Twenty-Five Years Ago.
S. M. Owen told an audience all about populism at Jesmer's opera house on Tuesday night.

A number of duck hunters from Stillwater had their tent, equipment and provisions stolen by Indians at Mille Lacs lake last week.

The freezing weather of the past week has put the roads in excellent condition for the heavy fall traffic.

City hunters are appearing in large number. Partridges are plentiful but it is a little too early for ducks.

from Cambridge, where he spoke to a large assemblage. He says that Isanti county will be found in the republican column with a strong majority this year.

The Union abstains from commenting on local politics. All the candidates, with possibly one or two exceptions, are friends of the Union.

Brainerd's Keynote.
Brainerd's keynote was: "What can we do for you?"

Rev. C. Larson returned Tuesday evening from the conference of the American Sunday school union, which was held at Brainerd, to begin his thirteenth year in the Princeton field.

It was very gratifying to see such a large congregation last Sunday. The men were there in greater numbers than the women.

There is no better place on earth. C. Larson.
School District No. 3, North.
The pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the month of September were John and Ada Argyle, Ernest Bonkowski, Gwen Davenport, Harold, Clarence and Helen Hoeltz, Clara Quade, Ella and George Siebert, LuVerne Rice, Roy Lucke, Anna Bartz, Arthur Kruger, Ewald Dalciow and Lillian Dalchow.

Those who attended 19 days were Marjorie Davenport, Bennie and Roy Lundgren and Sophie Dalchow.
Our school opened this term in a new stucco building and we are all very proud of it.

The Difference.
Afgans rarely see their brides before the wedding; Americans rarely see them afterward.—Saginaw Courier.
