

Paints for All Purposes

HOUSE PAINTS
WOOD STAINS

WALL TINTS
TUB ENAMELS

Paints for all purposes. Paints for inside, outside, walls, ceiling, floors, furniture, houses, barns, woodwork, metals, autos, boats, carriages and fences. Nothing missing, all the very finest grades, all the popular tints and colors, all guaranteed first grade, and all offered at the lowest market price. Paint brushes too, of course.

C. A. JACK DRUG CO.

"THE REXALL DRUGGISTS."

Open Sundays from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

George I. Staples is the only person who is authorized to collect money due this office. In every case the party paying money is entitled to and should insist upon receiving a printed receipt. R. C. DUNN, Publisher.

Nelson's photos please the people.

Winter is certainly lingering over-time in the lap of spring this year.

The finest flavored coffee, 28c per pound, at A. E. Allen & Co's. store 1tc

The Evens Hardware Co. recently disposed of a Reo automobile to Erick Johnson of Greenbush.

C. N. Parks recently disposed of a registered Holstein sire to Chester Pierson of this village.

Ladies' black silk skirts. The dressiest skirts ever shown in Princeton. A. E. Allen & Company's. 20-1tc

Sidney Hanson of Greenbush purchased a Ford automobile through the Herdliska agency Saturday.

Rev. Eugene Ahl left for St. Paul Monday morning to attend the conference of the German Lutheran church.

New ladies' waists. New skirts. Correctness in every detail. See them now at the store of A. E. Allen & Company. 20-1tc

"Quality Printing" is our motto—and we live up to it. Next time you need anything in the line of printing call for the "Union Man."

A handsome new iceless soda fountain—the latest on the market—was installed in the store of the C. A. Jack Drug Co. the first of this week.

Main street in Isle is receiving much favorable comment. This street was gravelled last fall and has been in fine condition all spring.—Isle Advance.

County Commissioner Eckdall of Bock passed through here on the train Saturday morning on his way to Detroit, Mich., to see a sister who is ill.

May 1st was ushered in with a miniature snow storm. The flakes were soft, and changed to water almost as soon as coming in contact with the earth.

Rev. Otto Strauch of the German Lutheran church in Princeton town was a passenger to Minneapolis on Monday morning, going down to attend a conference.

A basement is being excavated under the Newbert building on First street, occupied by Zubulake Bros. It will be used as a candy kitchen, and for the manufacture of ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rill and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith motored to the cities Monday morning, where Mr. Smith attended to business matters, and returned the following morning.

Oliver Ross departed last Thursday evening for Sauk Centre, where he has secured a position in a creamery. He is an experienced butter-maker, and will make good beyond a doubt.

The next regular meeting of the W. T. Rines Post, 142, G. A. R., will be held at the Armory on Saturday, May 13. Let there be a good attendance. Chris Bridge, Commander; A. Z. Norton, Adjt.

Before you start for Princeton to have your picture taken be sure it is the first or third Saturday or Sunday of the month, as these are the only days you will find Nelson's famous photographer from Anoka, at his studio in Princeton. 2-tfc

The Ostead correspondent of the Isle Advance tells of one Alfred Johnson who works eight days out of the week. Just how he does it is not explained, and it is to be presumed that few are yearning to learn. The present tendency is toward shorter hours.

An excellent line of graduation gifts at Byers' jewelry store. 20-1t

Base ball next Saturday at the fair grounds—Princeton vs. Monticello.

Banker J. J. Skahen was a passenger to Minneapolis yesterday morning.

The Gordon Hat for men. Sold by the leading store. A. E. Allen & Company. 20-1tc

Jim Johnson was called to Minneapolis yesterday morning to see an aunt who is ill.

A dance will be given at M. B. Carter's Saturday evening, May 13. You are invited to attend. 20-1tc

Now is the appointed time for road maintenance crews to get busy and put the roads in proper shape.

Many customers of other stores are buying their coffee from us at 28c a pound. A. E. Allen & Co. 20-1tc

Ruchings are now the newest for ladies' dress. Unusual large assortment shown at our store. A. E. Allen & Company. 20-1tc

For Sale—A second-hand automobile in first-class condition. Electric lighted and started. Price $400. J. A. Smith, Princeton. 20-2tc

Yes, Mr. Advertiser, the Union has a few readers in Mille Laacs county and several in the adjoining counties of Isanti, Sherburne and Benton.

Frank B. Kellogg will speak in St. Cloud on the evening of the 20th of May. Quite a delegation will go over from here if the weather is favorable.

The King's Heralds will meet with May and Mabel Fryling Saturday afternoon. All members are requested to attend as it is the election of officers.

Mrs. L. Stumm and daughter Blanch and son, William, returned Friday from a three months' visit at the home of the former's son, John, at Cassleton, N. D.

Mrs. J. P. Chapman and daughter of Chicago, returned to their home Saturday after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Chapman and other relatives for a week.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a mother's meeting at the home of Rev. Johnson next Tuesday afternoon. A good program has been arranged and lunch will be served. All are welcome.

The Luverne Journal has changed hands. M. W. Halloran, formerly of Sauk Rapids, has sold his interest to W. W. Latta of Brainerd. The latter is a son of Jeff Latta, of Elk River, and is an all-round newspaperman and a good fellow.

A saloon and the postoffice at Clear Lake were burglarized Sunday night. Ten dollars in cash and several bottles of whisky and some cigars were taken from the saloon, and stamps and cash to the amount of $75 was the loot obtained in the postoffice.

Notice to Seniors: We have just received samples of card mounts, for your class photos for 1916, and same may now be inspected at the studio. Call as early as possible and make your selection, so the stock can be procured in time. Payette's Studio. It

The demand for automobiles this season is exceedingly brisk, and this is merely another indication of the prosperity of this section of the best state in the Union. Wm. Trunk of Baldwin purchased a Chevrolet automobile through the agency of C. E. Hill last Thursday.

Harness oiled at $1 per set. Bring in your harness now. Shoe repairing at prices that will meet with your approval, and a class of neat and substantial work that will give you that satisfied feeling assured. A trial is all we ask. J. H. Hoffman, the harness man. 10-tfc

You will find a nice line of jewelry at Byers' jewelry store.

Let me help you choose a graduation gift for your son. R. D. Byers. 1t

The very newest in ladies' dress shoes now shown at A. E. Allen & Co's. 20-1tc

Five hundred oak fence posts for sale. Inquire of Wm. Lipp & Co., Long Siding. 20-tfc

Dr. Isgrigg returned to Princeton the first of the week, accompanied by his wife, after a visit at Sauk Centre.

New stock of Gossard corsets now being shown. They lace in front. Sold by A. E. Allen & Company 20-1tc

Go to the Whitney Lumber Yard for building materials of all kinds. We don't keep lumber. We sell it. E. E. Whitney. 11-tfc

Are you enjoying your coffee? If not, come in and get some of our 28c coffee with the right flavor. A. E. Allen & Co. 20-1tc

The Woman's Relief association will meet with Mrs. Ellen Howard on Friday, May 12. Members are requested to note the change of date from May 5.

A home talent play entitled, "Which One Won," will be given at the M. B. A. hall, Wyanett, on Saturday evening, May 6th, at 8 o'clock. Admission, 20 cents.

The public drinking fountain donated to the village last summer by the W. C. T. U., commenced bubbling nature's thirst quencher last Thursday, after a winter's rest.

The potato situation presents no new features, and prices are the same as last week. Buyers estimate that about 50 loads a day are being marketed here now.

Dr. J. F. Kothman, optometrist, will be in town on Wednesday and Thursday, May 10 and 11. Eyes examined and glasses fitted. Office with Dr. L. F. Anderson, dentist. 1-tfc

Claire Newton, who returned to Princeton last week suffering with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, has recovered, and he was able to be out and around Sunday afternoon.

This evening, at the fair grounds, the gun club will commence operations for 1916, and the various crack shots of this vicinity expect to shatter more of the clay pigeons than ever.

Bert Mark submitted to an operation for the removal of adenoids and his tonsils at the Northwestern hospital Monday. He left for St. Paul yesterday morning to pass a few days while recovering.

T. M. Olson, the popular assistant cashier of the Security State Bank and manager of the local ball team, had his appendix removed at the Northwestern hospital, Monday. The operation was a success, and "Pongo" will soon be up and around again.

A very particular coffee customer entered our store recently and asked for some good coffee. She had been using 35c coffee purchased at another store. We sold her some of our 28c coffee and she has been buying it ever since. Proof! A. E. Allen & Company. 20-1tc

J. H. Hoffman, one of the local automobile dealers, has been doing a rushing business of late. On Friday he disposed of a new Oakland Six to Harry Craft of Blue Hill, and on Tuesday A. E. Grow of Greenbush and Chas. Sandell of Wyanett purchased Oaklands.

Rev. and Mrs. M. Peterson left for Minneapolis Monday morning, having accepted an invitation to attend a banquet of the Twin City Swedish Lutheran Ministerial association, which was held at the home of Dr. C. J. Peters that afternoon. They returned Tuesday evening, and report that it was an enjoyable affair.

Dave Umbecker left for Minneapolis Monday morning, and expects to remain away indefinitely. If he does not secure employment in that city he will seek it elsewhere. Dave completed a course in electrical engineering at a Washington, D. C., school a year ago, and is a most dependable young man, who is bound to succeed.

Marshal Wilkes surprised his friends by appearing on our streets last Thursday afternoon, armed with a walking stick. He has recovered from the operation for appendicitis, and, although he is a trifle weak as yet, should be able to resume his duties in a few days. Meanwhile it is to be hoped that it will be but a few weeks until his services on the mound in the center of the diamond will be available, not to mention his formidable bludgeon.

A motion for a new trial in the case of Catherine A. King vs. J. C. Herdliska, which resulted in a verdict for the defendant at the spring term of court here, was argued before Judge Parsons by Attorney E. C. Patterson of Minneapolis on the 18th ult. Attorney McMillan of this place opposed the motion, and an order was filed in the office of the clerk of court Monday, denying same.

Misses Marjorie and Dorothy Dickey returned last Friday evening from Menno and Parkston, South Dakota, respectively, where they have been teaching school. Miss Majorie submitted to an operation for appendicitis Monday at the Northwestern hospital, and her numerous friends will be pleased to learn that the operation was a success, and she is recovering as rapidly as could be expected.

Nat Young will put on three shows in this vicinity in the immediate future. Besides a good drama, one Charlie Chaplin comedy will be shown. Chaplin is the funniest man in the "movies," and you can see him at the new Judkins barn in east Baldwin on Friday evening, May 5. Also at the Glendorado hall on Saturday evening, May 6, and at the Wyanett M. B. A. hall Sunday, May 7th. 20-1tc

Two of Princeton's juvenile citizens, who were evidently not "too proud to fight," were gathered in by acting Marshal Fox Tuesday evening, while exercising the right inherent in boyhood, and unceremoniously consigned to the dank cells of the village bastille. Their release was brought about shortly after their incarceration, but they were brought before Justice Dickey yesterday morning, who dismissed them with a lecture. Kids is kids.

Seventeen of the 21 assessors of Mille Laacs county were at the court house last Thursday for the purpose of receiving their books, blanks and instructions from the county auditor. Assessors W. A. Robbins of Onamia, J. H. Martin of Kathio, and H. E. Posley of South Harbor, were excused from attending owing to the abominable condition of the lake road. Aug. F. Meyers of Princeton town was also excused, as he was attending to probate business in Cambridge upon that day.

Messrs. Adar Wallace Engberg, H. A. Peterson, D. Stadin and C. H. Southerland motored over from Cambridge Tuesday evening, and made arrangements for the appearance of the Cambridge Choral Union at the Armory on Monday evening, May 15. A sacred cantata entitled "The Holy City" will be rendered, and it promises to be the most notable musical event of the season. The admission fee has been fixed at 25 and 35 cents, and seats will be placed on sale at Sturdevant's confectionary next Monday.

The Dorcas society of the Congregational church is having a cook book printed at the Union printery, and those who preside over the destinies of kitchens will find it a most valuable production. Recipes of all sorts are contained therein supplied by the good housewives of Princeton and elsewhere. The book will contain about 100 pages, and the necessary instructions for preparing hundreds of appetizing dishes are given. One thousand copies will be printed, and the ladies should experience little difficulty in disposing of them.

Captain Mallette had a large squad of aspirants for places on the Princeton ball team out for practice last Thursday evening, and again on Sunday. Practice will be in regular order hereafter. Some mighty good material is available, and some of the youngsters are also showing up fast and strong. Raiche of high school basketball fame, is one of the comers, and the veterans of last season are all going good. Merit alone will govern the selection of players, Capt. Mallette informs us, and those who show up best in practice will be used. All the ball players in this section are urged to try out for the team.

The official proceedings of the school board of Independent district No. 1 appear elsewhere in this issue. The normal department will be discontinued next year, owing to a lack of pupils, for this department, and congested conditions elsewhere in the schools. A resolution was adopted as a tribute to Miss Huse, who retires from educational work at the close of the present term, and Miss Flossie B. Davis was elected to the vacancy created by her retirement. The clerk was instructed to call a special meeting of the voters of this district, for the purpose of voting on the proposition of acquiring additional ground for a school site. The special meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 23, at the village hall, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock, and the site to be voted on is the south half of block five of Damon's addition to Princeton.

Our Men's Suits

Are Making a Hit

IF ANYONE ever had the idea that men are not interested in new fashions (for themselves) we'd like that man to spend an hour in this store.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

He would be astonished at the way men of all ages have been calling on us for the new spring suits from Hart, Schaffner & Marx.

The beautiful fabrics and very smart models shown in their suits are giving our customers just what they want.

Orton & Kaliher

The Home of Good Clothes

PRINCETON - MINNESOTA

The Cambridge Choral Union

Presents the Sacred Cantata

"The Holy City"

At the Armory, Princeton

Monday Evening, May 15th

65--Well Trained Voices--65

Vocal Solos, Duets, Quartets and Chorus Numbers, as Well as Orchestra Selections.

Admission 25 and 35 Cents

Seats on Sale at Sturdevant's Store Next Monday

Dr. Isgrigg will accept no more patients for treatment until about May 1st, at which time he will have moved into modernly equipped offices over Herdliska's jewelry store, fully prepared to successfully treat all forms of chronic diseases.

Dr. R. R. FRAZIER, the well-known Eye Specialist of Minneapolis, will be at Nelson's Studio, Saturday and Sunday, May 6 and 7.

Eyes carefully examined and Glasses made that (WILL FIT). Special attention to relief of headaches and other Nervous troubles by proper fitting of Glasses. Cross eyes straightened.

Silverware Cut Glass
D. R. BYERS
JEWELER
Watch Repairing a Specialty
Clocks Novelties

Once you use it, you will always use it—the 28c a pound coffee sold by A. E. Allen & Company. 20-1tc

Mr. Sterling Apel and Miss Harriet Wilkens of Wahnkon secured a permit to wed at the clerk of court's office Tuesday evening, and were immediately made man and wife by Rev. E. B. Service.

PAYETTE'S
Popular HAS
Priced HE
Photos TAKEN
Please YOUR Particular PHOTO
People YET?
Come in and arrange for a Sitting To-day! The Latest Creations in Photography are Always to be found at The
PAYETTE STUDIO
Princeton, Minnesota