TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO!

The Mille Lacs county fair closed on Friday and those who attended are well satisfied. The county's exhibit at the state fair is attracting much attention. The Princeton starch factory will open for business on Monday and operate for 60 days only. Val Sausser has returned from Dakota and is back on his old job purchasing potatoes for C. H. Rines & Co. Rev. Sargent died at Asbury hospital, Minneapolis, on Friday. The cause of his death was unknown. A large number of Princeton people attended the state fair this week. District court adjourned on Saturday afternoon and Judge Searle returned to his home. The grind was a heavy one. Charley Goss, the Anoka potato buyer, arrived in Princeton on Monday to see what spuds he could gather in. Major Neely has returned from his trip to the sunny south fully decided to remain in Princeton. He neither likes the cactus or the niggers. A. N. Dare of Elk River came up to visit the fair and was well pleased with the exhibits. Rev. J. E. Engebretson of Elmora was in Princeton yesterday looking for a residence. He has been appointed pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church in Santiago. C. W. Hayden returned last week from British Columbia, where he had been for several years. He will go back in November and take his family with him. Get after those sandburs. Rake them up and burn them. Mike Gibbons to Referee. The big feature of the boxing exhibition to be staged under auspices of the American legion at the Benton county fair grounds on Monday evening, September 20, will be the 10-round exhibition between Gunnor Joe Quinn and Paddy Sullivan, and much interest is attached to the evening's card from the fact that Mike Gibbons will referee all bouts. Benny Mertens and Al. Norton, two of the fastest bantamweights in the northwest, will stage the preliminary events. There will also be bouts between Johnny Nichols and Jimmy Potts and Chas. Fuhrman and Johnny Salvaor. See advertisement in this week's Union.
