

COUGHS

It will be well for you to remember Jack's White Pine Expectorant during the cough and cold season. You rather expect unusual merit in a remedy we endorse—at least we hope you do, for we have reason to. The merit of this remedy is little short of remarkable.

Price 25 and 50 cents.
Money back if you want it.

Open Sundays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

C. A. JACK
The Rexall Druggist

Items

Of Interest from various sources.

George I. Staples is the only person who is authorized to collect money due this office. In every case the party paying money is entitled to and should insist upon receiving a printed receipt.
R. C. DUNN, Publisher.

Buckwheat flour at Byers'. 48-tfc

Nelson's photos please the people.

Get your Christmas gifts at the Dorcas ladies' sale.

Mrs. S. S. Petterson visited friends in the twin cities on Tuesday.

A. E. Allen was in St. Paul on business Monday and Tuesday.

F. T. Kettelhodt was in St. Paul on Tuesday purchasing Christmas goods.

T. H. Caley left on Monday evening for Foley to attend to some business matters.

The finest underwear known—the Munsing underwear. For sale at A. E. Allen & Co.'s.

The Princeton State bank makes farm loans at the lowest rate. No delay, money ready soon as papers are signed. 43-tf

Dr. Kothman, the optometrist, was here last Friday and Saturday on his regular monthly visit and reports business good.

Charley King arrived home from Fergus Falls the first part of the week, having been excused as a petit juror by Judge Page Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Block of Mayer, who were here visiting Mr. and Mrs. David Wetter, returned home on Tuesday. They are Mrs. Wetter's parents.

Mrs. D. A. Craig and son of Crosby, N. D., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Coates, left on Saturday for Minneapolis to visit relatives.

A pail and tub factory is assured for Wahkon. The town has a hoop and whip and a box factory. This looks good for a comparatively new settlement.

Chas. L. Peterson of Eastwood, Mille Lacs lake, died on November 10 from tuberculosis and was buried at Opstead on November 14. He was 38 years of age.

Gust Haggberg of Isle has gone to Texas, where he has secured a position as foreman on the ranch of Chas. P. Taft, brother of the president, near San Antonio.

Dr. J. P. Kothman, optometrist, will be in town on Friday and Saturday, December 22 and 23. Eyes examined and glasses fitted. Office at Commercial hotel. 38-tfc

A prize masquerade ball will be given on Thanksgiving night in the M. B. A. hall, Dalbo. Lunch will be served in the hall. Good shelter for horses. Everybody welcome. Itc Ynko Kunich of Onamia would like to ascertain the whereabouts of his brother, Mike. Ynko was recently injured by falling from a load of hay and is in a serious condition.

L. K. Dann has purchased all the unplatted lands in the townsite of Wahkon from C. A. Campbell, as well as 15 lots in the platted portion of the townsite and an interest in the Meshigun Point property.

Onamia will have a farmers' institute on December 16. Farmers' institutes are well worth attending—something new can always be learned from the speakers about crop and stock raising and dairying.

In an advertisement this week Kopp & Bartholomew tells you how to dress well for a moderate sum. They enumerate a number of things in clothing which should appeal to your fancy and pocketbook.

The Woman's Relief association will meet with Mrs. R. S. Chapman on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. As an election of officers will be held at this meeting every member is requested to be in attendance.

Fur-lined caps from 50 cents up at Byers'. 48-tfc

Harness oiled for $1 per set at Hoffman's harness shop. Itc

Chas. L. Freer was down from Cove on a visit last week.

A carload of fancy apples now on sale at A. E. Allen & Co.'s store.

"The Girl and the Tramp" at Brands' opera house Monday evening.

Gust Moey of Santiago has gone to St. Petersburg, Fla., to spend the winter.

Wanted, choice corn. Will pay a good price. Call and see us. Caley Hardware Co. 45-3tc

A photo taken at the Pyro Studio speaks for itself. J. L. Payette, Photographer. 44-tfc

News has reached here that a son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Soule in New York city last week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ness on Friday, November 17, and consequently Owen and Mrs. Newton are grandparents.

Miss Lulu Boyn visited her sister, Edna, in Minneapolis last week for three days. Edna is a student at the Minneapolis Academy of Music.

The Dorcas ladies will hold their annual sale of fancy and useful articles early in December upon a date to be made known next week.

Dr. F. L. Small visited the Whittier schools on Tuesday of this week and gave an interesting talk in each of the rooms. Dr. Small is president of the school board.

We note that some of the fire plugs about town have been covered with snow. In case of fire this would cause considerable delay in connecting the hose.

Mrs. Louise A. Anthoine, a niece of Mrs. M. C. Libby and Mrs. A. Z. Norton, died at Portland, Oregon, on November 14. She was at one time a resident of Princeton.

Miss Carrie Hansmeyer of Long Prairie has been engaged as stenographer in the office of Clerk of Court King. Miss Hansmeyer is experienced in court work and brings high-class recommendations.

On page 8 of this number C. H. Nelson advertises a manufacturers' clean-up sale—bargains in a long list of reasonable goods. Call at Nelson's and investigate for yourselves. Save money when you have an opportunity.

Nine second-hand sewing machines at prices ranging from $3 to $12 for sale. These machines must be sold within the next 10 days to make room for a consignment of new ones that are on the way here. Ewings' Music Store.

Moving picture shows, with change of program, will be given at Brands' opera house this evening, tomorrow evening and Saturday evening, November 23, 24 and 25. Subjects of particular interest will be produced upon each occasion.

Walter Angstman, formerly of Baldwin, was married yesterday afternoon at Big Lake to Miss Maude Moore of that place. The young couple will make their home on a farm in South Dakota. The Union extends congratulations.

Rehearsals of the play, "The Honor of a Cowboy," go on apace at Onamia, and soon the people of that village will be treated to a production that will make the rafters of the opera house rattle—lariats, revolvers and poker chips will be flying in the air.

S. Winsor of Wyauett has sold his 200-acre farm to Wm. Oelkers, a practical farmer of Wayzata, for the sum of $10,000. Mr. Oelkers, who will enter into possession next March, also purchased the farm machinery and live stock on the place. Within a few days Mr. Winsor will make a trip south to look up another location.

Buy your fur coats and ladies' furs at Byers'. 48-tfc

Munsing underwear for ladies and children sold by A. E. Allen & Co.

Mrs. Bohls and son of Watkins are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Cotten.

The Princeton Co-operative creamery will be closed on Thanksgiving day.

George M. Smith has been very sick the past week, but at this time is on the mend.

Fred Ness, pharmacist at Armitage's drug store, has gone to his home at Dawson to spend the winter.

The snow fall last Thursday night was the heaviest for many years in this vicinity—18 inches on a level.

Fred Keasling of Minneapolis, who at one time conducted a bakery in Princeton, is now employed by C. A. Grow.

H. Markgraf will give a dance in his hall at Brickton next Saturday evening. Good music and shelter for horses.

A dance will be given in the Long Siding hall on Thanksgiving evening. First-class music. Barn room for horses. Itc

F. T. Kettelhodt this week advertises specialties for your Thanksgiving dinner—good things to tickle your palate.

The Dorcas society will not meet next Wednesday, but will be entertained by Mrs. Darragh on Friday, December 1.

Hon. I. W. Bouck arrived here from Royalton last evening and returned this morning with his mother, who will spend the winter at his home.

A masquerade ball will be given in the M. B. A. hall, Spencer Brook, on the evening of November 29. Good music. Everyone invited. Come and have a fine time.

A. E. Allen & Co., on page 4, advertises a special Thanksgiving display, which includes fancy groceries and fruits. Read the announcement and look over the display.

A letter was received at this office last week from Abe Mark, who formerly conducted a clothing store in Princeton. Abe is now running the "Golden Rule" at Staples and is doing well.

Before you start for Princeton to have your picture taken be sure it is the first or third Saturday of the month, as these are the only days you will find Nelson, the famous photographer from Anoka, at his studio in Princeton. 2-tf

Clarence Hill, Fred Newton, Ray Kaliber and Ole Vista returned on Monday morning from Bruno, where they tunneled for deer. The snow in places was 14 feet deep. Ray was the only lucky sportsman. He shot the limit—one deer.

Prospects at this time do not look very favorable for the Turkey-day battle between Billy Doane's Terriers and Frank Goulding's alumni aggregation. There is some talk, however, of hiring a crew of men to shovel the snow from the fair grounds.

If you are not already a Union subscriber you should become one without delay. One dollar, cash-in-advance, will pay for the Union from now until January 1, 1913. The Union is all home print, is the leading county paper and is always readable.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Olson, who have been living in Monterey, Mexico, returned to Princeton last week. Mr. Olson states that troublous times prevail in parts of Mexico and that the country looks unsafe to him—he prefers to take no chances on coming events in Monterey.

Mrs. J. T. D. Sadley, who for more than a week was sick near unto death, is reported to be a little better. For something like three years she has been subject to attacks of heart trouble and has at times suffered intensely. Her many friends hope that she may fully recover.

Two hundred ladies' trimmed hats just received at Mrs. Belsam's millinery store. These hats are worth from $5 to $7 each, and they will be closed out at $2.98. Come early and get the first choice. A full line of fancy work, hair switches and ornaments also carried in stock. Mrs. M. A. Belsam. Itc

An agent for a piano house called at the Union office last week and offered us a cheap musical instrument for a voting contest. We don't wish to obtain money under false pretenses. Voting contest pianos are generally serviceable for kindling wood only. There is about as much music in one of them as there is in a soap box.

J. H. Hoffman, the harness man, calls your attention to the superb new line of robes just received at his shop. They are of various kinds and include carriage and automobile fur robes. Everything in horse furnishings carried in stock and harness made to order. Call and examine the stock at Gillespie & Stoneberg's old stand. Itc

WE CLOSE ALL DAY ON THANKSGIVING

OPEN WEDNESDAY, NOV. 29 UNTIL 9 P. M.

Be Well Dressed THANKSGIVING

You owe it to yourself these cold winter days. Let us suggest that between now and Thanksgiving

You Look Over

Our Great Convertible Overcoats. They are warm, dressy and serviceable. Prices

$10 $12 $15 $18 $20 up to $25

Our Suits, too. The selection is large and we have some new thing that will please you. Prices to Fit Your Purse

Splendid things in Suits and Overcoats for the little fellows. Tog the boys up for Thanksgiving. Prices..... $2.50 to $8.50

Fur, Fur and Plush Lined Overcoats

have been going some, and "there's a reason." Have you seen our Coon, Dog, Calf, Russian Lamb, Cabaratta, Marmot, Kangaroo, and many other kinds trimmed in a dozen different ways? Prices..... $12.50 to $75.00

Select your Sheep Coats from our "World Beaters" in lengths from 32 to 36 inches $4.50 to $7.00

Get your share also of our Heavy Wool and Fleeced Underwear, Great Sweaters, McKibbin's Warm, Guaranteed Caps and Mittens, Heavy Wool Pants, Fur Collars, etc., all at right prices and guaranteed.

Copyrighted 1911 by Roberts-Wicks Co.

KOPP & BARTHOLOMEW

Your Money's Worth or Your Money Back

Princeton's Clothiers

THE GIRL AND THE TRAMP

MISS FLOY MANN

BRANDS' OPERA HOUSE

Monday Evening, Nov. 27

Prices, 50c, 35c, 25c

A Prime Bunch of Horses. A carload of horses, the greater proportion young mares, have been received at our barn and are being sold at reasonable prices. They are all young, sound native horses, suitable for farm work and general purposes. If looking for reliable horses call at our barn and look over this bunch. 45-tfc King & Kaliber.

New Barber Shop. I have established a barber shop in the basement of the Princeton State bank and cordially invite the public to come and see me. Everything new. 47-2tc Carl Ness, Proprietor.

Hides and Furs Bought. I am now buying hides and furs on Saturday of each week at my old stand, north of Byers' store. Minneapolis prices paid. 46-tfc A. E. Hayes.

No Mille Lacs County Taxpayer Can Afford to be Without the Union

The Avery Clothing House

"Beach" Jackets

We are the only ones who have the "Beach" Warmback Coats, Jackets, and Vests. See them. A surprise for you.

Caps

All Fall and Winter Caps now in. Scotch and plain effects. Can fit any head.

25c to $1.50

Fur Caps up to $5.00. Hockey Caps Galore

Stag Shirts

Fosston and North Star Mackinaw Shirts and Pants. All wool

$3.00

Underwear

The largest stock of Men's and Boys' Underwear in town. All styles and all weights. Two piece and union suits. Per suit

50c to $5.00

Sweaters

Coat and Turtle Neck Sweaters in all colors and weights. We have the heavy athletic sweater at

50c to $6.00

Overcoats

500 Overcoats to select from. All styles and models priced so that any one can afford a new coat

$3.50 to $25.00

Make this store your headquarters for your fall and winter wants. This is the one sure way of making your dollar go farthest.

The Avery Clothing House

PRINCETON, MINN.

J. M. JOHNSON JEWELER

MAKE a specialty of repairing all kinds of complicated watches and clocks. If you have old, worn out jewelry bring it to me and I will make it like new on short notice.