

The Farm Fireside.

Gleanings by Our Country
Correspondents.

ZIMMERMAN.

We have an up-to-date meat market now which opened up last Saturday under the management of John Kruger.

Those here that were drawn on the jury were Ben Jennison, C. A. Stillman, Ed Wright and C. E. Nordwall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mickelson left Tuesday afternoon for Cremerville, N. D., for a two weeks' visit with their daughter, Mrs. Axel Johnson.

Mr. McNally, a brother of Mrs. A. B. Briggs, from Walker is here on a visit.

Martin Perman of Santiago was over the first of the week to visit his mother.

There will be a dance in the M. W. A. hall Friday night, Nov. 13th. Music by Nellis' orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parker of Ostego visited at the home of R. F. Brown, Sunday.

Harry Swanson purchased a fine driving horse at the Swan Green sale Saturday.

Wm. Swanson, who is buying potatoes at Bethel, spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. J. A. Smith of Princeton spent Monday visiting friends and relatives here.

R. F. Brown went to Minneapolis on business Tuesday morning.

Miss Blackwell, teacher in the Perman district, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cohoes.

PEASE.

Peter Plumier went to Minneapolis on Monday.

Officers of school districts 9 and 20 went to Cove Saturday to attend the teachers' and school officers' meeting which was held at that place. S. DeBoer and D. Kuether took them up in their automobiles.

George Lunn, Arthur Benson and Harvey Sheller went to Isle on their motorcycles Saturday and returned Sunday. They went to attend religious meetings.

Messrs. Rudd, Kiel and Stromburg came down from Milaca Tuesday and staked off the ground for the lumber shed which will be built here soon.

Rev. Wm. Hume will preach in district 9 school house on Sunday forenoon at 10:30. All desirous of hearing a good sermon in the English language should be present.

Mrs. J. A. Jetsing went to the cities Tuesday morning and returned Tuesday evening, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. Conger of Ogilvie.

The Ladies' Aid society held their annual sale in the church on Thursday last. The sale was well attended and the ladies realized a neat sum for their year's work.

Miss Elsie Nysteadt was a Princeton passenger Tuesday.

Mr. and Mr. Kempton drove to Milaca Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Presley of Milaca visited with the Fenallo family on Sunday afternoon.

The creamery shipped 32 tubs of butter this week.

GLENDORADO AND SANTIAGO.

Rev. J. M. Taylor departed for Hillsboro, N. D., Monday, after conducting a two weeks' revival in Santiago.

Mr. and Mrs. Knutson of Spokane, Wash., have been guests of the latter's uncle, Mr. P. Garburg of Santiago, the past week. Mr. Knutson also held a series of meetings while here. They are on their way to Norway for an extended visit.

Rev. and Mrs. H. Orrock have returned from an extended visit to Wright county.

Mrs. C. B. Dahl has been quite ill the past week.

Chas. Aleckson is erecting a machine shed.

Some time ago, while coming home from Foley Mr. P. Garburg lost a pocket book containing almost $80. Name and address of owner was in same. Mr. Garburg offers a liberal reward but so far has not heard from finder—if it is found.

Christ Jensen and son, Andrew, had a runaway near Santiago store one evening last week while returning from services at the M. E. church. The buggy was damaged almost beyond repair but no one was hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Wold visited at L. D. Madson's Sunday.

L. Madson, T. Knutson and S. Kittilson have been hauling their onions to St. Cloud and selling them at a good profit.

Thursday evening in district 48 will be held a basket social for the benefit of the school. Mrs. Nina Moe, teacher, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend. Ladies, bring baskets, and gents well filled pocketbooks.

Mr. Johnson of Big Lake spent last week with his daughter, Mrs. Luven Orrock.

A three days' series of meetings were held at the Lutheran church in Glendorado this week. Several pastors were present. Among them, Rev. C. Urberg of Blair Wis., and Rev. Rem of Milaca. A large congregation was present each day. Services were held forenoons and general discussion of religious topics occupied the afternoons.

Runbeck Bros. are busy shredding corn for farmers of this vicinity. The corn crop around here this year is good.

Complaints are heard on every side about potatoes on account of black rot. They are rotting in cellars and pits.

ISLE

Perry Swedberg of Malmo transacted business in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. Chas. Friedlund of Opstead was in town on Thursday.

Mr. Reynolds of Haycreek was in town on Thursday.

The Aiton brothers from Alexandria are laying brick on the new bank this week.

Mr. Smith of Opstead was in town on Saturday.

Mrs. John Carlson and son, Bernard and Irvin, and daughter, Effie, were Opstead visitors on Sunday.

John Olson and wife have started housekeeping in the Sollen building.

Andrew Peterson and family spent Sunday at Eastwood.

O. A. Haggberg attended the school convention at Cove Saturday.

Sam Ostlun came up from Sauk Rapids on Monday for a short visit with friends.

George Matter returned on Wednesday from Springfield, where he had spent the summer at his home there.

A. G. Haggberg spent Sunday with his parents at Redtop.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olson spent Sunday at Eastwood.

Miss Gladys Ellison is employed at the Sharbano home here.

LIVONIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Larson and children, who have been visiting at Jas. Iliff's the past week, left Friday for Lakeland, where they expect to locate.

Miss Emily Golby is spending a vacation with the home folks.

A. A. Iliff lost a valuable horse last week.

Miss Mary Guderian is home from Minneapolis for a short time.

Mrs. Chas. Cohoes and children and Mrs. Joe Cohoes visited at Chas. Iliff's Thursday last week.

Miss Clara Blackwell spent from Friday until Sunday at the Joseph Cohoes home in Zimmerman.

Lillie Brown is home from Minneapolis.

John Hetrick was a pleasant caller at Jas. Iliff's Sunday.

GERMANY.

Emil Gens purchased a new windmill last week.

Et Bockoven and family and Walter Jensen spent Sunday at R. Manke's.

Quite a number of people from this vicinity attended the funeral of Aug. Heruth of Greenbush on Sunday.

Wm. Schmidt and daughter, Olive, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Schmidt.

Marion Cater is threshing clover in this vicinity this week.

Mrs. Grace Tomlinson and Mrs. Arthur Steeves and daughter, Eva, spent Sunday with Mrs. Wm. Schmidt.

BLUE HILL.

John South and Marlon Northway have gone on a deer hunt in northern Mille Laacs county.

Mrs. Fred Newman and children have been visiting friends in Minneapolis.

Nels Larson of Greenbush has rented the old Orahod farm from Mr. Christianson, who is the present owner.

Wm. Newman's sale was fairly well attended and articles brought fair prices.

Ben Haralson and wife went to Minneapolis last week to consult a doctor.

Mrs. C. W. Taylor went to Elk River last Friday to visit relatives and returned on Monday.

Fred Clark is helping Otto Berneke with his fall work.

Alfred Chisholm took a load of corn to Milaca on Monday and returned Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. George Taylor, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ellen Grow, in Greenbush, spent a few days visiting at C. W. Taylor's.

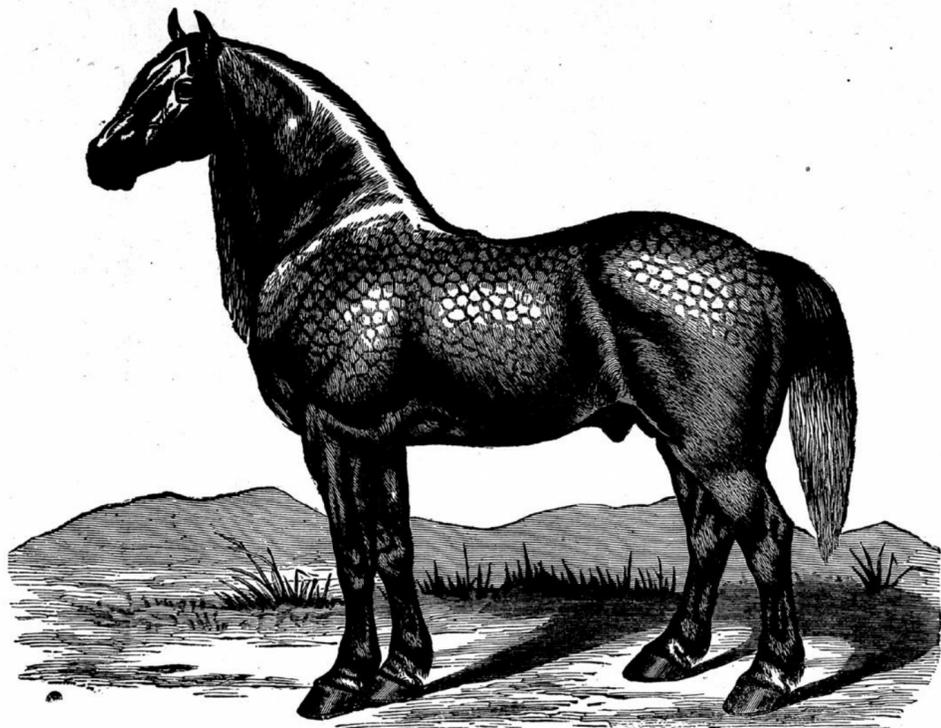

Herbert Arthur, the infant son of Arthur and Myrtle Borneke, aged three weeks, died last Sunday from whooping cough. Funeral services were held at the home of Fred Borneke on Tuesday and interment was in Blue Hill cemetery. Rev. Service of Princeton officiated. The sorrowing parents have the sympathy of the neighborhood.

Wm. Newman and family have moved to Princeton and will spend the winter with Mrs. Newman's father, Henry Marpe.

Those stray colts that have been visiting around the farms in the vicinity of the Wheeler school house belonged to Martin Mattson.

Sterling VapKleek, John Lynn,

HORSES AND MULES WANTED

WAR HORSES

Height From 15-1 to 16 Hands. (A Hand is 4 Inches.)
From 5 to 9 Years Old. Must be Sound and in Good
Flesh. No White Horses.

BRING THEM IN TO

KALIHER & KING'S BARN

PRINCETON, MINN.

Thursday, Nov. 19, 1914

There Will be Buyers Here to Take Them All. No Limit to the Amount. For further information see T. J. Kaliher

REMEMBER THE DATE, 1 DAY ONLY

Glen Leonard and Hartman Camp are engaged on a piece of road work from the Galbraith bridge to the Camp farm. The hills are being cut down and the road graded.

The county commissioners inspected the Murphy road job Friday. It is a fine stretch of road, and has been gravelled eight feet wide for a mile.

BRICKTON.

A party and dance was given at Howard Redmond's on Saturday evening. A jolly crowd of young folks attended. A delicious lunch was served at midnight, after which they participated in dancing until three in the morning. All had a most enjoyable time.

Otto Jaenicke spent the week end with Hans Pape and family of Princeton.

Mrs. Pitmon called on Mrs. Markgraf Monday morning.

Miss Tillie Greenwood and Mrs.

Ella Hyndman are on the sick list this week, being the result of a bad cold.

Miss Gertrude Markgraf spent several days last week with Mrs. Aeschrich of Princeton.

Adolph Minks and family spent Sunday as guests at his parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. August Minks of Woodward Brook.

Many from here attended the auction held at Bandemer's on Wednesday afternoon.

Don't forget to attend the big masquerade ball here on Saturday evening. Mr. Gobel of Princeton will again honor us by furnishing the music.

Miss Ethel Olson, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Philip Bier, and children, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Olson of Greenbush.

Wm. Boers has returned from Duluth after a prolonged stay with friends and relatives. He is now staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bornholdt and family passed Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Wehrend. They attended the movies at the Crystal.

Mrs. A. Anderson left for Minneapolis on Saturday to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. J. Paulson. From there she will leave for Willmar to spend the winter with her brother. We will all miss her very much and we're sorry to see her go.

Mrs. Whitcomb and her daughter, Mrs. Gust Anderson, and Dolly Hayes spent Sunday with Mrs. L. Snow.

Henry Kuhn started burning a 24-arch kiln this week.

Miss Eleanor Kuhn and Miss Stella Greenwood passed Sunday evening with Mrs. Wm. Greenwood.

Mrs. Joe Burke is now back from the hospital and enjoying the best of health.

Otto Paulson and wife moved into Mrs. A. Anderson's home for the winter.

Mrs. Bert Young and son, Herbert, spent Thursday in Princeton.

Adolph Bergeron, who has been staying with his brother, Leon Bergeron, and wife, left for his home on Monday evening.

Edward Hanson of Zimmerman spent Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Young.

An Active Liver Means Health.

If you want good health, a clear complexion and freedom from dizziness, constipation biliousness, headaches and indigestion, take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They drive out fermenting and undigested foods, clear the blood and cure constipation. Only 25c at your druggist. Adv.