

A dozen and one helps for one spring job

The most important aid to housecleaning is plenty of time and plenty of muscle. These things are not always at hand, not always available and should not always be demanded.

Housecleaning Helps

Many little housecleaning helps which we sell are offered as labor saving devices, aids to rapid and economical housecleaning. None of them are without value. All have their specific purpose. A small assortment will help you to do a big job in little time and at little cost.

Next Wednesday afternoon the Dorcas society will meet at the Red Cross rooms.

Bring in your hens. We will pay you the highest market price. Smith's Meat Market. 18-tfc

Philip M. Woodward was here this week as official reporter in the ditch case and the Union is indebted to him for a call.

Prof. Erickson gave a talk to the high school students at the assembly room on Tuesday morning. His subjects were gardening and boys' and girls' clubs.

Ernest V. Nelson left for St. Paul on Wednesday morning to make a third attempt to join the colors. He has been home the past few months recuperating from an operation.

The potato flour-making machine at the starch factory was placed in operation yesterday and is doing good work. For the week ending April 20, 990,700 pounds of potatoes were taken in, making a total since March 26 of 3,670,650 pounds.

County Agent Steward was in St. Cloud on Tuesday and purchased a Holstein registered bull from I. J. Orton for the Mille Lacs Breeders' association. C. L. Jump will be the keeper. For information apply to Verne Steward, county agent, Milaca.

A flag social will be given for the Red Cross in district 27, Blue Hill, on Thursday evening at 8:30. Mr. Parry, the Sherburne county agent, will give an interesting talk. Ladies, please bring a flag and a box lunch. Everybody come and help the good cause. 18-1c

F. L. Brunkow, field agent for the United States department of agriculture, was here this week in the interest of barberry eradication and ordered a hedge or so of that shrub around town removed. Yesterday morning he addressed the high school pupils.

Now that songbirds are with us again people should not fail to place shallow dishes of fresh water in their yards for the little fellows and watch them enjoy their morning eye openers and ablutions. The birds will sing more and better for you if you furnish them water.

Princeton's village council has decided not to permit political meetings in the public streets of the village, but no meeting of any political party will be barred within doors or on private grounds so long as sedition or hostility to the government is not preached or advocated. The council has determined wisely.

Miss Violet Anderson and Arthur Hjeltman of Cambridge were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage last Thursday evening at 7:30 by Rev. James A. Geer. The young couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Erickson, who acted as witnesses. They will make their home in Cambridge. The Union extends best wishes.

At the primaries on June 17 candidates for county auditor, treasurer, register of deeds, judge of probate, county attorney and sheriff will be selected to go on the ticket. The clerk of court holds over. Filings must be made at least 20 days prior to the primaries. O. C. Myron has already filed for county attorney and there will in all probability be others.

Joseph Kaliher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kaliher of this village, a student at St. John's college, Collegeville, and a member of the Northwestern Gymnastic society, has been declared the champion of this society with a percentage of 94.5. The championship contest was pulled off in Minneapolis. There were 57 entries and six branches of athletics entered into the test.

On Tuesday morning a prominent business man who had heard Dr. Thomas McClary on Monday night at the Methodist church, remarked, "That lecture was worth $5 to me." All the rest of the audience felt the same way about this Mark Twain of the American platform who honored this city with his presence and message. He was here some twenty years ago and frequently remarked what a beautiful town we now have.

There is no section of Sherburne county in which greater improvements can be noticed than in the eastern part of Livonia township. Larger areas of land are under cultivation than a few years ago, and the land appears to be well farmed. Farm buildings are neat and well kept; the same may be said of the school houses; and best of all the roads are in excellent condition. There are evidences of thrift and prosperity on every hand in eastern Livonia.

Charles S. Wheaton, jr., of Elk River, has filed for county auditor of Sherburne county, and Arthur Robinson, the present incumbent, will also be a candidate for re-election. C. D. Kaliher, the present efficient clerk of court, will have an opponent in Theodore C. Swanson of Big Lake.

Copies of the Scenic Highway booklet have been received in Princeton. Typographically it is a gem, and the reading matter is interesting, instructive and decidedly original. Mr. N. Noll of Cass Lake, secretary of the Scenic highway organization, is the author of the booklet and he has reason to feel proud of his production.

Aaron Larson has returned to Long Siding from California, where he spent the winter. He visited a brother he had not seen for 54 years and also John Wetter and Carl Nelson, who at one time lived in Princeton. They are doing well and send their regards to friends here. Mrs. Larson says he was especially well entertained by the Wetter family.

Arthur B. Embretson of Orrock was a member of the crew of the Cyclops, a U. S. collier that was last heard from at a West Indian port and has been missing for over a month. Efforts to locate the vessel or find what became of her by the navy department so far have proved unavailing but the search for her is being vigorously prosecuted.

The dog poisoner is again plying his nefarious calling. On Saturday Charley Hepburn, the Union's linotype machinist, lost his large, black dog, Rover, from the effects of poison, and other cases are reported. The dog poisoner is as great a blackguard as the kaiser, and we would like to assist in jerking him to hades by the hemp-stretching process.

Mrs. M. M. Briggs has received a telegram from her son, Claude, conveying the information that he has been transferred as an assistant mail clerk to the office of Vice Admiral Sims, in the third division of the Atlantic fleet at London. Claude had been anxiously awaiting the day to arrive when he would be called across and now his wish has been obtained.

A freight engine came into collision with a truck loaded with eggs and butter at Becker the other day, and the Herald says it was "quite a spill." The truck was demolished while the depot platform was strewn with badly scrambled but strictly fresh eggs and great chunks of fine creamery butter. Part of the truck's cargo was salvaged but in a mussy condition.

Of course the marshal cannot be in a dozen places at the same time, but it is a fact that automobiles are daily being driven through the streets of Princeton at the rate of from 15 to 35 miles an hour. When the marshal drags these speeders in there should be no fine unless it be accompanied by a jail sentence. It has been demonstrated a thousand times that a fine will not stop speeding.

All of the neighboring towns have had or are going to have Red Cross days with auction sales. Only a few days ago the patriotic little hamlet of Foreston realized $900 for this noble organization. Milaca is to have its Red Cross day next Wednesday. Why not have a Red Cross day in Princeton? Princeton has done and is doing nobly in behalf of all war activities, but we can't do too much.

President Wilson, by proclamation, has designated tomorrow, April 26, Liberty day, and requests that on the afternoon thereof all of the people of the United States should assemble in their respective communities and liberally pledge anew their financial support to sustain the nation's cause. The president urges that upon said occasion patriotic demonstrations be held in every city, village and hamlet throughout the country.

From the Wahnkon Enterprise we learn that Thos. R. Bell of Winnipeg will resurrect the Isle newspaper. To resurrect a paper is not a particularly difficult matter, but the Isle publication has been consigned to the grave so many times that we fear Mr. Bell, especially in these war times, will find it difficult to avert another interment. However, it is not our purpose to attempt to throw cold water upon the proposition. We welcome Mr. Bell to Mille Lacs county and wish him success.

Notice to Farmers. Farmers having logs at the mill are requested to come in at once and saw them, as the mill will be closed down within a few days. 18-1c E. E. Whitney.

Notice. Owing to an insistent demand I have resigned my position at Orton & Kaliher's store to do painting and paperhanging. F. E. Scholey, telephone 141. 18-1c

Miss Lillian Patten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Patten of Baldwin, lately passed the civil service examination for stenographer, and on Saturday, April 20, left for Washington, D. C., to work for Uncle Sam. Miss Patten was formerly employed by the firm of Bricchet & Richter of Minneapolis.

Of Course They Are Unfit.

The comptroller of the currency recently approved an application for a charter for a new national bank in a certain western state, as there was, apparently, an opening for a bank in the community in which it was to be established and the applicants seemed to be men of responsibility and means and some prominence. Subsequently doubt arose as to the loyalty and patriotism of the applicants, and it was ascertained that although the six applicants for the charter were reported to be men of considerable means—several of them claiming to be worth a quarter of a million dollars or more—the aggregate amount of Liberty bonds of the first and second issues to which the six applicants had subscribed was only $200, several of the applicants for the charter having taken no Liberty bonds at all, and their aggregate subscriptions to the Red Cross had been only $149.

The comptroller has today revoked the authority given for the organization of this proposed national bank, on the ground that men of means in these times who show so little patriotism and so little public spirit in the matter of making subscriptions to Liberty bonds and to the Red Cross are unfit to be placed in charge of any national bank.

Sauk Center Remains Wet. Sauk Center remains wet. Judge Roesser handed down his decision to that effect Saturday. The court found that two votes for the drys were illegal, and that made the vote for and against license a tie, and leaves the right of the council to issue liquor licenses unaltered.
