

Baby Says:

"Feed me right, I'll stay right"

But mother knows, too, that when baby is fed right baby will stay right, baby is healthier and happier and grows so plump and beautiful. Be very careful in the selection of baby foods; trust the suggestion to doctor, nurse or druggist. In baby foods, we can sell you all the popular kinds, all fresh and all reliable.

C. A. Jack Drug Co. The "Rexall" Druggists

Open Sundays from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

George I. Staples is the only person who is authorized to collect money due this office. In every case the party paying money is entitled to and should insist upon receiving a printed receipt. R. C. DUNN, Publisher.

Nelson's photos please the people.

The town board of audit will meet at Bockoven's office on Saturday, June 24th.

Why not set out a few dozen late cabbages now, for the chickens next winter? 26-1t*

A big celebration will be held at Green lake on July 4. You are invited to attend. 26-1tc

Mrs. G. H. Poirier of St. Cloud spent the week-end with her cousin, Miss Delia Dejarlias.

Go to the Whitney Lumber Yard for building materials of all kinds. We don't keep lumber. We sell it. E. E. Whitney. 11-tfc

P. J. Wikeen left for Buffalo, N. D., Monday evening, and if prospects look good he will erect a potato warehouse at that place.

The St. Anthony & Dakota elevator is closed, and will remain closed until the new rye is ready for market. P. J. Wikeen, manager. 26-1tc

County Treasurer Henry Olson of Cambridge was an interested spectator at the Princeton-Braham ball game at the fair grounds Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kimball of St. Cloud were guests of Mrs. J. B. Lane last week, and Mrs. W. F. Washburn of St. Cloud is visiting Mrs. Lane this week.

The town board of equalization will meet at the office of the Bockoven Land Co., on Monday, June 26, and go over the books of Assessor Aug. F. Meyers.

Dr. J. F. Kothman, optometrist, will be in town on Wednesday and Thursday, July 19 and 20. Eyes examined and glasses fitted. Office at the Commercial Hotel. 1-tfc

The W. F. M. S. of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. A. J. Orton next Tuesday afternoon. A mite box luncheon will be served. A good attendance is desired.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will hold a food sale at the jewelry store of D. R. Byers next Saturday. All members of the church are requested to contribute.

Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Service were called to St. Mary's, Ontario, Canada, by the illness of the latter's father, Mr. J. Farr. Mr. Farr recently suffered a paralytic stroke.

Early or late cabbage plants for sale. Will make fine early or late kraut this fall. Only 5c a dozen or 30c a hundred. H. E. Cook, north Princeton, Tri-State phone 133. 26-1t*

Duren Jack arrived here from Glencoe Saturday evening, and returned Tuesday, accompanied by his wife, who has been visiting here. Mr. Jack operates a hardware store at Glencoe.

Miss Martha Leighton of Minneapolis, and Miss Louise Campbell of Parkers Prairie, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McMillan the latter part of last week and the first of this.

Last Thursday an impromptu foot race was pulled off along front street between C. J. Robideau and Harry Pritchett. The former won, making the 100 yards in 11 seconds.—La-Motre, N. D., Chronicle.

Before you start for Princeton to have your picture taken be sure it is the first or third Saturday or Sunday of the month, as these are the only days you will find Nelson the famous photographer from Anoka, at his studio in Princeton. 2-tfc

Wanted at once—A good cook at the Home Restaurant. 27-1tc

Mrs. Henry Sanford of Milo visited at the S. S. Sanford home in Princeton town over Sunday.

Miss Bertha Sellhorn has returned from Duluth, and is at the home of her parents north of the village.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Gibson next Monday afternoon, and all members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Roy Winsor left for Clay Center, Nebraska, Monday, to visit relatives and friends for a month or so.

Miss Mildred James who is attending the university normal school, visited at her home here over Sunday.

A food sale will be held at the Bazaar next Saturday. The public is cordially invited to patronize same.

There will be an interesting game of ball at Green lake on Sunday, June 25, when the Karmel and Long Siding nines will clash. Be there. 27-1tc

The Princeton Co-operative creamery will be closed on Tuesday, July 4, and patrons should bring in their cream before 4 o'clock of the previous day.

Mrs. F. H. Burrell, who with her children has been visiting relatives here for more than a week past, returned to her home in Onamia, Tuesday.

Mr. Abe James was the victim of an enjoyable surprise Saturday evening, when about 30 friends invaded his residence and aided him in the proper observance of the anniversary of his birth.

A dance will be given at the Green Lake Pavilion on Saturday evening, June 24. Potter's orchestra of Minneapolis will furnish the music, and all know what that means. You are invited. 25-2tc

Mrs. J. H. Caveney and two children, of Fort Williams, Ontario, arrived Monday to spend some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wark, at Riverside farm in the town of Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Carlson arrived here from Crosby, N. D., last week to visit relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mr. Carlson returned to his home last Tuesday, but his wife will remain a couple of weeks.

Some wag has erected a "Look Out for the Cars" signboard at the end of the miniature railroad track over which earth is being hauled in dump cars to fill the sink hole on the state road south of the Cartwheel marsh.

Graduates of 1916: Public School of Music is a new profession, not yet overcrowded. A one or two year course at the N. W. Institute of Musical Art, 41 S. Sixth St., Minneapolis, will fit you to fill a good position as supervisor. Adv.

Big sale commencing June 22, and continuing until July 2. A discount of 20 cents on the dollar will be made on trimmed hats, shapes and flowers at the millinery store of Mrs. E. C. Meyer, opposite E. Nelson's store. 27-1tc

James Van Winkle was arrested by a game warden the first of the week, and brought before an Onamia justice of the peace, charged with shipping pike caught in Mille Lacs lake. A stiff fine was levied against him, which was paid.

Hon. C. B. Buckman of Little Falls is a game loser. He called up R. C. Dunn yesterday morning and said although defeated he was grateful to his friends and would take off his coat and help to elect the successful rival, Harold Knutson, to congress. Just like old Buckman.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Goebel were in town from Milaca yesterday to visit their boys who are members of Company G. Another son is a member of a Minneapolis company of the National guard. Mr. Goebel is a German and he truly says his family cannot be accused of lacking in patriotism.

Mrs. Helen Moore returned to her home at Ellsworth, Wisconsin, after a short visit here at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. Peterson. Rev. Peterson accompanied her, and will be a guest of the congregation of the Mission church there, during the silver jubilee of that organization.

Assessor Aug. F. Meyers of Princeton town informs us that since making his rounds he has been profoundly impressed with the longevity of sewing machines. He says that he encountered a couple that were at least four of five thousand years old, according to the stories of the owners, and remarkably well preserved at that. The lot of the assessor is not a happy one.

Harold Hopkins, former candy maker at Scheen's, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Augler Rines of Oakland, California, is here visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Eva Martin of North Branch is a guest at the home of her cousin, Mrs. W. C. Doane.

Robert Brown, who is employed in Minneapolis, visited Princeton friends the first of the week.

Among the graduates from the Shattuck Academy was Glen Shaw Ferrell. Congratulations, Glen.

Mrs. A. L. Northam, superintendent of nurses of the City Hospital, Minneapolis, is the guest of Miss Margaret I. King.

For Rent—A seven-room house, furnished or unfurnished, good cellar, barn, chicken coop and well. Mrs. Esther Lane, Princeton. 27-1tc

Marian Cater of Princeton town is somewhat lame. A horse stepped on his left ankle Friday morning, and he was painfully bruised.

A marriage license was issued at the office of the clerk of court yesterday to Mr. Peter A. Anderson and Miss Alice I. Peterson, both of Borgholm.

Wellington King of Spencer Brook is at the Northwestern hospital being treated for an abscess of the head. Numerous friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Creglow's store occupies all of page two this week with an advertisement, and a careful perusal of same will repay shoppers. Attractive prices are quoted. Read it!

The potato market remains unchanged, and prices are about the same as last Thursday. Receipts are extremely light, and only a few loads a day are now being marketed here.

Alex O'Brien, who is employed at the Brickton brick yards, fell from a low staging attached to a kiln last Friday, and his shoulder was badly wrenched, and he was otherwise bruised up.

Business at the Princeton Co-operative creamery continues to increase, and during the week ending Tuesday a total of 225 tubs of prime butter were churned at that institution, 218 of which were shipped to the eastern market.

Farmers should cut their first crop of clover early, if they desire to get the best seed results. Clover should be cut when it is about one-third in blossom, according to government bulletins, if a heavy yield of seed is to be secured. Some clover is now being cut in this vicinity.

Mrs. S. S. Petterson and daughter, Joyce, have returned from Minneapolis, and are enjoying the comforts of the Petterson cottage at Green lake. Gerald Petterson, who is a student at Princeton university, is expected home next Sunday, as is Seivert Petterson, who is attending a Minneapolis school.

H. A. Doane arrived here from Portland, Oregon, last evening, and is a guest of his brother, County Auditor W. C. Doane. The mobilization of Co. G places "Billy" in a position where he cannot devote a great deal of time to entertaining his brother, but they appear to enjoy being together immensely.

Glendorado will observe Independence day most fittingly. Senator J. D. Sullivan of St. Cloud will deliver an oration, and music, races and sports will be other features. The hospitable people of Glendorado can be depended upon to make the occasion an enjoyable one for those who participate in the observance.

At best the chances of getting the Jefferson highway through Mille Lacs are not good, but there is not one chance in a hundred of the eastern route being selected unless the state road in Sherburne and Mille Lacs counties is put in the best condition possible. The inspection will be made next week.

The Long Siding and Greenbush ball teams clashed on the diamond of the former last Sunday, and Long Siding won by a count of 11 to 7. Greenbush made all of its scores in the sixth inning while the Long Siding pastimers were aeroplaning. Art Leander hurled for the victors, and Alfred Erickson was on the mound for the losers.

Mr. George H. Deans of Foreston received a telegram from Frank B. Kellogg yesterday expressing his gratitude for the splendid vote he received in that village—41 to 2. The returns from Foreston were the first received from any country precinct at the Kellogg headquarters in St. Paul on Monday evening.

Very Important Point

Here's one very important point in buying these fine clothes.

You know when you wear them that you are Stylishly Dressed.

It's the accepting a check without question when you know the signature is good, and the man who gave the check has money in the bank.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx name on Clothes is like that—it's good for value; you can depend on getting the value when you see that name.

That's our idea in selling these clothes; we're perfectly safe in indorsing such a check. Pay $20 to $25 and see what real Economy is.

Orton & Kaliher

The Home of Good Clothes

PRINCETON - - - MINNESOTA

FORD HOSPITAL

FORD REPAIRING A SPECIALTY AT

C. E. Hill's Garage

GOOD WORK AND SATISFACTORY PRICES

W. J. Bryan

THE PEERLESS ORATOR

HAS BEEN ENGAGED FOR AN ADDRESS AT Anoka, Minnesota JUNE 26 Chautauqua JUNE 26 At 2:30 in the Afternoon

Your only chance this Summer to hear the Great Commoner, who grows stronger still in platform power as years go by.

A PLAIN AND POWERFUL ADDRESS ON THE LIVE QUESTIONS OF GREAT INTEREST.

PAYETTE'S

Popular HAS
Priced HE
Photos TAKEN
Please YOUR Particular PHOTO
People YET?

Come in and arrange for a Sitting To-day! The Latest Creations in Photography are Always to be found at The

PAYETTE STUDIO
Princeton, Minnesota

Dr. Lawrence M. Isgrigg

SCIENTIFICALLY PRACTICING SUGGESTIVE THERAPEUTICS A System of Drugless Healing.

Presenting remarkable opportunity for the afflicted to obtain a cure of Chronic Stomach, Liver or Kidney trouble; Rheumatism, Constipation, Paralysis, Consumption, or Female Trouble; Diseases of the Eye, Epilepsy Asthma, Cancer Eczema, Nervousness or any organic weakness, in fact a great many diseases not reached by medicine or surgery.

OFFICES OVER HERDLISKA'S JEWELRY STORE.

Misses Clara and Martha Rosin left Tuesday for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Minneapolis and Madison.

Silverware Cut Glass

D. R. BYERS

JEWELER
Watch Repairing a Specialty
Clocks Novelties

Lawn Mowers Sharpened. If your lawn mower is dull, bring it to N. M. Nelson's blacksmith shop and get it sharpened. He has a special machine for the purpose and guarantees a good job. 25-tfc

Rev. Eugene Ahl was a St. Paul visitor the first of the week.