

The Farm Fireside.

Gleanings by Our Country
Correspondents. . . .

BOGUS BROOK AND BORGHOLM.

Miss Lillie Eggert, who has been visiting for some time at Mapleton, returned home on Saturday evening.

The Misses Hattie, Versalia and Beatrice Hofferbert and Virgie Crumm called on Miss Letha Young on Sunday.

Giles Ellsworth had the misfortune to lose one of his horses on Sunday, it being kicked badly by one of the other horses.

Mrs. H. E. Jones spent Sunday at the Oscar Swedberg home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Niesen and son and Vallie Niesen and Eddie Flack called at the Hofferbert home on Friday evening.

Several of the ladies were pleasantly entertained at the Oscar Swedberg home on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Florence Swedberg has been helping Mrs. Nelson the past few days.

Egnar Nelson and Thos. Niesen spent Saturday at Ann lake.

Edith Nehing who, has been visiting at the Jas. Westling home, returned to Bock on Sunday.

Wm. Hofferbert, who has been assisting in the Milaca postoffice during the past two weeks, is spending a few days at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hofferbert and family spent Sunday at the Chas. E. Johnson home.

John Hedin was a county seat visitor on Monday.

The Misses Della Rowland and Myrtle Reinke called at the A. P. Lindstrom home on Sunday.

The ball game that was scheduled to be played between the Bogus Brook and O'Neil teams on Sunday was postponed to a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Haskell and family and Mr. Bloom of Milaca called at the N. O. Nelson home on Sunday evening.

The dance on Saturday evening was not very well attended on account of the inclement weather.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pool of Bock spent Sunday at the Jas. Westling home.

Emmet Schields returned to his home at Spring Valley on Wednesday.

MUDGETT.

Chas. Sopper of Ada is a guest at the A. Spencer home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Jones visited friends in Pease last Wednesday.

No teacher has as yet been engaged to teach the coming term of school in district 39, and applications have been scarce.

Mrs. L. Lund, who has been visiting at the home of her son, J. B. Lund, left for her home in Owatonna last Saturday.

Russell Baker returned home from Des Moines, Iowa, last Wednesday.

The town board of Mudgett got out a crew of men last Monday to repair several bad places in the road.

H. Mudgett and Emil Mollan observed Good Roads Day again last Friday when they contributed another day's work towards fixing up some of the bad places in the town of Page so that people from this way could get to town without breaking their necks. There are several other places in the same town that are sadly in need of repairs.

Friends here have received cards announcing the marriage of Miss Mabel Jones to Chas. Kindler in Grand Rapids, June 22. Mrs. Kindler was the first teacher in district 39 when the school was organized three years ago. We extend our heartiest congratulations.

LONG SIDING.

Henry Uglem transacted business in Princeton on Monday.

Miss Clara Larson returned home on Monday after a few days' visit with her friend, Miss Bessie Leshner.

Mrs. M. A. Carlson and Miss Moran visited friends here on Sunday evening.

Andrew Larson and Peter Olson attended the memorial services of the Odd Fellows at Princeton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lipp visited friends in Princeton on Sunday.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Hanson which occurred last Thursday afternoon. Quite a number from here attended the funeral.

The farmers shipped out a large number of cattle and hogs on Thursday of last week.

Quite a number from here attended the ball game at Princeton on Sunday.

On Monday the streets were crowded with teams equal to Princeton according to the size.

S. A. Miller and family are moving into their new house this week. Arthur Larson and Gust Thorsquist went to the cities on Tuesday.

SPENCER BROOK.

Miss Violet Peterson is spending a few days in Mora visiting friends.

Ben House and Earl Thompson spent Saturday and Sunday visiting in Rush City.

Mrs. J. R. Medin was taken very sick last week, and was taken to the hospital Tuesday and operated upon the same day for some stomach ailment. She was doing nicely when last heard from.

Mrs. M. L. Severance arrived here last Thursday from Friday Harbor, Wash., where she has been living the past three years.

Carlton Smith of Cambridge is over to the Brook visiting friends and relatives.

Visitors at C. E. Severance's last Sunday were G. C. Smith and family, E. E. Ellingwood and family and J. O. McKenzie and family.

Billy Walker of this town and Louise Hurtt of Zimmerman were married last Friday. They expect to reside on the Walker farm.

A dance will be given at the hall Friday evening, July 2. Princeton orchestra will furnish the music.

GREENBUSH.

Three cheers for the Fourth of July!

Attorney Knobel of Minneapolis was entertained at supper at Henry Forster's on Monday.

Ed Quinland made a business trip to Milaca on Tuesday.

Agnes and Edward Anderson have gone to Buffalo for a visit.

Theodore Forster called at Harding's on Sunday.

Randi and Edward Pederson transacted business in Princeton on Monday.

Contractor John Pederson is busy ditching for H. Forster, and Bill Lisky in ditching for Theo. Forster.

John Anderson and Robert Shaw are busy doing road work.

Arvel Gennow spent Sunday at the Hartman home. There seems to be quite an attraction for him there. How about it, John?

Olaf Pederson was a pleasant visitor at Henry Forster's on Sunday.

Miss Labbissonniere visited her friend, Mrs. Forster, on Monday.

Mr. Mahler gave another one of those big times at his barn on Saturday evening, and a large crowd was present in spite of the rain. Everyone had an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Forster and family spent Sunday at Reibestein's. Eckberg Bros. have closed their mill here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Forster and family spent Sunday at Quinland's.

OSXBOW.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steeves spent Sunday at the home of Leon Annis.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tomlinson and Hugo Grapentine were entertained at John Gates' last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Mary Hall spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Steeves, recently.

Lillian Lungren and the Misses Henschel visited at Otto Grapentine's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Annis spent Sunday evening at Jim Thompson's.

Mrs. Julia Cady has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Everett Hall, after a few weeks' visit in Wisconsin.

Sunday visitors at the home of John Gates were Mrs. Julia Cady, Everett Hall and son, Marshall, and Helene Grapentine.

Mrs. Jim Thompson's sister and children from Iowa are visiting her.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ziebrath spent Sunday at the Leike home.

Hooga Grapentine and Miss Bertha Swanthus were Sunday visitors at the O. Norske home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dibblee, Andrew Boo and Edward Hall autoed to Spectacle lake Sunday.

Hattie Hall has returned home after spending a few days at her aunt's, Mrs. Henry Steeves.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schilling visited at Oliver Dibblee's Sunday.

Lula Hall is visiting at Henry Steeves.

WYANETT.

Mrs. A. Weline is on the sick list this week.

Janey Way returned home from the city Saturday evening. We welcome her back among us again.

Nelson King has learned to run his auto and his neighbors are all enjoying a ride.

The dance held at Leonard Johnson's Saturday evening was enjoyed by all.

Esther Nelson and children visited at O. D. Orne's last week.

Mrs. R. Webb returned home Tuesday from Wisconsin. She went on account of the illness of her father.

Mr. R. Webb's brother and sister and families, and mother from Iowa were visiting him for a time recently.

Hans and Lewis Rust were fixing the telephone wires Monday.

Dale Fiero is visiting at Mr. Fiero's this week.

Mrs. Hyndman and family have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in their bereavement.

DISTRICT NO. 50.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Egge were Orrock visitors Sunday.

Miss Minnie Gunderson, sister of Mrs. Egge, has been a visitor at the latter's home the past week.

Mrs. C. L. Campbell returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit at Worthington.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl House were visitors in Wyanett last week.

We are at last getting some corn weather and the corn and other crops are improving.

Work is still going on at the grade across Cartwheel marsh.

Sherburne county will vote on county option on July 12. Let every voter turn out and vote and see if we can't follow the example set by Mille Lacs and other counties and close up the public nuisance flourishing along our public road.

We understand Hollis Vetsch's house burned to the ground, with everything in it, one day last week.

The ball game between Baldwin and Blue Hill was won by the latter team.

ZIMMERMAN.

Harry Pratt went to Hudson, Wis., last Friday and purchased a bulldog. Harry wants to hire a cheap man to take care of the animal as he is very dangerous.

J. O. Nyberg, Irvin Jennison and the Misses Nora and Lilly Stendahl autoed to Minneapolis Sunday and returned Monday.

A. R. Berglund and wife returned from their auto trip through the northern part of the state and Canada last Saturday. They were accompanied home by their sisters. Mr. Berglund says the sandy soil is good enough for him to travel on.

Henry Swanson and wife of Oak Park were visiting friends in town Sunday.

Andrew Carter has finished his road work at St. Cloud and returned home Sunday.

Miss Louise Hurtt and Wm. Walker were married at Parker Lake, Minneapolis, on Friday, June 25. We wish the young couple a long and happy future.

J. O. Nyberg and P. V. Malm drove to Foley last week.

Mrs. Jack Larsen and son, Jesse, of Foley were visiting friends here Sunday.

Ben Robson has sold his farm to a man from the southern part of the state.

Quite a number from here attended the circus at Elk River Monday. They report it very good.

The Zimmerman base ball boys defeated the Minnehaha Merchants Sunday by a score of 8 to 10. Our boys are playing good ball now and are not afraid to meet any of them.

Miss McDermott of Ryder, N. D., visited Mrs. B. A. Kettelson last week. From here she went to Menahga to visit a sister.

Lyle Iliff spent Sunday here with relatives.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Chas. Hiller next Friday afternoon.

Mr. Peabody of Oak Park visited his daughter, Mrs. Nash, last week.

Miss Eva Ross of Princeton was in town Tuesday giving elocution lessons.

Mrs. Arthur Neumann entertained three of her sisters from Stillwater over Sunday.

The families of R. E. Lynch, Bert Iliff and Earl Iliff, and Miss Bean autoed to St. Cloud Sunday to visit Miss Burns.

THREE CORNERS.

Nelson King has bought a Ford automobile as have the Holman boys. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Steeves and baby autoed to St. Cloud and back Sunday.

We wonder what has become of our mail man. Mrs. Mathis is taking his place.

We hear wedding bells and are all wondering where.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Webb and family picnicked at the river Sunday.

Warren Taylor and Jack Calvin were fishing at Spectacle lake Saturday and as it rained camped there for the night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lambert and family and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson King and family visited at Will Thomas' Sunday.

Mrs. Lafa Slaback, Zelda Brooks and Mrs. O. Hamilton went to the moving picture show at Princeton Friday evening.

Mrs. Grace Fredrickson passed away Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at her parents' home here. The funeral was held Monday from the house and interment was in the Christian burial ground. Mrs. Fredrickson leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss.

O. Hamilton is shingling his house this week, and his brother, Sewall, is helping him.

VINELAND.

Fred McKay and family attended the shooting tournament at Brainerd last Saturday.

Peter and Laura Evans visited at the Rogers home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Landahl of Little Falls arrived here last Saturday to spend a few days at their summer cottage at White Fish lake.

Gilbert George returned to his home at St. Paul Wednesday.

The people of this vicinity will celebrate the Fourth of July at Wigwam Bay, July 3. Everybody come and have a good time.

Walter Peltier, Bob King, Ray Bockoven, Wm. Hanson and son, all of Princeton, arrived at Vineland Sunday morning from Wabkon, where they had tried their luck at fishing. Not getting any fish there on account of poor bait they were a very disgusted bunch. After hiring an Indian guide at this place they departed for White Fish lake. Last we heard of them they had all the fish the law would allow them to catch.

PEASE.

The state bank inspector and L. Fouquette of Foley were here last Wednesday. The inspector was much pleased with Cashier Fouquette's work and complimented him on the amount of business being done by the institution. Jean Axel is now assistant in the bank.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Jerry Timmer last Saturday. Kate Kuperus is assisting with the housework at Timmers'.

The S. Meline family met with a serious accident last week. They had attended church and were crossing the bridge on their way home when the horses became frightened at some planks which were piled on the bridge. All were thrown from the buggy, but Mr. Meline and Teddy were the only ones stunned. Teddy was pinned under the buggy and badly bruised. Dr. Cooney of Princeton was called.

Ivan Pederson, the blacksmith, left last night to attend his brother's wedding at Hastings, and will return on the evening of July 5.

Mrs. Bleeker is having a dwelling erected near F. Timmer's. The cellar and foundation is now being made. Mrs. Bleeker has rented her farm.

The creamery shipped 107 tubs of butter this week. Please remember that the creamery will be closed July 5.

J. A. Jetsinga purchased a Reo automobile last week of L. Pederson of Milaca.

S. DeBoer traded his old automobile in on a new Studebaker last week.

Mrs. A. J. Jetsinga is now able to be around.

The Young People's society will give a Fourth of July celebration here July 5, on the grounds back of the church. The young men fixed up the picnic and ball grounds today. Nick Pluimer and George Kiel have charge of the sports and they report that they have secured the Foreston ball team for that day. Peter Pluimer and Mr. Baas went to Minneapolis Monday and returned Tuesday evening.

F. Faber returned to his home at Orange City, Iowa, on Monday. He expects to move his family here in about two months, and open his store.

Peter DeVries unloaded a carload of salt for the creamery this week. Henry Aldrink has been unloading lumber and cement for the Rudd Lumber Co. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Jones of Mudgett visited at F. H. Bartlett's on Wednesday.

Announcements of the wedding of Mabel Jones and Charles Kindler were received here last week. All of Mabel's old friends wish them a long and happy married life.

Remember the celebration which is to be held on the Leo Peter's farm in Woodward Brook on July 5. The celebration is being given by the Farmers' club and is sure to be a success in every respect.

GERMANY.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kuhfield and daughter, Minnie, Mrs. Ed Engleke and Reuben Schmidt spent Sunday afternoon at George Gerth's.

Miss Clara Kettelhardt returned to her home in St. Paul on Monday after spending a couple of weeks with her friend, Miss Stella Bockoven.

August Kiessling spent Sunday in Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schilling visited with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dibblee on Sunday.

Misses Olive and Myrtle Schmidt spent Sunday with their brother, Sidney, and family.

George Schmidt went to the cities on business last Tuesday.

Mrs. Arthur Steeves and daughter, Eva, spent a week in Minneapolis.

A few young folks spent Sunday evening at Wm. Schmidt's.

Mrs. Emil Gens and children visited at the H. Heltman home on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Falk visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bandemar and children on Sunday.

The Heltman girls spent Sunday at the Noeske home.

BLUE HILL.

Mrs. Martin has returned to Blue Hill and will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. James Griffin.

Rev. Johnson of Princeton will hold preaching services at the Blue Hill M. E. church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday school will be held before the services.

The Sunday school picnic was well attended—about 70 people were present—and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

Mr. Weldon and son, Frank, of Greenbush, Mr. and Mrs. Scholey and daughter, Emma, of Baldwin and the Swearingin family gathered at the home of Grover Jensen last Sunday to help celebrate the anniversary of his birth.

Mrs. Gus Miller spent the fore part of last week visiting relatives and returned home on Wednesday.

Frank Bear of Clay City, Ill., is looking the country over with the intention of purchasing a farm if he finds one to suit.

Wm. Marsh and wife and Hazel Galbraith of Princeton attended the Sunday school picnic last week.

Wm. Wehrndt and family and Mrs. Miller and son, Charles, spent Saturday visiting the former's brother north of Princeton.

Sterling Van Kleek has returned from an auto trip to Otter Tail and Stearns counties, where he visited relatives. He reports the crops here as better than those he saw while away.

Corn is growing fast these hot days. Rye and oats look fine and prospects are that good crops will be harvested.

LIVONIA.

With the warm weather the past week crops in this vicinity are looking fine.

Mr. Emmons and son, Clarence, went to St. Paul Friday to meet Mr. Emmon's sisters who are here visiting from Illinois.

A few from here attended the Ladies' Aid society meeting at the Magney home in Zimmerman last Wednesday.

The families of Cohoes, Leonard and Haase picnicked at Blue lake Sunday.

A number of young folks were entertained at the James home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoglund are entertaining company from Duluth.

Mrs. Ed Smyth and Mrs. Emmons visited at the Leonard home on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

The church sale at the Borgen home proved a success in spite of the storm. A neat sum was realized from the proceeds, and an enjoyable time was spent by those present.

Word was received here that E. B. MacKenzie was married June 16 at Wabpeton, N. D., to Miss Lilli Moses of Battle Lake. Mr. MacKenzie is well known here, having visited his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Cohoes, a number of times. His friends here wish them a happy wedded life.