Miss Grace Orr drove to Princeton Saturday evening, returning Sunday.
Miss Vinnie Mickelson left for Minneapolis Thursday morning to work in a wholesale millinery house.
Miss Ethel Carter came up from Anoka Thursday and is visiting with friends and relatives here.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give an ice cream social at the home of Mrs. Mickelson on Friday evening, August 2, and a good time is guaranteed all who attend. A short musical program will be given, and everybody is cordially invited to come.
The Elk Lake park is certainly increasing in popularity, and it is not to be wondered at with such a genial proprietor as Mr. Pratt. The farmers' picnic on Friday was a very pleasant affair. It was an ideal day for a picnic, and a large number were present. After the speech, which was good, the time was spent in visiting and boating. The Union's correspondent wishes to thank Mr. Coates for a very pleasant ride in his launch. On Sunday a large number of our people attended services conducted by Rev. Swertfager of Princeton in the pavilion. The choir from Zimmerman was present and sang two selections. We sincerely hope these meetings will continue in the future as they serve to combine pleasure with profit.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by C. A. Jack, druggist. 50c.

SPENCER BROOK.

Chas. Barty, who has been unwell for the past three months, is convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. Hills of Braham are here for a few days stopping with Mrs. Hills' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Swanbro.
The crop report this week is not so favorable as it was. Dry weather, potato bugs, cool nights and hot days are having a tendency to reduce the yield. Oats will be about two-thirds of a crop.
Miss Anna Whiting, who has been living on a claim in the wilds of Montana, came from there the first of the week and she is frequently heard singing "Home, sweet home, there's no place like home."
The Modern Woodmen of Spencer Brook surprised John Chapman one evening last week by calling at his residence and presenting him with a nice ring. Hilford Berglund made the presentation speech and Mr. Chapman responded in a few well chosen remarks.

Endorsed By The Country.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for lung and throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by C. A. Jack's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mrs. Peter Brochman is entertaining Mrs. S. Damel for a few days. The ladies are passing the time in picking raspberries.

A crew of eighteen Indians are at work making hay for S. E. Tilley. It is quite a sight to see so many swinging the scythe.

A party of berry pickers were looking for raspberries last Sunday but failed to find any although berries are plentiful in Greenbush this year.

The farmers of Greenbush held their meeting last Saturday evening and three new members were installed. E. C. Stark was elected secretary, John Grow having resigned.

State News.

During the month of June the total number of accidents in the various industries of Minnesota was 115, of which the sawmill and lumber industry furnished 27.

Herman Bracht, swimming instructor at the public baths in St. Paul, swam from Fort Snelling to Harriet island, a distance of seven miles, in an hour and three-quarters without stopping for rest on the way.

Thomas B. Clement, former president of the First National Bank of Faribault, has entered the state penitentiary to commence serving his sentence of eight years for misuse of funds. Mr. Clement is 76 years of age.

Chief Flatmouth, hereditary chief of the Pillager band of the Chippewa tribe, and probably the last of the famous chieftains in the northwest, died last week at the old agency on Leech lake, near Walker, aged 77 years.

During last week the state free employment bureau at St. Paul secured employment for 275 men and 50 women. Most of the men went to the harvest fields. The majority of the women were sent to the restaurants. The majority of the men sent out to the harvest fields were sent to points within a radius of fifty miles of St. Paul. In many cases farmers came in and got the men, offering them as much as $2 per day. There were others who sought employment beside harvest hands. Among the numbers looking for work were machinists, cigarmakers, molders and workmen in nearly every trade. In every case applicants were placed.

The following should be a lesson to those who ostensibly hire out to work and when they arrive at the place where their employer needs them, and to where he has paid their fare, refuse to carry out their contract: Fergus Falls, Minn., July 26.—Sheriff Irwin of Wadena was here yesterday in custody of Fred Ketter, Edward Anderson, David Hill and Jacob Lueola, who had been committed to the county jail under the statute relating to contract labor. The four men were hired in Duluth by Jacob Kohler and Mr. Kohler paid their fare to Wadena, the men agreeing to work it out. On their arrival they showed no disposition to go to work, and Mr. Kohler swore out a warrant charging them with defrauding him to the extent of the fare paid. The men were given a ten days' sentence in the county jail.

The Epworth league gave a reception last evening at the home of Mrs. E. B. Anderson in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kopp. Tables were set for sixty and the refreshments were frappe and wafers. After the tables were cleared a musical program was presented.

Rev. George Swertfager delivered a very able address in the pavilion at Elk Lake park on Sunday to a large and appreciative audience. The reverend gentleman is a minister of the broad-minded type—just the sort of a man that takes well in these days of enlightenment. He talks plain common sense and knows how to hold an audience.

Dr. W. J. Marcle of Rutland, Mass., a relative of Attorney McMillan, arrived here on Monday and left on Tuesday for Walker, Minn., at which place he will be the chief physician in the state sanitarium for consumptives, a position to which he has recently been appointed. Dr. Marcle is a specialist in tuberculosis, having devoted the greater part of his life to the study of the disease. The state of Minnesota has therefore secured the services of a valuable man.

The Honorable Michael Mahoney, K. G., visited friends in St. Cloud from July 25 to 29 and incidentally viewed the circus elephants. He also attended the funeral of John Flannigan, an intimate acquaintance and a pioneer settler of St. George, while away. "Mr. Flannigan," says Mike, "was the soul of honor—one of the best men that ever walked the face of the earth. John Flannigan was not only my friend, but the friend of humanity in general. He was a man who will be missed and mourned."

S. S. Buckingham and family of Minneapolis came up for a visit to Emil Lundgren and other friends in Wyandot on Saturday and returned Monday. Mr. Buckingham has not been in this part of the country for three years and was surprised to see the great improvements which have been made, especially in farm buildings. "Where small farm houses existed three years ago," says Mr. Buckingham, "I now find large ones, and where small acreages were then cultivated I also find large ones. This is a great agricultural country, and should I ever decide to re-engage in farming pursuits I shall certainly return to this part of the state."
