RUSSIAN FORCES NEAR TREBIZOND

Turks Are Said to Be Evacuating Black Sea Port.

ONLY ONE ROUTE LEFT OPEN

Sultan's Troops Can Retire on Kharput, From Where They Might Strike Southeastward and Join the Bagdad Forces by Way of Diarbekir.

London, Feb. 23.—According to special dispatches from Petrograd the Turks are said to be evacuating Trebizond, the Russian advance along the Black sea having reached to within a single day's march of the port of Rizeh.

A considerable force of Turks from Erzerum is hastening toward Rizeh in the hope of finding the coast road open to Trebizond. The Russians are moving rapidly to cut off this force.

The only route now left open to the Turks retreating westward is to Kharput, the dispatches say, from where they might strike southeastward and join the Turkish Bagdad forces by way of Diarbekir.

All the attacks against Brabant and L'Herbebois were repulsed.

"Between these two points, and with large losses, the enemy was able to occupy the Haumont wood and the salient which formed our line to the north of Beaumont."

BERESFORD SCORES BLOCKADE FAILURES

London, Feb. 23.—Lord Charles Beresford, who was created a baron by King George in the recent New Year's honors, made his maiden speech in the house of lords on Baron Sydenham's motion that "in conformity with the principles of international law and the legitimate rights of neutrals, more effective use could be made of the allied fleets in preventing supplies directly conducing to the prolongation of the war from reaching the enemy."

Baron Sydenham spoke briefly. He was followed by Baron Beresford, who said: "If we had asserted our rights and used our sea power properly the war would be over now. Even at present we have only a sort of blockade, carried out by proclamations, orders in council, agreements and committees. Wars are not won by proclamations and orders in council, but by fighting, and that is what we should do.

"The war is being conducted by twenty-one amateurs, who know nothing whatever about it. The basis of success in a war is foresight and how can mere amateurs have foresight? The management of the war has been worse since the coalition ministry was formed. Brilliant retreats will not win the war; let us get this thing on its proper basis."

A grateful sufferer writes: "I was suffering for three weeks with Chronic Rheumatism and Stiff Neck, although I tried many medicines, they failed.
