

Our Delicious Soda

The soda we draw from our handsome fountain is as delicious as skill, care and right materials can make it. We serve all the popular beverages, including the daintiest ice cream soda you ever tasted. In addition, we serve some special fancy drinks not had elsewhere. Any day now you can come here and enjoy your favorite drink. We shall do our part to make your visit so pleasant that you will want to come again and again.

Open Sundays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

C. A. JACK
The Rexall Druggist

Items

Of interest from various sources.

George I. Staples is the only person who is authorized to collect money due this office. In every case the party paying money is entitled to and should insist upon receiving a printed receipt. R. C. DUNN, Publisher.

Nelson's photos please the people.

To see a rattling good game of ball hike up to the fair grounds next Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cooper of Minneapolis are here on a visit to relatives and friends.

Fresh pies, 10 cents each; buns, rolls and doughnuts, 10 cents a dozen, at Grow's Bakery. 2tc

Jay Berg, now employed in Minneapolis, attended the alumni banquet on Monday evening.

C. H. Nelson of the Roadstrom store was in St. Paul on business Monday and Tuesday.

F. T. Kettelhoft was in the twin cities on Tuesday making purchases for his mercantile establishment.

Joe Townsend has a new ad in this number. Joe keeps Tufty's Milaca ice cream, the purest on the market.

Rev. Father Levings conducted services at Mora on Sunday and came home on the Monday morning train.

Ralph Jones has returned to Princeton from Nebraska. He thinks the old town on the Rum is the best ex-plant.

The Princeton State bank makes farm loans at the lowest rate. No delay, money ready soon as papers are signed. 43-tf

J. H. Hoffman returned on Tuesday evening from Morris, where he went to take an order for 24 sets of harness for a grading outfit.

E. B. Anderson passed through here on Tuesday from Mora, bound for the twin cities. Ed likes Mora but would evidently rather live in Princeton.

Tomorrow at 2 o'clock the Women's Relief association will meet with Mrs. Wesley Page and it is requested that all members put forth an effort to attend.

Two hundred ladies' trimmed hats, worth $5, will be closed out at $2.50 at Mrs. Belsam's millinery store. Come early and get the first choice. 1tc

Dr. J. F. Kothman, optometrist, will be in town on Friday and Saturday, June 9 and 10. Eyes examined and glasses fitted. Office at Commercial hotel. 15-tfc

Lisle Jesmer came up from St. John's university, Collegeville, on Thursday to attend the commencement exercises and alumni banquet and returned on Tuesday.

Ernest H. Sellhorn left last Friday for St. Louis on business connected with the Woodcock & Sellhorn brick-yards. Ernest lets no grass grow under his feet when a business proposition is in sight.

Before you start for Princeton to have your picture taken be sure it is the first or third Saturday of the month, as these are the only days you will find Nelson, the famous photographer from Anoka, at his studio in Princeton. 2-tf

Major Pratt of Anoka inspected the militia boys at the armory on Monday evening and found them right in the front row. There were over 40 members in attendance. Company G will attend the civic federation in Minneapolis on July 3 and go into camp at Lakeview on July 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ness yesterday moved to Foley, where Mr. Ness will work in a barber shop which has been purchased by Sidney Grow. Carl is a good barber and Foley is a lively town in which to start business. There is no apparent reason why he should not succeed. The many Princeton friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ness wish them success. Mr. and Mrs. Grow will go to Foley later.

Wild rice at Byers'. 22-tfc

Payette's photos are better than ever. 22-tfc

Oscar Wikeen is home from Minneapolis on a fortnight's vacation.

Mrs. E. F. Griffith went to the cities on Monday to purchase new millinery goods.

There will be a moving picture show at Long Siding next Sunday evening.

Miss Eva Hatch is now employed as an assistant in Register of Deeds Goulding's office.

Special display of ladies' dress skirts on Friday and Saturday at A. E. Allen & Co.'s.

Emil Wicen came down from his claim in Northern Montana last week to purchase some horses.

Chas. Peterson of Greenbush left on Friday for Isabel, N. D., to settle on a claim which he owns there.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. M. Edmison next Wednesday.

The ladies of the Dorcas society will be entertained by Mrs. Sadley on Wednesday afternoon, June 14.

E. A. Smith of Zimmerman was among the callers at the Union office on Monday. Mr. Smith is always a welcome visitor.

On Monday Miss Mabel Gennow started on a vacation tour and will visit friends in Duluth and other places before her return.

A grand display of the White Sewing Machine company's art work will be made at Mrs. Ewing's music store during the week commencing June 13.

Try the 10 and 15 cent lunches at Grow's Bakery. They are the best lunches for the money in town. Regular meals 25 cents.—good square meals. 2tc

Jess and Al Angtman of St. Paul attended the graduation exercises and Jess returned Sunday evening via Cambridge. Al returned Tuesday morning.

Miss Marie Foster of Foley returned home on Sunday after a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Caley. She was conveyed to Foley in Mr. Caley's automobile.

There was a pleasant family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Hoelt in the eastern end of Princeton township last Sunday, the occasion being the 68th anniversary of Mr. Hoelt's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Denniston of Janesville, Wis., are visiting at Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Caley's and expect to remain a month. Mr. Denniston is Mr. Caley's brother-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Middlebrook and family left this morning for New Richmond, Wis., where Mr. Middlebrook expects to put in a greenhouse. Their many friends are sorry to see them leave Princeton.

Henry Holthus has an advertisement in this number which you should read. Mr. Holthus handles flour, bran, shorts and all kinds of feed and also does custom grinding. His prices are always right.

Electrician Randall has installed a motor at Al Munz' residence and Al will in consequence no longer have to work overtime pumping water up into his swimming tank. "The Lord's name be praised," says Mr. Munz.

Arnold Buck came up from Minneapolis on Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Buck, and left again on Saturday. Mr. Buck, who is an expert chauffeur, will shortly convey a party east on a three-months' automobile tour.

A musical entertainment will be given in the M. B. A. hall, Wyannett, on Saturday evening, June 17, by Misses Edna Boyn and Christine Wicen, with readings by Miss Eva Ross. Entertainment will commence at 8 o'clock. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mallette leave today for their summer cottage at Cove bay, Mille Laacs lake, and expect to remain until fall. They have a very pretty place at Cove which is equipped with all necessary conveniences for making life worth living during the hot months.

Peter Mitchell writes from Harlem, Mont., to say that a nine-pound girl arrived at his home on June 2. He also says that he is still employed as engineer at the Fort Belknap Indian school and that he is always glad for the day to arrive every week when he receives the Union, as it gives all the news from home.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Cooney left on Saturday morning for the Pacific coast, where they will visit various points of interest and return to Princeton in about a month. The doctor will attend the convention of the American Medical association at San Francisco during his absence from Princeton. That Dr. Cooney has well earned a rest goes without saying, and the Union hopes that he and Mrs. Cooney will enjoy themselves.

Try Byers' new cheese. 22-tfc

Don't forget that Payette's studio is open every day. 22-tfc

The new styles in ladies' dress skirts are on display now at A. E. Allen & Co.'s.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ferrell and family motored to the twin cities on Tuesday morning.

Fresh bread—white, graham or rye—daily, six loaves for 25 cents, at Grow's Bakery. 2tc

A summer school for the counties of Mille Laacs and Kanabec will open at Milaca on June 19.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Libby left on Monday for Minneapolis to pass a couple of days with relatives.

A good, smart boy may find an opportunity to learn the harness trade upon application at J. H. Hoffman's harness shop. 1tc

The Long Siding ball team will give a dance in the hall at that place on Saturday. Stromwall's orchestra will furnish the music.

Mrs. R. F. Lynch of Minneapolis was here over Sunday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. C. Hatch, and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Allen of Milaca are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Allen, and will remain about a week.

Miss Grace Dunn finished her second term as assistant principal of the Sisseton, S. D., high school and returned to her home last Saturday.

For first-class shoe repairing go to M. Engebretson, next door to Moeger's tailor shop. All work promptly executed and prices reasonable. 14-tfc

Mrs. Ben Cotton and son, George, are here from Spokane, and will spend three months with Mrs. Cotton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Libby.

Mrs. E. M. Boulter of Oil City, Pa., arrived here on Monday and will be a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Coates, for two or three weeks.

Herman Schwartz departed on Monday for Brainerd to buy wool for his firm. Last week Mr. Schwartz, in two days, purchased $800 worth of wool in the country surrounding Princeton.

Louis Erickson of Wyannett went down river on a business trip Monday. Mr. Erickson is one of the farmers in this part of the country who has made a success of tilling the soil.

Electrician Randall has within the past week or two wired a number of residences, including those of Prof. Marshall, Dr. Darragh, Fred Newton, W. C. Middlebrook and Edmund Young.

Save the material of your house by having it protected by a coat of paint. Let me give you an estimate on paint work. My prices will be consistent with a first-class job. Dan C. Mirick. Tri-State phone 199. 23-3tc

Remember, the exhibition of art work made on the White sewing machine commences at Ewings' Music Store next Tuesday, June 13, and will continue until Saturday evening, June 17. But do not wait until Saturday to attend—it will be better to call earlier in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Kelly and grandson of Northfield arrived here on Monday for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jack. On Tuesday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack and son, Duren, they motored to Mille Laacs lake on a fishing expedition. Mr. Kelly is a true disciple of Izaak Walton—he loves to angle for the finny denizens of the deep and usually succeeds in getting a good string.

Rev. Marshall Will French. Rev. Frank Marshall of Enid university, Oklahoma, will preach at the Christian church, Wyannett, on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Marshall is expected back from Oklahoma today to spend the summer.

EVERYTHING FOR MEN AND BOYS

Quality, Style AND Price

Are all found in this fine selection of Men's and Young Men's Spring Suits that we are selling at

$13 $15 $18 $20 and $22.50

Any one of which is usually sold by the ordinary clothier from $3 to $5 more per suit.

We also have a strong line of durable and desirable suits at

$7.50 $10.00 and $12.00

Then, too, don't overlook our high-class ones at

$25 $27 and $30

Copyright 1911 by Roberts-Wicks Co.

Our "Best Ever" Boys' Suits, English Slip-ons, McKibbin Hats and Workingmen's Clothes are also unexcelled.

KOPP & BARTHOLOMEW

Princeton's Clothiers

Come In and Let Us Suit You With a Suit

TOWNSEND'S Ice Cream Parlors

J. L. TOWNSEND, Proprietor

First Stree, Princeton, Minnesata

Tufty's Ice Cream The purest on the market in all the popular flavors.

Confectionery, Fruits Cigars and Tobacco

The Coolest Place in the Town

Special Values

Men's and Young Men's All Wool Spring Suits at

$12.00 to $15.00

No bankrupt stock or shelf-worn goods, but bright, new, clean goods, made especially for us for this season's business. The biggest values you ever saw at the price

$12.00 to $15.00

"Woolly Boy" and "Steel Fiber" Boys' Suits

All wool, haircloth fronts, lined pants, the best suit for your boy, full of hard knocks, at a special price of

$5.00

The Avery Clothing House

PRINCETON, MINN.

Iron and Smile

You Can If You Use

ASBESTOS SAD IRONS

We will repair broken handles and springs in old irons Free of Charge.

CALEY HDW. CO.