Miss Martha Anderson returned to Minneapolis on Tuesday after enjoying a two weeks' vacation with relatives and friends in Princeton and vicinity.

Only four candidates for county commissioner in the Princeton district and they are all pretty good men, too, but only one of them can be chosen in November.

The entertainment given at the opera house last evening by Miss Davies' elocution pupils and Mrs. Sundt's music class was first-class in every respect and a large audience was present.

Miss Amly Sjolos of Hoffman, who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Mossman for several weeks, went to St. Paul on Monday to resume her studies at the state university. She is studying medicine.

The Union is still doing business at the old stand. All kinds of job printing at reasonable rates. If you want to reach the people of Mille Laacs and adjoining counties you can always do it through the columns of the Union.

A horse owned by Will Ross of Blue Hill last week stepped into a spring hole and broke the ligaments of one of its hind legs. Consequently it will not be again fit for work for three or four months. This will greatly handicap Will in his harvest work.

There is not much stir in local politics as far as the primary election is concerned. Some of the candidates are just jockeying for a chance to get on the ballot at the regular election in November. There promises to be something doing at the November election.

The Onamia Lake Breeze is having trouble with its cylinder press—cogs have warped, or something of that sort—and makes an apology for the poor print. The Breeze need make no apology. It is readable and full of news—the best Breeze that Onamia ever sent forth.

The annual meeting of the Christian church of Wyannett was held on Sunday and people gathered in large number from the surrounding country to attend the exercises. Rev. F. H. Marshall addressed the meeting in the morning and Mrs. Hixson of Cambridge in the afternoon.

A few neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Will Pearson in Baldwin to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary last Thursday afternoon. The ladies had a very jolly time. At 5 o'clock Mrs. Pearson served a bounteous supper. Mrs. Pearson received several pretty birthday gifts.

On Sunday as many of Mrs. Starr's former Sunday school class members as could be gathered together met on the banks of Rum river and passed a pleasant afternoon. The gathering was in honor of Miss Lulu Leach of Minneapolis, who was at one time a member of Mrs. Starr's class. Luncheon was served to 19 guests.

Among the numerous callers at the Union office last Saturday were Mr. Hall of Stanford, accompanied by Mr. Henry Murphy of Baldwin. The Baldwin seer is slightly inclined to favor Woodrow Wilson for president, but Mr. Hall refused to commit himself. The editor tried to convince Henry that he ought to support Debs. But he refused to be convinced.

Services will be held at the Methodist church in Geramny next Sunday forenoon, beginning at 10 o'clock. On Monday, September 2, beginning at 8 p. m., will be our last quarterly meeting for the present conference year. Rev. Hoffmann of St. Paul, district superintendent, will be with us and preach in the English language. He will also conduct the communion service and preside at the conference. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings. William C. Achterkirch, Pastor.

A horse, attached to a buggy in which were seated two young people, became frightened by the approach of an automobile in the south part of the village on Sunday evening and performed several contortion acts which threw the occupants of the vehicle out on the damp, cold ground. The buggy was damaged but the young folks escaped injury.

Last Friday evening Mr. Charles M. Babcock, County Auditor Chas. E. Swanson, County Treasurer Godfrey Wicktor and Mr. Fraser came over from Elk River in the former's automobile and visited friends here for a few hours. Neither Mr. Swanson or Mr. Wicktor will have any opposition for re-election this fall. They are both competent and obliging officers and deserve to be treated that way.

Thos. Ford, formerly of Glendorado, died in the Fergus Falls hospital from tuberculosis on August 22. He was 38 years of age. The funeral was held from the Glendorado Lutheran church on Monday morning and Rev. Langseth conducted the services. He is survived by a father, mother, seven brothers and five sisters. The family wishes to thank those who so kindly assisted at the obsequies.

One of the republican candidates for attorney general, Mr. Thomas Fraser of Rochester, made a flying trip to Princeton on Saturday afternoon. He had motored from Minneapolis via Anoka and Elk River. From here Mr. Fraser went to Foley and intended to make St. Cloud the same evening. Mr. Fraser is a pleasant gentleman to meet, but the present attorney general, Mr. Lyndon A. Smith, seems to be the favorite in this neck o' the woods.

Mrs. F. H. Marshall and family of Wyannett departed on Monday for Lake Crystal, where they will visit friends for a week and then, with Rev. Marshall, go to Enid, Oklahoma. Rev. Marshall is a professor in the university at that place and, with his family, has for 10 years passed the summer months in Wyannett and conducted services in the Christian church. He has accomplished much good work during his sojourns in Isanti county.

The New Meat Market.
Our new meat market will open on Saturday, at which time we shall be prepared to furnish you with everything in our line of business at reasonable prices. A share of your patronage will be appreciated. Foltz & Olson.

The Duluth Herald
Is the paper to read to get all the political news. Wilson, Roosevelt, Taft, and the rest of the candidates share the Herald's news columns equally.

Slip a dollar bill in an envelope with your name and address and get The Herald for three months. That will cover the campaign. 36-3

Fall Announcement

With a feeling of pride we are now able to announce that our fall goods are here. There are three reasons why you should inspect these charming styles and uncommon values.

First, the styles are exceedingly new.

Second, the quality is excellent.

Third, the prices mean money saved.

A fine lot of suits priced at $20.00 and $22.50, but worth more. You must see them to be convinced. Others at $10.00 to $18.00.

We much prefer showing you these things to telling you about them. Come. You will be just as welcome a looker as a buyer.
