Notice.

To the Taxpayers of the Towns of Wyandott and Spencer Brook, Isanti County, Minnesota:

Realizing that it would come handy for you to pay your real estate taxes where you have your market place, I have made arrangements therefor and sent copies of the tax lists of said towns to the Security State Bank of Princeton. So you can pay your taxes there. In that way you would not have to make an extra trip just to pay your taxes during your busy seasons in the spring and fall.

Respectfully,

Henry A. Olson,
Treasurer, Isanti County.

Had Better Take Vermifuge.

Some facetious person announced in the Union of January 9, and signed my name to the advertisement, that on the day of the Sanford sale, between the place of sale and my farm in Milo, a kid was lost. Whether it was a young goat or a human kid I do not know, but I presume the person who inserted the advertisement lost it. And I believe I know the fellow. What he needs is several doses of vermifuge and he had better take the remedy I prescribe. He is wormy.

Andrew Lindquist.

Farewell Surprise.

On Thursday evening of last week a farewell party was held in the M. B. A. hall, Wyandott, for Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Chilstrom and family. The guests of honor drove to the hall expecting to attend a lodge meeting. Their friends and neighbors, who planned the surprise, had informed them that their attendance was requested at a special meeting of the Good Templars. Many people were present and the time was pleasantly spent in dancing. Music was furnished by Levin's orchestra and refreshments were served at midnight.

As a token of the high esteem in which they are held by the community, Mr. and Mrs. Chilstrom were presented with a dresser and six dining room chairs. Louis Rust made the presentation speech, expressing, in a few well chosen words, the sentiments of the people. Mr. Chilstrom and wife responded with a few heartfelt words of thanks.

In the near future the family will move onto the farm which Mr. Chilstrom recently purchased at Three Corners. Their neighbors deeply regret to see them leave and wish them the best of success and happiness in their new home.
