PEASE

Irving Meline came home from Minneapolis on Saturday evening. He has been working in a creamery there. The men of the town held a meeting last week and organized a commercial club. They will endeavor to build up and better the town. One of the first things they will strive for will be a depot and an agent. The officers are J. Toussaint and I. Ykema.

Mr. Barber of New York, one of the lecturers for the International Bible Student's association, was here on Tuesday and held a meeting of the members in the afternoon. He lectured in Milaca in the evening.

Rev. Munning arrived here on Saturday evening and delivered two sermons in the Christian church on Sunday. He was the guest of Rev. Meyer while here.

Mrs. Roulet made a business trip to Minneapolis on Thursday.

Henry Van Slooten met with quite a serious accident on Tuesday morning while riding horseback. He was riding quite fast when his horse slipped in some mud and threw him over its head then fell on him. Kryn Rius happened to be passing by and picked Henry up and took him home. He was unconscious for nearly six hours but does not appear to be seriously injured.

Martin Kingman and Nels Elge have been working on the creamery the past week and have the outer part of the structure done. Andrew Pharnes has been assisting them.

Gilbert and Henry Starkenburg went to Ogilvie on Saturday.

Ole Wittgren has been making a cement porch for Aug. Larson of Woodward Brook.

Mrs. J. P. DeRose spent a few days with Mrs. Albert Kiel last week.

The creamery board met last Saturday and 76 cents per pound was paid for March butterfat. On account of the strike butter from here has been shipped by express to Chicago and New York.

GLENDORADO & SANTIAGO

Geo. Uran made a business trip to Ogilvie last Friday.

Miss Vina George arrived home from Minneapolis last week.

Mrs. Millet Simonson and daughter, Pearl, spent last Friday with Miss Emma Johnson.

Misses Bertha Anderson, Helga Nelson and Gertie George have left for Minneapolis, where they will attend a school of dressmaking.

Mrs. Julia Nelson Miller held an auction sale on Saturday and will soon join Mr. Miller in Seattle, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Oslin and son, Clarence, left for Fresno, Cal., last Sunday, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. O. G. Wold and Mrs. T. Knutson visited at L. D. Larson's on Sunday.

H. Johnson drove up from the cities in his Ford on Saturday and spent Sunday at Aleck Anderson's. He was accompanied by Tom Oos, Albin Johnson and Mr. Lyon.

S. Kittilson held a very successful auction on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Kittilson will remain here for awhile before leaving for Seattle, where they intend to make their future home.

MILU, ROUTE 1

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Atkinson are the proud parents of an eight-pound baby boy born Friday morning, April 23.

Lester Duell is assisting Clarence Johnson to drill a well on the John Veurink farm this week.

Mrs. John Aarseth called on her daughter, Mrs. Myron Northway, one day last week.

The Misses Nelson and Eckdahl have been holding some very interesting meetings at the Milo town hall. They have been having large crowds. While here they have been staying at the Nels Sederquist home, and also called on several families in the neighborhood.

Remember that on Saturday evening, May 1, a very interesting program, followed by a basket social, will be given in district 6. The teachers, Misses Ross and Clayton, and the pupils have been working hard to make it a success, and your duty is to come and bring your friends along.

Lawrence Goad was a pleasant visitor at the Wm. Kennedy home on Sunday.

Henry Perry has sold his farm to Harry Toussaint of Pease.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bemis were visitors on Sunday at Milaca.

Mrs. John Aarseth and children, Roy and Ellen, visited on Sunday at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Myron Northway.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.
Lasting Results.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Princeton resident has withstood the sternest of all tests.

Mrs. H. Stahnke says: "I had headaches, dizziness and pains and lameness in my back. Doan's Kidney Pills removed all that trouble and after I used them, I didn't feel tired and weary in the morning, but my sleep rested me. I had also suffered with pains in the back of my head. I am always ready to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone having backache or other kidney complaint."

Ten years after, Mrs. Stahnke said: "I praise Doan's Kidney Pills just as much as ever. I haven't had any backache or other kidney trouble for a long time, so I believe Doan's Kidney Pills have permanently cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Stahnke had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. Adv.

Who Remembers?

Who remembers the old fashioned home library that consisted of a bible, an out-of-date dictionary, "Pilgrim's Progress," a red plush photograph album and Ayer's almanac?
