Local Potato Market.

A slight increased activity is noted in the marketing of potatoes, but there has been no heavy receipts at the warehouses. This week's prices, with the exception of Triumph quotations, show an advance over those prevailing last Thursday. Something like 60 cars, mostly Triumphs, have been shipped from this point during the past seven days.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Where is the snow?
 Wm. Secombe and wife were among the visitors in Princeton yesterday.
 On Saturday some rascally individual poisoned a valuable watchdog owned by Joseph Nokes.

During the four days following the freeze-up last week 106 horses were shod at Wm. Cordiner's shop.

C. H. Rines, T. H. Caley and J. T. D. Sadley were hobnobbing in St. Paul on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. J. C. Borden, who resides at Macalester while her son, Charles, is attending school there, was in Princeton over Sunday.

George S. Smith of Cambridge passed through town last Thursday en route home from a visit to the lumber camps near Milaca.

Justice Cilley sentenced a drunken, sad-eyed prisoner to pay a fine of $5 and costs, or remain in durance 10 days, on Tuesday. The fine was paid.

Some of the stores closed at 8 o'clock during the week to permit the clerks to attend the revival meetings. Most of them met their girls instead. Hallelujah.

Two tramps enjoyed hospitality at the village bastille on Monday night. As the cell was occupied by an obstreperous fellow from the country the vags curled up on the floor.

Peculiar Incidents in Prison Life.

Many are the peculiar incidents that happen in a prison and many are the unexpected meetings and greetings of former friends and enemies who have been leveled to one rank behind these stone walls and bars.

The most singular incidents of this character usually happen on holidays when the inmates are permitted to freely intermingle and converse with each other, and New Year's day was productive of some very extraordinary meetings.

One man serving a five year indeterminate sentence shook hands with the man who acted as foreman of the jury which convicted him and who has lately come to spend double that time as a resident of the silent city.

Another inmate exchanged New Year's greetings with the minister who married him; and still another was comparing his misfortune with that of an attorney who helped send him here. All of them are wearing the grey uniform of a disgraceful ward of the state—one no better than the other in the eyes of society and judgment of the law.—Prison Mirror.

The U.S. Mechanical Washer

UNITED STATES CREAM SEPARATOR

The United States Cream Separator (1913 model) is the only cream separator adapted for mechanical washing. Its skimming sections are scientifically arranged to drive the washing water hard through the skimming device, actually scrubbing the metal. (See picture; note the simplicity).

The United States Separator, because of its correct design, its non-rusting skimming sections, its easy-to-clean nickel silver sections, can be washed in one-half the time needed to clean other separators.

In order that you women may see how much work a U. S. Separator saves you, we offer to send one to you, FREE of charge, for your trial. Shall we stop when in your neighborhood?
