that something "cheaper" will do in their stead.

The Facts Are That The

are not only the best but at the same time by far the cheapest—in proportion to the actual capacity and the actual life of the machine.

These are simple facts easily capable of proof to any buyer who will take the trouble to get at them and who need only apply to the nearest DE LAVAL agent or send for a catalogue to do so.

WATERTITE

Any handyman can make a Durable Watertite Roof with WATERTITE

Is your Chicken House leaky? Any handy man who can use a hammer can make a durable, water tight roof with WATERTITE. It is often used to cover the sides as well as the roof. Will last much longer than paint and is cheaper in the long run. It will save your fuel in winter and keep your chicken house comfortable in summer. Every roll of WATERTITE is self-sufficient. Everything needed to put it on the roof is placed inside. The nails are specially coated and will not rust, and the cement makes the joints proof against rain and wind. A tin roof needs a tinner, and when rust attacks it, it soon becomes a sieve. Good shingles are expensive and poor shingles are a folly. Watertite contains no coal tar, does not evaporate, neither does it crack from cold in winter nor melt from the heat in summer. Use Watertite Because 1. Can be put on by any handy man. 2. Costs less than shingles or tin. 3. Never runs or leaks. 4. Can be applied in one tenth the time it takes to put on shingles. 5. Cannot melt and run (like pitch) in hot weather. 6. Cannot freeze and crack (like coal tar) in winter. 7. Water from a Watertite roof is wholesome and clean. 8. Watertite is wind tight, and will make your house, barn or chicken shed warm in winter and comfortable in summer. Buy Watertite now and after ten or twelve years of honest wear you will ask for it again. It stands the test of time.
