State News.

The Chaska sugar beet factory has been sold by the trust to an independent corporation.

Arthur Pursley, a conductor on the Great Northern, was killed at Fergus Falls last week. He was about to take out a train and, while walking across the yards in a snow-storm, was struck by a switch engine.

Arthur H. Denson, principal witness for the state in the trial of Fred A. Briggs, pleaded guilty to robbery in the third degree before Judge Wilbur F. Booth in Minneapolis on Saturday. He was given an indeterminate sentence to the state's prison and placed on probation for one year.

Michael Carney died at Faribault last week, aged 100 years 1 month and 24 days. He celebrated his 100th anniversary on September 29. Mr. Carney was born in Ireland and came to America when 26. He lived in Minnesota more than 45 years. He took the pledge from Father Mathew in Ireland when 12 years old and never used tobacco or liquor.

Savings representing the hard labor of five years at a tailor's bench, were stolen on Sunday night from Frank Towell of Warren, who accepted the invitation of a stranger and shared a room with him at 124 Second avenue S., Minneapolis. The stranger and $1,200, the money Towell had saved to visit relatives in Bulgaria, were gone when he awoke.

Three years ago Erick Erickson bought a home south of Cokato and moved his family into it. Before the purchase there had been a death from tuberculosis in the house, and Erickson bought a quantity of furniture and bedding from the former owner, the articles and home having not been properly fumigated. One of Erickson's children died last spring and last week two more died, all having contracted the disease. The nine surviving members of the family are also said to be infected.

The body of Mrs. W. E. Sivwright, a woman universally beloved and prominent in all good work, was found in the cistern underneath the kitchen at her home in Hutchinson by her daughter. Mr. Sivwright was attending court at Glencoe. Bruises on the body suggest that she must have opened the cistern, probably to ascertain the amount of water it contained, and then stepped into it, the bruises being received in the fall. She was about 65 years old and an aunt of former State Senator W. W. Sivwright.

State Treasurer Walter J. Smith issued his annual report, covering the fiscal year ending July 31. He compares business done by the state treasury in the first year of statehood, 1858-59, and the fifty-second year. During the first year receipts, including a balance of $5,943 carried over from the territorial treasury, were $291,911.79, and $250,000 of this was realized from the sale of state bonds. Disbursements were $282,839.18. In the last fiscal year receipts were $15,612,048.79, and including the balance from the previous year they were $19,873,280.46. Disbursements were $16,364,789.21, leaving a balance of $3,508,491.25.

Ruined Each Other.

Two broken down paupers met in the poorhouse yard, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. It was evident to each that the other had seen better days; each could see in the other's face the sign that a noble and ingenious mind had succumbed to the blows of an adverse fortune.

"Friend, what has reduced you to this sad condition?" the first asked gently.

"It is an old story," answered the second wreck. "I was an inventor. And every time I invented a great thing some heartless capitalist got all the profits. And—here I am! But what brought you here?"

"It is another old story. I was a capitalist. And every time I invested in some inventor's great idea it turned out worthless. Shake, comrade—we have ruined each other!"

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Wheat market—No. 1 hard, 65 cents; No. 1 northern, 62 cents; No. 2 northern, 57 cents.

Spread the news far and near, Princeton has the best wheat market in this part of the state.

Aug. Rines had the honor of receiving the first paid commercial dispatch over the railroad telegraph line.

Levi Vinson of Princeton township thinks he has slaughtered the boss hog this season. It was not fat and when dressed weighed 548 pounds.

Mrs. C. H. Rines and daughter, Jean, were the first Princeton ladies to make the round trip from Princeton to St. Paul, which they did on Tuesday.

The Union believes in good roads summer or winter. A farmer hauling a load of wheat to town does not care about having his load upset more than half a dozen times in a distance of three or four miles.

Amos Chadbourne, the depot master, has been at his post since Monday morning. Amos is a steady young man, an expert telegraph operator, understands his business and will prove satisfactory to the company and the citizens of Princeton.

The ball at the Palace rink passed off very nicely. The music, by Sidwell's band, was all that could be desired, and although a few whiskey floats and beer tubs in Minneapolis have boycotted Mr. Sidwell, his services will always be in demand on special occasions.

Hon. C. H. Chadbourne, although a resident of Sherburne county, manifests a paternal interest in everything that pertains to Princeton. He can be found at or about the elevator and depot buildings most any time of day suggesting and advising, and his advice is always sound.

All aboard for Elk River, Anoka, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Train going south leaves Princeton at 7:30 a. m. every day except Sunday. Train from the south due here at 6:30 p. m. every day except Sunday. You can eat your breakfast in Princeton, have five hours in St. Paul or six in Minneapolis and return home in time for supper.

Horses That Will Suit You.

Last Monday my special representative arrived here with a carload of young native mares which are strong, sound, and adapted to various kinds of work. They have been selected with great care from among hundreds by an expert horseman and they will stand close inspection. On the whole these mares cannot be excelled in this part of the country. Call at my barn on Monday and judge for yourselves. 47-tfc Aulger Rines.

For Service.

The registered Holstein Friesian bull, Pride Junior De Kol, is for service at my farm. This animal is one of the best in the northwest. 43-tfc F. C. Cater, Princeton.
