

When You Buy Drugs

Remember that when you buy Drugs you place entire confidence in your Pharmacist. When you buy Drugs at our store we fully realize the confidence this implies, therefore, it is always our endeavor to worthily merit your patronage. When we, ourselves, buy Drugs for our stock we pay particular attention to their quality, purity and strength. It is this that assures you of having your doctor's prescription compounded from full-strength, potent Drugs. It is this that always assures you of getting the best possible results from the doctor's skillful diagnosis. Good drugs means good medicines and speedy recovery. Trust us with your Drug orders.

Open Sundays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

C. A. JACK
The Rexall Druggist

Items of Interest from various sources.

George I. Staples is the only person who is authorized to collect money due this office. In every case the party paying money is entitled to and should insist upon receiving a printed receipt.
R. C. DUNN, Publisher.

To Union Debtors.

Those who are indebted to the Union on subscription or otherwise are respectfully requested to liquidate their indebtedness without delay. There are several hundred small accounts unsettled which will aggregate a respectable amount, and we need the money. But this is not a begging dun, it is simply a notification to all those indebted to the Union to call and settle at once. Don't wait for a statement of your account.

PRINCETON UNION.

Nelson's photos please the people.
August Thoma shipped a car of livestock recently.

Rev. M. Peterson was a Zimmerman visitor last Monday.

Bran in half-ton lots or over at $22 per ton at the flour mill. 3-tfc

L. C. Hummel was a passenger to Minneapolis yesterday morning.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Anderson last Sunday.

Clerk of Court King transacted business in Minneapolis the first of the week.

Attorney S. P. Skahen attended to professional business in St. Paul yesterday.

County Attorney Myron of Milaca was a business visitor at Princeton last Monday.

Fifty-seven marriage licenses were issued in Sherburne county during the year 1914.

The land firm of Fox & Hatch has been dissolved, and the business hereafter will be conducted by E. W. Hatch.

Fred Sachs of Elk River was elected chairman of the Sherburne board of county commissioners for the ensuing year.

Music lessons on piano given by experienced teacher at moderate prices. Beginners or advanced students. For terms call Tri-State 232. 3-2tc

Mrs. Wm. Baird, nee Mabel Genow, returned to her home at St. Paul Wednesday after a visit here and in Greenbush with friends and relatives.

Dr. J. F. Kothman, optometrist, will be in town on Wednesday and Thursday, January 27 and 28. Eyes examined and glasses fitted. Office at Commercial hotel. 4-tfc

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jesmer came up from St. Paul Tuesday evening to be in attendance at the funeral services of the former's father, Mr. Sidney Jesmer, which occurred today.

A marriage license was issued at the office of the clerk of court on Tuesday to Mr. Roy R. Essler and Miss Alice Watson both of Greenbush. They will be married this evening.

C. Johnson of Chisholm was a business visitor in Princeton yesterday. Mr. Johnson is connected with the Oliver Mining company, and reports that the range cities are all growing and expanding.

A basket social will be given in the parlors of the Methodist church, Friday evening, January 15. All ladies interested in the church are invited to come and bring baskets well filled with eatables.

Before you start for Princeton to have your picture taken be sure it is the first or third Saturday or Sunday of the month, as these are the only days you will find Nelson, the famous photographer from Anoka, at his studio in Princeton. 2-tfc

John Gobel left for Minneapolis Friday morning.

George Chute was a Minneapolis visitor the latter part of last week.

Sam Shaw of Greenbush was a passenger to Anoka yesterday morning.

Pure home-made lard 12 cents per pound at A. C. Smith's meat market. 3-tfc

Capt. Thomas Cooney of Billings, Montana, is here visiting his brother, Dr. H. C. Cooney.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Elmer Whitney next Wednesday afternoon.

August Thoma is erecting a new dwelling house on his place—the old Whitney farm—and it is now almost completed.

A dance will be given at the Long Siding hall Saturday evening, January 16. If you attend you will surely enjoy it. 3-2tc

Paint work and paperhanging is my business, but I will not turn down any kind of a job just now. Try me. Dan C. Mirick. 3-2tc

Dr. L. B. Mallette went down to St. Paul yesterday morning to be in attendance at the annual meeting of the State Veterinary association.

Capt. N. Small had the misfortune to stumble while descending a stairway last Monday, and had his left hip and shoulder painfully bruised.

It is reported that the Standard Oil Co. will establish a distributing station at Wahnkon next spring, and that two large tanks will be erected at that place.

In the list of personal property taxes for Mille Lacs county, appearing elsewhere in this issue, the item of the First National bank of Milaca should read $650.10 instead of $1,775.10.

Fire of an unknown origin destroyed the residence of Mrs. L. G. Johnson of Dailey, New Year's day. No insurance was carried on either the building or furniture, and the loss is a severe one.

Thos. Burns, a substantial Mille farmer, has just completed the erection of a large barn and handsome residence on his premises at a cost of about $5,000. Farmers are invariably deserving of all the prosperity that comes their way.

The Union has secured the services of a wide-awake correspondent in Spencer Brook. The Union has more readers in Spencer Brook than any other paper and our correspondent will keep them fully informed on all the local happenings.

With this issue of the Union appears a list of the personal property taxpayers of all of Mille Lacs county and the adjacent townships of Isanti, Sherburne and Benton counties. The lists will prove interesting to the Union's thousands of readers.

County Superintendent Ewing has moved his office. His office is still in the Oddfellows' block, but he now occupies the quarters formerly occupied by Justice Dickey. Mr. Dickey now has the room formerly occupied by Superintendent Ewing.

Mr. A. E. Allen informs us that the sale being conducted by his firm on Eickschen stock is attracting numerous buyers. "As an advertising medium," said Mr. Allen, "the Union is hard to beat. It invariably produces results of a gratifying character."

Arthur Kaliher was up at Milaca the first of the week. He will take charge of the electric light plant in that village, commencing his new duties on the 20th. He is an industrious and capable young man, and there is no doubt but what he will make good.

Prof. Joseph von Miller, the well known violinist who gave a concert in Princeton about a year ago, will be here Thursday evening, January 21. He delighted a large audience at the time of his former visit and demonstrated that he was a master of the violin.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen of Bogus Brook expect to leave next week for Oakland, California, where they will pass the winter. Their numerous friends in Mille Lacs county hope that they will have an enjoyable time in the land of fruit, flowers and sunshine.

Probably the Third regiment of the M. N. G. will go into camp at Elk River next summer. That would suit the boys of the Princeton company—Company G. There should be no trouble in finding a convenient site for the camp on the banks of the Mississippi.

For the first time during his forty-nine years connection with the Anoka Union G. S. Pease is enjoying an extended vacation. Last week he and Mrs. Pease left for the Pacific slope, where they expect to make a three months' sojourn. The Union wishes Mr. and Mrs. Pease a pleasant trip and safe return to Minnesota, and we trust the salubrious climate out there will have a soothing influence on Granny's temper.

The village council of Onamia has decided to enforce an ordinance providing that all owners and keepers of dogs shall cause the same to be registered, numbered, described and licensed for one year in the office of the village clerk.

A handsome new Cathedral high school has recently been completed at a cost of $70,000 in St. Cloud, and the building was dedicated last Sunday. Rt. Rev. Bishop Trobec assisted by the Catholic clergy of that city had charge of the dedication services.

Hon. E. E. Indrehus of Glendora boarded the train here Monday morning for St. Paul to participate in the activities of the Minnesota house. Mr. Indrehus was fortunate enough to pick the winner in the speakership fight, as he was for Flowers on every ballot.

The Caley Hardware Co. is enclosing the stairway between the main building and the furniture department, and when completed the stairs will be only accessible from the inside of the building. The company expects to use the upper room—the old armory—for furniture.

The Lawrence Deming Co., which showed at Brands' opera house the first three nights of this week, is an excellent theatrical company and they pleased and delighted large audiences every night. Their plays were good and the specialties between acts were truly pleasing.

The potato movement has been more brisk the past week, and a number of loads of the tubers have been marketed in Princeton of late. Shipping from this point has also been increased. Triumphs have advanced in price and today from 45 cents to 50 cents is being paid for this variety.

In the resume of legislative proceeding that appeared in last week's issue of the Union it was stated that the venerable C. A. Gilman of St. Cloud seconded the nomination of ex-Lieutenant Governor Gordon for speaker of the house. Mr. Gilman seconded the nomination of H. H. Flowers, the successful candidate.

Mr. A. S. Mark informs us that he has admitted his son, Bert, to partnership in his mercantile establishment in Princeton, and that hereafter the firm will be known as A. S. Mark & Son. Bert has been employed in the store at this place several years and well merits the promotion, as he is an industrious young man.

Jonathan Pierson was the victim of a pleasant surprise last Thursday evening when a number of neighbors and friends invaded the Pierson residence. The occasion was the 44th anniversary of his birth, and he received a nice rocker as a memento of the occasion. Card playing constituted the chief enjoyment of the evening, and a delicious supper was served. Upon departure all wished that Mr. Pierson may celebrate many more birthday anniversaries.

Jas. Hartman was the guest of honor at a pleasing party last Tuesday evening, the occasion being the anniversary of his birth. About 35 neighbors and friends were present and the evening was passed in an enjoyable manner, cards being one of the features. Mrs. Hartman served delectable refreshments and all did ample justice to the repast. Every year on the 12th of January "Jim" appropriately observes the anniversary of his birth, and those present Tuesday evening pronounced it to be a delightful event.

Addington-Middlemas.

Mr. Roy B. Addington and Miss Marian Middlemas of Wahnkon were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage last Thursday afternoon by Rev. E. B. Service. Mr. and Mrs. Addington are popular young people of the lake country and all their friends extend to them good wishes for a wedded life of true happiness. They will reside at Wahnkon.

Webster's Father.

Daniel Webster's father's name was Ebenezer Webster. He was born in Kingston, N. H., in 1739, served in the French war under Sir Jeffrey Amherst and was one of the first settlers of what is now Franklin, N. H., in 1761. He died in 1805, when Daniel was twenty-four years of age.

The Devil's Wall.

Between England and Scotland stand the ruins of the old Roman wall known as the devil's wall, owing to the belief of the peasantry that on account of the firmness of the mortar and the impishness of the stones Satan had a hand in its construction.—Argonaut.

No Wonder.

"My wife's never satisfied with what I give her," said Mr. Cowbunker. "Has she always been that way?" "Yes. It started when I gave her my name."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Her Style.

"That singer has a remarkably thin voice." "Yes; suggests she ought to sing in a skeleton key."—Baltimore American.

Wear-U-Well News

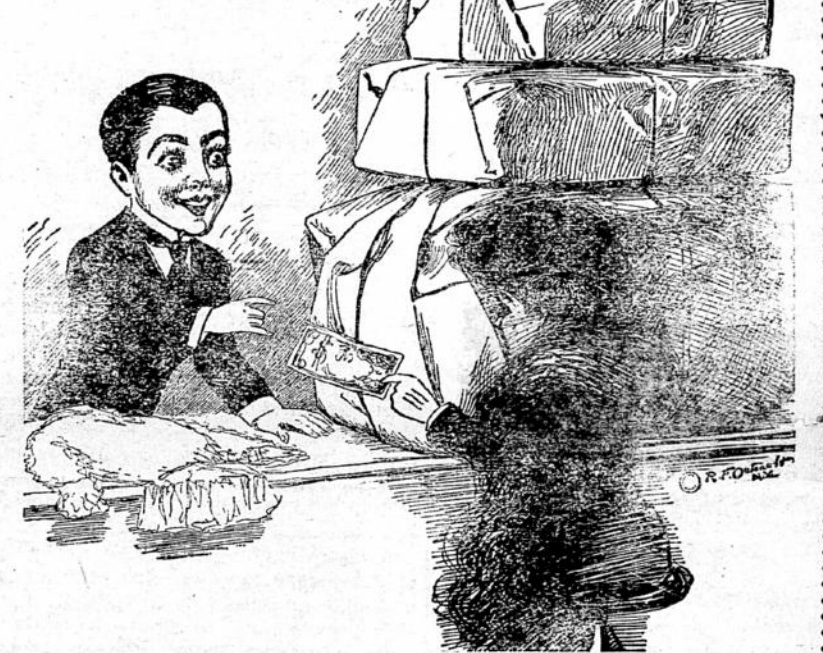

The Wear-U-Well Shoe Co. laid in their supply of hides before the heavy war advanced, and are prepared for the spring and summer of 1915, at present values and prices, which when compared with what others are prepared to do in 1915, will show a more pronounced difference and greater values than has ever yet been shown between the Wear-U-Well direct factory to consumer, and the middlemen's loaded prices of the regular dealers.

Wear-U-Well Shoes are sold in over 800 stores, the number growing greater each year, and each branch meeting with a large business forces the factory to its full running capacity.

Wear-U-Well Factory Price Shoes are sold exclusively in Princeton by the Electric Shoe hospital and to pay more is overpaying.

We invite you to a trial pair and we are positive that the shoes will speak for themselves.

BIG VALUE IS WHAT WE GIVE NOW

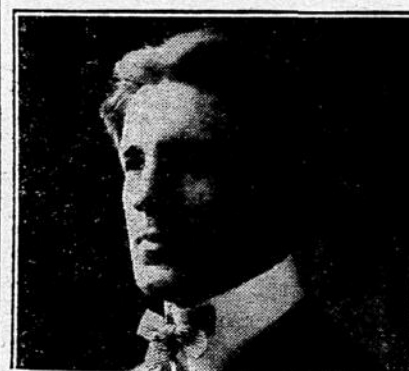

Big Value for Little Prices

IT WILL TAKE ONLY A LITTLE MONEY TO BUY BIG BUNDLES OF THINGS YOU NEED FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY FROM US NOW.

WHEN WE LOWER OUR PRICES WE DO NOT LOWER OUR QUALITY. WE SELL THE SAME RIGHT KIND OF MERCHANDISE YOU CAN COUNT ON ALL THE TIME.

COME IN AND RIG OUT EVERY MEMBER OF YOUR HOUSEHOLD RIGHT NOW.

C. H. NELSON

Dr. R. R. Frazier of Minneapolis, for several years associated with Dr. Kline of Anoka, is one of the best known eye specialists of the north-west. He has a good education, is thorough in his examination, is an expert in the diagnosis and fitting of cases where others have failed. His methods are the very latest, and he uses no drugs. His prices are as low as is possible to do good honest work, and he will fit free of charge any one needing glasses, who is too poor to afford them.

A complete record is kept of every case, and a guarantee and prescription number is given with every pair of glasses fitted. He gives special attention to relief of nervous troubles which come from irritation of the vital nerve and brain centers caused from uncorrected eye strain. Crossed eyes straightened without an operation.

Will have his office at Riverside hotel in Princeton on Thursday, January 21, and continue coming every 30 days. 4-1tc

A Test for Liver Complaint. Mentally Unhappy—Physically Dull.

The liver sluggish and inactive, first shows itself in a mental state—unhappy and critical. Never is there joy in living, as when the stomach and liver are doing their work. Keep your liver active and healthy by using Dr. King's New Life Pills; they empty the bowels freely, tone up your stomach, cure your constipation and purify the blood. 25c at druggist. Bucklen's Arnica Salve excellent for piles. Advertisement.

Geo. Mikests, who had charge of a boat livery at Wahnkon a couple of years ago, but recently residing in Canada, was killed a few days ago while trying to evade being captured by the mounted police.