

FORESTON

J. A. Lynch returned from Minneapolis Thursday evening, where he spent four days at the hardware convention. Miss Kathryn Nelson left for Duluth Friday morning, where she will spend some time with her sister, Mrs. Guy Kennedy.

A. G. Smith of Foley spent Sunday here the guest of friends, returning Monday morning.

Miss Gertrude, Otto and Sarah Kornovich of Foley spent from Saturday until Monday evening at the P. C. Lynch home.

H. C. Krueger left for Duluth Monday morning, where he will remain for a few days on business.

Miss Albertine Vogel and brother, Walter, of White Rock, S. D., arrived Friday evening and will visit at the H. C. Krueger home.

Geo. Deans spent a short time in Foley Thursday, where he attended a meeting of the Hall Mercantile Co.

Wallace Silbertson of Minneapolis, formerly of this place, is spending a few days here with friends.

Mrs. Geo. Judd left for Sandstone Monday evening to attend the funeral of her aunt.

T. C. Wing of St. Cloud is spending a few days in Foreston on business.

J. A. Lynch spent Monday evening in St. Cloud and attended a meeting of the Catholic Welfare council.

F. E. Bourquin left for White Bear Saturday morning, where he will visit his daughter, Mrs. Hazel Lemon.

Mrs. Thos. Joseph went to Foley on Tuesday afternoon and will spend a few days at the Walbridge home.

A number of ladies were entertained at the J. A. Lynch home Monday evening. A dainty luncheon was served, and everyone had a delightful evening.

William Morgan, who is spending his furlough here, spent Tuesday afternoon in Foley.

Mrs. Mary Nelson was pleasantly surprised Friday afternoon, January 13, it being her 81st birthday. She received a large sum of money as a remembrance of the happy occasion and the visitors wished her many happy returns of the day.

Ervin Harshman of Oak Park spent between trains in Foreston Monday.

VINELAND

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Oliver and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sherman Tuesday.

C. J. Orton and Wm. Anderson made a business trip to Pierz Wednesday.

Mrs. W. D. Bartlett went to Pierz Thursday to see Dr. Healy. Her many friends are sorry to hear she is not well.

Mrs. Stuart Oliver, Miss Ruth Oliver, Kenneth Bartlett and Maxwell Bergendahl were Milaca visitors on Thursday.

Mrs. E. E. Dinwiddie spent Thursday in Princeton, returning that evening and leaving for Pierz Friday morning.

Mrs. Emory Bergendahl spent the week end at home.

Donald Dinwiddie went to Verndale Friday morning to spend a few days with relatives.

Owing to the playful breezes on old Mille Lacs Saturday the shore roads were almost impassable and the club dance was postponed.

Sunday school was held at the Wm. Anderson home and will be at the C. J. Orton home next Sunday.

Harold Bain was a caller at the Wm. Anderson home Sunday evening.

(Too late for last week.)

The M. E. Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. John Faught Wednesday and in spite of the snow storm there was a good attendance.

Kenneth Bartlett made a business trip to Onamia Wednesday and, although he could not speed through the drifts, he succeeded in making the return trip Thursday.

Miss Olive Anderson, who is teaching at Currie, left by bus for Milaca Wednesday, where she will visit friends for a day before returning to her school duties.

Mrs. Benj. Holbert left for southern Iowa Friday after a brief visit at home. She is teaching vocal music and singing in public.

Maxwell Bergendahl called at the Oliver home Thursday evening.

Miss Catherine Mallory arrived here Saturday, after a two-week's visit with her parents in Milaca, and is ready to resume her duties in the Spring Brook school.

Wm. Anderson returned from St. Paul Saturday and says the week spent at the farmers' short course at University farm was a great investment.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Oliver and children spent Sunday evening with the C. J. Orton family.

W. D. Bartlett, who has been employed in South Dakota, returned Saturday for a visit with his home folks.

The M. E. Sunday school was held at the Irvin Cook home and will be at Wm. Anderson's next Sunday.

Robert Dinwiddie and Hermel Orton were callers at the Wm. Anderson home Sunday.

Ruth Oliver and Catherine Mallory were the guests of Mrs. E. Bergendahl at dinner Sunday.

PAGE

The Page Farmers' club met last Friday night with a fine crowd present. The new by-laws that were drawn up last month were adopted. A good program was rendered and there were also three directors appointed to assist the other officers. They were Miss Buysman, Conrad Mattson and Clifford Stallcop. It was decided at the last club meeting that the club would visit the different farms in the community. Four farms will be visited the first Saturday in February.

There will be preaching next Sunday at Whitney Brook and Sunday school at 11 a. m.

The boys are all busy hauling up wood as Art Oskey is in the neighborhood with his buzzsaw.

Conrad Mattson and Wilfred Johnson were the winning team in the club contest, securing the most new members for the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Koksma are the proud parents of a new son, born last week.

LONG SIDING

Mr. and Mrs. Lipp were Princeton visitors on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Smith and children visited at the Lipp home Wednesday afternoon.

Lillie Thornquist has returned to Minneapolis after spending a couple of weeks visiting her parents here.

Two sleighs of young folks passed through here Saturday evening on their way to Zerott's, who recently moved onto the Louis Gencor farm.

The Lipp family were Sunday visitors at the Brufflod home.

Hattie Teutz came down from Milaca Friday morning for a visit with home folks, returning Monday evening.

The shipping association held its annual meeting at the bank here on Saturday.

A carload of cattle and hogs was shipped from here Tuesday morning.

Bornholdt & Coon ploughed out the road between Long Siding and the Scenic highway on Monday, so now it is passable for cars again.

The Princeton Catholic choir had a rehearsal at the Lipp home Monday evening.

The annual meeting of the Princeton Co-operative creamery will be held in the armory next Tuesday beginning at 10 a. m. Lunch will be furnished at noon by the Princeton Commercial club.

BLUE HILL

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society was well attended last Wednesday at John Miller's. The society will be entertained at the Alfred Bundy home on February 8. Everyone cordially invited. Don't forget the date.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Payette and daughter were Sunday visitors at Jos. Malotte's in Greenbush.

English services at Our Savior's Ev. Lutheran church, Santiago, next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Everyone welcome to attend. Rev. O. M. Gullerud, Pastor.

Friends of Warner Lindberg, who formerly lived here, will be interested to learn that his body was returned from France and the funeral was held Tuesday afternoon in the Princeton armory.

There will be services in the Blue Hill church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 if the weather and roads are favorable for Rev. Clark to drive out from Zimmerman.

The annual meeting of the Princeton Co-operative creamery will be held in the armory next Tuesday beginning at 10 a. m. Lunch will be furnished at noon by the Princeton Commercial club.

OPSTEAD

Dr. Blaustein was called to E. L. Peterson's home on Monday.

Tena and Chas. Johnson went to Malmo on Tuesday to finish drilling a well for Dr. Ostun.

John Anderson made a business trip to Isle on Wednesday.

Rev. Milton Lind held services at Eastwood Sunday at 3 p. m.

P. J. Anderson started out for Gley on Thursday.

Vera Lind spent Saturday evening at the Alex Linder home.

Alfred Johnson, J. P. Grant and Joel Frykman started harvesting ice on Wednesday.

A large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Freer on Sunday, it being her birthday. A bountiful luncheon was served and all wished Mrs. Freer many happy returns of the day.

Conrad and Willie Engstrom, Herby Johnson and Olson Bros. left for Onamia on Monday to start ditching on their contract.

The Willing Workers met at the S. B. church on Saturday with a good attendance. Miss Ethel Carlson spoke on the missionary work of David Livingstone, which was very interesting.

Axel Rask spent Sunday afternoon at the home of John Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Johnson and children, Mrs. John Johnson and children and Miss Anna Angstrom spent Monday afternoon at the home of J. P. Grant.

Mary Anderson spent Friday afternoon at the home of Mary Cameron.

Chas. Erickson and Steve Woodman have been doing some blacksmithing work in Neal Johnson's shop this week.

ISLE

Mrs. Laura McCullough will entertain the Isle Civics club at her home on Wednesday afternoon, January 25.

Miss Ethel Blaustein of Minneapolis spent a few days in our village last week visiting relatives and friends. She returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. John Haggberg spent a few days last week with relatives at St. Cloud.

A special meeting of the school board was held at the pavilion last Thursday evening to decide on the plan of the new school building which will be erected this coming summer.

Ed. Juni of Jordan spent a few days last week visiting at the H. Engler home east of town.

Arnold Blaustein returned to Minneapolis last week, after visiting relatives for a few days.

Elof Roseberg was down from Malmo last Thursday afternoon.

M. E. Monson has returned from his trip to Clarion, Iowa, and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Enroth and Mrs. D. D. McLeod were dinner guests at the Olaf Larin home last Thursday.

Mrs. Fred Kaerwer and children of St. Cloud arrived here last Friday evening for a visit at the John Haggberg home.

Gustaf Haggberg of Malmo was an Isle caller last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Owen arrived here from Motley last Friday evening for a visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Ruby Johnson left on Monday morning for Onamia, where she will be employed for a few months.

Miss Myrtle Malone arrived home from Minneapolis on Monday evening.

Mrs. Selmer Leland and little son, Leslie, left on Monday evening for Duluth, where they expect to remain until spring.

Einer Logren of Opstead was an Isle caller on Monday.

Ludwig and Ruth Karlstrom were Wahkon visitors the first of the week.

Miss Esther Haggberg went to Redtop on Monday evening to spend the week.

Sabin E. Satterlund left on Monday evening for Duluth.

Edwin Skoglund was down from Opstead on Monday morning.

Mrs. Claire Hoeft has been employed at the H. J. Schmidt home the past week.

Earl Schnaar of Opstead was an Isle visitor on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Casper were pleasant callers in our village last Monday evening.

Andrew Kalberg of Opstead was an Isle business caller on Tuesday morning.

William Buck spent Sunday and Monday with his folks at Malmo.

Mrs. John Anheuser has been very ill with pneumonia the past week but is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mrs. Hubert Peters and son, Walter, arrived here last Saturday evening from Canistota, S. D. They will spend a few weeks here visiting relatives and friends.

The American Legion Women's auxiliary held a meeting at the pavilion on Monday evening and will make an application for a charter.

Plan to attend the dance to be given at the pavilion next Saturday evening, January 21, for the benefit of an ex-service man's widow.

George Fischer of St. Paul is spending a few days in this vicinity.

Dan D. McLeod went to Minneapolis last week to consult a specialist.

Miss Irene Buck, who has been employed at Mattson's restaurant, returned to her home at Malmo on Wednesday.

Herbert Holby was down from Opstead one day this week.

At the pavilion Saturday evening Billy Burke presents "Away Goes Prudence."

MALMO

Mrs. C. F. Haggberg was pleasantly surprised on Monday evening of last week, it being her birthday anniversary. Her friends met to wish her many more happy birthdays.

Henning Johnson left on Wednesday for Indiana for a visit with his brother there.

The Civic club met at the Thos. Vonada home on Thursday afternoon.

C. F. Haggberg transacted business at Aitkin on Thursday.

Perry Swedberg of Moose Lake spent a few days of this week at the home of her brother, Anton, of this place.

The Bodin brothers sawed wood for Gust Olson on Thursday.

Rudolph Haggberg of Isle spent Saturday evening at the home of his brother, C. G., here.

Clarence Swedberg made a trip to Isle Thursday.

Miss Edith Lindelof left on Thursday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Nygard, at Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Haggberg spent Sunday with relatives at Isle.

The Carlson brothers made a trip to Aitkin on Thursday.

Mrs. Halland went to Minneapolis on Saturday to have some dentist work done.

C. G. Haggberg made a trip to Isle Sunday.

P. O. Otteson and son, Elmer, were Isle callers on Thursday.

C. G. Haggberg, mail carrier between Malmo and Isle, is having quite a job getting through the snow drifts. But he still drives his truck in spite of the snow.

DISTRICT THREE

A few friends of Mrs. Wm. Neumann surprised her Thursday evening, the older ones visiting while the young folks enjoyed themselves with music and games, and those coming from town having a nice sleighride. A fine lunch was served at midnight.

Mrs. L. D. Bockoven and Mrs. Gustafson spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. R. Manke. Many friends called at the R. Manke home Sunday to get acquainted with Roy Oscar, the new son.

Callers at the Gustafson home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Archer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gerth and family.

The annual meeting of the Princeton Co-operative creamery will be held in the armory next Tuesday beginning at 10 a. m. Lunch will be furnished at noon by the Princeton Commercial club.

PEASE

C. E. Erickson of Milaca was a Pease business caller Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Talen and children of Ogilvie visited at the home of Mr. Talen's sister, Mrs. H. G. Kiel, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mulder, who have been visiting for several weeks with relatives and friends in Sioux county, Iowa, returned to their home Saturday evening.

J. P. DeRose of Milaca was here on a business trip Tuesday.

Word has been received from Princeton announcing the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Breenis, nee Anna Ledeboer, who formerly resided south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Van Slooten of Milaca spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Van Slooten's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Weysschede.

I. Talen of Ogilvie transacted business in our village Friday.

Our local auctioneer, John Baas, held a very successful auction for S. Adema last Wednesday. Cattle especially sold for a very good price.

Mr. Adema and family have moved into the H. Hubers, sr., house in town as Mr. Adema has decided to engage in some other occupation than farming.

A. Roettger, G. N. relief agent, arrived Tuesday to relieve Agent Murphy, who will be gone for several days on business and pleasure.

MILO, ROUTE 1

The Milo Mutual Farmers' club was entertained Friday evening, January 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Sederquist. This was the annual meeting, but as there were very few members present it was decided to postpone the election until two weeks later.

Until midnight cards were played at four tables Percy Deuel and Margaret Smith received first prize and the boogie fell to Mrs. I. W. Deuel and Willie Groustra. After lunch was served dancing was indulged in until 3:30, when the crowd departed declaring it the best time ever.

A meeting of the Milo Farm bureau and the annual meeting of the Milo Mutual Farmers' club will be held at the school house in district 6 on Friday evening, Jan. 27. A speaker, along with County Agent Hammargren, will be present and a program will be given, after which lunch will be served. The club meeting will commence at 7 o'clock, and the bureau meeting will follow. Everybody come.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sifting of Princeton were guests for a few days at the John Smith home. Mrs. Sifting is a sister of Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Slattery returned to their St. Cloud home on Saturday, after spending the week at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Deuel.

Miss Maud Ayers is spending this week with relatives and friends at Benson.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Gust Anderson to a young lady of St. Paul. Gust is well known here, having visited here at the home of his sister, Mrs. Nels Sederquist, and has a host of friends who extend congratulations.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Christianson on January 15. Mrs. Mike Wybenga is reported to be seriously ill.

Mrs. O. B. Kissler is suffering with an attack of appendicitis. Dr. Kling is the attending physician.

Mrs. Henry Sanford and daughter, Carol, are spending a few days with friends and relatives at Duluth.

Don't forget the farm bureau and Farmers' club meeting at the school house on January 27. Plan to attend.

Percy Deuel went to Foreston on Monday and will be employed at the A. Morehouse home for a time.

ISLE HARBOR

Mr. and Mrs. Skogen called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Anderson Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Quist spent Thursday with Mrs. Chas. Nason.

Mrs. W. Benning entertained the

Auction Sale

AT GROW'S BARN
PRINCETON

Saturday, Jan. 21

Beginning at 1 P. M.

The Following Property Will Then be Offered for Sale:

Span Black Matched Horses, 6 and 7 years old, weight 2600

1 Steel Range

1 Soft Coal Heater

1 Buffet

1 Kitchen Cabinet

1 Dresser

1 Dining Table with 6 chairs to match, fumed oak

1 Kitchen Table

1 Sewing Machine

1 Enameled Bodstead and spring

12 Common Chairs

Washing Machine with power attachment

2 Good Tubs

Pails and Dishes of all kinds

Numerous other articles.

TERMS, CASH

DAVE ZUIDEMA, Owner

G. A. EATON, Clerk

T. J. KALIHIER, Auct.

Farm Women's club on Thursday afternoon. The club will meet with Mrs. S. J. Frair January 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen of Motley are visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Anderson called on Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nason Friday night.

The social section of the Farm Women's club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Skogen on Saturday night.

The evening was spent in the usual way, dancing and card playing. Everybody went home well satisfied.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lindstrom spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Gust Anderson.

The young people of this vicinity enjoyed a coasting party Sunday evening.

THREE CORNERS

(Crowded out last week.)

Mrs. William King and daughter, Laura, came up to Nelson King's on Tuesday for a few days' visit. They returned on Saturday.

Donald Archer started in the Princeton school Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Erickson spent Saturday evening at A. Welin's. Erick Erickson is visiting his old home in Iowa.

John Haglund and family, Elmer Sifting and family and Malker Ax and family spent Saturday evening at Gust Dahline's.

Laura, Ruby and Minnie Melin spent Sunday at John Fischer's.

Malker Ax and family spent Sunday at Leonard Johnson's.

Henry Fischer, who was operated on for appendicitis at the hospital, came home Saturday.

Ted Mattson is down to Bode's cutting wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rust and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rust spent Friday evening at O. Hamilton's.

The annual meeting of the Princeton Co-operative creamery will be held in the armory next Tuesday beginning at 10 a. m. Lunch will be furnished at noon by the Princeton Commercial club.

DISTRICT NO. 50

(Crowded out last week.)

The Baldwin & Blue Hill Telephone company held its annual meeting on Monday in Princeton. All the old of-

The coal for thinkers

SILVERASH

Best for the money

Ask your Dealer

For Sale by
Whitney Coal Company

Pe