

The New Edison

"The Phonograph With a Soul"

The remarkable musical instrument that brings into your room the gifts of the world's greatest musical artists just as you would hear them on the world's greatest stages. The comparison test proves that these words are not empty assertions.

Let Us Demonstrate This Fact To You.

Billy Caley has an interesting collection of army guns and pistols, ranging from a Revolutionary flintlock pistol with an 11-16 inch bore to a modern 45 caliber automatic army revolver. Other specimens in his collection include a 44 caliber, muzzle loading civil war pistol, that was a crude fore-runner of the repeating revolver; a Burnside carbine used in the rebellion; two pin-fire pistols that were used in the Indian wars, and three Spanish-American war rifles. On Memorial day Billy had his collection on display in a window of the Caley Hardware Co., and it attracted considerable interest.

We note by the issue of the Tolley, N. D., Journal of the 25th ult., that Rev. M. Peterson, recently of this place, has taken up the pastorate of the Swedish Lutheran church there. A reception was tendered the Petersons upon their arrival in their new home, and they received several substantial gifts of value.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Cotten returned Saturday from an auto trip through Aitkin, Hill City, Grand Rapids, Hibbing to Chisholm, where they visited their son, C. F. Cotten, who is Great Northern Agent at that point, and his wife. While there they motored to Virginia and other range towns. Mr. Cotten says the roads are in the very best of shape and business at its very best on the range.

Dr. Caley's new automobile was somewhat damaged Saturday, when the left front spring snapped in two, which let the engine down on the steering rod. This caused the car to swerve suddenly to the right. The accident happened at Ira G. Stanley's residence, and the automobile plunged over the curb, and landed in the street beyond. The right wheel and fender were torn off. Billy Caley was driving the car and another boy was with him, but fortunately neither one of them was hurt.

Herbert Anderson was a passenger to Minneapolis Monday, going down to tender his services to Uncle Sam for navy service. He was not accepted owing to slight physical defects. Earl Manary also went down for the same purpose, but was rejected, being under weight. Both were anxious to serve and are to be commended for their willingness.

The Pullman motor (four-cylinder, cast in bloc, with oversize valves, husky crank shaft and big crank shaft bearings) is making an amazing reputation for pulling ability. Stromberg carburetor and Dixie high tension ignition are expensive but during fourteen years' experience in building fine motor cars, the company has never sacrificed quality for profit. 24-1tc

Very solemn and impressive were the confirmation and sacramental services held last Sunday evening in the Congregational church. After a special sermon by the pastor, in which Christ and Christianity were held up as the great light which alone could succeed in banishing the darkness of sin's dark night, Dr. Peatfield received several candidates into the church fellowship, two by letter, and several others on confession of faith. It was one of the most impressive services that has been held for some time.
