

Annual Clean-Up Sale of Stationery

Drop a letter to your friend, acquaintance or relative and write it on good stationery. It will express your good will, and help to bring peace and happiness. You will want to write more letters and you will find it very easy to express yourself in the best way when you have our good stationery on which to write. Box stationery, extra quality, sale price 10c.

Open Sundays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

C. A. JACK
The Rexall Druggist

Items

Of interest from various sources.

George I. Staples is the only person who is authorized to collect money due this office. In every case the party paying money is entitled to and should insist upon receiving a printed receipt. R. C. DUNN, Publisher.

Nelson's photos please the people. Sweet apple cider at the Eickschen Mercantile Co. 48-1tc

Mrs. Brichwald was a city visitor the first of the week. Highest cash prices paid for eggs. Townsend's Produce House. 33-tfc

Notice—Anyone wishing first-class board and room, phone to 176. 47-2tp

Mrs. Jack Larsen visited at Zimmerman the latter part of last week. Get our prices on poultry before selling. Townsend's Produce Co. 33-tfc

Enright's whole wheat flour in 20-lb sacks. Eickschen Mercantile Co. 48-1tc

Arthur Kaliher was a passenger to Anoka Wednesday morning. He returned the same day.

M. L. Wheeler departed Saturday morning for points in Iowa and Illinois on potato business.

E. K. Evens departed for St. Cloud and Sauk Rapids yesterday morning to look after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Trask and family and Mrs. Frank L. Frye of Elk River passed Sunday here at the Geo. I. Staples home.

P. M. Woodward's family left last Thursday for their home at St. Cloud, after spending the summer at Izatys.—Wahkon Enterprise.

Frank Grow returned from Miles City, Montana, last Saturday and will remain here this winter. He has been in the west two years.

Jos. Craig, jr., attended the Minnesota-Wisconsin football game in Minneapolis Saturday, and visited in that city until Tuesday evening.

Dr. J. F. Kothman, optometrist, will be in town on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 25 and 26. Eyes examined and glasses fitted. Office at Commercial hotel. 23-tfc

H. E. Cravens writes the Union that he is getting along first-rate in Minneapolis. He is president of the Cravens Printing Co., and reports that business is good.

The M. A. Fraser Co. have an announcement in this issue calling attention to an offer made by them whereby Princeton churches share in their profits during one week. Read it. 48-1tc

Don't fail to attend the Thanksgiving ball at the armory on the evening of November 25. Excellent music is assured, and all are promised a truly enjoyable evening. Plan so as to be in attendance. 47-1tp

E. B. Service's subject for Sunday morning will be "The Evening Pilot." All are invited to attend. In the evening a sacred concert will be given by the choir under the leadership of Mrs. C. A. Caley.

If possible all roads should be smoothed down before freezing weather sets in. If this is done it will make much easier sledding when the snow comes, and the roads will be in much better condition next spring.

Both branches of the Rum river are covered with ice. The East Branch was the first to freeze, and the West Branch froze over Monday night. However, we would not advise that any skating be indulged in on the river for some time yet.

If you miss the dance at the armory Thanksgiving eve, November 25, you will miss one of the most delightful terpsichorean events of the season. The music will be of the best, and a truly enjoyable time is promised those who attend. 48-1tp

Ed Kaliher was a passenger to Minneapolis Friday morning.

Dry wood delivered at $1.50 per cord by Umbehoeker Bros. 48-4tc

Green vegetables for Thanksgiving at the Eickschen Mercantile Co. 1tc

Miss Anna Negaard was a passenger to Minneapolis Friday morning.

Andrew Speeder of Foreston transacted business at Princeton yesterday.

Mrs. W. C. Doane and children visited at Milaca from Saturday to Tuesday.

Dry wood for sale. Prompt delivery. Hoehn Bros. Tri-State phone 19, R1. 47-8tp

Alec Anderson and J. P. Johnson of Santiago were passengers to Minneapolis Friday morning.

Richard Steinbach departed for Florida Friday morning, where he expects to pass the winter.

Sid Grow of Greenbush departed for Beach, N. D., Tuesday morning. He expects to return in a week.

For photos of quality and likeness go to Payette's studio. Open every day in the year. Main street, Princeton. 6-tfc

Peter Deml, M. L. Emahiser and Arthur Heath returned from their hunting trip last Saturday with two deer.

The Thanksgiving ball at the armory promises to be a real pleasing event. You are invited to be in attendance. 48-1tc

Attorney Joseph T. Avery of St. Paul transacted business in Princeton yesterday, and was a pleasant caller at this office.

Tom Tomlinson and Dell Hill returned from their hunting trip in the vicinity of Bruno last Monday. They secured a deer.

Mrs. M. B. Hixson, Mrs. J. B. Johnson and Mrs. A. G. Engberg returned to Cambridge last Friday after a visit here with relatives.

T. J. Kaliher is suffering from an attack of blood poison of the left hand, but his numerous friends will be pleased to learn that he is on the mend.

August Eckstrom, one of the substantial farmers of Greenbush, transacted business at Princeton yesterday, and was a pleasant caller at this office.

Approximately 60 tubs of butter were turned out at the co-operative creamery for the week ending Tuesday, and 45 tubs were shipped to the eastern market.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church had its annual party last week in the church parlors, and it was well attended. A most enjoyable time was had.

Emil Zimpel of Greenbush passed the Union office with a fine 222-pound buck deer Wednesday, which he brought down in the vicinity of McGrath. It was a fine specimen and all who viewed it were filled with envy.

The ladies of St. Edward's church desire to sincerely thank the public for the very generous patronage accorded their fair last Saturday. It was entirely successful despite the unfavorable weather, and about $400 was realized.

Before you start for Princeton to have your picture taken be sure it is the first or third Saturday or Sunday of the month, as these are the only days you will find Nelson, the famous photographer from Anoka, at his studio in Princeton. 2-tfc

W. C. Doane and Dr. Mallette attended the Minnesota-Wisconsin football game last Saturday. Mr. Doane is a former gridiron star of the university of Minnesota and he pronounced Saturday's contest one of the best he had witnessed in recent years.

H. McKleggit transacted business in Minneapolis Monday.

Mrs. Augler Rines was shopping in Minneapolis last Saturday.

Try our "Blue Bird" steel cut coffee. Eickschen Mercantile Co. 1tc

Attorney Vaaler of Milaca transacted business at Princeton Monday.

Remember the dance at the armory next Wednesday evening, November 25. 48-1tp

We deliver dry wood for $1.50 per cord. Try it. Umbehoeker Bros. 48-4tc

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Vista departed last evening for Foley where they will reside.

Attorney E. L. McMillan transacted business in Minneapolis the first of the week.

Messrs. C. H. Nelson and J. H. Hoffman motored down to Minneapolis yesterday morning.

Robt. H. King returned last evening from a business trip to the southern part of the state.

Photographer Payette transacted business at Long Siding from Monday evening to Tuesday morning.

Albert Stauty and James Moore are erecting a barn at Foreston. They left for that place yesterday.

Rev. M. Peterson attended pastor's installation at the Bethel church in north Minneapolis the first of this week.

Miss Tillie Johnson came up from Minneapolis Monday evening, and is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Larson returned to Albert Lea Saturday morning, after a visit here with relatives and friends.

The basket ball boys are practicing weekly, and the prospects of Princeton having a winning team are exceedingly bright.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tyler of Frazee were Princeton visitors Saturday. Mr. Tyler was a pleasant visitor at this office while here.

Mrs. Christina Rines disposed of her residence property in this village recently. T. J. Kaliher is the purchaser, and has taken possession.

Judge of Probate Sanford returned from his hunting trip Sunday evening. The party he was with had secured one deer at the time he left, and expected to secure a few more.

R. Barnum of St. Paul visited friends and relatives in this vicinity last week. Mr. Barnum formerly resided at Spencer Brook and has numerous friends and acquaintances there.

New advertisements for the following appear in this issue of the Union: C. H. Nelson, C. A. Jack, M. A. Fraser Co., McIlbargery Hardware & Furniture Co., and Farmers' State Bank of Long Siding. Read them.

This is one of the lean years for potato growers. Prices are abnormally low. Over-production is partly the cause of low prices, but there is also a general business depression throughout the country.

A heating stove furnishes the warmth at the depot these days, and the atmosphere beyond a radius of 10 feet from same in that building is rather chilly. Princeton has a splendid depot, and it should be properly heated.

Remember the chicken supper to be served by the Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Lutheran church at the I. O. O. F. hall next Saturday evening, November 21, commencing at 5:30 o'clock. Supper 25 cents. Everybody is invited.

Wear-U-Well shoes, rubbers and overs. Now is your chance to save one-third the cost of your footwear. Direct from factory to you. Perhaps you have shoes that need repairing. If so bring them with you if you want quick service and a No. 1 material. Electric Shoe Hospital. 48-1tc

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Cooney and son, Chester, are expected home from Washington this evening, where the doctor has been in attendance at the annual convention of the American College of Surgeons. Several new members were admitted to the college, and among them was Dr. H. C. Cooney.

Thanksgiving services will be held at the West Branch church at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. Rem. Dinner will be served at noon, and during the afternoon the annual sale of the Ladies' Aid will take place. Emil Pladsen of Milaca will act as auctioneer. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

J. C. Herdliska, Noah Sanford, James Brown, Clarence Sanford, Ed Cilley, Reed Sanford and Dave Johnson left for the north woods at the opening of the big game season. Mr. Herdliska returned to Princeton Sunday, but contemplates returning to the camp today. At the time he left five deer had been secured.

THE TRAP DRUMMER.

He's a Real Worker in His Way, but He is Also a Trust.

It is great to watch a trap player in a band. One who did not know would think that he kept a junk store and had gone crazy.

He has a bass drum and a snare drum and a cymbal and a triangle and some sleighbells and a sandpaper dinkus and heaven knows what all.

He plays all these at once or separately, as the case may be. And he does it as well as if he were a centipede. We always wonder as we watch him where he keeps his other hands.

"Forewarned is forearmed," but he must have been forewarned and spelled it wrong. He will watch the orchestra leader like a hawk, and at a given signal he will drop the pot lid he is beating and take a few pokes at an egg beater or a nutmeg grater.

A trap drummer's sheet of music must read funny. We firmly believe he could take a handsaw, an ice cream freezer, a jack plane, a tree hook, a wash boiler, bottle of ink and a curtain rod and play the "Star Spangled Banner" on them, carrying all four parts.

He will be tickling the ribs of the triangle when the expression of the leader's face changes or he gives his batonic chair leg a wilder swing downward and "Blam, blam!" he swats the eternal daylight out of a bass drum.

Then, while he is taking a rest from the bass drum, he rolls on the kettle-drum and stops it hurriedly to rub two pieces of sandpaper together briskly.

Nobody but himself ever knows what he will do next.

He is a noise trust, a combination in restraint of the musical trade.

If he were to play only one instrument instead of all the lot about eleven other willing members of the musicians' union would get jobs.

We love the trap drummer, but down with him! He is our worst industrial menace.—Indianapolis Star.

His Intentions.

A young man who had been calling rather frequently of late on a Richmond girl was waiting for her in her father's library the other evening when that stern parent entered the room.

"Young man," said the S. P., "I want to know your intentions."

"Why," was the answer, "my present intentions are to go home."

And he did.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Investigating.

Blackstone Kent (to partner)—Have you investigated Mrs. Brown's case sufficiently to say whether we would be justified in asking a divorce?

Partner—Well, I have asked the mercantile agencies for a report on her husband's financial standing.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

A Useful Friendship.

"I'm sorry Jack's coming here tonight, for I'm going to the theater with Harry."

"But I thought you were engaged to Jack."

"I know it, but since we have been engaged we can't afford to go to the theaters."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Killing Joke.

"I've killed line after line and column after column," he was telling an admiring circle of friends. "Some distinguished military man, I suppose?"

asked the stranger. "On the contrary," confided the man at his right, "he's the news censor."—Buffalo Express.

Appreciation.

Towne—Do you make your cook pay for what she breaks?

Suburbs (in amazement)—Make her pay? I should say not! Why, every month, besides paying her salary, we reward her liberally for what she didn't break.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Perfectly Tame.

"Wombat used to be a great outdoor man and all around sport. Is he reconciled to married life?"

"I think so. I called on him recently and found him sifting ashes with an old tennis racket."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Artists All.

"The dentist is an artist," said the funny Mr. Heath.

"The pencil doesn't earn him bread. But I've seen him draw teeth."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"The barber is an artist, too." Quoth waggish Mr. Lutz;

"For every story he tells you He illustrates with cuts."—Columbia State.

The politician's campaign job is something pretty big. For though he's not a ditcher, yet He surely has to "dig."—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

Suits Overcoats

"Collegian" coats retain their shape and fit because they are made by workmen who take a real interest in their work and because the material is carefully selected. We are showing a large line of Men's and Boys' Overcoats ranging in price from

$3.50 to $25.00

Mackinaws
Fur Coats
Plush-Lined Coats
Sheepskin Coats
Underwear
For the Fall and Winter Season.

Orton & Kaliher

The Home of Good Clothes

The Union Gives All the News All the Time.

FURNISHING GOODS FOR ALL THE FAMILY

GLOVES TOO

COME IN AND SEE OUR DELIGHTFUL UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY, GLOVES, AND OTHER FURNISHING GOODS. BUY THEM AND YOU WILL ENJOY WEARING THEM. WE BUY OUR FURNISHING GOODS IN BIG QUANTITIES AND, THEREFORE, CAN SELL FOR LITTLE PRICES. WHENEVER YOU NEED ANYTHING COME IN AND LOOK AT OUR GOODS. OUR PRICES WILL URGE YOU TO BUY.

C. H. NELSON

No Mille Lacs County Taxpayer Can Afford to be Without the Union

A. C. SMITH

(Successor to G. H. Gottwerth)

Prime Meats of Every Variety,

Poultry, Fish, Etc.

Highest market prices paid for Cattle and Hogs.

Main Street,

Princeton.