

The Farm Fireside.
Cleanings by Our Country Correspondents.

WOODWARD BROOK.

The frost came too early to suit some of us.
Rev. F. Armquist and two children of Milaca spent Saturday at M. C. Thorrings.
Rev. Myer and H. Van de Riet spent Friday afternoon at the Starkenburg home.
August Anderson arrived home last week from Willmar, where he spent some time thrashing.
Miss Bertha Minks left on Monday for Minneapolis, where she has resumed her position as housekeeper.
Neal Byl and Mark Newman, each with a corn binder, helped harvest the corn of the farmers around here.
Albert Anderson was taken quite sick last week, so that he had to give up his work with Reibe's thrashing rig.
Miss Alma Reiber returned from the cities on Monday in order to be present at the funeral of Wayne Caley.

The Bogus Brook town board met in regular business session at the home of Town Clerk Franzen last Wednesday.

Rev. C. Larson, Sunday school missionary, was in our community last week on business pertaining to the Sunday school.

Miss Julia Anderson took the train at Paese on Thursday and went to Princeton to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Hatch.

Mrs. John Van Someren and babe have returned to their home at Baldwin, Wis., after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends here.

Miss Julia Anderson left for Page on Monday. There she began teaching on Tuesday. We hope she will have success in her chosen vocation.

Rev. Lambkin and family of Minneapolis, who have been making their home with P. C. Van Someren the past month, left for their home last Saturday.

Miss Ellen Slagter celebrated her fourteenth birthday anniversary last Thursday evening, to which 14 of her young friends were invited. A pleasant evening is reported.

M. C. Thorrings and family entertained a number of neighbors and friends on Sunday at dinner. O. Peterson and Buttermaker Warner and families from Princeton were among the guests.

A Log on the Track of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hesseimer of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50 cents at C. A. Jack's.

ZIMMERMAN.

Prof. Malm visited friends and relatives here over Sunday.

The new telephone office is completed and is one we can be proud of.

Mrs. Emily Olson of Minneapolis came up to visit her mother and brothers last week.

Mrs. Simon Muffley visited her daughter, Mrs. Wheeler, at Princeton a few days last week.

There will be a dance in the M. W. A. hall on Friday night, October 4. Good music will be furnished.

Dr. Cooney was called on Monday to see Mrs. Sam Kight. On Tuesday she was taken to the Northwestern hospital.

Prof. Malm, Miss Munson, Mrs. W. R. Hurrut and Winnie Lovell went to Big Lake on Sunday to attend church services.

Miss Mae Looney of Anoka came on the evening train Saturday and spent Sunday with her relatives here. She returned Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Iliff drove to Elk River with their daughter, Myrtle, and son, Lyle, who are attending school there. They were also accompanied by Lillie Stendahl.

Fortunes in Faces.

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but it's never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and show the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25 cents at C. A. Jack's.

BLUE HILL.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavelle purchased a new piano last week.

Mr. Van Clete has his new house completed on his farm.

Mr. Lavelle of the Bellacroix stock farm sold a fine bunch of fat cattle to Princeton buyers and delivered them on Monday.

Chas. Kuhlman cut a field of corn for C. W. Taylor this week.

Mike Kalher has purchased a new five-passenger automobile.

Scalberg & Swanbro have a crew of men digging their potatoes.

Sam Tilley is doing the thrashing in this neighborhood this week.

Chas. Brande and family spent Sunday as guests of Hartman Camp and family.

Miss Edna Olsen has returned from Elk River, where she was employed in the Blanchett hotel.

District 36 has a two weeks' potato-digging vacation to give the kids a chance to pick up spuds.

Chas. Thompson left on Tuesday for a month's trip through Montana, Idaho, Washington and Utah.

Grover Taylor is home from the hospital and is able to move around a little with the aid of crutches.

Miss Lucile Packard gave a rag ball social and entertainment at her school house in the Chas. Thompson district last Friday evening. A large crowd of young people was present and the social was a grand success. It netted a neat sum of money.

Saved by His Wife.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F., "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for coughs and colds, it is the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cts and $1.00. Guaranteed by C. A. Jack.

WEST SPENCER BROOK.

Ernest Patten has his granary nearly finished.

Miss Eva Morton is sewing in Princeton this week.

Charley Shearston lost 35 acres of beans last week by frost.

Mrs. Gilbert Clough is on the sick list, but is somewhat better at this writing.

Miss Maud Clough of Minneapolis spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives here.

School started last Monday in district 12, after a few days' vacation while a new heating plant was being installed.

Lyle Morton has quit his job in Minneapolis and bought a livery barn in Isanti. We hope he will do well in the business.

Frank Kniffin, who was badly burned several weeks ago, was able to be taken to the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. House, last week.

Tired, worn out women, cannot sleep, eat or work; feel as if they would fly to pieces. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea strengthens the nerves, cleanses the system, builds up the appetite, makes you well, keeps you well. 35c., tea or tablets. C. A. Jack.

GREENWOOD.

Nick Essig has purchased a new potato digger.

Emma Rosin spent the week end at her home here.

August Schmidt visited at Charles Rosin's on Sunday.

Leo Peters and wife called at Geo. Williams' on Sunday.

Miss Olga Griep of Baldwin is working for Mrs. H. Peters.

Miss Iva McCracken spent the week end at her home in Baldwin.

M. M. Colburn spent Sunday with his wife and daughter near Pease.

Will and Freda Jaenicke took dinner at Aug. Schmidt's on Sunday.

Freda Jaenicke has a two weeks' vacation on account of potato digging.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Peters called at the Eggert home on Sunday afternoon.

Arthur Peters and Alvin Rosin spent Sunday evening at A. Jaenicke's.

Everyone is busily engaged digging potatoes this week. The cold snap is hurrying them along.

It means a clear, healthy complexion for the ladies; restful nights and cheerful days for the little ones; strength and ambition for men. It's Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c. C. A. Jack.

ESTES BROOK.

Phoebe Crook is employed at Oscar Erickson's.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Erickson spent Sunday at Luther Jones'.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mahler and son, Fritz, spent Sunday at Linderbower's.

Paul Bunion has returned from the west. He has been hauling water for the Finbogson thrashing outfit at Bugle, N. D. He is now employed with the A. G. Bemis rig.

Photographer Bemis was snapshotting around town with his new camera on Monday.

H. Schramm and lady friend attended services in the M. E. church on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erickson and family were entertained at A. Christopherson's on Sunday.

Hilda Jacobson returned home on Sunday after spending the week end with relatives in Glendorado.

There will be a basket social at the M. E. church tomorrow evening. All come and help the good cause along.

The Misses Hulda and Ruth Bergman, and Messrs. Joe Shipanski and Ernie Axt spent Sunday afternoon at Sandquist's.

Hank Schramm expects to start a jewelry store soon. Hank is a reliable young man and will certainly make a success of the venture.

We believe that A. G. Bemis breaks the record for thrashing in this vicinity. He threshed 1,664 bushels of oats and barley in four hours last week. That is what we call pretty fair thrashing.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erickson gave an autumn party to about 30 guests last Saturday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in matching leaves, guessing trees, playing games, etc. The house decorations were of yellow, gold and russet brown leaves. At midnight a lunch was served and the guests departed hoping Fred and his wife would give another of those charming parties.

The following pupils of school district 7 were neither absent nor tardy during the month ending September 27: Charlie Bemis, Olga Guderian, Walter Pierson, Leonard Normandin, Gertrude Reibestein, Beatrice Rehaume, Rachel Rehaume, Hugo Frescholtz, Carl Bergman, Clarence Anderson, Oscar, Lillian and Sidney Almlie. Lulu McEvvitt and Augusta Larson, Teachers.

BALDWIN.

Mr. Trunk and family visited at the Dorff home on Sunday.

Miss Pauline Trunk began teaching in Greenbush on Monday.

A few neighbors spent Saturday evening at the Judkins' home.

Mr. and Mrs. Daml of Blue Hill spent Sunday at the Griep home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McCracken and family spent Sunday with J. B. Lane.

Miss Olga Griep is helping Mrs. Peters at Woodward Brook this week.

Maynard Angstman of Minneapolis is visiting his mother, Mrs. Emma Angstman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen went to Minneapolis on Saturday to visit friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb and daughter, Gertrude, of Greenbush visited friends in south Baldwin on Sunday.

Mrs. Judkins, who has been visiting friends and relatives in the city for the past few weeks, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Woodward and Mae Holen of Minneapolis are visiting Mrs. Woodward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Dorff.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Illinois, Mr. Bentgson and family, Miss Johnson and Miss Thiel of Princeton spent Sunday with Ben Johnson and family.

OXBOW.

Miss Myrtle Carr is home for a week's vacation.

Miss Alma Peterson has returned from Minneapolis.

Miss Brodt spent Sunday with Miss Hulda Grapentine.

Everybody is expecting a howling good time on Thursday, October 3.

Miss Emma Roadstrom visited at the Henry Steeves home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ev. Hall entertained Mr. and Mrs. Heitman of Spencer Brook on Sunday.

Mrs. Sjoberg and Mrs. Fogg of Princeton called on several friends in this neighborhood last week.

Mrs. Hugh Steeves is quite sick at this writing, and Miss Alma Whitcomb is recovering from her illness.

The Misses Ada and Laura King were welcome guests of many people in this community last week. They also visited the schools.

Mrs. Maggie Jewell of Iowa and her mother, Mrs. Sinclair of Princeton, spent a few days last week at the homes of John and Herb Gates. Many tales were told of the good old bygone days.

DISTRICT NO. 50.

Thrashing is about completed in this locality.

Herb Campbell spent Sunday at his home in Baldwin.

Mrs. Egge and son attended church in Orook on Sunday.

Mrs. Maud Anderson was a caller at the Johnson home on Sunday.

Mr. Jensen of Iowa was here a few days ago looking for land. He was very much pleased with this country and will settle here in the near future.

Miss Myrtle Norberg went to Wyanett on Saturday to visit friends for a few days.

Several old neighbors from Wyanett visited Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Norberg on Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Egge and daughter, Gertrude, attended a party at the Rosin home on Monday.

Gunner Hofflander and Walter and Kellmer Egge were callers at the Campbell home on Sunday.

Fred Murphy and Art Campbell went to Blue Hill on Saturday night to play for the dance in the La Valle hall.

Jerry Haley has the foundation for his new barn nearly completed and will commence building in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Milford, Iowa, old neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Glade, were visiting them for a few days last week and departed on Monday for Mille Lacs lake to look that country over.

LIVONIA.

Miss Laura Lynch visited home folks over Sunday.

H. C. Schumacher has purchased a new corn binder.

Mrs. Bryne Jennison, who has been very ill, is recovering.

Mrs. Chas. Cohoe is having dental work done in Princeton.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Sam Kight of Zimmerman is very sick.

Alfred Smart went to Princeton Saturday to have a goitre treated.

Mrs. A. Olson of Minneapolis is visiting her mother, Mrs. Perman.

Mrs. Jas. Iliff entertained her father from South Dakota last week.

Mrs. Will Iliff and Mrs. Bert Iliff spent Sunday at McAllister's at Blue lake.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gramhill spent Saturday and Sunday in the twin cities.

Mrs. Chas. Cohoe and Mrs. Joe Cohoe called at Mellott's and at John Cohoe's on Sunday.

Miss Ruth Iliff accompanied her cousin to her home in Minneapolis, where she will visit friends for a few days.

Mrs. Mellott took her little daughter, Adessa, to the Northwestern hospital to have a growth removed from the jaw.

SPENCER BROOK.

Mr. Milbraith of Princeton is doing mason work for Mrs. A. A. Foote and Gust Zerott.

Mr. and Mrs. Teamyers of Iowa, who bought a farm here, have now taken possession and will soon put up ne buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Blomgren and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Erickson and family of Minneapolis spent Sunday at E. D. Erickson's.

On account of the early frost many of the farmers in this vicinity will lose lots of money on their crops of early potatoes and beans.

While on his way home from Princeton on Sunday with a load of lumber A. J. Reynolds met with an accident which caused much pain. He was going down a hill known as the Cravens' hill when an automobile came up behind him, the wagon making so much noise the automobile was not heard till it was beside the team. Mr. Reynolds, when one of his horses became frightened, jumped from the wagon and was thrown back between the horses and the wheel, injuring his lower limbs and shoulders.

GREENBUSH.

Miss Minnie Betzler was a guest at Lindstrom's on Sunday.

Neil and Leland Grow spent Sunday with Clarence Grow.

Miss Agnes Fradette spent Sunday evening at Nels Rehaume's.

Miss Jennie E. Ford spent Saturday with Miss Minnie Betzler.

Miss Marie Schrepel has gone to the west, where she will teach.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Fradette passed Sunday evening at Normandin's.

Miss Jennie Ford spent Sunday afternoon at Eugene Rehaume's.

Gordon Robideau is home on a vacation. We all welcome him home.

THE GENUINE
P. P. STEWART
STOVES

P. P. Stewart Heaters

We wish to impress upon you the importance of buying a P. P. Stewart Heater. It will reduce your coal bill, and give you more heat than and other stove made. We have them in different sizes and styles from

$33.00
to $60.00

This Stewart Steel Range

9x18 reservoir and high closet, made of best cold rolled steel, fully warranted. Just like the cut. Our price

$35.00

Evens Hardware Co.
PRINCETON, MINN.

Ads in The Union Bring Results

FOLTZ & OLSON
Square Deal Meat Market
Fresh and Salt Meats, Poultry, Etc.
Oysters and Other Fish in Season
Main Street - - Princeton, Minn

The Union Gives All the News All the Time.

YOU OBTAIN A PERFECT BREW WHEN YOU ORDER

Beer
"LEADS THEM ALL" AGENCIES EVERYWHERE
THEO. HAMM BREWING CO.
ST. PAUL, MINN.