Mrs. Erly-Riser Rusticates.

From Mrs. Erly-Riser in the country to her husband back home in the city:

"They have the cutest chickens here, and the elegantest cows. P. S.—I feel anxious about you. Do write."

From the same to the same:

"I'm learning to tell the grass from the flowers. Yesterday I chased a lot of ducks away from the water and saved them from drowning. P. S.—What is the meaning of your silence?"

From the same to the same:

"I have waved a red flag at a bull today just to see if there is anything in all the talk about red, being a bull's least favorite color. There's a lot in it. It was the first tree I ever climbed. P. S.—This dreadful suspense is killing me. Write."

From the same to the same:

"The sunsets are beautiful and always in the west, so far. P. S.—If I do not hear from you tomorrow I shall take the first train home."

From Erly-Riser in the city to his wife in the country—special delivery:

"Keep calm. I'm all right. Am mailing you a check today."—Detroit Free Press.

Returned Soldiers.

Taking everything into consideration, the tone of recent news from the states as regards the attitude of employers toward returning soldiers is reassuring. It is a bold person who predicts what the economic condition will be in the United States during the next twelve months or so, but it is apparently only a pessimist who paints the situation very black. Considering that the following headline was printed within two weeks after the division it was written about got back home, we can hardly get alarmed: "5,000 Men of — Division Walk Streets Jobless." Maybe the 5,000 men wanted to take a couple of weeks' rest.—Stars and Stripes.

Her Opportunity.

They were discussing entertainments of various kinds, and one girl, whose plainness of feature and general air of thing old maidishness was very marked, said:

"For my part I don't care a rap for your dances and receptions and teas. What I like is a dinner party."

"Mercy!" exclaimed another woman, "are you becoming a gourmet?"

"Oh," said the old maid, "the food doesn't matter, but it is the one time when I am sure of having a man on either side of me who can't get away."—Philadelphia North American.

PRINCE ALBERT

The national for smoke

TALK about smokes, Prince Albert is geared to a joyhandout standard that just lavishes smokehappiness on every man game enough to make a bee line for a tidy red tin and a jimmy pipe—old or new!

Get it straight that what you've hankered for in pipe or cigarette makin' smokes you'll find aplenty in P. A. That's because P. A. has the quality!

You can't any more make Prince Albert bite your tongue or parch your throat than you can make a horse drink when he's off the water! Bite and parch are cut out by our exclusive patented process!

You just lay back like a regular fellow and puff to beat the cards and wonder why in samhill you didn't nail a section in the P. A. smokepasture longer than you care to remember back!

Buy Prince Albert everywhere tobacco is sold. Tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tins—and that clever, practical pound crystal glass humidifier with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.
