TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.
The editor acknowledges the receipt of a copy of "Ceasar's Column," with the compliments of the author. Ed. Page, the waggish Anoka lumberman, was in town last evening. It is a cold day when Ed. feels or looks blue.

Mr. and Mrs. Flo Annis were made happy by the arrival of a bouncing baby boy at their residence on December 5th.
George Stevens sprained an ankle by carelessly jumping off a load of hay the other day, and is obliged to get around on crutches.

Chas. Caine is the new manager at the North Star hotel. Mr. Lib. Clark, the former manager, intends to remove to St. Cloud shortly.
The Eastern Minnesota trains refuse to receive any local mail for Milaca. The present state of affairs is intolerable. It takes a week to get an answer from a letter to Milaca and the distance is only 14 miles by rail. This is simply damnable.
Considerable space is devoted in this issue to advertising the Farmers' Institute to be held at Princeton next Tuesday and Wednesday, for which we do not charge one cent. The Union will always gladly contribute its mite to promote the interests of the agricultural classes.

Editorial: A recent decision of the supreme court is to the effect that village councils have power to cause sidewalks to be constructed, no matter whether the owners of the adjacent property petition for the same or not.

Fred Kunkel had Fred Young (not George Young's son) arrested, Tuesday, on the charge of threatening him with a revolver. It appears that Kunkel had taken a contract from the town to clean the timber off a portion of a new road laid out by order of the supervisors of Princeton. Young claimed to have bought the timber of Mrs. Schilling. On Monday, Young drove Kunkel off the land at the muzzle of a revolver, at least that is Kunkel's story. Justice Dickey issued the warrant; a change of venue brought the case before Justice Dorr. The lawyers wrangled all day, Tuesday, and finally the defendant was discharged.

Educated Flies.
When John Lind, President Wilson's special envoy to Mexico, was running for governor of Minnesota against William Henry Eustis, the following conversation took place between an Eustis supporter and a Scandinavian carpenter in Minneapolis:
"Well, Ole, who are you going to vote for?"
"I tank I vote for Yon Lind."
"Why don't you vote for Eustis? There are no flies on him."
"Ya. Da fly he know something, too."—Collier's.

Its cushion sole is made of alternate strips of piano felt with air spaces between the outer and inner sole, placed in such a way as to prevent the humps and wells which occur in ordinary cushion sole shoes.

There is only one "Bend Easy" Shoe made—The Gotzian. Don't be satisfied with any other cushion shoe that is offered. Insist on the Gotzian "Bend Easy" Shoe and your foot troubles will cease.
