

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Judge Baxter will preside at this term of the district court.

Judge Keith: It is a small but fighting calendar at this term of court.

Jurors' certificates taken on subscription at their face value at the Union office.

The winter term of the village school commences on Monday with Prof. Ewing as principal.

Chas. Cater was married at Herman a few days ago. So we are informed by one of the boys who received a letter from him.

John Goss of Anoka spent an hour or so in our sanctuary on Monday evening. John is always a pleasant and profitable visitor.

The new school house in district 4, this county, was destroyed by fire last Thursday evening. It was the best school house in the county outside of Princeton.

As usual the Silver Cornet band will play at the Palace rink on Saturday evening, and there will be races, etc., to amuse and interest the spectators as well as the skaters.

Misses Hattie Franklin, Maggie and Nora Scanlan of Wyanett were the guests of Miss Nora King last Saturday and were among the fair damsels who witnessed the fun at the Palace rink the same evening.

Wyanett Correspondence—The railroad surveyors are now running a line through our town. They crossed Green lake brook near the river and are going north, presumably to Mille Lacs lake, but they will not tell.

Mrs. Minnie Ames, nee Young, was the recipient of quite a number of pretty little tokens of esteem from her pupils in district 10 the last day of school. Both pupils and parents were sorry to part with Mrs. Ames, and all unite in saying that she kept an excellent school.

The editor was the recipient of a box of beautiful California flowers, by mail, from Mrs. F. M. Campbell on Tuesday. The long journey they had undergone caused them to wilt considerably, but they still retained their fragrance. One lovely rosebud looked as sweet and fresh as the day it was plucked. How we envy Frank's and his estimable wife's sojourn in a land where roses are in full bloom at this season of the year.

Teachers, Read This Carefully.

Time of Examination Changed—It has been the uniform custom to hold examinations for common school certificates in February and August. The examinations which would have been held next February have been postponed and will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 4, 5 and 6. The August examinations will be given on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 31 and August 1 and 2. The department has decided to defer the first examinations for the following reasons: So that it may not interfere with schools that are in session; because in the winter season the weather frequently makes it hard for persons to attend; because the legislature will be in session in February, and difficulty would be found in securing rooms in which to do the work.

Certificates Expiring March 1—All teachers employed in the public schools of Mille Lacs county holding certificates which will expire March 1 next should send their certificates to the county superintendent of schools between January 15 and February 1. This includes first and second grade certificates, either complete or conditioned, as well as limited certificates, expiring March 1. All such certificates will, upon recommendation of the county superintendent to the state department, be extended until August 1 next.

Date of Certificates—Hereafter all teachers' certificates, whether obtained by examination, by renewal, by extension, or otherwise, will be dated August 1. This will be done to simplify the records in the office of the state department—to have the date of certificates coincide with the beginning of the school year, and to prevent the expiration of certificates during the school term.

Guy Ewing, County Superintendent.

The Indian Allotment Cases.

The smooth settlement of the Indian treaty law controversy to the satisfaction of everybody should be helped rather than impeded by the preparation of 1,300 suits by the government to annul the fraudulent transfer of lands by drunken Indians to covetous white men without just consideration. This announcement testifies to the good faith of the government in resorting to desperate remedies to keep its charges sober and to save them from becoming paupers. At the same time it may satisfy the upholders of treaty law that there are other ways of protecting the Indians from spoliation than the complete closure of the saloons in their country.

The story itself is not new. When the government tried to prevent alienation of lands deeded to Indians in severalty, an innocent senator and confiding representative were prevailed upon by predatory interests to exempt mixed bloods from the prohibition. Thereupon it was arranged to issue the valuable lands to real or pretended mixed bloods, made drunk for the purpose, who lost no time in deeding them to the land grabbers.—Minneapolis Tribune.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony at which a large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hairdahl were present. The bride and groom received many pretty tokens of esteem.

Decrease of Tax Rate in Cambridge.

The tax figures this year show a decrease in the rate of taxation in Cambridge from 57 mills to 37.3 mills. This is because the board of education is not levying any taxes to pay off the bonded indebtedness, preferring to let the bonds continue at a low rate of interest for the present. The rate for Braham is 51 mills and for Isanti 27 mills. Isanti receives a license revenue from one saloon of $2,500. The assessable valuation of Cambridge is $217,844. Of this $70,744 is personal, $111,306 town lots and improvements and $35,794 other real estate.—North Star.

Cats Spread Tuberculosis.

That cats spread tuberculosis and are a menace to the family was declared by Dr. W. L. Enser, of Lakewood, near Cleveland, Ohio, who within the last six months has conducted more than 100 post mortem examinations of felines. "We spend thousands of dollars erecting hospitals for victims of tuberculosis and in killing rats to prevent the spread of disease, but in the common house cat we have an enemy more dangerous than any other known agent in transferring disease among human beings," said the doctor. Among Dr. Enser's patients was the head of a family who was afflicted with tuberculosis. The doctor was convinced that the family cat had brought the disease to the house. A hundred or more of Lakewood's felines were killed and examined by him. "I found in all of them germs of tuberculosis," the doctor said in telling of the results of his examination. "Of course, not all the cats were in the last stages of the disease, although at least 30 per cent of them were in a serious condition."

In renewing his subscription, Mr. L. F. Johnson of Bemidji, an old and valued friend, wishes the Union success for 1911, and hopes its publisher will be successful in his fight for good roads and reapportionment. Mr. Johnson can rest assured it will not be the fault of our "boss" if either of those measures fail in the legislature. But he is only one of 183 senators and representatives.

She sends her kind regards to her many friends in this part of the country.

Forty tubs of butter constituted the week's output at the Princeton Co-operative creamery. The price paid for butterfat has, however, gone down in consequence of the tremendous amount of butter in cold storage, which the trust is now unloading in the large cities. A conservative estimate gives the quantity of butter held in cold storage on January 1, 1911, as 21,000,000 pounds more than that held on January 1, 1910. The fact that the federal authorities are hard on the heels of the cold storage combine is the reason for its unloading.
