

OPPOSITION IS BADLY DIVIDED

Eberhart May Again Secure Republican Nomination.

ROW AMONG PROGRESSIVES

Proposed Meeting to Be Held in St. Paul Denounced by Former Leading Member of Party.

St. Paul.—(Special).—Some day those who aspire to relieve Governor Eberhart of his grip on the helm of the ship of state will succeed, but the present tactics of the enemy do not indicate that the jarring loose process will take place at an early date.

purpose of testing out the competency of those already employed.

According to the figures compiled by the state board of health there were over 5,000 cases of measles in Minnesota last year and this figure by no means represents the actual number of cases in the state.

If present plans are carried out Winona county will within a year have a system of concrete roads that will be without a parallel in the state.

As a result of a supreme court decision handed down last week the state treasury has been enriched to the extent of over $15,000, but this tidy sum would never have been added to the store of wealth in the state's strong box had it not been for a disgruntled employe of a lumber firm.

In this neck of the woods no one would be surprised if Governor Eberhart deferred his call for an extra session of the legislature to consider the passage of a statewide public utilities act until the first of next year.

Insurgency has broken out in the ranks of the insurgent members of the Modern Woodmen of America in Minnesota and it now looks as if the scheme of a new organization would go glimmering.

Now it is the negro population of the state who are after Governor Eberhart. Their official organ, the Twin City Star, published at Minneapolis, contends that the governor has ignored the colored man in Minnesota.

It looks very much as if friends would force Alva Eastman, the St. Cloud editor, into the congressional fight in the new Sixth district.

The location of the new sixth normal school authorized by the last legislature has half a dozen Northern Minnesota towns by the ears and the contest for the honor threatens to result in bad blood.

It is hardly fair to indulge in any criticism, as the civil service law passed by the last legislature for the benefit of the state labor department is scarcely three months old, yet this fact has not prevented a number from commenting upon the examination of last month and which resulted in the necessary credits being given to all the present employes.

So far as traffic within the limits of Minnesota is concerned the 2 cent a mile passenger rate and the state commodity and merchandise schedules were put into effect by the railroads Tuesday.

By this time our Cambridge friends will no doubt admit that the Union knew whereof it spoke when it said there would be a railroad built through eastern Isanti county this fall.

Remember the annual school meeting on Saturday evening. Vote for live, liberal, progressive men and women for school officers.

Architect Hamilton telegraphed from St. Paul last evening that the state would accept the county court house bonds.

The bond of W. F. Chadbourne of Elk River, the new court house contractor, was accepted by the county commissioners on Tuesday.

American Farmers Are Getting Wise. They have discovered the truth of the old adage that "A stitch in time saves nine," which, applied to the business of farming, means that it's a lot cheaper in the long run to have good barns, granaries and other out buildings on the place than to put up with rickety, makeshift affairs that some farmers used to think good enough.

Job Printing and Job Printing. THERE are two kinds of Job Printing—that which is neat and artistic and that which possesses neither of these qualities. The Princeton Union makes it a point to turn out none but the former kind, and the Union finds this easy because it has the type, machinery and skilled labor with which to accomplish it. Nothing Looks Worse Than Botched Job Printing. It is a drawback to the business of a merchant or anyone else who uses it. Botched Job Printing suggests loose methods. Then why not use the kind printed by the Union? It costs you no more and gives the public a good impression of your business.
