The Farm Fireside.

Gleanings by Our Country Correspondents

BOGUS BROOK.

The farmers are digging spuds. The wedding bells will soon be ringing. Fred Kuhrke is working for John Gates this week. G. Hoeft's house is completed and is right in style. Most of the threshing is done in this neighborhood. Charley Steeves called on Miss Ella Dalchow Monday evening. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. F. Klaustermere, on Thursday, a son. Miss Hattie Jopp is working for Mrs. J. A. Wetter this fall. Herman Nagle is home from the west, where he was working. Miss Lena M. Dalchow is working for Mrs. Fred Klaustermere this week. Emil, Lena and Louis Dalchow called on Olga Jopp Wednesday evening. Billie Zahnow stayed with his friend, Louis Dalchow, from Saturday till Sunday. Tillie Emme, H. Kuhrke and Emil Dalchow were callers at J. Dalchow's Sunday afternoon. Herman Kuhrke, Emil, Lena, Elma and Ella Dalchow spent Sunday evening with Miss Ida May Schmidt. Visitors at Henry Dalchow's on Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. August Myers, J. Dalchow, Olga Jopp, Ella and Willie Zahnow. John Dalchow and little son, Johnny and daughter, Ella, came home on Thursday after a week's visit with Mr. Dalchow's folks at St. Bonifacius. Those who called at the J. Dalchow home Thursday evening were H. Dalchow and Elma, Lena and Emil Dalchow, Ida May Schmidt, H. Kuhrke and E. Balfanz. Those who called on Olga Jopp Sunday evening were Louis and Rosy Dalchow, Tillie Emme, Ella and Willie Zahnow, Herman and Oscar Nagle, Alfred Hoeft and Wm. Kuhrke.

GREENWOOD.

Jack Cahill is building himself a fine house. Mr. Steinbach has a man digging potatoes for him. Albert Riebe and Andrew Larson threshed for Jacob Ellenbaum and Abel Peterson.

Jos. Johnson called at Dr. C. S. Neumann's on Sunday.

Jacob Ellenbaum is building a fine combined granary and corncrib.

Mrs. Jos. Pohl visited Grandma and Uncle Schenck Sunday afternoon.

Quite a number attended the county fair and all report having had a good time.

Archie Taylor and Miss Phoebe Johnson went to the show Saturday evening.

Mr. Penhalegon and Wm. Bandermer graded the first sand hill on Saturday.

Nick Essig, Fred Schimming and Abel Peterson are hauling potatoes to Princeton.

Claude Briggs was out this way hunting on Saturday and got quite a few chickens.

John Boyn and son, Lloyd, were hauling some hay from the Gile meadow last week.

Mrs. Lloyd Boyn visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Schram, last week.

The Misses Gertrude and Gladys Neumann of Princeton visited friends in this vicinity Friday afternoon.

Miss Edith Johnson is teaching the Woodard Brook school and is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yotten.

Archie Taylor of Greenbush is thinking of getting an automobile so that he can take his girl out riding on Sundays.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Engelke and children visited Mr. and Mrs. David Wetter on Sunday.

The Greenbush folks are certainly very nice people and we had the best time of our life attending the baseball games last summer and appreciate very much the hospitality shown us.

Max Kruske, the livestock man of Bogus Brook, has some good sheep and steers that he would like to get rid of as he is getting short of pasture. Here is a chance for some one to start into the business.

BLUE HILL.

Ole Gunderson's little son is very sick with summer complaint.

C. W. Taylor and wife spent Sunday visiting friends in Greenbush.

Ezra Yager spent Sunday visiting his uncle, Joel Maggart, in Princeton.

Ole Christian has a job on the Buck lake ditch and is trying his luck in deepening the same, but Ole will find that quicksand is hard to battle with to gain any headway.

Arthur and Huber Lameraux sold a bunch of cattle to Jas. Kenely last week.

We are sorry to learn that Jalmer Newman still continues in very poor health.

The Farmers' Telephone Co. is placing poles on the Princeton-Santiago line.

C. W. Taylor was so unfortunate as to lose one of his little colts. It was sick but a few days.

Miss Haraldson, who spent the past week with Miss Jessie Williams, has returned to her home at Brickton.

Clarence Taylor started his hay press on Monday to press a carload of rye straw for parties over in east Blue Hill.

Mrs. Ephraim Yager and children of Milaca are visiting Mrs. Yager's sister, Mrs. Clarence Taylor, and Mrs. John Hull.

We had a grand rain on Monday night. Nearly three inches of water fell with plenty of thunder and lightning put in gratis.

Mr. Murray, who recently lived in the John Thompson house, has moved his family to Foley, where he is employed. What is Blue Hill's loss is Foley's gain.

Some low-lived, mean people think it smart to steal bolts and other things from the farmers' telephone line, but they will get up against it if they are not careful.

Herbert Zimmerman of Princeton spent Sunday in Blue Hill hunting ducks and prairie chickens and was very successful. He returned to Princeton Monday morning.

Hiram and Chas. Bullis, accompanied by a number of ladies, spent Sunday at James Horton's. The gentlemen spent several hours chasing cotton tails and gray squirrels.

Phillip Boehm, while trying to cross the St. Francis river through a ford on his farm with his threshing engine, got stuck and broke some expensive cog wheels trying to get out. Several people were waiting to have him thresh for them.

The farmers' telephone line now being built from Princeton to Santiago will connect at Princeton with the Tri-State line and the farmers promise to give a first-class, up-to-date telephone service that will not be on the bum all the time. It is being backed by prominent farmers and will be a success.

Several people in district 3 seem to think that the new compulsory school laws were made for other people's children and not theirs, and are keeping them from school to work. They had better be careful, as there is a large fine attached for keeping children out of school.

WYANETT.

Chas. Weekes returned home from Kansas, Mo., last Wednesday, where he has spent the last ten months.

Mrs. Hosa Hunt returned from Anoka last Monday, where she spent Sunday with friends and relatives.

Miss Mayme Bratlund came up from Minneapolis last Wednesday to spend a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. E. Bratlund.

The Wyanett cubs defeated the Bradford team Sunday by a score of 14 to 8. They are going to play Bradford again next Sunday at Green lake. After that the cubs are going for Princeton and Minneapolis, whom they will defeat also! The cubs are getting fierce. Everybody root for the cubs.

GREENBUSH.

Many of the people in this vicinity attended the fair last week.

Mrs. Henry Sager returned home from her visit in Le Sueur Center last week.

Thomas Grow, Annie Peterson and Ella Taylor attended the show in town last Saturday night.

Most of the farmers around here have threshed their grain and started to haul potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Normandin, Annie Peterson, Arthur Peterson, Thomas Grow and Ella Taylor were callers at Mr. and Mrs. John Grow's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grow of Princeton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jesmer, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Grow and Frank Wenberg were calling at Mr. and Mrs. Nels Robideau's Sunday.

Farmers, Take Notice.

I am buying all kinds of live stock and paying the highest market prices at all times. I also have some good heifers to sell or trade and a two-year-old registered Hereford bull for sale.

39-3t August Thoma, Princeton.

Hogs Wanted.

L. C. Hummel will buy your hogs—alive or dressed. Now is the time to sell when prices are up.

MONUMENTS

Of all sizes in red and grey St. Cloud granite.
