

PEASE

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Wittgren were Milaca shoppers Tuesday.
David Roelofs drove up from Danube last Friday with a truck load of apples which he disposed of here.
P. Pluimer left for Hull, Iowa, Saturday to attend the funeral of his mother who passed away Friday.
Magnus Bleed came up from Minneapolis Thursday to visit at the home of J. Bleed for a few days.
Geo. Dykstra and family left for their home in Sanborn, Iowa, Saturday, after having spent the past two weeks visiting here with relatives and friends.
Wm. Nagel of Ogilvie was in our village Monday.
Mrs. H. S. Conger, Clifford, Newton and Miss Hortense, and Mrs. Geo. Peterson of Ogilvie visited relatives here Friday.
Oscar Johnson and Peter Kiel left for Minneapolis Monday on business.
The Jake Toussaint family of Ogilvie were Sunday visitors at the H. G. Kiel home.
Rev. Van de Lune and family motored to Ogilvie Monday to visit at the home of Rev. DeBruin.
Jake Baas and family motored to Minneapolis, Saturday.
Saturday afternoon fire was discovered in some of the buildings in S. Adema's yard. By good work of the bucket brigade the fire was put out, and not much damage was done.
Harry Toussaint visited with relatives at Ogilvie Saturday.
H. A. Hubers shipped two cars of cattle and hogs to South St. Paul on Tuesday.
Last Saturday Erickson & Anderson, who are conducting the Roulet store sale, offered a prize of two dollars to the farmer who hauled the largest load of screened potatoes that day. This prize was won by J. D. Timmer.
Mr. Lindemood of Agents, Kansas, is visiting with relatives here this week.

DISTRICT THREE

Ed. Engelke and son, Marvin, Harvey Scheller and Albert Pike motored to the city Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gerth and family, Mrs. Rosin and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher were callers at the Geo. Gerth home Sunday.
L. Brandt and family from St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schilling and son, Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Holthus spent Sunday at the L. D. Bockoven home.
Miss Bertha Neuman left for St. Paul where she has employment.
Mr. and Mrs. Bullegh were callers at the Gustafson home last Thursday evening.
Schools have been closed this week on account of teachers' institute in Milaca. It gives the girls and boys a chance to pick up potatoes.
Mr. Chas. Kitzman from Eagle Bend visited his sister, Mrs. Geo. Gerth last Thursday.

GREENBUSH

Miss Mary Degelman, who has been employed at St. Cloud for the past two years, is home for a short vacation. She is now at the home of her parents at Freer. Later she will leave for Hugo, Minn., to visit with friends before returning to St. Cloud.
Edward Foley of St. Cloud spent Sunday with Miss Mary Degelman of Freer.
Mr. and Mrs. Pete Diedrich and family and Frank Niece and family of Millford, Iowa, are here visiting Mrs. Diedrich's and Mrs. Niece's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht.
Mr. and Mrs. Farguson and Edna called at the O. W. Bracken home on Thursday night.
A large group of young folks gathered at the Will Stark home last Friday to partake of a weiner and marshmallow roast. All who were there had an enjoyable time.

School closed Friday night in district 2 for two weeks' potato vacation.
Misses Ida Mae Jones and Venita Johnson took supper at the Farguson home Friday evening.
The young ladies sewing club was held at the McVicar home Saturday afternoon.
Last Sunday evening a group of old folks gave Mr. Thorson a birthday surprise.
Ed. Anderson from Minneapolis visited at the Farguson home Sunday.
Miss Margaret Albrecht, who is clerking at Love's grocery store, is enjoying a week's vacation.
Mrs. Walk, who underwent an operation several weeks ago, returned home on Monday.
The Farguson and Shoop families took supper with Myrtle Wicktor and Mabel Talberg, at Princeton, Tuesday evening. Mabel and Myrtle are rooming in town for the present.

DISTRICT NO. 50

Mrs. Earl Durbin, who was formerly Bessie Anderson, called at her old home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Durbin live in Minneapolis.
Mrs. Cline and daughter were callers at the home of Mrs. Court Richenberg Sunday. Mrs. Cline is Mrs. Richenberg's mother.
The Sherburne county fair is held this week. Let's go.
Mrs. C. L. Campbell was a caller at the John A. Johnson home Monday.
We hear the Frank Patten is going to move back on his own farm the coming year.
Rudolph Norberg and wife arrived from Breckenridge Monday night for a visit with his parents.
Ray Bengtson has taken up his residence in Princeton. He has rented a part of the Henry Arnoldt property.
Clover hulers are at work in this locality. They say clover is not yielding extra well this year.
The Pape boys are finishing threshing several stands of buckwheat and flax.
It seems as though the terrible accidents that are occurring near here should serve as a warning to other drivers to use more caution.
One more old veteran has gone to his reward in the person of James A. Stevenson, who has been ill for quite a long time.
The Norberg family were callers at the Campbell home Saturday evening.

MILO, ROUTE 1

Miss Mary Smith has returned home from the Northwestern hospital and is able to be around with the aid of crutches.
Mrs. Robert Ayers is reported to be seriously ill. Her illness is a matter of great regret to her many friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Beden of Santiago, Calif., were calling on their old acquaintances in Milo last week. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Beden of Estes Brook.
Mrs. Wm. Kennedy is slowly recovering from injuries sustained when she fell down stairs over a week ago, but is still confined to her bed.
Mrs. Wm. Carpenter and son and daughter, Lawrence and Geneva, formerly of Milo but now of Morris, Minn., spent a few days last week in this neighborhood, visiting friends. They were on their way to McGrath, to see Mr. Carpenter's mother, who unfortunately met with an accident which left her paralyzed.
Mrs. Mary Carlock of Foreston spent the week end at Ayers' home, being called there by the seriousness of her mother.
The school children are enjoying a week's vacation in the potato fields while the teachers are attending teachers' institute.
Miss Stella Sederquist has returned from Minneapolis and will spend the winter at her home here.

Mrs. Andrew Kennedy returned to her home today (Tuesday), after assisting at the Wm. Kennedy home for the past ten days. Mrs. Lena Kennedy of Foreston is expected to come today and will remain for a time at the Kennedy home.
John Aarseth is the owner of a new Ford car, purchased last week.

ISLE

Mrs. Mary Johnson and daughter, Miss Ruby, arrived here on Saturday evening. They have been spending a few weeks visiting relatives at Isanti.
Mrs. R. C. Heath and Mrs. Wm. Hymes entertained the Isle Civic club at the home of the latter on Wednesday afternoon.
John Olson and Wm. Carlson have gone to Minneapolis to seek employment.
Ben Oquist and family were down from Redtop on Sunday evening.
J. N. Bockoven and son, Irwin, of Princeton, spent last Thursday in our village on business.
Mrs. Holmquist of Alexandria spent the past week here visiting relatives and friends.
Mrs. Geo. Haskell was shopping in Isle on Wednesday last week.
H. F. Mann of Cove was an Isle business caller last Thursday morning.

Miss Amy Larin left on Sunday afternoon for Minneapolis, where she will be employed the coming winter.
Mrs. Lena Kennedy of Melrose arrived Friday morning and will visit for some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lemay.
Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Panchot are spending a week in Minneapolis with their daughter, Mrs. Buck.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lynch and and Miss Astrid Holmer of Minneapolis spent last Sunday afternoon at this place.

Mrs. Carl Anderson of Minneapolis has been spending the past week here visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Blaustone.
Calvin Carlson, B. F. Frederickson, Otto, John and Albert Haggberg were Mora visitors last Thursday evening.
Miss Rose Ritschel of Jordan is spending a few weeks here visiting Miss Laura Engler.
Mrs. N. P. Burman and John E. Johnson returned home last week from their trip to Plainview.
Rev. Owens of Onamia held services in the pavilion on Sunday morning and evening. Eleven children were baptized.
The Isle school ball team defeated the Wahkon team on the latter's diamond Sunday afternoon. Score 8 to 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Magaw and Mrs. Zickrich of Wahkon attended services here last Sunday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Anderson and children returned home from Foley the first of the week.

Mrs. Vada Fox, who is visiting here from Fairmont, N. D., spent Monday in Foley with relatives.
Mrs. Lena Kennedy of Melrose arrived Friday morning and will visit for some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lemay.
Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Panchot are spending a week in Minneapolis with their daughter, Mrs. Buck.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lynch and family and Hilda Bechtold of Sioux Falls, S. D., were entertained at dinner at the P. C. Lynch home Sunday.

Mrs. C. M. Peterson entertained the 500 club at her home last Wednesday afternoon. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fred C. Neumann and Mrs. F. T. P. Neumann. They will meet with Mrs. Al Studer this week.
Mrs. A. R. Thorsen will entertain a few of her lady friends at her home this afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Fox, who is visiting here.
Arthur Kerrick of Minneapolis arrived Monday afternoon and will spend a few days here with relatives and friends.
Mrs. Arthur Granum, Clara Kubik and Miss Bridget Lynch spent Monday afternoon at the Robt. Beaver home.
Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

family and Hilda Bechtold of Sioux Falls, S. D., were entertained at dinner at the P. C. Lynch home Sunday.
Mrs. C. M. Peterson entertained the 500 club at her home last Wednesday afternoon. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fred C. Neumann and Mrs. F. T. P. Neumann. They will meet with Mrs. Al Studer this week.
Mrs. A. R. Thorsen will entertain a few of her lady friends at her home this afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Fox, who is visiting here.
Arthur Kerrick of Minneapolis arrived Monday afternoon and will spend a few days here with relatives and friends.
Mrs. Arthur Granum, Clara Kubik and Miss Bridget Lynch spent Monday afternoon at the Robt. Beaver home.
Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.

Thos. Joseph spent from Thursday until Saturday evening in Minneapolis on business.
Those who spent Sunday at the Thos. Joseph home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chevalier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walbridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Demaires and two sons, George and Leonard, all of whom are from Foley.
P. H. Nelson left for Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday by auto, where he will spend a week. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Nelson and children, who have been visiting there a month.
Ida Wruck spent Sunday at her home in Gilman, returning Monday morning.