TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
 Milaca correspondence: A Good Templars lodge was organized here one evening last week with a large membership.
 The Congregational Christian Endeavor society will give an observation party at N. E. Jesmer's tomorrow night. A pleasant time is expected.
 Mrs. Anson Howard of Baldwin was thrown from a sled a week ago and three of her ribs were fractured. She is improving rapidly, which will be agreeable news to all.
 Blue Hill is going to have a new bridge across the St. Francis river near John Hull's place. H. W. Mergel is the contractor, and the bridge will undoubtedly be a good one.
 Rev. W. J. Warner has gone to Sauk Centre to remain a week or ten days and assist the local preachers in converting Frank Barnum, Henry Keller and the other ungodly denizens of that city.
 Arthur L. Snow writes from Mille Lacs lake: "Enclosed find subscription for Union. After living in your county for two years I feel safe in ordering a newspaper as the reddevils cannot drive me away now."
 Our Spencer Brook correspondent proves that there is money in raising potatoes at 20 cents per bushel. But the probabilities are that potatoes will be worth more than that next fall. They will be worth 20 cents per bushel at least.
 Wolves are numerous in this vicinity at present. They are seen on all the roads leading into the village almost daily, but are very cunning. It is almost impossible to get a shot at one and it is equally difficult to trap or poison one.
 Bean's half-way stopping place on the old stage road between Princeton and Elk River is numbered with the things that were—it was consumed by fire yesterday forenoon. The greater portion of the household furniture was saved. No insurance.
 Messrs. Charles Malone and A. D. Jesmer of Foreston and J. F. Ballentine of Milaca were callers at the Union office Monday. It was Mr. Ballentine's first visit to Princeton and he expressed himself as 'agreeably surprised in the place.
 Editorial: Should the bill introduced by Representative Bull of Wright county providing that the saloon liquor license be paid into the county treasury become a law "blind pigs" would spring up in every nook and corner of the state.
 Representative Price is receiving a great deal of gratuitous advice from would-be friends as to what he should do in the way of local legislation. Our advice to Mr. Price is, do nothing. With the exception of a slight amendment to the charter empowering the council to fill vacancies, no local legislation is needed.

 Last Saturday morning Will Scheller's house in Milo was destroyed by fire. A large quantity of grain which was stored in the kitchen loft and all of his seed potatoes and other vegetables together with his household goods fell prey to the devouring flames. Nothing of any consequence was saved. The building was insured for $300.

War Upon Pain!
 Pain is a visitor to every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you are prepared for every emergency if you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy. It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply lay on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful.
 Mervin H. Soister, Berkeley, Cal., writes: "Last Saturday, after tramping around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck so stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed. To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost disappeared, four hours after the second application I was as good as new."
