

Drink Every Day

at our fountain and bring your friends along to share the enjoyment. It certainly is a joy to drink where absolute cleanliness is maintained and where the beverages are invariably cold, pure and daintily served. Our ice cream soda is one beverage you'll want often. Our rich, smooth ice cream combined with our luscious fruit juices will delight your palate and have the cooling effect so much desired these hot days. We serve every ice cream drink to be had anywhere and many special good things to be had here only. Let us refresh you daily.

Open Sundays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

The social given by the ladies of the Swedish Lutheran church on Friday evening was well patronized and the ice cream was of excellent quality.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a first-class 25-cent supper in the parlors of the church on Friday evening. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 8 o'clock.

William Cordner left on Friday for St. Cloud to engage in experting for the International Harvester Co. What Will doesn't know about harvesting machinery isn't worth knowing.

A son and heir which tipped the beam at 10 pounds arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pias on Friday afternoon and his daddy says he is a "sugar-coated dumpling."

J. F. Wheeler will give a dance at Central park, Sandy lake, tomorrow evening. Hannay's orchestra will furnish the music and a good time is assured. Ice cream, cake and soft drinks may be obtained in the pavilion.

Before you start for Princeton to have your picture taken be sure it is the first or third Saturday of the month, as these are the only days you will find Nelson, the famous photographer from Anoka, at his studio in Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Cotten drove over to Litchfield to visit their daughter on July 8 and returned last Sunday. At Forest City one of their horses dropped dead and they were compelled to return with a single animal. The horse, says Mr. Cotten, was worth $50.

Payette's photo studio will be closed from July 24 to 30, when Mr. Payette will be in attendance at the convention of the National Photographers' association at St. Paul. During his absence the interior of his studio will be remodeled and fixed up in first-class shape.

A. F. Wresch is making many improvements at his feed stable—white-washing the interior and fixing everything up in first class, sanitary condition. Mr. Wresch intends running a stable that is right up to date and respectfully invites the farmers and others to put up their teams with him.

While on her way to Duluth last Thursday with her husband in the family automobile Mrs. C. A. Jack sustained very painful injuries. The machine, while going at a speed of about 25 miles an hour, struck a chuck hole in the road and Mrs. Jack was precipitated with great force against the top of the car. Her nose was badly cut and, in addition, both of her eyes were discolored. For a time she suffered much pain, but is now getting along nicely.

White waists at reduced prices at Byers'.

Don't forget that Payette's studio is open every day.

Ed Brands came up from Minneapolis on Monday evening for a visit at home. He is employed in the general offices of the Minneapolis Brewing company.

Let the good work of improving the roads in this vicinity be continued. More and better road work has been done in Mille Lacs county this season than in any previous year.

The Princeton Produce company will hold its annual meeting at its warehouse on Saturday, July 29, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. At that time officers for the ensuing year will be elected and other important business disposed of.

Denny Byers and George Dunn left this morning for Blue lake, where they will camp for a week. The amount of grub which they took with them would lead one not on the inside to believe that they were going into camp for a year.

Mrs. Magnus Sjoblom and children and Swan Olson and wife are occupying L. N. Berg's cottage at Green lake. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erickson passed the day there. Many people go to Green lake every Sunday to fish and picnic.

Hazel, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Stanley of Milo, aged 2 months, died on Saturday, July 15, the cause of death being whooping cough. The funeral was held from the home on Monday and the remains were brought to Princeton and interred in Oak Knoll cemetery.

At the meeting of the board of county commissioners last week it was determined to grant the petition for ditch No. 10 in the towns of Milaca and Borgholm in a modified form. But the commissioners have discovered that the petition must be granted, if at all, as surveyed and reported on by the viewers, and for the time being the matter is held in abeyance.

Those who arrived here on Wednesday of last week to attend the camp meeting at Percy Harter's returned to St. Paul and Minneapolis on Monday. There were about 50 of them. The meetings were largely attended and good speakers expounded the truths of the gospel. Mr. Harter did all in his power to make it pleasant for all who attended and they greatly appreciate his hospitality.

Hon. H. E. Craig and Thos. Larson motored over from Orrock yesterday and passed an hour or two with Princeton friends. Mr. Craig, who called to get his Hoare drinking cup souvenir and to chat on current topics, is looking hale and hearty and says he never felt better in his life. He is one of those sunny-natured old boys who takes life philosophically and enjoys it.

Several of the old timers called during the week to claim the souvenir drinking cups sent to the Union for them by William Hoare of Tekoa, Wash., and some of the recipients told stories of the good old days when Mr. Hoare resided in Princeton. They were all glad to hear from their old associate, but think he should have omitted the legend, "Robbers' Roost," from his advertisement on the cup.

G. H. Gottwerth and Guy Ewing motored to Mille Lacs lake on Sunday but they found the wind so high and the water so turbulent that they dared not go out in a boat to try their luck at fishing. Mr. Gottwerth, however, waded into the lake up to his knees and threw out a worm, but a billow which was making for the shore butted against him and carried him inland a considerable distance. "Let's go home," cried Guy, and they did.

J. L. Townsend was in the cities from Saturday to Monday.

Services will be held at the Methodist church on Sunday morning, July 23.

Mr. Dow of the Princeton Auto company was down river on business yesterday.

Julius Yngve of the Union force, passed Sunday at the home of his parents in Cambridge.

Great care should be exercised in setting fires at this season of the year—better still, no fires should be set.

Buy your lightning rods—9 per cent clear copper—at 8 cents a foot from J. A. Wetter, Long Siding, Minn.

In an advertisement in this issue A. E. Allen & Co. invite you to call and examine the new line of shoes just received at their store.

Having completed his new barn, Lefe Slaback will give a dance in the barn next Saturday evening, July 22. Everyone cordially invited.

The slight rainfall on Tuesday was worth thousands of dollars to the farmers of this vicinity. Corn and potatoes were especially benefited.

Dr. Rast, Rev. Stowe, H. P. Johnson and C. O. Nielson, all of Minneapolis, were guests of Rev. August Lundquist from Monday to Wednesday.

The goods left over from our fire are now being sold at less than cost. Call and get the bargains before they are all gone. Scheen's Confectionery.

I will commence buying potatoes at my warehouse on Saturday next, June 22. If you have any early potatoes bring them in while the prices are high. T. F. Scheen.

A dance will be given in the M. W. A. hall, Spener Brook, on Friday evening, July 28. Fisher's orchestra will furnish the music. All lovers of terpsichore should attend.

You should not fail to attend the illustrated lecture which will be given at Brands' opera house on Saturday and Sunday evenings by Joakim Arnesen, the globe trotter.

A friend in South Dakota has forwarded to the publisher of the Union the hide of a sixfoot rattlesnake. We can well understand why the cause of prohibition does not flourish in a state where such reptiles abound.

Some time ago "Ted," a Scotch collie owned by L. C. Hummel, was run over and killed by G. H. Gottwerth's touring car and Mr. Hummel brought action for damages. The case came up for hearing in Justice Norton's court last Thursday and Mr. Hummel was awarded $105. The case has been appealed.

E. R. Lawton of the Isanti News is off in California hobnobbing with the plutocrats of Los Angeles and Pasadena, and is writing exceedingly interesting letters to his paper. A year ago Mr. Lawton visited all the fashionable resorts on the Atlantic coast. The Isanti News must be a veritable bonanza to its publisher.

Joakim Arnesen, the globe trotter, will give an illustrated travelogue lecture on Saturday and Sunday evenings, July 22 and 23, at Brands' opera house. Moving pictures of the latest type will portray all the scenic beauties of a trip from Alaska to Norway via the Yellowstone park, England, France, Germany and Sweden. Most of the views used in this entertainment were photographed by Mr. Arnesen, who has traveled extensively. At 3 o'clock on Saturday the children are invited by Mr. Arnesen to attend the show and their admittance will cost them nothing.

About 25 people, with well-filled baskets of provisions, "dropped in" upon Mr. and Mrs. Frank Libby last Thursday evening and the company afterwards repaired to the wildwoods on the banks of the Rum, where supper was spread upon the greensward. It was a jolly gathering indeed which squatted upon the grass and feasted on the good things provided upon this auspicious occasion. Everything which the appetite could possibly crave was in evidence and ample justice was done to the viands. Mr. and Mrs. Libby were the guests of honor and well did they enjoy themselves.

Bring in Your Spuds. W. H. Ferrell & Co.'s warehouse is now open for the purchase of potatoes. Bring in your spuds.
