Mark's Great Bargain Store

The Man Who Makes Good

THE 18 days of our fall opening sale have proved the greatest success we ever had in Princeton. There are only two more days left of our sale, but we still find that there is over $20,000 worth of goods which have been marked down for this sale, and as we do not believe in marking the goods up again, we have decided to until every dollar's worth of goods is sold. This Extension Sale will comprise the biggest bargains ever offered. Our store is thronged these days with seekers after genuine bargains. We have concentrated every possible ounce of energy in making this a better store for all the people all the time, and we are succeeding.

Stocks are better and prices are lower. You can trade with absolute safety. There is one price and that is the lowest possible.

In Plain Words We Can Save You 50 Percent on Each Dollar's Purchase

Big line to select from of Cloaks, Suits, Overcoats, Fur Coats, Furs, Dress Goods, Blankets, Quilts, Underwear, Skirts, Shirtwaists, Sweaters, Gloves, Mittens; Shoes for Men, Boys, Ladies and Children; and Rubbers and Overshoes will all go at the low prices to which these goods were marked down at the beginning of the sale. Sales may come and sales may go, but bargains at Mark's Store can not be equaled.

We noticed an item in the Blue Hill correspondence of Armitage's paper which said that the 840 shares of the Farmers' Telephone Co had been raised another twenty and that was on account of the rotten poles that were being used. Now we are a member of that association and we haven't heard of any raise, and we have handled quite a number of those poles, and we don't see but what they average about the same as other telephone poles. The writer of that article can't be a farmer, as farmers pull together, you know.
