

Northwestern Hospital and Sanitarium

ESTABLISHED 1900

A private institution which combines all the advantages of a perfectly equipped hospital with the quiet and comfort of a refined and elegant home. Modern in every respect. No insane, contagious or other objectionable cases received. New, quiet maternity rooms. Rates are as low as the most efficient treatment and the best trained nursing will permit.

You Have But to Look at our meats and provisions to know they are good. And that belief will be strengthened when they are served on your table. They have a finer flavor. They are tenderer and sweeter. Moreover they are economical. Every ounce can be used in some way. Give our meats a trial and get extra quality without extra cost.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The time for putting on the night trains has been postponed to March 24. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wheeler mourn the loss of their week-old baby, who died yesterday.

Judge Chas. Keith was in St. Cloud on law business this week.

I. H. Estes is filling up his lumber yard with products from his sawmill, which is now in operation at Long Siding.

A. Mark and family have moved into the upper rooms of George Buck's house, which is a very pleasant location.

G. W. Marshall and family are now pleasantly located in their new house in east Princeton.

Chester Ames and family are visiting in Monticello, on the Mississippi river.

William Hatch of Waverly, Iowa, came up on Thursday last and remained until Monday.

Jay Smith of Spencer Brook is taking his third examination this year. He works like a beaver and is bound to succeed as a teacher.

Mrs. R. C. Dunn and children spent Sunday in St. Paul, going to church with Mr. Dunn. They had a pleasant visit.

A chestnut social will be held at Frank Campbell's on Friday evening. Frank will tell them—the chestnuts.

A. D. Cater, who went to Louisiana to live two years ago, has returned. He tells of his sad experience with chills, fever and other ailments.

Elmer Bigelow moved up from Anoka and took possession of the D. A. Caley house last week.

The pickle factory business had a languid spell last week, but it is again on the move with more than its former vigor.

"Granny" Chamberlain

Bronchitis

"There is no disease that should cause more anxiety in the home than Bronchitis, for if neglected in the earlier stages it often becomes chronic and may even prove fatal.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the medicine for this disease, and if given in regular doses will relieve the cough, ease the pain, remove the difficulty in breathing and produce a free and easy expectoration, thus reducing the inflammation.

Old people, and those who have weak lungs, cannot be too careful in guarding against this disease.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

strengthens the throat and lungs and makes them less susceptible to changes of the atmosphere. In fact, the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent an attack of Bronchitis becoming chronic."
