

Ansbacher's Pure Paris Green

put up in the original packages and containing the full quantity you pay for is the best and handiest to use. In this way you are sure to get what you pay for, and of full strength as signified by the pure food department.

We have it and will be pleased to supply your wants.

Open Sundays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

C. A. JACK
The Rexall Druggist

Items

Of interest from various sources.

George I. Staples is the only person who is authorized to collect money due this office. In every case the party paying money is entitled to and should insist upon receiving a printed receipt. R. C. DUNN, Publisher.

Nelson's photos please the people. Jacob Van Rhee was down from Milaca on business Monday.

St. Cloud vs. Princeton at fair grounds next Sunday afternoon.

Lard, at Hummel's, 12 1/2 cents a pound while it lasts. Bring your pails. 24-tfc

George Deans was here from Foreston on Tuesday shaking hands with friends.

If you want to buy a farm call and see Robt. H. King, for he has the best at right prices. 6-tfc

Lyle Jesmer of St. Paul is here on a visit to relatives and will return to his work tomorrow.

Hon. C. N. Orr drove up from St. Paul last Thursday in his automobile and returned on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Wicktor came up from Elk River on Monday and attended the circus.

H. W. Saxon arrived in Princeton on Monday from Lake Park to visit relatives and attend the circus.

Lard, 12 1/2 cents a pound while it lasts. Bring your pails. Bacon, 16 and 18 cents per pound. Calvin Olson. 25-tfc

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Foley of Zimmerman were here on Saturday, as was also the irrepressible Harry Pratt.

Chas. J. Anderson and Anna Anderson, both of Milaca, were married by Justice A. Z. Norton on Monday.

Learn more to earn more. Take a course in Mankato Commercial College, Mankato, Minn. Send for catalogue. 26-2tc

Henry J. Crepeau, wife and family, of St. Paul arrived here last week for a visit with Mr. Crepeau's mother, Mrs. DeJarlais.

Did you ever see the St. Cloud team play? If not you will have an opportunity to do so at the fair grounds here next Sunday.

The streets of Wahkon are being fixed up in first-class shape and the people of the village are entitled to credit for their progressiveness.

The ball game advertised to take place at Cambridge last Sunday was postponed in consequence of two funerals held at that place upon that day.

The heavy St. Cloud team will be here on Sunday and tackle the Princeton boys at the fair grounds. This will surely be a whirlwind of a game.

A marriage license was issued on Saturday by Deputy Clerk of Court Carrie Hansmeyer to Chas. E. Newberg and Augusta Anderson, both of Borgholm.

Dr. J. F. Kothman, optometrist, will be in town on Friday and Saturday, July 11 and 12. Eyes examined and glasses fitted. Office at Commercial hotel. 23-tfc

Miss Bertha A. Haggberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Haggberg of Redtop, was married at the home of her parents on June 16 to Fred J. Kaerwar of St. Cloud.

The town and village boards of equalization of Mille Lacs county met on Monday. Not many changes were made in Princeton town and village in the assessors' returns.

Rev. A. Blomgren, a pioneer Baptist minister of Isanti county, died last week and the funeral was held on Sunday from the Isanti Baptist church. He was 65 years of age and had lived on a farm in Isanti township for 42 years.

Mrs. E. M. Chapman arrived here on Saturday from St. Cloud to visit relatives.

William Generous and William Anderson of Vineland were in town on business Tuesday.

Miss Myrtle Waldhoff of North Branch is visiting relatives here and attending summer school.

Mrs. John Rundquist and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith the forepart of the week.

Mrs. Jordan, two sons and a niece, of Minneapolis are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dexter of Spencer Brook are here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith. They are Mrs. Smith's parents.

Mrs. B. P. Taylor of Winnipeg and Mrs. Edward Hunt of Grand Forks each with a chubby son, are here on a visit to relatives.

Orton & Kaliber advertise a number of Fourth of July specials this week. Don't fail to read their advertisement in this number.

Up in the lake country the Fourth of July will be celebrated at Onamia, Wahkon and Malmo, and the Indians will probably pull off a snake dance or two.

The Evens Hardware company's new warehouse has been completed by Will Drescher and it is a building of substantial construction and large capacity.

Solomon Long's special shoe sale closes on Saturday but a bargain counter will be conducted until all marked-down goods are sold. Read ad in this issue.

Money to loan on improved farms at current rates. Liberal on or before privileges. See me before placing your loan. Robt. H. King, Princeton, Minn. 6-tfc

Duren Jack speeded over from Litchfield on his motorcycle Sunday and returned Monday. Duren is some goer when it comes to motorcycle manipulation.

Many a man is hard to satisfy, yet all he needs is a hair restorer and Dander-Off cure; which is Hughel's Dander-Off. Sold and guaranteed at Anderson & Earley's tonsorial parlor. 13-tfc

Tom Yotten's check from the Princeton Co-operative creamery was over $100 for the month of May. Considering the number of cows Mr. Yotten milks this is a splendid return.

Many people attended the picnic at Long Siding on Sunday and enjoyment prevailed throughout the afternoon. The management left nothing undone to make things pleasant for the visitors.

Frank Peterson of Montana, formerly of Princeton, who has been in a hospital in southern Minnesota, arrived here on Saturday for a visit to his son, Oscar. His wife leaves the same hospital today.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Robbins of Vineland arrived here on Tuesday and left this morning for Minneapolis. From there they will proceed to Gettysburg to attend the semi-centennial celebration.

The hardwood floor at the armory is being laid with all possible rapidity and William Drescher tells us that the building will be completed and ready for Company G to move into it in less than three weeks.

A grand ball will be given in Betzler's barn, Greenbush, on the evening of July Fourth. Room for 10 sets. Ice cream and soft drinks will be served. First-class music. Everyone who attends is assured a good time. 27-2tc

H. Kewitsch, treasurer of Le Sueur county, and Frank Koepf, who have been visiting relatives in Greenbush and Milo, returned to their homes this morning. They were among the Union's visitors yesterday.

Rufus P. Morton is here from North Dakota on a visit.

Remember the basket social on Foltz' lawn tomorrow evening.

Ball game at Long Siding next Sunday, June 29. Don't miss it.

Robbie McMinn left yesterday for Kallspeil, Mont., to remain until next spring.

Mrs. C. F. Cotten of Coleraine is here on an extended visit to Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Cotten.

Isaac Martin returned on Saturday evening from a week's visit with friends in Minneapolis.

Louis Horstman, wife and child, came down from Sandstone on Monday to attend the circus.

D. Kuether and son of Pease were in town yesterday and the Union is indebted to them for a call.

Among the Union's callers yesterday were P. N. Kronstrom of Milo and O. G. Bengtson of Wyandott.

E. Nelson & Co. advertise a big midsummer clearance sale in this issue. Peruse the list of bargains.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sjoblom and son left yesterday for Shakopee, where Andrew will take sulphur baths at the springs.

Will Swanbro is back from Montana, where he went to look over farming prospects. Will is mighty glad to get back again.

Please take notice that Nelson's photo studio in Princeton is open on the first and third Saturday and Sunday of each month. 22-tfc

A good roads meeting was held at Cambridge on Good Roads Day and numerous speeches were made, but speeches do not build roads.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Zimmerman have returned from points in Iowa and Minnesota, where they passed a couple of weeks visiting relatives.

Miss Pearl Moore has returned from an enjoyable visit of four months to relatives at Preston, Carlyle, and other points in Montana.

The band stand in the court house park is being enlarged. This was made necessary by the admission of the boys' band into the Citizens' band.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Carl Winblad next Wednesday for a social afternoon and everyone is cordially invited.

S. P. Skaben and Gerald Petterson assisted the big band in Gollmar Bros.' circus, and they kept up with the rest of the musicians in first-class style.

Mrs. Hummel of Minneapolis, who was here visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hummel, returned to her home on Monday after an enjoyable sojourn.

The question of bonding the village of Onamia in the sum of $10,000 for the purpose of installing waterworks resulted in a vote of 21 for and 48 against the proposition at a special election last week.

The Methodist Sunday school will give a basket social tomorrow evening on F. C. Foltz' lawn. Ice cream will be served. Ladies are asked to bring baskets, which will be sold at auction. Everyone welcome.

The Princeton Co-operative creamery has an ad in this number specifying that it will pay topnotch prices for good, clean cream and sell butter at the creamery for cash only at same prices as paid for cream.

Fire destroyed the home of Chas. Sorge in north Princeton on Monday while the occupants were absent viewing the circus parade. Mr. Sorge carried an insurance of $500 on the building and $500 on furniture.

Before you start for Princeton to have your picture taken be sure it is the first or third Saturday or Sunday of the month, as these are the only days you will find Nelson, the famous photographer from Anoka, at his studio in Princeton. 2-tfc

Hoffman, the harnessman, has a large supply of lap robes and dusters. Now is the time to get in your summer supply while the selection is large. Hoffman also has some of the finest driving harness ever seen in this town. Call and look over his stock. 25-tfc

Otto Polsfuss, road overseer in the town of Princeton, who graveled 90 rods of road on Good Roads Day, informs us that the farmers are avoiding the gravel and driving on the outer edges, thus spoiling the road by cutting ruts. This practice should be stopped at once.

There are delightful surprises in store for those who attend the moving picture shows at the opera house tomorrow and Saturday nights. Up on each evening there will be two shows—at 7:30 and 9:15—and Mr. Brands has secured a special two-reel feature entitled "The Vortex" for these occasions. "The Vortex" is one of the leading specialties of the day. 22-2tc

FOURTH OF JULY SPECIALS

To do our little part toward making your holiday a success we have selected two distinctive models which we will display in several attractive fabrics at a popular price. One model is made from a high-grade blue serge, the everlastingly popular and satisfactory fabric. The other we display in several lighter toned effects of excellent quality and fine appearance. The prices are:

- Men's suits from.....$10.00 to $25.00
- Boys' and young men's suits.....$2.50 to $12.00

Regularly our clothing is extra fine values for the money, but for this special event we searched the markets and, we believe, you will readily recognize the unusual merits of these goods.

Specials in Our Haberdashery Department

- Dress Shirts from.....50c to $2.00
- Work Shirts at.....45c and 50c
- Two-piece Underwear, per garment.....25c to $1.00
- Union Suits at.....50c to $1.50

Cravenettes, Raincoats, Straw Hats, Suit Cases. Anything and Everything for Men and Boys.

ORTON & KALIHHER

Fred Burrell came down from Onamia last night in his motor car and his wife, who has been visiting her parents here, will return with him.

Ernest Trunk and Gertrude Heath of Baldwin were married at St. Edward's parsonage yesterday morning by Rev. Father Willenbrink. The witnesses were Joseph Trunk and Mildred Heath.

Happyland is making an effort to secure more of those beautifully-colored films such as Anne Boleyn and Faust. Those who saw them will appreciate what that means to the picture loving public. 27-1tc

Dell Pierson of Baldwin appreciates very much the work of his neighbors, who saved from destruction his dwelling house and other buildings in the late fire, and takes this means of sincerely thanking them.

An automobile bumped against Fritz Kunkel on circus day, but the injury he received amounted to a mere bagatelle. Fritz is so toughly constituted that a locomotive going at the rate of 30 miles an hour would scarcely make a dent in him.

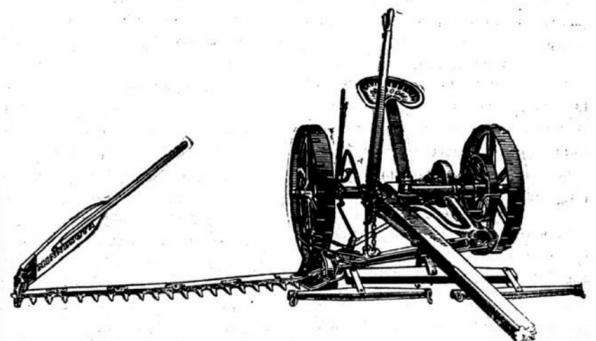

Many fair damsels are in town from various parts of the county attending summer school and we expect that, ere they depart, some of them will call and ask to be shown that pesky little parasite, the type louse. The office force will at all times be ready to point out the insect.

On Sunday next Rev. Service will deliver his last message to his congregation prior to proceeding to points in Canada, with his wife, on his annual vacation. He will return to Princeton on August 1. Rev. Service cordially invites everyone to attend his church on Sunday.

One hundred and thirty tubs of butter was the output of the Princeton Co-operative creamery for the week ending Monday, 121 of which were shipped to Chicago. Manager O. M. Warner no longer ships butter to New York for the reason that he can obtain better prices in Chicago, especially for the high-grade product.

Wilson Foote's new house out on his farm is almost completed and he says he is well pleased with the place. He has set out a number of trees and anxiously awaits the time when they will be large enough to afford shade. Mr. Foote is an enterprising farmer and believes in having everything up-to-date and convenient on his domain.

Minnesota Binders and Mowers

- 6-ft. Minnesota Grain Binder with bundle carrier.....$107.00
- 5-ft. Minnesota Mower for.....$40.50

Call at the Store and Inspect these Wonderful Price Makers

Caley Hdw. Co.

MARKET REPORT

The quotations hereunder are those prevailing on Thursday morning at the time of going to press:

GRAIN: HAY, ETC.
Wheat, No. 1 Northern.....	85
Wheat, No. 2 Northern.....	83
Wheat, No. 3 Northern.....	80
Oats.....	31@34
Barley.....	32@37
Flax.....	1.00@1.21
Rye.....	43@46
Beans, hand picked.....	1.75@2.00
Beans, machine run.....	1.25@1.50
Wild hay.....	4.00
Tame hay.....	7.50

LIVE STOCK
Fat beefs, per lb.....	4 1/2 @ 6c
Calves, per lb.....	6c @ 8c
Hogs, per cwt.....	$7.50 @ 8.00
Sheep, per lb.....	4c @ 5c
Hens, old, per lb.....	9c @ 10c
Springs, per lb.....	14 @ 16c

MINNEAPOLIS, Wednesday evening.—Wheat, No. 1 hard, 94c; No. 1 Northern, 93c; No. 2 Northern, 91c. White Oats, 39c; No. 3, 38c. Rye, 56c. Flax, No. 1, $1.34. Corn, No. 3 Yellow, 57c. Barley, 46c @ 55c.

FARMS WANTED.

I would like to list several good farms for sale at reasonable prices in the vicinity of Princeton. If you are thinking of selling call and see me. 6-tfc Robt. H. King.