Local sportsmen report that game birds are extremely scarce in this vicinity this season. Several hunters ventured forth last Sunday, but met with indifferent success.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Allen went to Milaca last Monday evening to participate in the observance of the 65th anniversary of the birth of Mr. Allen's father, Mr. A. S. Allen.
Zubulake Bros. have installed a handsome new soda fountain at their confectionery store in the Newbert block. They shipped their old fountain to Elk River where they are opening a new store.
From school to position. Every study we teach is a necessity for successful work in bank, store, office or farming. No time wasted in useless studies. Positively the best school for farm boys and girls. Let us save you time and money. St. Cloud Business College. 44-1tc
O. L. Stromland of Greenbush was a pleasant caller at this office on Monday. Mr. Stromland has met with marked success growing tobacco in this county, and had an excellent crop this year. Mille Laes county soil is capable of producing anything that grows in the ground in a temperate climate.

Mrs. John McMinn was a Minneapolis visitor the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Whitney were Minneapolis visitors the first of the week.

The Princeton Starch factory will open next Monday for the fall run. Bring in your potatoes. 44-1tc

H. O. Oliver of Vineland sent a wolf pelt down to the county auditor yesterday, and received bounty on same.

Just received, a carload of apples and pears. Will be sold in bulk on the track or at my feed store. Frank Henschel. 44-1tc

Theodore Zimpel is erecting a dwelling house on the Otto Henschel farm, being assisted by Ernest Schimming.

Editor and Mrs. Geo. E. Sloan of Wahkon were Princeton visitors last Monday. Bro. Sloan made the Union a pleasant call.

Miss Pearl Moore left for Montana last Friday morning, being accompanied as far as Minneapolis by her father, C. O. Moore.

The Dorcas society supper at Allen's hall last evening was a decided success, and a most tempting array of eatables were served.

The Orphic Club dance at the armory last Friday evening was a success. Pleasing music was discoursed and a truly delightful time was had by all present.

The condition of Mrs. Earl Henschel remains the same, and we regret to state that no improvement is noticeable. A change for the better is sincerely hoped for.

Elmer Earley returned from Larimore, N. D., last evening, where he raised 30 acres of potatoes. Mr. Earley has been in Dakota since last spring and looks as if life in the open agreed with him.

The Princeton Co-operative creamery continues to do a good business and for the week ending Tuesday, 80 tubs of A. No. 1 butter were churned, 64 of which were shipped to the eastern market that day.

E. F. Lefavre, commercial agent of the Frisco line, and W. D. Day, traveling freight agent of Iron Mountain & Missouri Pacific railroad, transacted business here last Tuesday evening with F. W. Manke & Co.

A license to wed was issued at the office of the clerk of court yesterday to Roy Torgerson of Steele county and Miss Lula Blackburn of Milaca. They were united in marriage the same day by Judge of Probate Sanford.

Dr. H. C. Cooney will leave tomorrow for Boston, Mass., to be in attendance at the North American Congress of Clinical Surgeons. Dr. Cooney never overlooks an opportunity to keep abreast of the times in his profession.

F. W. Manke returned from Larimore, N. D., last Friday evening, where he had been supervising the growing and harvesting of 280 acres of potatoes, which the firm of F. W. Manke & Co. had in at that place. Mr. Manke reports a good yield.

I hereby wish to express to the business men of Princeton and all friends who have so freely contributed toward the work of the Children's Home society of our state my heartfelt thanks. Mrs. A. L. Ellis, District Superintendent.

It is too bad that there are miscreants in this no-license town who will furnish whiskey to Indians. The authorities should leave no stone unturned to ferret out the guilty parties. An example should be made of some of these boot-leggers.

The Princeton town board met in regular session last Saturday with all members present. Aside from auditing numerous bills no business of importance was transacted. Some contemplated road work will probably be postponed on account of lack of funds.

While several loads of potatoes are being marketed at Princeton daily the movement is not what might be termed brisk. The farmers are undoubtedly taking advantage of the favorable weather to dig the tubers. The prices that have been paid since the last issue of the Union, while slightly lower than this morning's quotations, were fair.

Delegates from several of the farmers' clubs of Mille Laes county held a meeting at the Milaca Co-operative creamery last Saturday, and arrangements were completed for a convention to be held some time next month at which it is expected that all the clubs in the county will be represented. This is a move in the right direction. A wide-awake farmers' club is a valuable asset to any community, and it is pleasing to note the interest manifested in the work.

HEREAFTER R. R. Frazier, Well-Known Eye Specialist, of Minneapolis, will have his office with

DR. COONEY on his regular monthly visits to Princeton. His next date will be Saturday, Nov. 13. 44-4tc

It is an old saw that a chain is no stronger than its weakest link. The same is true of a road. There may be miles of a passable road on each side of a miry slough hole, but the impassable bog hole spoils the usefulness of the entire road as far as the traveling public is concerned.

The annual Hallowe'en masquerade ball under the auspices of Company G at the armory, Friday evening, October 29, promises to be a delightful event. Cafarella's peerless orchestra of Minneapolis has been engaged, and that means that the music will be of the best. Plan now to join the happy throng. Costumes may be secured at the armory on Thursday, October 28. 44-1tc

A deal was closed last week whereby C. P. Christiansen of Minneapolis became owner of the Ideal restaurant, and he took possession of same last Tuesday. His wife and three children are also here, and will make Princeton their home. O. N. Vista, who has conducted the restaurant the past several months is undecided as to what he will do in the future, but informs us that he expects to re-enter the "movie" field if a desirable location in some neighboring town can be secured. He operated a motion picture theater at Foley prior to his coming here.

than you are asked to pay for cotton underwear.

Come in and let us show you the "Bradley" Service King Sweater Coat. Foreign governments wanted an all wool knit coat that would wear like iron, protect the soldiers from the wintry blasts, and yet not hamper their movements. In the face of world competition "Bradleys" were given the orders and the Bradley coats are admittedly the world's supreme service knit coat. Every thread is all wool, the pockets are
