ZIMMERMAN.

Dr. Schon is kept very busy now-days.

I. F. Walker will ship stock next week.

G. O. Tew left Friday morning for California.

Emil Swartz was a passenger to Minneapolis on Monday.

Mr. Oberman of Elk River was in town on business Monday.

E. H. Foley made a business trip to Elk River on Saturday.

Capt. Truax of Hastings was visiting at Chas. Iliff's last week.

The Zimmerman Produce Co. held a meeting on Tuesday afternoon.

The I. O. O. F. met on Wednesday evening and installed their officers.

Mrs. Bert Nash and daughter, Ethel, drove to Princeton Saturday.

W. R. Hurtt attended a lumbermen's convention in Minneapolis this week.

E. H. Foley began filling ice houses on Monday for M. C. Blanchett and Milton Dairy Co.

An 11½-pound girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nordwall last Friday morning.

Rev. Wm. J. Hume, an evangelist, held services in the Union church Tuesday evening.

Dr. Schon was called on Saturday to see Miss Smith, school teacher in the Spencer district.

The streets of Zimmerman were crowded Tuesday with teams that brought in potatoes.

Mrs. N. B. Neumann visited her brother, Wm. McAllister, at Blue lake last Wednesday.

The store formerly owned by Mr. Tew is running in full blast with Mr. Kittilson in charge.

Miss Agnes Looney, who has been in Illinois for the past three months, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith came down on the morning train Tuesday and returned in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson are very proud over the arrival of a baby at their home last Saturday.

Miss Burns was a guest at the Chas. Hiller home at Crown from Friday evening until Sunday evening.

Mrs. Jack Larsen, who has been sick with a cold for the last two weeks, went to Princeton on Monday night to consult Dr. Cooney.

Mr. and Mrs. Berglund spent a few days in Minneapolis last week purchasing goods for their new house. They expect to go to housekeeping as soon as their goods arrive.

Hilmer Olson, formerly of the firm of Olson & Pederson Hwde. Co., at this place, now a traveling salesman for the American Gas Light Co., was visiting friends in town last week. Mr. Olson's territory is Montana and Canada.

One of our popular men in town has a shot gun he wishes to exchange for a pig. Suppose he would put an ad in the paper but thinks it might cost him more than the gun would be worth. For particulars inquire at the depot.

Miss Lillian Olson, sister of Arthur and Herman Olson, who spent a few weeks here with them last summer, is now teaching in the schools of Dallas, Texas, an appointment which she received about the first of the year at a salary of $1,000 per annum. She is teaching domestic science.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, regulates the bowels, aids the kidneys, cures stomach troubles, builds up the nervous force and repairs the ill effects of over eating. Tea or tablets, 35 cents. C. A. Jack.

WOODWARD BROOK.

George Hertel and Bert Starkenburg were in Bock on business last Friday.

sion on February 6. A cordial invitation is extended.

There was a masquerade ball at the home of Gilbert Anderson last Saturday evening. Evidently the maskers found it pretty cold, as few were there.

Mr. and Mrs. Naseth and two daughters, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Larson, departed for their home at Choteau, Mont., last Wednesday.

The Glendorado Farmers' Co-operative creamery held its annual meeting last week. All the old officers were retained and Andrew Anderson was elected to succeed N. M. Nelson, deceased, as trustee. The profits of the past year are gratifying. The Glendorado farmers find dairying to be very profitable and are gradually increasing their herds and improving the breed.

The Glendorado Farmers' Co-operative creamery held its annual meeting last week. All the old officers were retained and Andrew Anderson was elected to succeed N. M. Nelson, deceased, as trustee. The profits of the past year are gratifying. The Glendorado farmers find dairying to be very profitable and are gradually increasing their herds and improving the breed.
