To Whom It May Concern.

The man who bled me of $24 on the lottery of Miss Julia Kittilson should not think I am through with the matter, because I know that she will prove that they are wrong. Do not think I had to give that money, for you had no evidence whatever, and so the frameups you boys had on me last night to mob me and clean me up is not men's work. You had a yellow streak down your backs.

To the people of Greenbush and Glendorado: Do not gossip on the subject until you get the truth of it or you will be injuring yourselves. You will all hear from me later.

Peter S. Abrahamson. Greenbush, October 27. 45-1p
