STUDIES SWEDES OF AMERICA

Minister Herman L. F. Lagerkrantz on an Extensive Tour of the Northwest Part of the United States.

SWEDEN.

Stockholm.

Herman L. F. Lagerkrantz, Swedish minister to the United States, is at present on an extensive tour in the northwest. He is now on the Iron Range north of Duluth and has visited Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago county, his main object being to study the Swedes of America at close range. This is the first time that any Swedish minister to the United States has made a trip of this kind. Minister Lagerkrantz has everywhere been enthusiastically received and expresses himself as being more than satisfied at the prosperous condition of his countrymen on this side of the Atlantic.

Prince Wilhelm, who not long ago paid a visit to the Russian court in matrimonial interests, is now very much in the public eye, springing into prominence because of his engagement to a Russian princess. Why a Swedish prince should choose a bride in Russia, which for centuries has been the traditional enemy of Sweden, is a matter which is open for much speculation. The conservative element of Sweden are not very favorable in their comments and the young prince and his parents have been the object of much criticism for encouraging this union.

Among the many Swedish colonies in foreign cities who observed King Oscar's and Queen Sofia's wedding anniversary was the Swedish colony of Wiesbaden, Germany, who gave a banquet at the Biebrich palace, which had been opened to them for the occasion. A picture was taken of those present and sent to the king and queen.

Gustaf of Geijerstam, the well known Swedish author, is spending the summer among the mountains of Norway, on account of poor health. Mr. Geijerstam has been in ill health for some time, in fact ever since he returned from Russia, and has not been able to do any literary work during the past few months.

King Oscar is now in Marstrand, the famous Swedish watering place, where he has been spending a portion of every summer during the past thirty years. The king loves Marstrand and although he has many beautiful resorts to choose from, he invariably prefers to stay at Marstrand.

The richest man in Stockholm at present is the Swedish Jew, Isaac Hirsch. He pays an annual tax of 800,000 crowns. The richest men of Stockholm are the Swedish Jews, the Davids, Lejas and Hirsch's and others, who have amassed vast fortunes in the Swedish capital.

Gustave Thalberg, the Swedish impresario, has returned from New York and London, where he has made arrangements for the tour of the Norwegian theatrical company from the National theater in Christiania, which will give a series of Ibsen performances in America.

Prince Wilhelm will this week start for America with the armored cruiser Fylgia. In connection with the prince's American trip it is mentioned that his affianced, the Duchess Maria Pawlowna of Russia, will receive a dowry of 2,000,000 rubles.

Professor Oscar Montellus, who has been prominent as an archaeologist, has been offered a flattering position as director of a museum in Berlin, but has declined. He is a very patriotic man and prefers to serve his own country.

The Swedish postoffice department is in a thriving condition. The surplus of the postoffice department for the last year, amounting to $622,385.58, has just been turned into the national treasury. This is a fine showing.

"King Oscar's and Queen Sofia's Golden Wedding Memorial Institute," is the name of a new home for the poor, which has just recently been established in Malmo. The city council of Malmo has voted $27,000 to this benefit.

Pellerin & Co., of Gothenburg, donated 5,000 francs to King Oscar's and Queen Sofia's fund for social development. Pellerin & Co. is a French firm, which has been conducting a branch office in Gothenburg for many years.

The editor of the Servitoren, who was arrested on a charge of libel, has been given his freedom. He had many friends, who interfered in his behalf, and the authorities yielded.

The general strike of waiters in all the hotels and restaurants of Stockholm is the cause of a serious embarrassment. It is feared that the strike will spread throughout Sweden.

Peculiar though it may seem, the empress of Japan is going to be an aggressive competitor for the literary Nobel prize, which is to be awarded Dec. 10, 1907.

During the early part of next month a Swedish squadron will visit England and it will be reviewed by King Edward at Cowes.

A number of Swedish professors, authors and journalists are attending the sessions of the peace conference at The Hague.

Prince Bernadotte and family are spending the warm season on the Malmo estate, which he purchased some time ago.

Recent dispatches state that King Edward of England will pay a visit to King Oscar at Marstrand next month.

The national government is to contribute $81,000 to the construction of a dry dock in Malmo.

NORWAY.

Christiana.

After a strenuous debate, expending over eight meetings, the storting has adopted a report in the matter of regulation of Mjosen lake, which is favorable to the cabinet. The vote was 63 to 60. This was the last chance during the present session of the storting to overthrow the Michelsen cabinet. According to a special dispatch to the Daily News (Chicago) of June 28, companies seeking a franchise to use the waters of Mjosen lake sought rights from the government involving several hundred crowns.

Miss Gurid Laate, a poor Norwegian girl who is working her way through the University of Minnesota, is probably the only college girl in the country who can make her own clothes from spinning of the thread and weaving of the cloth to the forming of the fabric into fashionable design. Spinning and weaving she learned in her native country, the art of the modiste was acquired since her arrival in the United States.

Edward Grieg, the famous composer, celebrated his 64th birthday June 15. Mr. Grieg is in excellent health and is now engaged in composition again, after completing a most successful concert trip abroad. Grieg's compositions have been especially well received in Germany, where perhaps no other living composer is accorded so much recognition as Mr. Grieg.

The Dovre Singing society of Minneapolis gave a concert in Christiania June 21, which was attended by more than 2,000 people. Miss Loe was the soloist. The Dovre society has been enthusiastically received wherever they have been and have been singing to full houses since their arrival.

There are hundreds of Norwegian-Americans in Norway this summer and every steamer from New York and other points brings new arrivals. Many have come to see the "old folks" and many have come to bring their friends and relatives with them to America.

The Christiania students gave a concert in the Trondhjem cathedral the other evening. The famous edifice was almost full of people. The acoustics in the cathedral is said to be the most remarkable in Europe.

Fourteen German scientists have leased the good ship "Erik Jarl" for an expedition to Spitzbergen. They will leave Christiania for Arctic waters during the latter part of this month.

The Norwegian minister, Hags, in Copenhagen will also act as Norwegian minister in Brussels. This was determined at the last session of the storting.

Fifteen strikes in Skien took a very quiet leave for America the other day. They, however, did not neglect in bringing the funds of the union with them.

"The Merry Widow," which had such an unprecedented run in Stockholm last year, has now been billed for Bergen National theater.

Five English cruisers, the largest vessel representing a tonnage of 150,000 tons, arrived at Bergen June 21 and lay anchored there a week.

All those who contemplated studying dentistry in Norway must hereafter take the full university course.

There were last year not less than 1,489 patients at the Bergen hospital. This is the largest number on record. A postoffice has been opened in Bell Sound, Spitzbergen. The postmaster is Consul John Glaever.

Alexander Kjelland's bust was unveiled June 26. Bjornson delivered the dedicating address.

DENMARK.

Copenhagen.

A week ago last Wednesday evening a dinner was given at the royal palace in honor of Prince Adelbert of Germany at Fredensborg palace. The entire Danish family was present. King Frederick delivered an address of welcome to the young prince, expressing the hope that he would feel at home in Denmark. Prince Adelbert has been made a Knight of the Elephant order and rumor has it that he is to be engaged to Princess Thyra, King Frederick's third daughter. Present at this dinner also was the German emperor and empress and this is the first time that the empress had ever been in Copenhagen.

The Danes are elated over the possibility of their country being united to Germany through a royal marriage. The papers of Copenhagen have published many editorials which evince that little Denmark feels elated at the prospects of Princess Thyra's marriage to Prince Adelbert.

Copenhagen is full of tourists, principally Germans and Englishmen. There are also a number of Americans here, but they are not so many as last year.

King Grederick will pay a visit to Stockholm in September. He will be accompanied by one of his daughters.

Prince Wilhelm of Sweden spent a fortnight in Copenhagen last month. MARION S. NORELIUS.
