

The Farm Fireside.
Cleanings by Our Country Correspondents.....

DISTRICT NO. 50.

Walter Egge returned last week from Orrock, where he has been helping Mr. Gunderson with his potatoes. Potato digging is about done in this vicinity.

Lewis Norber was a Zimmerman visitor Monday.

While Mr. and Mrs. Dave Looney were visiting relatives in Greenbush a week ago last Sunday someone entered their cellar and appropriated 20 cans of Mrs. Looney's canned fruit. The same thing happened a short time ago at the Campbell home, there being 17 quarts taken at the latter place. It is shame that people have to keep their premises locked to protect them from light-fingered gentry.

The farmers of west Baldwin are very much delighted that they do not have to ford the lakes this side of the railroad tracks. During the spring and winter it has been something fierce.

Anyone wanting one of the best cows in this country can get it by calling up 2 call 17, Tri-State.

Henry Glade was down to his farm Sunday.

GERMANY.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bockoven and family and Evelyn Schilling spent Sunday at Wm. Stubbs' in Dalbo.

A friend of the Wm. Horstman family came up on Thursday from Lake Benton and purchased a farm, onto which he will move with his family in a short time.

Visitors at the Anton Falk home on Sunday were Miss Della Heitman, Almon Henschel and Frank Schilling.

Harry Moer spent Sunday at Will Schmidt's.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Oelschlagler and family were entertained at dinner on Sunday at the Ed Beneman home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilhelm Sundayed at Otto Milbraith's.

Miss Olive Schmidt resigned her work at Marion Cater's on Saturday.

Herman Leuck lost a valuable horse on Saturday.

Henry Arnold and children pleasantly passed Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Kornmann.

Miss Elsie Neuman called at Schmidt's Sunday afternoon.

BLUE HILL.

The farmers are having their crops of clover seed threshed and there is a good yield.

Mr. Speichall shot a wolf last Sunday on the St. Francis river meadows.

Jacob Knutson has erected a fine machine shed and granary on his farm.

Arthur Eorneke purchased Henry Bulleigh's phone and has it installed in his home.

Miss Mina Groff has returned from Princeton, where she has been spending a few weeks.

Fred Murphy has taken up the work on his road job and hopes to have it completed before the final freeze-up.

Mrs. Henry Young of Baldwin returned home on Saturday after spending a few days with Mrs. John South.

Miss Asp went to St. Paul to attend a teachers' convention and returned Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Horton visited relatives in Princeton Monday and Tuesday.

This year has been a splendid time to grow clover and there are many fine fields to be seen while travelling along our roads, and it shows that our sandy farms can grow good clover.

D. D. Leonard went to Iowa last week on receiving news that his wife was quite ill. We are glad to learn that she is reported better.

The Weldon and Walton families of Greenbush spent Sunday visiting with Wm. Swearingen and family.

Remember that dinner will be served at the church election day. The proceeds of which will go to help the Blue Hill Sunday school.

Mr. Carlin of Palmer, candidate for county commissioner, was here meeting with Blue Hill voters last week.

District 43.

Potato digging is now over.

County Superintendent Mrs. Hartford of Elk River and Miss Alice LaValle visited the Blue Mound school on Friday.

Miss Pearl Labissonniere and Louis Kuhlman were in Princeton on Saturday.

Mrs. Louisa Kuhlman and Mrs. Louis Kuhlman went to Anoka on Thursday morning's train, returning the same evening.

Charles Kuhlman made a trip to Zimmerman one day last week.

Mrs. Hartford of Elk River spent Thursday evening at the LaVelle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kuhlman entertained the following at their home on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Sandgren and daughters, Ruth, Edith and Hazel, Mr. Johnson and Ruth and Richard Johnson, Mrs. Louisa Kuhlman, Lucille Packard and Frank Ganska. A very enjoyable time was had.

ZIMMERMAN.

R. E. Lyuch shipped a thoroughbred Ayrshire heifer to a Mr. Richards at Willow City, N. D., last Thursday.

Mrs. J. L. Robertson returned last Saturday from a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Mankins, in Litchfield.

Heber Kilmartin is at Ogilvie buying potatoes.

Mrs. E. H. Foley and Mary Walker drove to Spencer Brook Saturday to visit Dave Walker over Sunday.

Geneva Carter was a passenger on the train to Princeton Saturday.

Quite a large crowd collected at the depot Tuesday to hear Mr. Hammond speak.

There will be a Hallowe'en dance in the M. W. A. hall Thursday, October 29. A good time expected and good music is assured. Come and enjoy yourself.

W. A. Armstrong has his goods ready for shipment and will leave soon for Mandan, N. D.

Harry Pratt returned Monday night from his trip to Maine and reports that he had the "time of his life." His mother returned with him but stopped off in Minneapolis for a few days.

ISLE

C. S. Nason and family went to Pillager on Tuesday for a week's visit.

The band boys enjoyed a little practice on Thursday evening.

Everett Lancaster came from Oakes, N. D., on Saturday for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Clyde Chamberlain.

Jim Martin and John Archimut returned home on Thursday from Princeton, where they have been employed.

Anton Swedberg of Malmo transacted business in town on Thursday.

G. S. Hunt, Gilbert Wilkes and the Pearson brothers autoed up from Wahnkon on Friday.

C. H. Foss of Milaca was in town on business Friday.

Andrew Olson of Eastwood was in town on Friday.

Nels Monson has purchased Chas. Tierney's car.

P. J. Anderson of Opstead was in town on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Denison, Misses Esther Riesland and Dora Lehnen and Roy Wilkes autoed up from Milaca and spent Sunday and Monday at the Fairchild home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Endriss of Minneapolis were in town on Sunday.

G. D. Moyer of Minneapolis was in town on Sunday and Monday.

John Olson and wife of Eastwood were in town on Monday.

Mrs. John Haggberg was down from Redtop and had some dental work done Monday.

Misses Magna Sollen and Ellen Johnson spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Eille Carlson.

Ralph Monson autoed to Pillager on Friday.

Mrs. Albert Haggberg and son, George, of Redtop spent a few days of last week with relatives here.

Oscar Henderson and Alfred Johnson of Eastwood were in town on Monday.

Gust Haglund and wife of Opstead were in town on Monday.

F. Green of Minneapolis was in town on Friday.

What? A Hallowe'en shadow social. Where? At Otto Haggberg's. When? On Saturday evening, October 31. Who will be there? Come and see. Girls, bring heavy baskets; boys, bring heavy pocket books. Music will be furnished by the cornet band.

M. A. Owen and family moved onto their farm east of here on Monday. Mr. Sharbano and family took possession of their store recently purchased from Mr. Owen.

BRICKTON.

Otto Jaenicke and Ted Johnson spent the week end visiting with friends in Minneapolis. They returned Friday evening none the worse for their few days stay in the city.

Mrs. H. Farnham arrived from Minneapolis on Friday evening. She spent several days visiting with Mr. Farnham, after which she returned to the cities on Monday morning.

proved to be a jolly one as we all know.

Many of the people here attended the Sunday school convention both Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Larson delivered a very fine sermon on Sunday evening. The topic was "Parent's Duty to Sunday School." A very large crowd attended.

Miss Ethel Olson left for Princeton on Monday, where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Christ Johnson.

Erick Olson and Roy Carlson spent Sunday evening with friends here.

Miss Eva Liske is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Leon Bergeron.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Markgraf spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jaenicke of Bogus Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Minks spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Olson of Greenbush.

PEASE.

George Lunn is back at J. A. Jetsinga's after an absence of several weeks. He has been suffering with a felon.

Mr. Norcross of Milaca is plastering John Van Slooten's house.

Henley Jones, who has visited for several days with the Orle Jones family went to Elk River Wednesday with a carload of cattle for Lewis Jones. He will return soon and superintend the work on Orle's new dwelling which will be erected at Page.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Groeneveld were passengers to Princeton one day last week.

Arthur Hillman of Foley shipped another carload of cattle from here on Wednesday last.

John DeRose is plastering Henry Aldrink's house.

Mr. Santema is engaged at J. A. Jetsinga's putting in shelving, etc.

Mrs. Wm. Vedders has been very ill during the past week. Her mother, Mrs. Kuperus, spent the week with her.

Mrs. Wm. Jones went to Elk River on Saturday and visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Jones. On Monday she returned to her home at Grand Rapids.

Jake Pluimer is working in the lumber yard at Milaca learning the lumber business and will run the lumber yard which is to be put in here in a few weeks.

Peter Vanderhock, who has been employed as helper in the creamery here, is now working for Lester Kempton. Mr. Kempton has been laid up with a felon on his thumb for the past week.

Emory Pitmon of Princeton is building a henhouse for Mr. Kempton.

Mr. and Mrs. Orle Jones are the owners of a new Ford touring car. The creamery shipped 49 tubs of butter this week. Beginning November 1 cream will be taken only on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and not after 1 o'clock. Please remember the days and do not come late.

GLENDORADO.

Mr. and Mrs. John Philo and daughter, Irene, visited with Martha and Arthur Crooks Sunday.

Mamie, Mae and Nancy Penrod visited with Gladys Hughes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bachelor and son, Roy, attended the Sunday school convention at Princeton Sunday.

Tom and Cora Hubbard furnished music for the dance at Walker's Tuesday evening.

Corra and Harry Hubbard visited at Arthur Crooks' Sunday afternoon.

E. Murn of Michigan is here on a visit at the Joe Chivalier home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Magnus and family visited at the Nels Johnson home in Santiago Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albin Nordstrom and sons visited the former's parents Sunday.

Nat Young will give a picture show in the Glendorado hall Friday evening, October 30. 45-1tc

GLENDORADO AND SANTIAGO.
Oe Jensen is the owner of a new Ford automobile purchased from John Odegard. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ole Jensen autoed to Long Siding to visit their daughter, Mrs. Frank Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Wold attended the republican rally at Princeton Saturday evening.

Miss Emma Johnson entertained the Young Ladies' union Saturday afternoon.

There was a large dance in P. Paulson's new barn Saturday evening.

Gustav Olson is quite ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. L. Madson and Mrs. G. Simonsen called on Mrs. O. G. Wold Sunday.

Mrs. Wold and daughter, Alma, were Foley visitors one day last week.

Ladies' and Children's Winter Coats

If you have not bought your winter coat yet, come in now. We are showing a large line.

The "Palmer Coats"

Special Coat Sale Saturday

Saturday we will place 20 coats on special sale at prices that will sell them all. See Them Saturday.

"Gossard" Corsets

We have taken the agency for the "Gossard" corsets. We will carry a complete line in stock, and will do fitting at time of purchase. There is a "Gossard" corset for ever figure.

We also carry

The "Nemo" and "Jackson" Corsets.

We can now fit everybody with corsets, and at the price you want to pay.

A. E. ALLEN & CO.

PRINCETON, MINNESOTA

Johnson's Sunday.

Charley Lind of Washington is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lind.

Rev. Taylor of Bismark, N. D., who conducted a two weeks' revival here this spring, arrived Sunday and will conduct a revival again. Services every evening at 7:30 at M. E. church in Santiago. Everybody is invited to attend.

Geo. Uran transacted business in Foley Tuesday.

FOUR CORNERS.

Mr. Chrissip of Iowa spent Sunday at E. F. Crumm's.

Besty, Alice and Ella Westling and Martha, Florence and Bessie Hedeen spent Sunday at Alfred Wass'.

Mr. and Mrs. James Westling and son, Donald, called at Frank Iler's Sunday.

Alfred Wass called at Claus Johnson's Sunday.

The dance that was given at the Yeomen hall Saturday night was well attended and $50 was taken in.

Fred Hedeen spent Sunday at Chas. Nord's.

Albert Peterson came home Monday after a few months' stay at Minneapolis.

Jack Larson of Long Siding spent Sunday at Frank Iler's.

Alice Westling and Florence Hedeen spent Friday evening at Ray Davis' at Milaca.

Mrs. Giles Ellsworth is on the sick list.

A surprise party was given at Dan Rowland's Thursday night in honor of Alma's eighteenth birthday anniversary.

WOODWARD BROOK.

F. W. Pierce, teacher in district 36, spent Saturday and Sunday with the Andrew George family in Santiago.

Miss Anna Anderson spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Wm. Talen, leaving for Milaca Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson of Princeton were guests of the Peter Jensen family Sunday.

Those from here attending the Sunday school convention in Princeton Saturday and Sunday were well pleased and satisfied with the addresses delivered.

Louis Talen and Ira Starkenburg left for Sioux Center, Iowa, Friday and will remain there for some time, if they find work.

and attending the Mission meetings held there in the Swedish Baptist church.

Plasterers from Princeton were here Monday and Tuesday and put the first coat of plaster on the new dwelling house of Gust Liepitz.

Orley Jones loaded a car with cattle and machinery Tuesday and is moving onto his 80 acre farm near Page.

Two auto loads of friends of the C. Smith family came here Monday evening from Cavour, S. D. They were Mr. and Mrs. Bateman, Mr. and Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Skow and a sister of Mr. Smith, Mrs. Badger, who came from Sleepy Eye, this state, where the party visited before coming here. They found roads in fine condition for auto travel and returned home by way of Sleepy Eye Thursday.

Mesdames J. H. and J. A. Hubers of Pease visited with Mrs. Talen Wednesday afternoon.

Tuesday evening the Woodward Brook Union Sunday school held election of officers at the school house in district 12. The following were elected or re-elected: Superintendent, Mrs. Talen; assistant superintendent, Mr. Jump; secretary, Flora Minks; treasurer, Gustave Minks; librarian, Margaret Shea; organist, Mrs. Lloyd Shea. It was decided not to close the Sunday school during the cold winter months, as Mr. Jump very kindly offered to shelter horses for those coming from afar.

The report showed a balance of $17 in the treasury. During the past year a library of 50 books has been bought and paid for and $20 offered as birthday pennies has been sent to keep a Chinese orphan in a mission school in China. If it is possible the Sunday school wishes to maintain that orphan boy or girl so that in future years this orphan may represent our school in the mission work among the heathens of China. Our Sunday school is not for a few families. Every family within reaching distance is invited to be one of us in all branches of the work.

Mrs. Hans Rasmussen is suffering with a very sore foot.

The Christian Endeavor topic for Sunday evening, November 1, is, "The Work Verse." The leader is, Chas. Minks. Text, Eccl. 9:10; (Consecration meeting.)

Anita Talen is spending this week with Rev. and Mrs. Myers of Pease.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reibe visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. Bartz of Bogus Brook last Friday, incidentally to meet their new granddaughter who has come to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Bartz.

MARKET REPORT

The quotations hereunder are those prevailing on Thursday morning at the time of going to press:

POTATOES

Ohio	30c to 32c
Rose	22c to 25c
Burbanks	25c to 30c
Triumphs	30c to 32c

GRAIN, HAY, ETC.

Wheat, No. 1 Northern	1.02
Wheat, No. 2 Northern	.98
Wheat, No. 3 Northern	.93
Barley	.35@39
Flax	43@51
Rye	1.03@1.16
Beans, hand picked	1.75@2.00
Beans, machine run	1.25@1.50

LIVE STOCK

Fat heaves, per lb.	4c @ 6c
Calves, per lb.	.6c @ .8c
Hogs, per cwt.	$7.50@8.00
Sheep, per lb.	4c@5c
Hens, old, per lb.	.9c@1.00
Springers, per lb.	1.3c

Auction Sale.
An auction sale will be held on the farm of E. J. Latta, section 33, town of Baldwin, 3 1/2 miles north of Zimmerman, on Friday, November 6, beginning at 1 p. m. Six horses, most of them from 3 to 5 years old; 3 cows, 17 spring shoats, about 50 chickens, a binder, mower, rake, cultivators, drill, walking and gang plows, weeder, a potato digger, a Splitstoser sprayer, cream separator, 2 wagons, 2 steel drags, double buggy, light and heavy harness, pumps, household furniture and numerous other articles will be offered for sale. Time will be given on sums over $10 on bankable paper. Lunch at noon.

E. J. Latta, Owner.
C. F. Merz, Auctioneer.
A. R. Berglund, Clerk.

Auction Sale.
A big auction sale will be held on the farm of Carl Bandemer, section 8, town of Princeton, on Wednesday, November 4, beginning at 1 p. m. Among the articles offered for sale will be 2 good work horses, 10 head of cattle, several chickens, farm machinery, including lumber wagon, bob sleds, mowers, rakes cultivators, plows, 35 tons of hay, some corn in shock and numerous farm tools. Time will be given on bankable paper on sums over $10.

Carl Bandemer, Owner.
Cook & Anderson, Auctioneers.
Farmers State Bank of Long Siding, Clerk.

Public Notice.
Hunting or trapping on sections 9 and 10 and on the east half of section 10, Dalbo township, is prohibited. The removal of timber, poles, sand or gravel also is prohibited.

Orland P. Merrill.
Linden Grove Ranch.

44-2tp