

The Farm Fireside.

Gleanings by Our Country
Correspondents . . . . .

ZIMMERMAN.

Mr. Peabody of Oak Park visited his daughter, Mrs. Nash, from Saturday until Monday.

There will be a dance in the M. W. A. hall Saturday evening, March 6. Music by Bohlig's orchestra of Minneapolis. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Margaret Iliff has been quite ill with la grippe.

Mrs. H. J. Mickelson has been ill the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Foley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith at Princeton.

The sale at J. O. Nyberg's store this week is drawing a large crowd to town.

Miss Mabel Lovell came home on the Saturday evening train from Elk River, where she visited her sister.

Miss Carrie Kight came home from Lake Minnetonka Saturday to visit relatives.

Mrs. Arnt Olson of Orrock was a passenger to Long Siding on the Monday evening train to visit her son.

Andrew Carter is seriously ill with pneumonia. Dr. Parsons was called Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Carter were in Elk River Saturday between trains.

J. L. Robertson, who has passed most of the winter in southern Missouri, returned home Saturday evening.

R. E. Lynch sold one of his champion Ayshire cows to Senator M. L. McBride of Dickinson, N. D. He shipped her by express last Thursday. The cow weighed 1,370 pounds and the express charges were about $35.

LIVONIA.

Miss Ruth Lundberg came home from Elk River Monday night.

Miss Whiteoak was a caller at Chas. Cohoes' Sunday.

Mrs. R. E. Lynch came home from Minneapolis Saturday night, having spent several days there.

A large number of friends and relatives were entertained at A. A. Iliff's Sunday.

Estella Schumacher was a guest at the Chapman home in Spencer Brook over Sunday.

Mrs. Betsey Withers of St. Paul is visiting at the home of her brother, John Gramhill.

Mrs. Chas. Cohoes and Miss Blackwell spent Thursday evening at E. A. Smyth's.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Truax and family Sundayed at Albert Johnson's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smyth and daughter were in Elk River Saturday having dental work done.

Among the callers at Jas. Iliff's Sunday were John Hetrick, Frank Kight, Oscar Oscarson and a friend, Elmer Gramhill and Mabel, Bernice and Edith Gramhill.

Mr. Oscarson and Mr. Leonard arrived from Belmont, Iowa, with two carloads of cattle, horses, machinery and household goods. The former is to live with Oscar Oscarson and the latter on the Harrison place.

VINELAND.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Generous visited at J. H. Faught's last Wednesday.

W. J. Sullivan of Midland came down here Wednesday, and returned Thursday.

Mrs. Gust Anderson of Duluth visited a few days with her sister, Mrs. L. Anderson, last week.

Fred McKay of Minneapolis came up last Tuesday to spend a few days on his farm. He is putting up his ice for next summer's use.

BLUE HILL.

Mrs. Nels Nelson has been very sick with la grippe.

Our school dads made a trip to Big Lake last Saturday to attend a meeting of teachers and officers.

Mrs. Matt Johnson entered the Northwestern hospital at Princeton last week for medical treatment.

Willie VanKleek and George Swearingen spent Sunday with Orrin Brande.

Seth Wood had the misfortune to lose a horse last week. It rolled in the stable and was unable to get up, having got fast in the stall.

Orrin Brande is attending school in the John Thompson district until the spring examinations.

Arthur Borneke and wife and Mrs. Fred Borneke spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brande.

Ronbeck Bros. sawed wood for Tom Telferson last Friday and Saturday.

Hartman Camp and Mrs. E. Camp spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Wood.

Otto Borneke had his wood pile sawed last Saturday.

Some evil-minded person has circulated a report that Orrin Brande was expelled from school in district

36, Sherburne county. This report is not true. He was taken out of school by his parents, who had good reasons therefor.

Walton & Anderson of Greenbush were sawing wood in Blue Hill last week.

UPPER HAYLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Jones of Elk River visited at the O. A. Jones home several days the past week.

H. L. Jones is laying the flooring in Harold Mudgett's new house this week.

Lawrence Snow and family returned to their home at Brickton last Friday.

George Hurley drove down to Long Siding last Tuesday and returned on Thursday.

Harold Mudgett has purchased a handsome piano for his daughters.

Mrs. F. A. Maynard and Mrs. George Pickett were visitors at the school house last Friday afternoon.

Bill Liske returned to his home in Long Siding after spending the winter trapping in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Jones autoed to Pease last Monday to visit friends at that place.

George Pickett has completed the building of his house on his homestead and expects to move in this week.

Mrs. Ben Snow is visiting friends in the vicinity of Princeton this week.

A special meeting to talk over a few things in regard to the organization of the new township is to be held at the school house Friday evening at 7:30.

DISTRICT NO. 50.

Mrs. Norberg and son, Reuben, were callers at the Young home Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Norberg went to Princeton Sunday to visit at the Glade home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glade were callers in Baldwin Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. L. Campbell spent several days in Princeton last week.

The surprise party at Mr. Lesh's Saturday evening was well attended and all had a good time.

There will be a pie social at the brick school house in district 50, Saturday evening, March 6. Everybody invited.

Ernest Trunk has moved to Wyanett and Mr. Linquist has moved into his new home.

Dave Looney is down from Greenbush this week getting his potatoes hauled to market.

Earl Edmunds visited his brother, Hugh, for a few days last week.

It looks very much like spring these days. Hope it is, don't you?

WYANETT.

Mrs. Frank Weeks, Mrs. Strong and Mrs. Lewis Thompson visited at Lindell's one day last week.

Ida Erickson visited at O. Hamilton's Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Lind and daughter, Mabel, visited at Berg's Thursday.

Mrs. Duren Jack has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lind, and returned home on Saturday. Mrs. Lind accompanied her as far as Minneapolis, returning the same day.

Christine Westling has moved her store near to the pavilion.

Mrs. Charley Murray recently caught the largest cruppy in Green lake that has been caught in a long while.

GREENBUSH.

Skating is in full blast in this vicinity.

Ashaw Reiman made a business trip to Zimmerman last Monday.

John Vernon and Willie Heruth, who were employed at Warba, returned to their home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and family spent Sunday at the George Deglin home.

Visitors at the Anton Betzler home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Betzler and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Saxon.

Albert Wilhelm is busy moving onto the farm which he purchased from Elmer Orton.

John Vernon and Alfred Heruth are employed at O. W. Bracken's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Vernon and daughter, Thressa, spent Sunday with Joe Bergeron at Brickton.

The Misses Emma Lindstrom and Mary Tracy called on their friend, Alma Magly, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Reiman were pleasantly entertained at the Marion Shrode home at Princeton Sunday.

Willie and Alfred Heruth called at the Gennow home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Cordes called at Aug. Bauman's Friday.

Messrs. Baldwin and Sam Shaw and Miss Mary Tracy were callers at the George Hartung home Saturday afternoon.

Willie Heruth is busy breaking his colt.

Hjalmer Olson has been busy ranking wood for George Hartung.

Messrs. Ed Lindstrom and Fred Bauman spent Sunday with their friend, Hugo Betzler.

G. A. Hartung commenced to saw lumber Tuesday, having the following crew employed: Henry Starck, Nels Ege, Ben Hartman and Ben and Jylmar Olson.

Miss Elma Reiman was visiting friends in Princeton last week.

We understand that Anton Ege expects to go to North Dakota this spring. We are sorry to see you go, Tony.

Callers at Jack Larson's Sunday evening were A. Gennow, Guy Seifert, Ben Hartman, Ben Olson and Nels Ege.

ESTES BROOK.

The weather is surely lovely, it is almost too warm to continue, but here's hoping that it will.

Arthur, Abin and Oscar Lind called on Dave Sandquist Sunday afternoon.

Quite a few from here attended the services held in district 35 school house Sunday evening.

Arvid Lind of this burg called on Andrew Stark of Milo last Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Huggins, who has been quite seriously ill, is recovering slowly.

Mrs. August Lind called on Mrs. Mathilda Sandquist last Monday afternoon.

Don't forget the dance Saturday evening in the Estes Brook hall. Everyone come.

A large crowd attended the party at J. J. Knutsen's last Saturday evening and all report a good time.

The Misses Augusta Larson and Esther Anderson were entertained at the Seefert home last Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ericson visited at the Bonn home on Sunday.

A play, "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard," and a shadow social will be given at district 7 school house Saturday evening, March 13, at 8 o'clock. Everybody come and enjoy yourselves. Ladies please bring lunch for two.

Mrs. Mahler is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Ericson.

A number of young folks from here were entertained at the Clayton home on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bemis made a trip to Princeton on Friday.

SPENCER BROOK.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Messer are the proud parents of a baby girl, born February 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Swanbro visited at D. L. Clough's from Wednesday until Saturday.

The Stanke & Swab sawmill is running full blast. The farmers are rushing their logs in while the snow lasts.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ole Nelson, February 25, a son. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

Mike Hiller and family have moved onto the Leonard Johnson farm, which he has rented.

Quite a crowd from here attended the program in district 37. The program was good, and the boxes went high. About $60 was realized.

Mrs. Lund, who had a stroke of paralysis a few days ago is better at this writing.

Miss Collins died last Saturday night at the home of her brother, Granger Collins. She has been a sufferer with rheumatism for many years. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Andrew Peterson was called to Isanti early Monday morning to see his little boy who is very sick.

Miss Hummel and Miss Harrington will give a penny social next Saturday at the M. W. A. hall.

Dave Lewis has rented the Swanbro farm and moved over there one day last week.

OSBOW.

Olga and Freda Flink have been absent from school on account of sickness.

Mrs. Will Schmidt called on Mrs. Herb Gates a week ago.

Mrs. John Gates called on Mrs. Palm and Mrs. Ernest Radeke one day last week.

A bunch of young people enjoyed skating on Radeke lake last week. We hope the skating will last for some time.

Dorothy Gates visited with Elma Radeke Sunday.

Mrs. Herb Gates and children spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Leon Annis and family.

Emma Schlesner and Ethel Whitcomb took dinner at Mrs. Will Radeke's Sunday.

Egmont and Elma Radeke spent a pleasant evening playing finch at John Gates' Friday.

The Ladies' Aid society surprised Mrs. Henry Steeves last Wednesday. It was a complete surprise and a good social time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Horstman visited at the Radeke home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Broacher and Ed Broacher spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson.

Mrs. James Tomlinson spent the first part of the week with her mother in Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Horstman were Sunday callers at the Carr home.

A jolly bunch, numbering eighteen, took in the show at the Crystal Thursday evening. Such a good time was had that they are planning to go again.

Mrs. Ernest Radeke was a passenger to Anoka Monday morning.

Helen Grapentin is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Bert Hyndman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Annis and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dibblee were Sunday evening callers at Broacher's.

August Meyer is sawing wood for Pete Lindell and Mr. Ziebarth.

GERMANY.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bandemar and children and Mr. and Mrs. Witte visited at Anton Falk's on Sunday.

Miss Della Heitman went to Minneapolis on Friday to visit friends and relatives for a week or ten days.

George Henschel and Miss Anna Aleckson spent Sunday with Josie Henschel of Foreston.

Mrs. R. Manke and children spent Sunday in Princeton.

Quite a number of young folks from in and around this vicinity spent Sunday afternoon and evening skating on some of the ponds.

Rev. Ahl of Princeton called on Aug. Sebert on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Horstman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Carr.

Mrs. John Gates called on Mrs. R. Manke Monday.

Gus and R. Manke have been hauling hay this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gerth gave a dinner to a few of their friends on Sunday.

A sleigh load of young folks spent Wednesday evening of last week at R. Manke's. Games were played and a good time had.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Kornmann and children spent Sunday evening at E. Gens.

Miss Selma Oelschlagel is working for Mrs. J. Wilhelm.

George Peterson sawed wood for Wesley Gerth on Saturday.

We are glad to know that Aug. Gebert, who was operated upon at Anoka is at home again and getting along nicely.

Miss Martha Noeske spent Sunday at Gebert's.

Frank Schilling was a Sunday caller at Et Bockoven's.

THREE CORNERS.

Miss Karen Uglem visited at Jessie Steeves' one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson King and children, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Hamilton and son, Claude, and Oscar Roadstrom visited at Jessie Steeves' Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Parraut visited at Charley Erickson's Wednesday afternoon.

The many friends of Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Leathers are sorry to hear of their death.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Webb and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and family visited at R. Webb's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson King and family and Mr. and Mrs. Orin Hamilton and son, Claude, visited at Charley Murray's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Minor Jones were surprised Sunday afternoon by a number of their friends. They received some very pretty presents to remind them of the occasion.

Esther Nelson visited at Rosy Marshall's Sunday.

The Steadman place is sold and the people that bought it are going to build a house soon. We are glad to welcome these new neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rust and children visited at O. Hamilton's Monday evening.

GLENDORADO.

A large crowd attended the Ladies' Aid at Andrew Anderson's on Thursday, February 25, and a bounteous lunch was served. All left for their various homes feeling that the afternoon had been well spent. Mrs. H. W. Magnus will entertain the Ladies' Aid on March 25, and a cordial welcome is extended to all.

Misses Mabel Hanson and Cora Hubbard visited Josephine Donovan Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Dan Daline visited with her parents in Greenbush from Wednesday until Saturday.

Charlie Ryberg of Centralia visited his brother, Henry, of this vicinity from Tuesday until Thursday. Charles informed us that ere another month passes he'll be bound by those holy bonds of matrimony. Good wishes, Charles.

Rumors are that John Philo and family will move into the Henry Ryberg residence in the near future.

Arthur Halvorson has been busy sawing wood in this vicinity this week. Art has a fine rig and does excellent work.

Gust Daline purchased eight head of cattle from Peter and Ole Oleson last week. The Olesons have disposed of their farm and will move away in the near future.

Godfrey Nelson visited at the Hubbard home Monday.

Huldah and Frank Hubbard visited at M. E. Crook's Sunday.

Wm. Culbertson of Santiago held services in the M. E. church on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Large crowds attended.

Joe Civalier is building a kitchen to his house which improves the looks of the place.

Arthur Crook has had hard luck the past week. He lost a valuable young Hambletonian trotter, and a 2-year-old heifer recently.

GLENDORADO AND SANTIAGO.

Anton Strand is visiting relatives in the twin cities.

Mr. Steenerson of Minneapolis has been conducting a series of religious services at various places in this vicinity.

There seems to be an epidemic of colds in the country. Old and young alike are effected. No one is seriously ill, however.

A large crowd attended the auction on the old Solberg place. Live stock does not sell as well as at auctions last spring.

Mrs. J. Carlson will entertain the Missionary Aid society March 18. A cordial invitation is extended.

Clarence Stove arrived home from the Dakotas one day last week.

T. Knutson of Santiago and Abe Abrahamson of Greenbush went down to Elk River on business Wednesday.

Geo. Niesen arrived Tuesday evening for a visit with relatives. He returned Thursday morning.

Ole and Iver Folwick arrived home Friday from a few days' visit with friends at Grantsburg, Wis.

Peter Niesen and Mrs. Peter Westling left Thursday morning for a few days' visit with relatives at Robbinsdale.

A game of basket ball was played at the hall on Friday evening between the local team and Milaca town team. Milaca secured the long end of the score.

The Wm. Hofferbert family visited at Emory Crumm's on Sunday.

Leonard Harland left for his home at Spring Valley on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Johnson visited at Gust Johnson's on Sunday.

John Hedin went to Grove City Thursday on business for the silo company.

Mrs. Albin Swenson and Mrs. H. E. Jones visited with Mrs. Oscar Swedberg in Dalbo on Sunday.

ISLE.

J. L. Gerrish, the Wahkon barber, was in town on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Kaplin was in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. Orla Mattocks and daughter, Irene, of Wahkon visited at the John Carlson home on Wednesday.

Dick Hagberg was up from Wahkon on Wednesday.

Harry Elgren of Opstead was in town on Wednesday.

John Haggberg of Redtop transacted business in town Wednesday.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid society met at the home of Mrs. Ice on Wednesday afternoon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Burroughs.

Dr. Frazier of Wahkon, accompanied by Aug. Elgren and Mrs. Dan Elgren, took Dan Elgren to the Swedish hospital in Minneapolis, where he will undergo an operation as soon as he gets stronger.

Paul Popilick of Bowls was in town on Thursday and Friday.

The Busy Bee Sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. P. Haggberg on Saturday afternoon and evening.

Miss Ellen Johnson was elected president for the coming year.

E. A. Wikelous, agent of the Watkins company was in town on Thursday.

George