CLUB MEMBERS HAVE HALLOWEEN PARTY

Appropriate Decorations and Ghosts Make Fitting Setting; Guests Enjoy Games and Contests.

The Social club held its first meeting last Wednesday evening at the A. R. Berglund home.

The following officers were elected for the first term: President, Prof. Swails; vice president, Laura Rust; secretary, Emily Eckdahl. The treasurer holds over until the next meeting.

The rooms were decorated in Halloween novelties of black and white with black cats and witches and some really truly ghosts which were to be seen from every viewpoint. The lights casting a reflection over the weird decorations caused a cold chill down one's spinal column. The swaying of the ghostly figures, emitting low mutterings were so superhuman as to strike terror to the hearts of the bravest. Lillian Stendahl and Myrtle Hanson had charge of the program. There was an abundance of Halloween stunts and frolics, several contests, and many games. A delightful lunch was served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be at the Forest Brown home on November 15.

Detective Began to Believe He Was Doomed.

"I thought my case was hopeless until I found Tanlac," declared J. H. Walsh, 606 Portland Ave., St. Paul, Minn., well-known member of the St. Paul detective force.

"For ten long years I was in bad shape from Rheumatism and stomach trouble. Whenever I ventured to eat a meal everything would sour on my stomach. I filled with gas and the pressure around my heart nearly cut off my breath. I had splitting headaches and dizzy spells, was so nervous I could get no restful sleep, and I began to feel I was doomed to spend the rest of my days in suffering. Tanlac went right after my troubles and now I simply feel great. My appetite is ravenous, everything agrees with me, my nerves are steady and I get plenty of refreshing sleep. I am always saying a good word for Tanlac." Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.
