

The Farm Fireside.

Gleanings by Our Country Correspondents.

BLUE HILL.

Wesley Wood of Waseca county is visiting his brother, R. A. Wood. Mr. O'Leary of Minneapolis spent a few days with his brother-in-law, Mr. Mullan.

John Wheeler of Baldwin is building a fine machine shed, 16 by 32 feet, for Arthur Groff.

Chas. Reichart returned on Saturday evening after a three weeks' visit with his brothers in Wisconsin.

The sandstorms of last Friday, with the north wind, were about the worst ever experienced in this country.

Miss Alice Fullwiler has returned home after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Adams, at Valley City, N. D.

The long winter months—heavy foods—lack of exercise decrease your vitality, make you feel mean. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea gives you vitality—clears the blood—builds up flesh. Makes you strong and robust. Great spring medicine. Tea or tablets, 35 cents. C. A. Jack.

LIVONIA.

Sven Kight is home from the woods.

Mrs. Gabrielson lost her driving horse last week.

The Lovell and Wright families spent Monday evening at J. Hiff's.

Mabel Johnson spent a few days with her brother, Ed, and his wife last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Montri and Crick Mulder took dinner at Chas. Cohoe's on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Schwartz and Mrs. J. Looney of Zimmerman spent Wednesday afternoon at Hiff's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Phillip and Mabel Johnson and Roy and Queen Van Gaudren called at Hiff's on Sunday.

Mrs. Mellott spent the greater part of this week at her old home in Baldwin helping her uncle, Billy O'Malley, pack his furniture. Billy is moving to Princeton.

Worry is the mother of sick, nervous and troubled mentality; upsets the entire physical system. The body is a network of nerves. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea soothes and freshens the entire system. Try it tonight. C. A. Jack.

GLENDORADO AND SANTIAGO.

T. Jensen spent last week visiting friends at Ervin.

Abe Knutson transacted business in Foley on Monday.

L. J. Madson of Glendorado called at the Knutson and Uran homes last Friday.

Miss Gladys Campbell attended the teachers' convention at St. Cloud last week.

The Foreign Missionary society will hold a special meeting at Mrs. Henry Orrock's on March 27.

Mrs. N. H. Nelson and Mrs. Nevard of Santiago spent Thursday with the former's mother, Mrs. Tor. Olson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Solberg and family departed for Minneapolis on Saturday and left there on Monday for Tacoma, Wash. We are sorry to lose the old settlers, but wish them prosperity in their new home.

The town election passed off quietly in both Glendorado and Santiago, both towns re-electing the old board. Glendorado voted $1,200 for road and bridge fund and Santiago voted the same amount for the same purpose, also $800 to build a town hall, which will be a great improvement. It will be built near the creamery.

Are You Constipated?

If so get a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, take them regularly and your trouble will quickly disappear. They will stimulate the liver, improve your digestion and get rid of all the poisons from your system. They will surely get you well again. 25c at C. A. Jack's.

PEASE.

John Van Slooten has resigned his position with J. A. Jetsinga.

Mrs. F. H. Bartlett left on Tuesday for a visit with relatives and friends at Rice.

Miss Johanna Kiel, who was employed at the Commercial hotel in Princeton for a month, is home again.

The Alderink boys have returned from Wahkon, where they completed a logging contract. They cut and hauled over 200,000 feet of logs.

Mrs. G. Brink returned last Wednesday from Raymond, where she spent a few weeks, together with her husband, visiting relatives. Mr. Brink is expected this week with a car of live stock, machinery, etc., which he purchased while there. They will soon locate on their farm, formerly owned by S. Van Otterloo. On account of the storm last Friday not enough farmers were present at the meeting to organize a co-operative store. Another meeting will be held on Monday, March 24, at 1 o'clock sharp. A committee of three was appointed to consider the proposition which J. A. Jetsinga is going to make them on his stock of general merchandise.

Best for Skin Diseases.

Nearly every skin disease yields quickly and permanently to Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and nothing is better for burns or bruises. Soothes and heals. John Deye of Galdwin, Mich., says, after suffering twelve years with skin ailment and spending $400 in doctors' bills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. It will help you. Only 25c. Recommended by C. A. Jack.

WOODWARD BROOK.

Walter Moline of Pease bought a Holstein calf from M. C. Thorrington last week.

Joe Caley is moving onto the 40-acre farm of John Shea, the former Goldberg place.

Garret De Boer of Pease was in Woodward Brook calling on friends Sunday evening.

Albert Reibe, jr., has bought a fine young mare and says he will soon go farming in Blue Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Draxten visited with the Henry Uglem family at Long Siding on Sunday.

Chris Minks had his property re-insured last week in the Glendorado Fire Insurance Co., of which Wm. Talen is agent.

Mrs. P. C. Van Someren returned on Tuesday from Baldwin, Wis., where she spent a couple of weeks with relatives and friends.

A special meeting of all members of the Woodward Brook Telephone Co. was held on Monday evening in the school house of district 12.

Neal Byl evidently does not believe in taking things easy, for he is sawing wood every day. Just now he is in the neighborhood of Pease.

Mark Newman, who was helping his father for a while with the farm work, has returned to Princeton and is now employed by the Evens Hardware Co.

So many people are ill with the grippe nowadays that we will not try to mention names. We will all be glad to give this troublesome visitor a ticket to some far-off country.

School district 12 will have a week's Easter vacation. The parcel sale and entertainment will be given soon after this vacation. Miss Miller, principal, will spend her vacation with relatives in the twin cities.

Best Known Cough Remedy.

For forty-three years Dr. King's New Discovery has been known throughout the world as the most reliable cough remedy. Over three million bottles were used last year. Isn't this proof? It will get rid of your cough, or we will refund your money. J. J. Owens of Allendale, S. C., writes the way hundreds of others have done: "After twenty years, I find that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds that I have ever used." For coughs or colds and all throat and lung troubles it has no equal. 50c and $1.00 at C. A. Jack's.

BOGUS BROOK AND BORGHOLM.

Mrs. Petra Peterson visited school in district 28 on Wednesday.

The Sewing circle met at the C. A. Erickson home on Wednesday.

Wm. Hofferbert is busy moving onto the place he rented some time ago.

John Hedin left last week for Ramey, where he is to solicit for the Yeomen lodge.

Mrs. Chas. West has returned from Stockholm, Wis., where she has been visiting for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Newgard are moving onto the place they recently purchased from W. S. Tyler of Milaca.

Miss Evelyn Olson and brother of Mora arrived on Monday for a few days' visit at the A. P. Lindstrom home.

Elick, Henry and Louie Westling left for Glendorado on Monday for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hofferbert and family spent an enjoyable evening at the A. P. Lindstrom home on Sunday.

The folks who purchased the J. L. Carlson farm have taken possession of their new home. We extend a hearty welcome.

Mrs. C. P. Johnson, who has been confined to her bed for some time with rheumatism, is somewhat better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanson of South Dakota have been here visiting Mr. Swanson's cousin, Nels M. Peterson. They were on their bridal tour.

The Misses Myrtle and Tillie Fol-wick, Anna Johnson and Olga Fran-son were entertained at the Gust Johnson home on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Folwick and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albin Swenson and children, and Misses Anna Johnson and Petra Peterson were callers at the Nels Olson home on Sunday evening.

A farewell party was held at the Yeomen hall on Saturday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Taft, who left on Tuesday for their home at Cut Bank, Mont. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and social conversation, and will be long remembered by those present.

The members of Homestead No. 4148, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, met at the Yeomen hall on Saturday afternoon for a wood-sawing bee. While the men were busy with the wood the ladies were exceptionally busy in the kitchen preparing the edibles that were furnished by the members. After the work was done lunch was served in that old-fashioned way that went straight to the heart of everybody, not excepting Louis, who is no amateur at eating pie.

ZIMMERMAN.

Merton Foley is getting along nicely.

R. E. Lyoch went to Minneapolis on Tuesday.

Mrs. Hewson called on friends in town Saturday.

Wm. Walker shipped stock from here on Tuesday.

Grandma Bean was ill a few days last week but is better at this writing.

Mrs. W. A. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Foley, this week.

Mrs. Charleston, cook at the Blanchett hotel, left on Saturday for her home in Minneapolis.

Larson and Lynch left on Thursday for Floodwood, where they have contracts to drill several wells.

E. H. Foley made a business trip to Sandstone on Friday evening and returned on Saturday morning.

Wm. Swanson and B. A. Kettilson have a small stock of millinery in their stores. Now is a chance to get your Easter bonnets.

There was a large crowd at the dance Monday night and an enjoyable time was had by all. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchett served an excellent supper.

Mrs. N. B. Neumann and son, Floyd, went to the cities on Friday and left Roy in charge of the culinary department, in which he seems to be very efficient from the reports heard of the delicious cream puffs and different kinds of cake he has been passing around to some of his friends. It is a good thing for Roy that this is not leap year or he would be captured.

John Kight, formerly an old settler of this locality but now located at Lenore, Idaho, has been spending the most of the winter in this part of the country. He returned from La Crosse, Wis., a short time ago with a Mrs. Lydia Reed, an old-time friend and schoolmate, as his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Kight are at present with John M. Cook, but expect soon to leave for their home in Idaho.

GERMANY.

Emil Gens purchased a horse at the Quade auction.

Otto Bensch of St. Paul is visiting at the A. Falk home.

Sidney Schmidt has returned home from Osseo, where he was visiting.

A number of people from this vicinity attended church in Princeton on Sunday evening.

On Monday afternoon fire broke out in the smoke house of R. Manke and burned it to the ground.

A few of our boys and girls were confirmed in the German Lutheran church in Princeton on Sunday.

Albert Schilling left for Minneapolis on Monday after spending a few weeks here with relatives and friends.

OSBOW.

John Gates' granary is nearly completed.

Mrs. George Taylor spent Sunday at Ed Hall's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schmidt spent Sunday at Geo. Tomlinson's.

Mesdames Herbert and John Gates visited at Carl Dehn's one day last week.

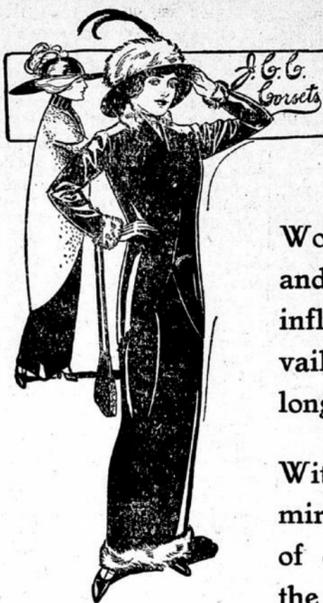

Elvira Erickson and her sister called at Oscar Miller's on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dibblee called on Mrs. Henry Steeves on Monday evening.

Last Tuesday evening a few friends surprised Hugo Grapentin, the occasion being his twenty-first birthday anniversary.

The Ladies' Aid society met with Miss Hulda Grapentin last Thursday. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ernest Radeke.

Mrs. Grapentin entertained at dinner on Sunday in honor of her son

A New Note in Spring Fashions for 1913

Women's fashions for nineteen hundred and thirteen are entirely feminine. The influence of mannish ideas that has prevailed for the past four seasons is no longer evident.

With the trim lines that everyone admires are combined those little touches of ornamentation that are so dear to the feminine heart.

The First Showing of Correct Man-Tailored Suits and Coats IS THIS WEEK

A full range of sizes in the most desirable colors of serges, light weight chevots, and novelty cloths. Coats have flat collars with lapels of silk or satin and trimmings of oriental color. Skirts are plain with a slight pannier effect.

J. C. C. Corsets Are Made for the Woman Who Cares

Suits at $15.00 to $35.00
Coats at $12.50 to $25.00

A. E. Allen & Co.

Carl's confirmation. Among those present were Rev. and Mrs. Ahl and daughter, the Bensemans, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, John Williams, Miss Brodt and the Geberts.

THREE CORNERS.

Everyone around here attended John Warring's sale.

Otis Buckingham returned from the woods on Friday.

Anyone wishing to buy seed corn should apply to Nelson King.

The dance at Ellen Hyndman's was well attended and everybody had a pleasant time.

Misses Iva and Gladys Ellenbaum visited at Hosea Hunt's and went to the dance at Hyndman's on Saturday.

We are glad to hear it was not Ellwood House that was killed but sorry to learn it was Mrs. House's brother.

John Warring has been called to Iowa on account of death in the family and Mrs. Warring and children are visiting at George Way's.

OPSTEAD.

Miss Annie Haglund left last Saturday for Duluth.

Miss Jennie Lofgren is employed at the home of Harry Ellgren.

Mrs. Neal Johnson, who has been sick for some time, is still confined to her bed.

Roy Addington went to Wahkon last Friday and expects to resume his duties again next Monday.

The stork called at Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellgren's on Tuesday evening, March 11, and left in their keeping a fine baby boy.

Hans Peterson gave a few of the young folks here a sleighride on Sunday evening. Hans is very popular with the young folks.

Most of the officers elected at the town election met at the clerk's office last Saturday to qualify for their respective offices.

Mrs. John Skretting and family and Peter Sehlin and family were entertained at the D. C. Anderson home last Sunday afternoon.

A. C. Kilmer has moved his sawmill from Eastwood down to Addington & Stevens' yards at Brookside. He expects to start sawing in a very short time.

GREENBUSH.

John Thompson spent Sunday at his home at Long Siding.

Miss Pearl Labbissonniere spent Sunday with Miss Esther Normandin.

Miss Octavie Rocheford has returned home after a month's visit

Harness Oiled $1.00 PER SET

Take your harness to J. H. Hoffman. He uses the best oil. You will not get your hands and clothes dirty from the harness he oils. This is also a good time to get your harness repaired.

"A Stitch in Time Saves Nine"

An honest dollar's worth of work for a dollar is our motto. Bring in your harness.

J. H. HOFFMAN Princeton, Minnesota

for the past three weeks, is a little better.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Williams visited a few days last week with friends at Milaca.

Olof and Peter Peterson returned last week from Bruno, where they have been working during the winter.

Richard Daudt, who has purchased the farm formerly owned by J. L. Turner, moved here last week from Becker.

The Sewing society met at P. B. Peterson's last Friday and the Young People's society met there Saturday evening.

Rev. H. M. Olson held English services in the Chapman school house last Sunday as the Oxlip church is being painted.

About 20 friends surprised A. J. Reynolds last Saturday evening, it being his fifty-seventh birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in playing games, and supper was served by Mrs. Reynolds.

with relatives and friends at St. Paul and other points.

Miss Randi Pederson and John Pederson spent Sunday evening at Henry Foster's.

Services were held in St. Francis Catholic church here on Sunday by Rev. Jos. Willenbrink.

Archie Robideau spent Sunday with relatives here. Archie is attending school in town.

Peter Raiche returned to Minneapolis on Monday after a visit of several weeks with relatives here.

Misses Randi Pederson and Elvina Hartman and Messrs. Edward and John Pederson, Ben Hartman and Ray Wetsel spent Sunday at Stello's.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Norwegian Lutheran church will meet with Mrs. Jacobson on Wednesday, March 26. Everyone welcome.

A party was given at the Jacobson home last Saturday evening, the occasion being Miss Hilda's birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in various amusements.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Corteau and family and Misses Pauline Trunk, Kathryn McArdle, and Hazel Robideau, Messrs. Richard Degnies, Real Robideau and Max Corteau were entertained at the Rocheford home on Sunday.