

The Farm Fireside.

Gleanings by Our Country Correspondents. . . .

OXBOW

There was good skating on Oxbow lake Sunday.

Miss Selma Grapentine is in Princeton attending German school.

Henry Erickson of Princeton was in this section buying cattle last week.

We hear some talk of several pieces of real estate in this locality changing hands in the near future.

Election day this year came on the latest date possible and Thanksgiving will come on the earliest.

Labracht Zeibarth has purchased G. R. Talbert's farm and will take possession in a few days.

L. D. Bockoven has been spending considerable time lately putting telephones and lines in repair.

Little Ellnor and Clophes Harter are staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clophes Bulleigh, this week.

Mrs. Martha Bockoven came out from Princeton Saturday evening and was a guest of Mrs. Geo. Carr over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Anderson removed to Princeton on Thursday last and Val Mott has rented the Anderson farm.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Talbert and son, Clinton, of Crystal Bay, Lake Minnetonka, are spending the week with friends at Oxbow.

On October 28 a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. August Myers. This increase is in the family of the one known as "Big August."

The season for spearing or trapping rats will soon be here, and it is said that "rats" are very high at present. Wonder what can be the cause.

Carl Bengtson left on Tuesday morning for Austin, Minn., where he will again take up his studies in the Southern Minnesota Normal college.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Harter went to Minneapolis last Thursday to be gone about ten days in attendance at a series of religious meetings held there.

Several Oxbow farmers have gone deer hunting. Those who went from this neighborhood are Lennie and Lessie Bockoven, John Myers, Walt Annis and Emil Lundgren.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dudy on Sunday last were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Annis and daughter, Mrs. Emery and daughter, Miss Elma Radeka and Miss Doris Mott.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Henschel and children spent Sunday in Princeton at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Henschel. They were present at the baptism of the Henschel children, the two remaining ones of the triplets.

While trimming tree tops last Saturday Ralph Schmidt met with a very painful and serious accident. His ax glanced and struck his foot, nearly severing four of his toes. It is feared that he may lose at least two of them. It is certain he will be laid up for some weeks at any rate.

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Sold by all Druggists.

ESTES BROOK.

Andrew Stark is on the sick list. To learn the latest step in jiggling inquire of Leslie Crook.

Getting ready for that hunting trip is now the fad in Dogville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Warner spent Thursday at the Ayers' home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Almie visited with friends in Freer on Sunday.

Miss Clara Aarseth is employed at the Ferrell residence in Princeton.

The schoolma'ams of district 7 were shopping in Princeton on Saturday.

Angus McDonald was renewing acquaintances in this town a few days last week.

Miss Cora Hubbard visited with Clara and Selma Sandquist, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reibstein were pleasantly entertained at the H. L. Bemis home on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Sandquist and family and Cora Hubbard visited at the Charles Hedman home on Sunday last.

Bennie Erickson and Christ Jensen spent Wednesday in the cities. They made several purchases while there.

Services will be held in the M. E. church by Rev. Bell of Ronneby on Sunday afternoon, November 13, at 2:30 o'clock.

A jolly bunch from here were in attendance at the dance at Will Deuel's in Milo last Saturday evening. They all say they had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Jones and family, accompanied by Charlie Erickson, passed Sunday at the J. Hughes home.

H. L. Bemis, accompanied by our jolly schoolma'ams and Mrs. A. G. Bemis, made a trip to the county seat last Saturday.

Everybody is invited to be present at the teachers' training class meeting on Tuesday evening, November 15, at the M. E. church.

A very jolly crowd was present at the Erickson home on Wednesday evening. Dancing was the principal amusement of the evening.

Anton Ege, one of Estes Brook's most popular young men, who recently returned from a three years' absence, has left for a much longer time. We all miss him.

Albin Bemis of this town and Henry Marshall of Princeton left on Monday for Warroad, Minn., to visit with the former's brother, William. They declare they will bring at least one moose home with them.

The Swedish Young People's society will give a basket social at the Sandquist home next Wednesday evening, November 16. Ladies should bring baskets and gentlemen must not forget to bring well-filled purses.

Those who spent Sunday afternoon at the Knutsen home were Tellef Knutsen and Martin Stensen of Blue Hill, and the Misses Alma Hermanson, Phoebe Crook, Cora Hubbard, Paulina Trunk and Ruby Sandquist. They were entertained at cards.

A Household Medicine

To be really valuable must show equally good results from each member of the family using it. Foley's Honey and Tar does just this. Whether for children or grown persons Foley's Honey and Tar is best and safest for all coughs and colds. Sold by all Druggists.

THREE CORNERS.

Mrs. Will Stark and baby are doing fine.

Miss Esther Nelson was home on Sunday.

Mrs. Elias Feiro visited her folks one day last week.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Schultz's mother is dead.

Mrs. Walter Annis is visiting her uncle, Minor Jones, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Minor Jones and Mr. Granger were visiting at Frank Libby's.

Charlie King's auction sale was held on Friday and a large crowd attended.

Edna King and Mary Cameron spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Birdie Sausser.

Lester King and family have moved up town. Everybody here will miss these good neighbors.

Miss Mabel Gennow went to St. Paul on Thursday to attend the Minnesota Educational society's convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Hamilton and E. W. Severance were visiting Ed Hamilton on Sunday.

DISTRICT NO. 50.

The Campbells finished shredding their corn on Saturday.

Forest Angstrom was calling in western Baldwin on Sunday.

There has been quite a number of land buyers in evidence lately.

Art Campbell attended the masquerade dance in Princeton last Monday night.

Miss Flagraude of Calmer, Iowa, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Annie Egge.

Mrs. Egge's sister from Iowa was calling on her niece, Mrs. Gunderson, on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. M. Fiero and Mrs. C. L. Campbell were visiting at the Lafavor home on Monday.

Mrs. F. B. Mitchell and daughter, Marion, were visiting Mrs. C. L. Campbell on Saturday.

Mrs. Andrew Anderson and daughters were calling on friends in eastern Baldwin on Sunday.

Henry Murphy came over into western Baldwin the other day to take a lesson or two in corn husking.

We are sorry to learn that H. B. Fisk has sold his farm and contemplated leaving for some other locality.

Miss Dyson, teacher in district 50, was treated to a cold water bath the other day while skating on Cantlin lake.

Good Results Always Follow.

The use of Foley Kidney Pills. They are upbuilding, strengthening and soothing. Tonic in action, quick in results. Sold by all Druggists.

SPENCER BROOK.

Fred Foote visited the Hartfields in Stanford last Sunday.

Oscar Blomquist made a business trip to Cambridge on Thursday.

Miss Vivian Smith drove over from Cambridge on Saturday and returned home Sunday. She brought over her ant, Miss Lila Severance, who had been making a ten days' visit in Cambridge.

Mrs. Ed. Reynolds of Waverly, Iowa, who had been visiting here for a week, returned to her home on Monday.

Miss Stella Reynolds, who was a student in school district 37 last year, received her county eighth grade diploma this week.

Several ladies met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Ellingwood to do charity sewing for the children of Jack Furney. The ladies who attended had a picnic supper.

Mrs. Gramm, the aged mother of Mrs. A. J. Johnson, died at the home of her daughter here last Saturday morning. The old lady was 89 years of age and has made her home with her daughter in Spencer Brook for several years. The funeral was held at the family residence at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, after which Mr. and Mrs. Johnson started for Lake City with the remains, where they were interred.

Mr. Otto Paul, Milwaukee, Wis., says Foley's Honey and Tar is still more than the best. He writes us, "All those that bought it think it is the best for coughs and colds they ever had and I think it is still more than the best. Our baby had a bad cold and it cured him in one day. Please accept thanks." Sold by all Druggists.

GREENWOOD.

Nick Essig has been busy remodeling his house.

Gust Lueck is hauling hay from the meadows near Long Siding.

Miss Emma Mulkenteen and Miss Amaler of Carver visited with Anna Jaenicke last Wednesday.

Herman Boxhammer of Princeton is busy grubbing trees on the Sellhorn farm for his winter's fuel.

Mr. and Mrs. Papenhausen of Greenbush were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eggert on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jaenicke of Wrenshall are visiting with the former's parents and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bahlman of Iowa are staying at Aug. Schmidt's. They will move onto the Payette farm in Greenbush, which they have purchased.

Now's the Time to Have it Done.

Winter will soon run up against you and you should be prepared by getting your cutters and sleighs painted. I can fix them up for you so that they will be as good as new and my charges for so doing will be very reasonable. Do it now. 43-tfc Dan W. Spaulding.

BLUE HILL.

Elmer Thompson sold his young cattle this week.

Thos. Tellefson hurt his hand quite badly a week ago, but is better now.

Mrs. Schmeier has returned from a visit to the southern part of the state.

Robt. McQuoid and wife and son, James, spent Sunday at Mr. Lavelle's.

Mrs. Roy Dunn of Orrock visited her sister, Mrs. Hartman Camp, last Saturday.

M. Orahood sold a cow to M. Kenely this week for $50 and delivered her on Wednesday.

Henry Maggart and family expect to move to Princeton this week, there to make their home.

Duncan & Whitney are hulling clover in this vicinity. The yield is rather small this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kaliber and children of Elk River are spending a few days at John Kaliber's.

Will Ross is erecting a farm house on the Tom Brown farm, but what does Will want of a house?

H. C. Nelson has recently put a cement floor in his barn and now has one of the best barns in the county.

Mr. Nickerson, county surveyor of Sherburne county, spent a day in Blue Hill inspecting the mile of state road that has recently been built.

Miss Ella B. Hanson made a trip to Princeton last Saturday to meet her friend, Chris Jorgenson of Milaca, who was in Princeton to spend the day.

Mrs. Brawer, a sister of Mrs. C. W. Taylor, from Wisconsin, accompanied by her children, recently spent a week visiting Mrs. Taylor and other relatives.

Thos. Tellefson left Wednesday for Skibo, Minn., where he will be the guest of Mr. Wicen at his lumber and tie camp. Tom expects to get a few deer before he returns.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartman Camp are the happy parents of a husky baby boy, born Monday, November 7. We hope Hartman will see fit to call him Rufus P., after the prohibition representative.

The dinner served by the ladies of Blue Hill was not attended as largely as might have been expected, yet a splendid dinner was served and about $5 was realized to go toward finishing the cemetery fence.

Chris Jorgenson of Milaca was a visitor at Dick Durbin's from Saturday to Monday, and as Ella B. Han-

Linen Display

Friday and Saturday, Nov. 11th and 12th

We will give a Linen Display during the two above named days, when we will place on exhibition the finest table linen ever shown here. Together with this linen display we will also give a

Fancy China Showing

When we will show extra fine China Sets of which there will be 11 different patterns.

Together with the two above named displays we will also give an extra

Fancy Grocery Show

We will show the fancy Brands of groceries sold exclusively by us in Princeton

The Hiawatha Brand and The Home Brand

Join the Saturday Crowds at A. E. Allen & Co's store

A. E. ALLEN & CO.

The Store That Serves You Best

General Merchandise Princeton, Minnesota

G. H. GOTTWERTH,

Dealer in

Prime Meats of Every Variety,

Poultry, Fish, Etc.

Highest market prices paid for Cattle and Hogs.

Main Street, Princeton.

cream business and will soon be able to furnish the people with prime meats.

Henry Swanson, John Heffner and Harry Pratt drove Mr. Tyler to Elk River on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith went to Spencer Brook Sunday for a few days visit with friends and relatives.

The republican rally was quite well attended Saturday night. The speakers present were Hon. R. C. Dunn of Princeton, Frank T. White and Geo. Tyler of Elk River. Others from out of town present were S. S. Petterson and George Staples of Princeton and M. K. Iliff of Elk River.

There will be a Dutch social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hurt on Wednesday evening, November 16. Admission 10 cents. The young people, those who feel young or wish they were young, are cordially invited. Five cents will be charged for a Dutch lunch. The proceeds will be used for the Sunday school.

LONG SIDING.

George and Louis Peterson returned from the west last week.

Miss Adena Carlson spent Saturday in Princeton visiting friends.

Sidney Hanson and Albert Anderson are out on a deer hunting trip.

Miss Delia Larson is working for Mrs. P. L. Roadstrom at Princeton.

Nels Ege is back to work again at Henry Uglem's after being laid up with a sore eye.

Vic Osell and his brother, with their families, visited at Gust Anderson's last Sunday afternoon.

Arthur Larson, Anton Ege and Emil Johnson left for the northern part of the state last week to seek employment.

Mrs. Albert Leikvold of Barnesville, who has been visiting her moth-

First Pub. Nov. 10, 1910.

Summons.

State of Minnesota, County of Mille Lacs, ss.
District Court, Seventh Judicial District.

Martha A. Douglas, Plaintiff, vs.
Elden F. Douglas, Defendant.

The State of Minnesota to the above named defendant:

You are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled action which complaint is on file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court in and for said Mille Lacs county, and to serve a copy of your answer to the said complaint on the subscriber at his office in the Village of Princeton, in said county of Mille Lacs, within thirty days after the service of this summons on you exclusive of the day of such service; and if you fail to answer the said complaint within the time aforesaid, the plaintiff in this action will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Dated October 29th, 1910.
J. A. ROSS,
Plaintiff's Attorney, Princeton, Minnesota.

er, Mrs. Jennie Liskey, returned home last week.

A dance will be given at Uglem's hall, Long Siding, next Saturday, November 12. Everybody come and enjoy yourselves.

Ben Haralson and Jessie Williams were married on Wednesday, November 2. We all wish the happy young couple a long and prosperous life.

A Premium With Every Package.
I have sold hundreds of packages of that celebrated Klondike coffee. All who are using it speak in high praise of its excellent flavor. Besides being the acme of coffee production its price is nominal—25 cents per package. And, besides, a splendid china dish is given away with each package purchased.

Joseph Townsend,
California Fruit Store.