

Equip The Youngsters For School

We sell everything for school except the books. We have a wide range of grades and kinds that are adaptable for use by all students from kindergarten to college. Of course they're new goods and that makes them worthy. Being worthy, they are desirable purchases. Send the children to us and let us help equip them. Our knowledge is at your service and theirs.

You will always find fair and square writeups of baseball and football games in the Union. The sporting editor of this paper is an expert in baseball, football, tennis, golf and even cricket and polo, and he at all times aims in his interesting stories of the conflicts to give each side a square deal, whether winner or loser. You never find any dirty little strikes in his reports—just true, clean stuff.

Joe and Mary Armitage have arrived home from Argusville, N. D., where they enjoyed a month's rustication on the farm of their uncle. Joe is as brown as a Chippewa Indian and gained 8½ pounds during his vacation. Cream, turkey eggs, Jackrabbit stew and outdoor life are responsible for his increase in avoirdupois. Mary had a grand and glorious time as well as Joe, but she did not permit the tan to accumulate on her countenance as did her brother.

Notice to Motor Owners. All motor owners who have not yet signed up for motors are requested to notify John Bolstad at the power house without delay. 1c Elk River Light & Power Co.

The sales of war department surplus foodstuffs at the postoffice are lagging. A great many people labor under the impression that they can obtain the goods immediately upon placing the order while others object to paying in advance. It is, to say the least, peculiar that these people have not familiarized themselves with the conditions governing the sale through the medium of the newspapers. If they are unable to read they should get others to read for them.

Deacon Humphrey was the first man on hand Monday to drive nails into the tabernacle structure. He also acted as foreman. When it comes to driving nails the deacon cannot be beaten even if he does occasionally strike his thumb nail. 'Rah for Deacon Humphrey, the expert tabernacle builder. Several other good volunteers assisted in the erection of the structure, including Revs. Milne and Geer, but Deacon Humphrey was the guiding spirit while Deacon Newbert sat on the bottom rung of the ladder and tried to keep the others from working by relating fish stories.

The men's harvest home festival chicken supper, with pumpkin pie and all other good things added, will be served on Thursday evening, September 11 instead of the 5th. The supper committee is composed of Henry Glade, J. V. Morgan, R. S. Bjork, C. L. Jump, Charles M. Serrurier and Lee Jones. There are no better men cooks in Princeton. The waiters are Mayor S. E. Vandevanter, George Borchard, Prof. Olof Wasenius, Roy Wetter, Will Walker, Raymond Bengtson, L. S. Sundin and L. S. Briggs. NAZIMOVA in "REVELATION"

SUNDAY AND MONDAY—"Revelation," Metro's super production in seven acts, with Nazimova, the great star, assisted by a superior cast. "Revelation" is a stupendous picture drama, a worthy vehicle for the genius of the great Nazimova.

TUESDAY—"The Hand of Vengeance," episode 5. "Twisted Trails," a two-reel feature with Tom Mix. Comedy, "When Married," with Charlie Chaplin.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY—"A Gentleman's Agreement," starring Nell Shipman and Alfred Whitman. Great love interest and splendid action stand out strong here.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY—"Less Than Kin," a Paramount picture with Wallace Reid. A good one.

ADMISSION:—Sunday and Monday, 20c and 30c, including war tax. All other days of the week 10c, war tax extra.
