Mrs. John Teutz entertained a few of the ladies on Wednesday afternoon. They spent a pleasant time in tying a quilt which was made by the Ladies' Aid society.

The Misses Lill Benson and Agnes Anderson called on Elvina Hartman Monday evening. Miss Mabel Jacobson is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. George Hansson.

A jolly bunch gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claus Lindquist Saturday evening for a good time. Mrs. Rylander, after a few days' visit with Mrs. Gust Stark, returned to her home in Minneapolis last Tuesday.

ZIMMERMAN. The ball game to be played next Sunday, August 16, at Zimmerman, will prove without doubt one of the most interesting games of the season. The Penn Merchants of Minneapolis will then cross bats with the Zimmerman nine on the local grounds. The Penn Merchants are called one of the fastest teams of Minneapolis. Come and bring your friends and watch a good game of ball.

Mrs. Camp of Blue Hill is staying with Mrs. Bean for a while. Mrs. Higgins, who has been with her since February, left Monday and will soon visit her son, George, in North Dakota.

The ball game Sunday at Clear Lake between Zimmerman and the team of that place resulted in a victory for Zimmerman, Clear Lake's hired catcher being unable to catch anyone out. The score stood 7 to 0 in the fifth inning and the game was then called on account of the rain.

S. R. Beaumont of Minneapolis, who has been here during the past three weeks in the interest of the Chicago Portrait Co., left Saturday for Finlayson.

Mose Blanchett has now taken charge of the Blanchett hotel. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Day have severed their connections with the same and gone to Minneapolis.

Marguerite Wheaton came in from Elk River last Friday and remained over Sunday as the guest of Miss Myrtle Iliff. The Methodist Aid society met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. R. Lovell. The ladies were carried to and from the Lovell home in autos.

Ben Jennison has rented the meat market building and moved his family therein. A. R. Berglund, E. H. Foley and J. E. Coheos took an auto trip to Minneapolis last Saturday.

Maud Bowles has been with Mrs. Arthur Blanchett since Mrs. Rubeck went home. Mrs. Davis, sister of Mrs. H. A. Day, after a week's visit here, returned Saturday to her home in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Ben Olson and Mrs. E. H. Foley went to Minneapolis shopping Monday. P. F. Malm is entertaining a granddaughter from Chicago. Andrew Davis of Elk River called here last Friday while en route home from a trip to Mille Lacs lake.

ISLE Jonas Grant of Opstead passed through here Thursday. Mrs. M. Wilkes and son, Ray, of Wahkon were in town on Saturday. Chas. Wicklander made a trip to Opstead in his car Friday.

Miss Eva Burke is spending several days with her cousin, Vina Dejarlais, at Long Siding. BLUE HILL. Mr. Jensen of Davenport, Iowa, is visiting at the home of Wm. Swearing.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Durbin gave a party for the young people last Saturday evening. A large number were present and had a very enjoyable time. A fine lunch was served. During the rain storm of Sunday lightning struck in the door yard of W. H. Thompson and one bolt entered the house and set fire to some clothing. Another bolt ran along a wire fence and wrecked a gate. No one was injured.

Wm. Marsh and wife of Princeton spent Sunday visiting at Hartman Camp's. Wm. Newman and Mr. Speichall drove to Anoka county Saturday morning and returned Monday. They brought home a sow for Mr. Speichall.

Adner Spence and family motored up from Minneapolis Saturday evening and spent Sunday at John South's. They returned Monday morning and Kenneth Camp accompanied them, for a week's visit in the city. Arthur Borneke and wife went to Germany on Sunday to visit with relatives.

Matt Johnson and sons are engaged in strawing the road from the Wheeler school house to Battle brook. This will make a great improvement in the road. Mrs. Fred Borneke and daughter, Mabel, spent Sunday with her brother, James Johnson, in Princeton.

Early potatoes are very poor, but late ones may amount to something. Corn is doing fine. Dave Leonard recently lost one of his horses. Anton Olson is engaged in building some porches on James Stevenson's house.

Last Saturday we were treated to a genuine sample of a Kansas hot wind and the heat was very disagreeable. The gale made stacking grain and hay nearly impossible. Miss Laura Tilley of Princeton spent a few days of last week with Miss Claribel Fullwiler.

Sam Tilley of Princeton threshed for several of our farmers last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Miller returned home Wednesday after attending the funeral of Mrs. Miller's father, August Kuhrke. Our mail carrier, John Bishop, has purchased a Ford automobile to use in carrying the mail on his route. Now if anyone finds his mail box wrecked he will have to be patient until John gets his new steed well trained. Mail your letters early in the morning, also.

A couple of boys named Ware and Erickson of Greenbush were fishing in the St. Francis river last Sunday. They secured about a dozen fine pickerel. Jacob Knutson has returned from his trip to Norway, after spending a very pleasant summer with relatives and old time acquaintances at his old home.

Ed Peterson is engaged in building a stone wall in Arthur Borneke's cellar. Two daughters of A. Spence of Minneapolis are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. John South. Wesley Spence, who was visiting at John South's, had his arm bit by a horse last Sunday. It was a close escape from a serious injury.

We are informed that Aurora Taylor was married to a North Dakota farmer on Saturday last. VINELAND. Mrs. L. Anderson has been on the sick list this week, but is convalescent. J. Heim, the president of the Mille Lacs Gun club, was a Vineland visitor Sunday.

R. D. Musser and family of Little Falls arrived here last Saturday to spend a week's vacation at their cottage at the lake. Claude Tucker and family of Belle Prairie and Joe Medwed and daughter, Isabel, of Little Falls have been occupying the Wm. Anderson cottage for a few days.

Infection and Insect Bites Dangerous. Mosquitoes, flies and other insects, which breed quickly in garbage pails, ponds of stagnant water, barns, musty places, etc., are carriers of disease. Every time they bite you, they inject poison into your system from which some dread disease may result. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. It is antiseptic and a few drops will neutralize the infection caused by insect bites or rusty nails. Sloan's Liniment disinfects cuts, bruises and sores. You cannot afford to be without it in your home. Money back if not satisfied. Only 25c. at your druggist. Advertiser.

WOODWARD BROOK. A company of young people from Freer spent Monday with the Peter Jensen family. John DeRoos of Pease was in this vicinity last Wednesday with an auto load of land seekers. Mr. DeRoos has several farms around here listed.

Last Thursday Charlie C. Minks was operated upon for an intestinal growth in a hospital of St. Paul. It turned out to be a very serious case, but we are glad to report that Charlie is pulling through nicely. Mrs. S. C. Caley returned from Anoka Thursday rather encouraged by the statements of Dr. Kline of that place. She is gaining in strength slowly.

Rev. Lang and daughter, Miss Margaret, returned to their home in St. Paul Friday. Mrs. Charlie Nordstrom and daughter, Mary, of Minneapolis are visitors at the M. C. Thorring home this week. Chris Minks, sr., returned from St. Paul Friday evening.

A number from here attended the sale at E. S. Starkenburg's in Pease Monday. On Tuesday morning the family left for their new home in Amsterdam, Idaho. Two sons, Bert and Ira, will remain here for some time. Mr. Starkenburg did not wholly sever his connection with this country for he still owns his 80-acre farm in Woodward Brook. Friends of the family wish them success in their new far western home.

The Woodward Brook Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Christine Draxten Thursday afternoon, August 20. All interested are welcome. We had a severe electric storm Sunday afternoon which was of short duration. Several telephone poles were struck and the telephone in Chris Minks' residence was burned out. The lightning also tore some shingles off the pantry roof of the Minks' house and damaged one corner of same. However no one was hurt and we had some rain. More moisture is needed for the pastures and late potatoes.

Albert Reibe began threshing Monday and reports oats at about 50 bushels per acre on his farm. We don't all expect so large a yield to the acre as the excessive heat has made the oat crop light. Mr. Reibe has the river running through his farm and usually has a heavy crop. Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Someren returned from Baldwin, Wis., Friday and report a most pleasant visit with relatives and friends in that vicinity.

Advera Carlson came home Friday from the cities and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Carlson, returning to the cities Wednesday. Andrew Anderson has bought a house in Milaca, and will move to that village when the new owner of his farm takes possession next fall.

Orley Jones is planning to buy a farm near Elk River, having sold his land north of Milaca. L. Slaughter is hauling stones for the foundation of a new hog house and chick coop which he will build before cold weather is here.

The baby of M. B. Anderson was ill last week. The Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday evening will be led by Mrs. Talen. Text, Luke 24:13-35. The topic is, "Our Social Life for Christ." Everybody welcome. Meeting at 8 p. m.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Mission church met with Mrs. Axel Bragge Wednesday. Lewis and Chris Sorenson of Milaca spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen.

J. Albright lost a valuable work horse Sunday morning. Apparently well it was turned into the pasture, but being unwilling to remain there it came home and suddenly died. Cause unknown.

The Proof is Here the Same as Everywhere. For those who seek relief from kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder ills, Doan's Kidney Pills offer hope of relief and the proof is here in Princeton, the same as everywhere. Princeton people have used Doan's and Princeton people recommend Doan's, the kidney remedy used in America for fifty years. Why suffer? Why run the risk of dangerous kidney ills—fatal Bright's disease. Here's Princeton proof. Investigate it.

John Diesbrichs, farmer, Princeton, Minn., says: "I had bad backaches and pains through my hips that at times made me about sick. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and got quick relief which was later followed by a cure. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other people suffering as I was."

For sale by all dealers or upon receipt of price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Adv.
